

IMPORTANT NOTICE

NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION IN OR INTO THE UNITED STATES OR TO U.S. PERSONS OR OTHERWISE THAN TO PERSONS TO WHOM IT CAN LAWFULLY BE DISTRIBUTED

IMPORTANT: You must read the following disclaimer before continuing. The following disclaimer applies to the attached offering memorandum. You are advised to read this disclaimer carefully before accessing, reading or making any other use of the attached offering memorandum. In accessing the attached offering memorandum, you agree to be bound by the following terms and conditions, including any modifications to them from time to time, each time you receive any information from us as a result of such access.

CONFIRMATION OF YOUR REPRESENTATION: You have accessed the attached document on the basis that you have confirmed your representation to the issuer and to Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Goldman Sachs International, Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc, Mizuho International plc, Mizuho Securities Asia Limited, Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank, Merrill Lynch International, J.P. Morgan Securities plc, UBS AG Hong Kong Branch, Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas, Credit Suisse (Hong Kong) Limited, Daiwa Capital Markets Europe Limited, ING Bank N.V., Singapore Branch, Nomura International plc and SMBC Nikko Capital Markets Limited (together, the “Initial Purchasers”) that (1) you are not a U.S. Person, as defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) or a dealer or professional fiduciary acting for the benefit or account of a U.S. Person and, to the extent you purchase the securities described in the attached offering memorandum, you will be doing so in an offshore transaction pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act, (2) the electronic mail address to which the attached offering memorandum has been delivered is not located in the United States of America (including the States and the District of Columbia), its territories, its possessions and other areas subject to its jurisdiction (including Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, Guam, American Samoa, Wake Island and the Northern Mariana Islands) or, if you are dealer or other professional fiduciary organized, incorporated, or (if an individual) resident in the United States of America, you are accepting delivery of the attached offering memorandum solely in your capacity as the holder of one or more discretionary accounts for the benefit of, or account of, non-U.S. persons, and (3) you consent to delivery of the attached offering memorandum and any amendments or supplements thereto by electronic transmission. The attached document has been made available to you in electronic form.

You are reminded that documents transmitted via this medium may be altered or changed during the process of transmission and consequently none of the issuer, the Initial Purchasers and their respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees, representatives and agents or any other person controlling the issuer, the Initial Purchasers or any of their respective affiliates accepts any liability or responsibility whatsoever in respect of any discrepancies between the document distributed to you in electronic format and the hard copy version.

ANY SECURITIES TO BE ISSUED HAVE NOT BEEN, AND WILL NOT BE, REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, OR THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES OR OTHER JURISDICTION AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED OR SOLD IN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OR BENEFIT OF, U.S. PERSONS (AS SUCH TERMS ARE DEFINED IN REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT) UNLESS REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR PURSUANT TO AN EXEMPTION FROM SUCH REGISTRATION. YOU ARE NOT AUTHORIZED TO AND YOU MAY NOT FORWARD OR DELIVER THE ATTACHED OFFERING MEMORANDUM, ELECTRONICALLY OR OTHERWISE, TO ANY OTHER PERSON OR REPRODUCE SUCH OFFERING MEMORANDUM IN ANY MANNER WHATSOEVER. ANY FORWARDING, DISTRIBUTION OR REPRODUCTION OF THIS DOCUMENT AND THE ATTACHED OFFERING MEMORANDUM IN WHOLE OR IN PART IS UNAUTHORIZED. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS DIRECTIVE MAY RESULT IN A VIOLATION OF THE SECURITIES ACT OR THE APPLICABLE LAWS OF OTHER JURISDICTIONS.

The materials relating to the offering do not constitute, and may not be used in connection with, an offer or solicitation in any place where offers or solicitations are not permitted by law. No action has been or will be taken in any jurisdiction by the Initial Purchasers or the issuer that would or is intended to, permit a public offering of the securities, or possession or distribution of the offering memorandum (in preliminary, proof or final form) or any other offering or publicity material relating to the securities, in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. If a jurisdiction requires that the offering be made by a licensed broker or dealer and the Initial Purchasers or any affiliate of the Initial Purchasers is a licensed broker or dealer in that jurisdiction, the offering shall be deemed to be made by the Initial Purchasers or such affiliate on behalf of the issuer in such jurisdiction.

This offering memorandum is being distributed only to and directed only at (i) persons who are outside the United Kingdom, (ii) persons who have professional experience in matters relating to investments falling within Article 19(5) of The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, or

(iii) those persons to whom it may otherwise lawfully be distributed (all such persons together being referred to as “relevant persons”). This offering memorandum is directed only at relevant persons and must not be acted on or relied on by persons who are not relevant persons. Any investment or investment activity to which this offering memorandum relates is available only to relevant persons and will be engaged in only with relevant persons.

You are reminded that the attached offering memorandum has been delivered to you on the basis that you are a person into whose possession this offering memorandum may be lawfully delivered in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which you are located and you may not nor are you authorized to deliver this document, electronically or otherwise, to any other person. If you receive this document by e-mail, you should not reply by e-mail to this announcement. Any reply e-mail communications, including those you generate by using the “Reply” function on your e-mail software, will be ignored or rejected. If you receive this document by e-mail, your use of this e-mail is at your own risk and it is your responsibility to take precautions to ensure that it is free from viruses and other items of a destructive nature.

SoftBank Group Corp.

$1,350,000,000 4¾% Senior Notes due 2024

$2,000,000,000 5⅛% Senior Notes due 2027

€1,500,000,000 3⅜% Senior Notes due 2025

€750,000,000 4% Senior Notes due 2029

SoftBank Group Corp. (the “Company”) is offering $1,350,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4¾% Senior Notes due 2024 denominated in U.S. dollars (the “2024 Dollar Notes”), $2,000,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 5⅛% Senior Notes due 2027 denominated in U.S. dollars (the “2027 Dollar Notes” and, together with the 2024 Dollar Notes, the “Dollar Notes”), €1,500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 3⅜% Senior Notes due 2025 denominated in euro (the “2025 Euro Notes”) and €750,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4% Senior Notes due 2029 denominated in euro (the “2029 Euro Notes,” together with the 2025 Euro Notes, the “Euro Notes,” and, together with the Dollar Notes, the “Notes”). The maturity date of the 2024 Dollar Notes is September 19, 2024, the maturity date of the 2025 Euro Notes is September 19, 2025, the maturity date of the 2027 Dollar Notes is September 19, 2027 and the maturity date of the 2029 Euro Notes is September 19, 2029. We will pay interest on the Notes semi-annually in arrears on March 19 and September 19 of each year, commencing March 19, 2018.

The Notes will be general unsecured obligations of the Company. They will rank equally in right of payment with all existing and future debt of the Company that is not contractually subordinated to the Notes or preferred by operation of law and will be senior in right of payment to any future debt of the Company that is contractually subordinated to the Notes. The Notes will effectively be subordinated to any existing and future secured debt of the Company and its subsidiaries, to the extent of the value of the property and assets securing such debt.

The Notes will be guaranteed (the “Note Guarantee”) by SoftBank Corp. The Note Guarantee by SoftBank Corp. will be a general unsecured obligation of SoftBank Corp. The Note Guarantee will rank equally in right of payment with all existing and future debt of SoftBank Corp. that is not contractually subordinated to its Note Guarantee or preferred by operation of law and will be senior in right of payment to any future debt of SoftBank Corp. that is contractually subordinated to its Note Guarantee. The Notes will be structurally subordinated to all existing and future debt or other obligations of any Subsidiary of the Company that does not guarantee the Notes.

At any time prior to the date that is 90 days prior to their respective maturities, we may on any one or more occasions, at our option, redeem all or part of any series of Notes by paying a “make-whole” premium. At any time on or after the date that is 90 days prior to their respective maturities, we may on any one or more occasions redeem all or a part of any series of Notes at par. We may also redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, at any time upon certain changes in tax laws. In the case of a change of control triggering event, we may be required to make an offer to purchase the Notes at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof. See “Description of the Notes.”

Approval in-principle has been received for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the Singapore Exchange Securities Trading Limited (the “SGX-ST”). The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions expressed or information contained in this offering memorandum. Approval in-principle for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the SGX-ST is not to be taken as an indication of the merits of the offering, us, our subsidiaries or associated companies (if any) or the Notes. Currently, there is no public market for the Notes.

The Notes and the Note Guarantees have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “U.S. Securities Act”), or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. The Notes are being offered and sold in offshore transactions outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act (“Regulation S”). The Notes and the Note Guarantees may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S), except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. See “Notice to Investors” for additional information about eligible offerees and transfer restrictions.

Investing in the Notes involves a high degree of risk. See “Risk Factors” beginning on page 12.

Issue Price (expressed as percentage of aggregate principal amount) plus accrued interest from the issue date:

2027 Dollar Notes: 100%

2029 Euro Notes: 100%

The Notes will be represented on issuance by one or more global notes, which we expect will be delivered in book-entry form through Euroclear Bank SA/NV (“Euroclear”) and Clearstream Banking S.A. (“Clearstream”) on or about September 19, 2017 (the “Issue Date”).

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS OFFERING MEMORANDUM

You should rely only on the information contained in this offering memorandum. Neither we nor any of Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, Citigroup Global Markets Limited, Goldman Sachs International, Morgan Stanley & Co. International plc, Mizuho International plc, Mizuho Securities Asia Limited, Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank, Merrill Lynch International, J.P. Morgan Securities plc, UBS AG Hong Kong Branch, Barclays Bank PLC, BNP Paribas, Credit Suisse (Hong Kong) Limited, Daiwa Capital Markets Europe Limited, ING Bank N.V., Singapore Branch, Nomura International plc and SMBC Nikko Capital Markets Limited (the “Initial Purchasers”) have authorized any other person to provide you with information different or inconsistent from what is included in this offering memorandum. If anyone provides you with different or inconsistent information, you should not rely on it.

The information in this offering memorandum is current only as of the date on the cover, and our business or financial condition and other information in this offering memorandum may change after that date. You should not consider any information in this offering memorandum to be legal, business, accounting or tax advice. You should consult your own attorney, business advisor, accountant and tax advisor for legal, business, accounting and tax advice regarding an investment in the Notes. In making an investment decision, you must rely on your own examination of our business and the terms of this offering and the Notes, including the merits and risks involved.

If you purchase the Notes, you will be deemed to have made certain acknowledgements, representations and warranties as detailed under “Notice to Investors.” You may be required to bear the financial risk of an investment in the Notes for an indefinite period. Neither we nor the Initial Purchasers are making an offer to sell the Notes in any jurisdiction where the offer and sale of the Notes is prohibited. We do not make any representation to you that the Notes are a legal investment for you. No action has been, or will be, taken to permit a public offering in any jurisdiction where action would be required for that purpose.

Each prospective purchaser of the Notes must comply with all applicable laws and rules and regulations in force in any jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers or sells the Notes and must obtain any consent, approval or permission required by it for the purchase, offer or sale by it of the Notes under the laws and regulations in force in any jurisdiction to which it is subject or in which it makes such purchases, offers or sales, and neither we nor the Initial Purchasers shall have any responsibility therefor.

This offering memorandum is confidential and we have prepared this offering memorandum solely for use in connection with the offer of the Notes to persons other than U.S. persons in accordance with Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act and for application for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the SGX-ST. This offering memorandum is personal to each offeree and does not constitute an offer to any other person or to the public generally to subscribe for or otherwise acquire the Notes. You agree that you will hold the information contained in this offering memorandum and the transactions contemplated hereby in confidence. You may not distribute this offering memorandum to any person, other than a person retained to advise you in connection with the purchase of the Notes. Each prospective investor, by accepting delivery of this offering memorandum, agrees to the foregoing, and further agrees not to make any photocopies of this offering memorandum or any documents referred to in this offering memorandum.

None of the Initial Purchasers or the Trustee represents or warrants that the information herein is accurate or complete. By receiving this offering memorandum you acknowledge that (i) you have not relied on the Initial Purchasers, the Trustee, any selling agent or any of their affiliates in connection with your investigation of the accuracy of the information in this offering memorandum or your investment decision and (ii) no person has been authorized to give any information or make any representation concerning us or the Notes offered hereby other than as contained herein and, if given or made, such other information or representation should not be relied upon as having been authorized by us, any Initial Purchaser, the Trustee or any U.S. selling agent or any of their affiliates.

We reserve the right to withdraw this offering of the Notes at any time. We and the Initial Purchasers may reject any offer to purchase the Notes in whole or in part, sell less than the entire principal amount of the Notes offered hereby or allocate to any purchaser less than all of the Notes for which it has subscribed.

IN CONNECTION WITH THIS OFFERING, DEUTSCHE BANK AG, LONDON BRANCH (THE “STABILIZING MANAGER”) (OR PERSONS ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE STABILIZING MANAGER) MAY OVER-ALLOT NOTES OR EFFECT TRANSACTIONS WITH A VIEW TO SUPPORTING THE MARKET PRICE OF THE NOTES AT A LEVEL HIGHER THAN THAT WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE PREVAIL. HOWEVER, THERE IS NO ASSURANCE THAT THE STABILIZING MANAGER (OR PERSONS ACTING ON BEHALF OF THE STABILIZING MANAGER) WILL UNDERTAKE STABILIZATION ACTION. ANY STABILIZATION ACTION MAY BEGIN ON OR AFTER THE DATE ON WHICH ADEQUATE PUBLIC DISCLOSURE OF THE FINAL TERMS OF THE OFFER OF THE NOTES IS MADE AND, IF BEGUN, MAY BE ENDED AT ANY TIME, BUT IT MUST END NO LATER THAN THE EARLIER OF 30 DAYS AFTER THE ISSUE DATE OF THE NOTES AND 60 DAYS AFTER THE DATE OF THE ALLOTMENT OF THE NOTES.

The Notes have not been, and will not be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act, or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction in the United States, and may not be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred except to persons other than U.S. persons in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan (Act No. 25 of 1948, as amended) (the “FIEA”), and are subject to the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation of Japan (Act No. 26 of 1957, as amended) (the “Special Taxation Measures Act”). The Notes may not be offered or sold in Japan, to any person resident in Japan, or to others for reoffering or resale directly or indirectly in Japan, or to a person resident in Japan, for Japanese securities law purposes (including any corporation or other entity organized under the laws of Japan) except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with, the FIEA and any other applicable laws, regulations and governmental guidelines of Japan.

In addition, the Notes are not, as part of the initial distribution by the Initial Purchasers at any time, to be directly or indirectly offered or sold to, or for the benefit of, any person other than a gross recipient, except as specifically permitted under the Special Taxation Measures Act. A “gross recipient” for this purpose is (i) a beneficial owner that is, for Japanese tax purposes, neither an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, nor an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a person having a special relationship with the issuer of the Notes as described in Article 6, Paragraph 4 of the Special Taxation Measures Act, (ii) a Japanese financial institution or financial instruments business operator as designated in Article 3-2-2, Paragraph 28 of the Cabinet Order (Cabinet Order No. 43 of 1957, as amended) relating to the Special Taxation Measures Act that will hold Notes for its own proprietary account or (iii) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation whose receipt of interest on the Notes will be made through a payment-handling agent in Japan as defined in Article 2-2, Paragraph 2 of the Cabinet Order. By subscribing for the Notes, an investor will be deemed to have represented that it is a gross recipient.

Interest payments on the Notes will be subject to Japanese withholding tax unless the holder establishes that the Note is held by or for the account of a holder that is (1) for Japanese tax purposes, neither (a) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, nor (b) an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a specially-related person of ours, and in compliance with certain requirements for tax exemption under the Special Taxation Measures Act, or (2) a Japanese designated financial institution or financial instruments business operator as described in Article 6, Paragraph 9 of the Special Taxation Measures Act which complies with the requirement for tax exemption under that Paragraph.

NOTICE TO CERTAIN INVESTORS

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN THE EUROPEAN ECONOMIC AREA

This offering memorandum has been prepared on the basis that all offers of the Notes will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Directive in any Member State of the European Economic Area, which has implemented the Prospectus Directive (each, a “Relevant Member State”), from the requirement to produce a prospectus for offers of the Notes. Accordingly, any person making or intending to make any offer within a Relevant Member State of the Notes, which are the subject of the placement contemplated in this offering memorandum, should only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for us or any of the Initial Purchasers to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive for such offer. Neither we nor the Initial Purchasers have authorized nor do we or they authorize: (i) the making of any offer of the Notes through any financial intermediary, other than offers made by the Initial Purchasers which constitute the final placement of the Notes contemplated in this offering memorandum; or (ii) the making of any offer of the Notes in circumstances in which an obligation arises for us or any initial purchaser to publish a prospectus for such offer.

In relation to each Relevant Member State, with effect from and including the date on which the Prospectus Directive is implemented in that Relevant Member State, no offer to the public of the Notes, which are the subject of the placement contemplated by this offering memorandum, may be made in that Relevant Member State except other than:

- (a) to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;

- (b) to fewer than 150 natural or legal persons (other than qualified investors, as defined in the Prospectus Directive), subject to obtaining the prior consent of the Initial Purchasers or purchasers nominated by us for any such offer; or
- (c) in any other circumstances falling within Article 3(2) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of the Notes shall result in a requirement for us or any initial purchaser to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive.

For the purposes of this provision, the expression an “offer to the public” in relation to any notes in any Relevant Member State means the communication in any form and by any means of sufficient information on the terms of the offer and the Notes to be offered so as to enable an investor to decide to purchase or subscribe for the Notes, as the same may be varied in that Relevant Member State by any measure implementing the Prospectus Directive in that Relevant Member State; the expression “Prospectus Directive” means Directive 2003/71/EC (as amended, including by Directive 2010/73/EU), and includes any relevant implementing measure in the Relevant Member State.

The Notes are being offered hereunder in minimum subscription amounts of €100,000 or $200,000.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN BAHRAIN

In relation to investors in Bahrain, the Notes and related offering documents may only be offered in registered form to existing accountholders and accredited investors as defined by the Central Bank of Bahrain (the “CBB”) in Bahrain where such investors make a minimum investment of at least $100,000 or any equivalent amount in other currency or such other amount as the CBB may determine.

This offering memorandum does not constitute an offer of securities in Bahrain in terms of Article (81) of the Central Bank and Financial Institutions Law 2006 (decree Law No. 64 of 2006). This offering memorandum and related offering documents have not been and will not be registered as a prospectus with the CBB. Accordingly, no securities may be offered, sold or made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase nor will this offering memorandum or any other related document or material be used in connection with any offer, sale or invitation to subscribe or purchase securities, whether directly or indirectly, to persons in Bahrain, other than to accredited investors for an offer outside Bahrain.

The CBB has not reviewed, approved or registered this offering memorandum or related offering documents and it has not in any way considered the merits of the Notes to be offered for investment, whether in or outside Bahrain. Therefore, the CBB assumes no responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the statements and information contained in this offering memorandum and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from reliance upon the whole or any part of the content of this offering memorandum. No offer of securities will be made to the public in Bahrain and this offering memorandum must be read by the addressee only and must not be issued, passed, or made available to the public generally.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN HONG KONG

The Notes may not be offered or sold in Hong Kong by means of any document other than (i) in circumstances which do not constitute an offer to the public within the meaning of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous provisions) Ordinance (Cap. 32, Laws of Hong Kong), (ii) to “professional investors” within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571, Laws of Hong Kong) and any rules made thereunder, or (iii) in other circumstances which do not result in the document being a “prospectus” within the meaning of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous provisions) Ordinance (Cap. 32, Laws of Hong Kong) and no advertisement, invitation or document relating to the Notes may be issued or may be in the possession of any person for the purpose of issue (in each case whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere), which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public in Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the laws of Hong Kong) other than with respect to the Notes which are, or are intended to be, disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to “professional investors” within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571, Laws of Hong Kong) and any rules made thereunder.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN NORWAY

This offering memorandum is not a prospectus and has not been prepared in accordance with the prospectus requirements provided for in the Norwegian Securities Trading Act (Norw. Lov om verdipapirhandel, L29.06.2007 nr 75) nor any other Norwegian enactment. Neither the Norwegian Financial Supervisory Authority (Norw. Finanstilsynet) nor any other Norwegian public body has examined, approved or registered this offering memorandum or will examine, approve or register this offering memorandum. Accordingly, this offering memorandum may not be made available, nor may the Notes otherwise be marketed and offered for sale, in Norway other than in circumstances that are deemed not to be an offer to the public, which would require a prospectus under the Norwegian Securities Trading Act.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN SAUDI ARABIA

This offering memorandum may not be distributed in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia except to such persons as are permitted under the Offers of Securities Regulations issued by the Capital Market Authority of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (the “Capital Market Authority”).

The Capital Market Authority does not make any representations as to the accuracy or completeness of this offering memorandum, and expressly disclaims any liability whatsoever for any loss arising from, or incurred in reliance upon, any part of this offering memorandum. Prospective purchasers of the Notes should conduct their own due diligence on the accuracy of the information relating to the Notes. If a prospective purchaser does not understand the contents of this offering memorandum, he or she should consult an authorized financial advisor.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN SINGAPORE

This offering memorandum has not been registered as a prospectus with the Monetary Authority of Singapore. Accordingly, this offering memorandum and any other document or material in connection with the offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of the Notes may not be circulated or distributed, nor may the Notes be offered or sold, or be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase, whether directly or indirectly, to persons in Singapore other than (i) to an institutional investor under Section 274 of the Securities and Futures Act, Chapter 289 of Singapore (the “SFA”), (ii) to a relevant person pursuant to Section 275(1), or any person pursuant to Section 275(1A), and in accordance with the conditions specified in Section 275, of the SFA, or (iii) otherwise pursuant to, and in accordance with the conditions of, any other applicable provision of the SFA.

Where the Notes are subscribed or purchased under Section 275 of the SFA by a relevant person which is:

- (a) a corporation (which is not an accredited investor (as defined in Section 4A of the SFA)), the sole business of which is to hold investments and the entire share capital of which is owned by one or more individuals, each of whom is an accredited investor; or
- (b) a trust (where the trustee is not an accredited investor) whose sole purpose is to hold investments and each beneficiary of the trust is an individual who is an accredited investor, securities (as defined in Section 239(1) of the SFA) of that corporation or the beneficiaries’ rights and interest (howsoever described) in that trust shall not be transferred within six months after that corporation or that trust has acquired the Notes pursuant to an offer made under Section 275 of the SFA except:

- (1) to an institutional investor or to a relevant person defined in Section 275(2) of the SFA, or to any person arising from an offer referred to in Section 275(1A) or Section 276(4)(i)(B) of the SFA;
- (2) where no consideration is or will be given for the transfer;
- (3) where the transfer is by operation of law;
- (4) as specified in Section 276(7) of the SFA; or
- (5) as specified in Regulation 32 of the Securities and Futures (Offers of Investments) (Shares and Debentures) Regulations 2005 of Singapore.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN SWITZERLAND

This offering memorandum, as well as any other material relating to the Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this offering memorandum, does not constitute a public offering prospectus pursuant to article 652a or article 1156 of the Swiss Code of Obligations and may not comply with the Directive for Notes of Foreign Borrowers of the Swiss Bankers Association. The Notes may not be publicly offered, sold or advertised, directly or indirectly, in, into or from Switzerland and will not be listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd., and, therefore, the documents relating to the Notes, including, but not limited to, this offering memorandum, do not claim to comply with the disclosure standards of the Swiss Code of Obligations and the listing rules of SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd. and corresponding prospectus schemes annexed to the listing rules of the SIX Swiss Exchange Ltd. The Notes are being offered in Switzerland by way of a private placement (i.e., to a limited number of selected investors only), without any public advertisement and only to investors who do not purchase the Notes with the intention to distribute them to the public. The investors will be individually approached directly from time to time. This offering memorandum, as well as any other material relating to the Notes, is personal and confidential and does not constitute an offer to any other person. This offering memorandum, as well as any other material relating to the Notes, may only be used by those investors to whom it has been handed out in connection with the offering described herein and may neither directly nor indirectly be distributed or made available to other persons without the Company's express consent. This offering memorandum, as well as any other material relating to the Notes, may not be used in connection with any other offer and shall in particular not be copied or distributed to the public in (or from) Switzerland.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

The issue and distribution of this offering memorandum is restricted by law. This offering memorandum is not being distributed by, nor has it been approved for the purposes of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the "FSMA") by, a person authorized under the FSMA. This offering memorandum is only being distributed to and is only directed at persons who (i) are outside the United Kingdom, (ii) have professional experience in matters relating to investments (being investment professionals falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, as amended (the "Financial Promotion Order")), (iii) fall within Article 49(2)(a) to (d) ("high net worth companies, unincorporated associations, etc.") of the Financial Promotion Order, or (iv) to the extent that doing so does not prejudice the lawful distribution of this offering memorandum to the foregoing, are persons to whom an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the FSMA) in connection with the issue or sale of any Notes may otherwise lawfully be communicated or caused to be communicated (all such persons together being referred to as "relevant persons"). This offering memorandum must not be acted or relied upon by persons who are not relevant persons. Any investment or investment activity to which this offering memorandum relates is available only to relevant persons and will be engaged in only with relevant persons. No part of this offering memorandum should be published, reproduced, distributed or otherwise made available in whole or in part to any other person in the United Kingdom without the prior written consent of the Company. The Notes are not being offered or sold to any person in the United Kingdom, except in circumstances which will not result in an offer of securities to the public in the United Kingdom within the meaning of Part VI of the FSMA.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN QATAR

This offering memorandum does not and is not intended to constitute an offer, sale or delivery of bonds or other debt-financing instruments under the laws of Qatar and has not been and will not be reviewed or approved by or registered with the Qatar Financial Markets Authority, the Qatar Financial Centre Regulatory Authority or the Qatar Central Bank in accordance with their regulations or any other regulations in Qatar. The Notes are not and will not be traded on the Qatar Exchange.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS

The distribution of this offering memorandum and the offer and sale or resale of the Notes may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. Persons into whose possession this offering memorandum (or any part hereof) comes are required by us and the Initial Purchasers to inform themselves about, and to observe, any such restrictions.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This offering memorandum includes forward-looking statements. In some cases these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of terminology such as "aim," "anticipate," "believe," "continue," "could," "estimate," "expect," "forecast," "guidance," "may," "plan," "potential," "predict," "projected," "should," or "will" or, in each case, the negative of such terms, or other variations or comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements appear in a number of places throughout this offering memorandum and include, but are not limited to, statements regarding our intentions, beliefs or current expectations concerning, among other things, our results of operations, financial condition, liquidity, prospects, growth, strategies and the industries in which we operate.

By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that may or may not occur in the future. We caution you that forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and that our actual results of operations, financial condition and liquidity, and the development of the industries in which we operate may differ materially from those made in or suggested by the forward-looking statements contained in this offering memorandum. In addition, even if our results of operations, financial condition and liquidity, and the development of the industries in which we operate are consistent with the forward-looking statements contained in this offering memorandum, such results or developments may not be indicative of results or developments in subsequent periods. Important factors that could cause those differences include, but are not limited to:

- Any adverse conditions in the economy could adversely affect us.
- Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may have a negative impact on our results of operations presented in Japanese yen.
- We face risks associated with operation and investment in multiple markets, and if we are unable to manage these risks effectively, it could impair our ability to expand our business.
- The loss of key senior management personnel, including Mr. Masayoshi Son in particular, could negatively affect our business.
- Fast-paced innovations in technology and business models, as well as alternative telecommunication technologies may make our services, technology or business models obsolete.
- We face intense competition, including from other large and established competitors, and such competition may intensify.
- We depend on the satisfactory performance of our network systems and sufficient spectrum to operate our telecommunications services.
- We depend on the telecommunications lines and facilities of other companies in certain circumstances and could be materially and adversely affected if our access was restricted or terminated or if related utilization or connection fees were increased.
- We purchase and lease various equipment, products and services from suppliers and our inability to procure such equipment, products and services or defects therein could adversely affect our business.
- We rely on subcontractors and other third parties for certain of our operations.
- Our financial results may be significantly affected by cost of fund procurement and leasing.
- A downgrade of the credit rating of the Company or our subsidiaries could have a negative effect on us.
- The acquisition of other companies, businesses or technologies, such as the acquisition of Arm, could result in operating difficulties, dilution or other harmful consequences.
- Our financial results may be significantly affected by risks relating to Sprint, its operations and financial performance.
- Our business development may be significantly affected by risks relating to Arm's operations.
- Our financial results may be significantly affected by risks relating to the SVF, its operations and financial performance.
- Our holdings in Sprint, Yahoo Japan and our strategic associates such as Alibaba will not necessarily generate cash that can be used to pay principal or interest on the Notes or our other indebtedness.
- Other factors discussed in this offering memorandum.

We urge you to read the sections of this offering memorandum entitled "Risk Factors," "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" and "Business" for a more complete discussion of the factors that could affect our future performance and the industries in which we operate. In light of these risks, uncertainties and assumptions, the forward-looking events described in this offering memorandum may not occur.

We undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to us or to persons acting on our behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above and contained elsewhere in this offering memorandum.

ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL LIABILITIES

We are a limited liability company (kabushiki kaisha) established under the laws of Japan. The majority of our directors and most of our management reside in Japan, and a substantial portion of our assets and the assets of such persons are located in Japan. As a result, it may not be possible for investors to effect service of process within the United States upon us or such persons, or to enforce against us or such persons judgments obtained in U.S. courts in actions such as those predicated upon the civil liability provisions of U.S. federal or state securities laws. We have been advised by our Japanese counsel, Mori Hamada & Matsumoto, that there is doubt as to the enforceability in Japan, in original actions or in actions for enforcement of judgments of U.S. courts brought before Japanese courts, of liabilities predicated solely upon U.S. federal or state securities laws.

Solely for your convenience, this offering memorandum contains translations of certain yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts.

Unless otherwise indicated, yen amounts have been translated into U.S. dollars at the rate of ¥112.00 = $1.00 and from euros at the rate of ¥127.97 = €1, the approximate rates of exchange based on the average of buying and selling rates of telegraphic transfers from The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd. as of 10:00 a.m. (Tokyo time), prevailing as of June 30, 2017. However, these translations should not be construed as representations that the yen amounts have been, could have been or could be converted into U.S. dollars at those or any other rates.

PRESENTATION OF FINANCIAL INFORMATION

General

The consolidated financial statements and selected historical financial information for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2016 and 2017 and for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 included in this offering memorandum are presented in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) and, with respect to the financial information for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, International Accounting Standards (“IAS”) 34 “Interim Financial Reporting.” Financial information of Sprint is also presented in IFRS unless otherwise specified as presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“US-GAAP”). Our annual consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this offering memorandum are audited by our independent auditor, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC, and the unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this offering memorandum have been subjected to quarterly review procedures by our independent auditor in accordance with standards generally accepted in Japan.

Except as otherwise indicated, all financial information with respect to us presented in this offering memorandum is presented on a consolidated basis.

Where information is presented in trillions, billions, millions or other stated amounts, amounts of less than the stated amount have been rounded. As a result, certain numerical figures shown in tables in this offering memorandum may not be exact arithmetic aggregations of the figures that precede them. All percentages have been rounded to the nearest one tenth of one percent or one hundredth of one percent, as the case may be.

With respect to the presentation of historical financial information, in our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, we have presented prior period financial information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 on the same basis of presentation adopted for fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, and have therefore reclassified certain accounting items as originally reported in the previously issued consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. For more information, see Note 2(4) to our audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, which are included elsewhere in this offering memorandum. We have not retrospectively revised and re-issued our financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 to reflect the same changes in accounting policies adopted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

In our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, we have presented prior period financial information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 on the same basis of presentation adopted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, and have therefore reclassified certain accounting items as originally reported the same in the previously issued consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015. For more information, see Note 2(4) to our audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, which are included elsewhere in this offering memorandum.

Segment Information

Our reportable segments are the components of our business activities for which separate resource allocation and performance assessments are made. We currently have six reportable segments: Domestic Telecommunications, Sprint, Yahoo Japan, Distribution, Arm and SVF, as well as a segment for other sources of revenue and costs not otherwise allocated.

During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, we revised our segment classifications and changed our reportable segments to better align with our strategic goals. Following this revision, our segments included Domestic Telecommunications, Sprint, Yahoo Japan, Distribution and Other. The segment financial information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 presented in this offering memorandum was extracted from the comparative segment financial information included in our consolidated financial report for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. The segment information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 appearing therein was revised to reflect the changes made to our reportable segments during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. As a result, the segment financial information appearing in this offering memorandum is not directly comparable to the segment financial information appearing in our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015. For more information about the changes made to reportable segments in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, see Section 1.1(b) “Results by Segment” of our consolidated financial report as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 presented elsewhere in this offering memorandum.

We acquired Arm on September 5, 2016 and began consolidating its financial results on September 6, 2016. Following Arm’s acquisition, we revised our segment classifications to include Arm as a reportable segment. See our consolidated financial report for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 presented elsewhere in this offering memorandum for further discussion.

We completed the initial closing for the SVF on May 20, 2017 and revised our segment classifications to include SVF as a reportable segment. See our consolidated financial report for the three months ended June 30, 2017 presented elsewhere in this offering memorandum for further discussion.

Adjusted Financial Data

We present in this offering memorandum certain unaudited adjusted financial data (on a consolidated basis) that have been adjusted to reflect certain effects of (i) our July 2017 issuance of $2.75 billion in aggregate principal amount of the Company's 6.000% Undated Subordinated NC6 Resettable Notes (the "NC6 Hybrid Notes") and $1.75 billion in aggregate principal amount of the Company's 6.875% Undated Subordinated NC10 Resettable Notes (the "NC10 Hybrid Notes" and, together with the NC6 Hybrid Notes, the "Hybrid Notes"), (ii) our receipt of $3,267 million (¥366 billion) in reimbursements in connection with certain assets (including our holdings in NVIDIA Corporation and Guardant Health, Inc.) that we have agreed to transfer to the SVF as of June 30, 2017, (iii) our receipt of additional amounts of $2,998 million (¥336 billion) in reimbursements in connection with assets (including our holdings in Xiaoju Kuaizhi Inc. and OSISOFT LLC) that we plan, subject to the approval of the SVF, to transfer to entities in our SVF segment as of June 30, 2017 and (iv) $189 million (¥21 billion) that we expect to receive in connection with our sale of Supercell on our total interest-bearing debt, cash and cash equivalents and net interest-bearing debt as if each had occurred on June 30, 2017. Under IFRS, the yen-denominated hybrid bonds that we issued in September 2016 are considered debt and the Hybrid Notes that we issued in July 2017 are considered equity. With respect to the adjusted financial information presented in this offering memorandum, we have treated 50% of the carrying amount of our yen-denominated hybrid bonds issued in September 2016 as equity and 50% of the net proceeds of the Hybrid Notes as debt for the purposes of consistency and to align with the treatment presently applied for such securities for ratings purposes by S&P and JCR. See "Summary—Adjusted Financial Data" and "Capitalization." Such adjusted financial data has not been adjusted for the announced acquisition of Fortress. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Recent Developments" and "Presentation of Financial Information."

Our historical results may not be indicative of our future results following consummation of this offering. The adjusted financial data has not been prepared in accordance with the requirements of Regulation S-X of the Securities Act, the Prospectus Directive or any generally accepted accounting standards. Neither the assumptions underlying the pro forma adjustments nor the resulting adjusted financial data have been audited or reviewed in accordance with any generally accepted auditing standards.

Non-IFRS Financial Measures

In this offering memorandum we present certain financial measures that are not required by or presented in accordance with IFRS, including "Adjusted EBITDA," "Capital Expenditure (acceptance basis)," "Cash Position," "Free Cash Flow" and "Net Interest-Bearing Debt" because we believe they provide investors with useful additional information to measure our performance, liquidity or capital expenditures. The information presented by the non-IFRS financial measures included in this offering memorandum is unaudited and is not intended to and does not comply with the reporting requirements of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the Prospectus Directive or generally accepted accounting standards.

Adjusted EBITDA

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as operating income and loss after addition of depreciation and amortization, deduction of gain from remeasurement relating to business combination in our Yahoo Japan and Arm segments, addition or deduction of unrealized gain and loss on valuation of investments in our SVF segment, and other adjustments (gains are deducted). Other adjustments are special items such as acquisition-related costs and impairment loss mainly included in other operating income and loss. These adjustments include gain on spectrum license exchange and loss on contract termination in our Sprint segment, loss on disaster in our Yahoo Japan segment, impairment loss on goodwill in the distribution segment and acquisition-related costs in our Arm segment. Pro Forma Adjusted EBITDA for the 12 months ended June 30, 2017 is calculated as the sum of Adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 (¥2,564 billion) and Adjusted EBITDA for the three months ended June 30, 2017 (¥700 billion), minus Adjusted EBITDA for the three months ended June 30, 2016 (¥678 billion), plus and an annualization adjustment of ¥14 billion to reflect the contribution from Arm as if it had been consolidated as of July 1, 2016 rather than the historical first date of consolidation, September 5, 2016.

Adjusted EBITDA should not be considered in isolation or as substitutes for measures of our operating performance or liquidity reported in accordance with IFRS. Adjusted EBITDA has limitations as do any analytical tools, some of which are as follows:

- Adjusted EBITDA does not reflect the significant interest expense on our debt or the cash requirements necessary to service interest or principal payments on our debt;

- although depreciation and amortization are non-cash charges, the assets being depreciated and amortized will often have to be replaced in the future, and Adjusted EBITDA does not reflect any cash requirements for such replacements;
- Adjusted EBITDA excludes certain tax payments that may represent a reduction in cash available to us;
- other companies in the industry in which we operate may calculate Adjusted EBITDA differently than we do, limiting their usefulness as comparative measures; and
- our calculation and presentation of Adjusted EBITDA in this offering memorandum is similar to, but different from, the calculation of Adjusted EBITDA under certain of the agreements and instruments governing our indebtedness. Accordingly, Adjusted EBITDA does not provide precise indications as to the level of our adherence to the terms of such indebtedness.

Because of these limitations, we rely primarily on our IFRS financial information and use Adjusted EBITDA only to supplement such information. You are encouraged to evaluate each of the adjustments reflected in our presentation of Adjusted EBITDA and whether you consider each to be appropriate.

Capital Expenditure (Acceptance Basis)

Capital expenditure (cash flow basis) refers to the purchase of property and equipment and intangibles as reported in our audited or reviewed cash flow statements prepared in accordance with IFRS. Capital expenditure (acceptance basis) differs from Capital expenditure (cash flow basis) in that capital expenditures recorded on an acceptance basis are recognized on an inspection and acceptance basis to accurately reflect when we capitalize the purchase of property and equipment and intangibles. Capital expenditure (acceptance basis) should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for capital expenditure reported (cash flow basis) as reported in accordance with IFRS.

Cash Position

Cash position refers to cash and cash equivalents plus short-term investments. Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash, demand deposits and investments with maturities of three-month or less that are readily convertible to cash and subject to insignificant risk of change in value. Short-term investments consist of marketable securities and time deposits (maturities of over three months) and other recorded as current assets.

Guarantor Financial Information

This offering memorandum presents certain financial information presented under accounting principles generally accepted in Japan (“JGAAP”) for SoftBank Corp. JGAAP differs materially in certain respects from IFRS as applied in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements contained elsewhere in this offering memorandum, and line items under JGAAP cannot be compared to similar line items under IFRS. Certain differences include:

- Treatment of handset sales commissions. Under JGAAP, commission fees related to sales of mobile handsets that the Company pays to dealers of mobile handsets were expensed as incurred. Under IFRS, such commission fees are deducted from the related revenues; and
- Recording of certain accounts receivable securitizations on our balance sheet. Regarding certain securitization transactions that qualify for extinguishment of financial assets under JGAAP, securitized receivables are recognized and accompanying liabilities are recognized as interest-bearing debt under IFRS when they are not qualified for derecognition of financial assets under IFRS.

Due to the above and other differences, the JGAAP financial information of SoftBank Corp. included elsewhere in this offering memorandum is not comparable to our consolidated IFRS financial information, and we have made no attempt to identify or quantify the impact of these differences between JGAAP and IFRS. In making an investment decision, investors must rely upon their own examination of our business, the terms of the offerings and the financial information herein. Potential investors should consult with their own professional advisors for an understanding of the differences between JGAAP and IFRS, and how those differences might affect the financial information herein.

The results of the Domestic Telecommunications segment include contributions from entities other than the Note Guarantor, including Wireless City Planning. Material reconciliations and eliminations of intra-group transactions, which have not been applied, are necessary to calculate the Note Guarantor’s historical financial information.

Net Interest-Bearing Debt

Net interest-bearing debt refers to interest-bearing debt minus financial liabilities relating to the sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract minus cash position.

Free Cash Flow

Free cash flow for our Domestic Telecommunications segment refers to the sum of net cash provided by operating activities and net cash used in investing activities adjusted to exclude certain intra-group brand licensing fee payments and cash flows from intra-group financing transactions.

PRESENTATION OF OPERATIONAL INFORMATION

Market and Industry Data

In this offering memorandum, we rely on and refer to statistical and other information regarding our business and the markets in which we operate and compete. The market data and certain economic and industry data and forecasts used in this offering memorandum were obtained from market research, governmental and other publicly available information, industry publications and reports prepared by industry consultants. Industry publications and other third-party surveys and forecasts generally state that the information contained therein has been obtained from sources believed to be reliable, but that the accuracy and completeness of such information is not guaranteed. While we have endeavored to accurately extract and reproduce data from such sources, we have not independently verified such data and cannot guarantee the accuracy or completeness thereof.

As noted in this offering memorandum, we have obtained market and industry data relating to our business from providers of industry data, including:

- BMI Research (“BMI Research”), a provider of economic, industry and financial market analysis. BMI Research provides historical information and forecasts about the U.S. and Japanese telecommunications markets—both fixed and mobile—for the calendar year ended December 31, 2016.
- International Data Corporation (“IDC”) Worldwide Telecommunications Markets, a provider of market intelligence and advisory services for the information technology, telecommunications and consumer technology markets. This source provides historic market data and forecasts related to user spending in fixed and mobile telecommunications markets globally.
- The World Bank, an international financial institution and data aggregator. The World Bank collects and possesses large amounts of data, which it makes available to the public. This source provides per capita gross domestic product statistics.
- Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications (“MIC”), a Japanese government ministry held with overseeing, among other things, administration of information and communications systems. This source provides volume, subscriber and market share information for the fixed, mobile and broadband telecommunications industries.
- Telecommunications Carriers Association (“TCA”), a Japanese telecommunications industry trade group that researches and tracks matters of importance in the telecommunications industry. This source provides historical subscriber information on a quarterly basis for Japanese mobile telecommunications firms, by group, carrier and firm.
- Ovum Ltd. (“Ovum”), a provider of analysis covering the IT and telecommunications industries. Ovum provides historical information and forecasts about international and Japanese mobile telecommunications markets.
- World Semiconductor Trade Statistics (“WSTS”), an independent nonprofit organization of semiconductor product companies, providing worldwide semiconductor market data and forecasts.

Additionally, certain market data contained in this offering memorandum is from Agoop Corp., our subsidiary that produces and operates a mobile application that aggregates data connectivity information.

Market Share Data

In this offering memorandum, we make reference to our market share and the market shares of our competitors. We measure our market share by number of subscribers. Our subscriber data comes from internal information and includes subscribers under both the SoftBank and Y!mobile brands (including PHS). Subscriber data for our competitors, NTT DOCOMO and KDDI, is derived from TCA.

Key Performance Indicators

Domestic Telecommunications Segment

We utilize number of subscribers, ARPU, churn rate and upgrade rate to analyze and develop strategies for our sales channels and mobile services. We believe these measures are important in understanding the performance of our mobile operations and facilitate operating performance comparisons.

Subscribers. The number of mobile service subscriber is based on the cumulative number of assigned telephone numbers, including telephone numbers assigned to tablets, modules and PHS. The number of SoftBank Hikari subscribers is based on the cumulative number of users for which the physical connection of a fiber-optic line at the central office of Nippon Telegraph and Telephone East Corporation (“NTT East”) or Nippon Telegraph and Telephone West Corporation (“NTT West”) has been completed and includes the number of subscribers to SoftBank Air.

Main mobile subscribers. Subscribers of smartphones, feature phones, tablets, mobile data communications devices and others, such as voice call SIMs. These are all sources of revenue and profit and we have concentrated its efforts on acquiring and maintaining such subscribers.

ARPU. We measure the average monthly revenue generated per customer, or ARPU, in our Domestic Telecommunications segment. ARPU for our main mobile subscribers for a given month is calculated as (i) data-related revenue, basic monthly charge, voice-related revenues, device warranty services, content-related revenues and advertising revenues, etc., for the month, divided by (ii) the number of active main mobile subscribers at the beginning of the month, plus the number of active main mobile subscribers at the end of the month, divided by two and rounded to the nearest ¥10. The calculation of ARPU excludes revenues that are not representative of monthly average usage such, as initial activation charges, certain domestic in-roaming charges by overseas visitors and cancellation fees.

Churn. The number of main mobile subscribers who terminate their service in any particular period. Churn rate is a measure that tracks customer retention by showing the percentage of subscribers who terminate their service (excluding subscribers who switch between SoftBank and Y!mobile using mobile number portability (“MNP”)), or churn, relative to the total main mobile subscriber base for a given period. We calculate churn rate by dividing the total number of main mobile subscribers who terminated their service in the relevant period by the average number of main mobile subscribers for the same period. The average number of main mobile subscribers for a given month is the average of the number of main mobile subscribers at the beginning of the month and the number of main mobile subscribers at the end of the month. To calculate churn rate for multi-month periods, which is presented as a monthly average, we divide the total number of main mobile subscribers who terminated their service in the relevant months by the sum of the average number of main subscribers for each month in the period.

Sprint Segment

Sprint utilizes subscribers, ARPU, ABPU and churn rate to analyze and develop strategies for its sales channels and mobile services as these measures are important in understanding the performance of Sprint’s mobile operations and facilitate operating performance comparisons.

Subscribers. A subscriber is defined as an individual line of service associated with each device activated by a customer. Subscribers that transfer from their original service category classification to another platform, or another service line within the same platform, are reflected as a net loss to the original service category and a net addition to their new service category. There is no net effect for such subscriber changes to the total wireless net additions (losses) or end-of-period subscribers. Additionally, the number of subscribers may be affected by regulatory changes. For example, as a result of the recent tightening of restrictions on the Lifeline Program (which is a benefit program run by the U.S. government that provides discounts on monthly telephone service for eligible low-income subscribers to help ensure that they can connect to the nation’s communications networks), Sprint no longer reports Lifeline connections in its customer base. This resulted in the removal of 6.1 million connections at the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

ARPU. The average monthly revenue generated per customer (“ARPU”) is calculated by dividing service revenue by the sum of the monthly average number of subscribers in the applicable service category. Changes in average monthly service revenue reflect subscribers for either the postpaid or prepaid service category who change rate plans, the level of voice and data usage, and the amount of service credits which are offered to subscribers, plus the net effect of average monthly revenue generated by new subscribers and deactivating subscribers.

ABPU. Sprint tracks and discloses average billings per customer (“ABPU”) in addition to ARPU. ABPU is calculated by dividing service revenue and equipment billings (representing installment billings under its installment billing programs and lease fees under our lease programs) by the sum of the monthly average number of subscribers in the applicable service category.

Churn. The number of customers who terminate their service in any particular period. Postpaid and prepaid churn consist of both voluntary churn, where the subscriber makes his or her own determination to cease being a subscriber, and involuntary churn, where the subscriber’s service is terminated due to a lack of payment or other reasons. Churn rate is a measure that tracks customer retention by showing the percentage of subscribers who terminate their service, or churn, relative to the total subscriber base for a given period. Churn rate is calculated by dividing net subscriber deactivations for the quarter by the sum of the average number of subscribers for each month in the quarter. For postpaid accounts comprising multiple subscribers, such as family plans and enterprise accounts, net deactivations are defined as deactivations in excess of subscriber activations in a particular account within 30 days. During the three months ended June 30, 2017, Sprint enhanced subscriber reporting to better align certain early-life gross activations and deactivations. Prior to this enhancement, a newly acquired customer who discontinued service shortly after activation would have contributed to both gross additions and deactivations. Following the enhancement, such a customer would be deducted from gross additions. This enhancement had no impact to net additions, but did result in reporting lower gross additions and lower deactivations as well as lower churn rates in the quarter. Without this enhancement, postpaid phone churn for the three months ended June 30, 2017 would have been 1.58% versus 1.50%.

TRADEMARKS

We own or have rights to use the trademarks, service marks and trade names that we use in conjunction with the operation of our business. One of the more important trademarks that we own that appears in this offering memorandum is “SoftBank,” which is registered in Japan and registered and/or pending registration in other jurisdictions, as appropriate to the needs of the relevant business. Each trademark, trade name or service mark of any other company appearing in this offering memorandum is the property of its respective owner.

SUMMARY

The following summary is qualified in its entirety by, and is subject to, the more detailed information and financial statements contained elsewhere in this offering memorandum. Certain capitalized terms used but not defined in this summary are used herein as defined elsewhere in this offering memorandum. Prospective investors should carefully consider the information set forth under the caption “Presentation of Financial Information,” “Risk Factors” and all other information in this offering memorandum, prior to making an investment in the Notes.

The Company

Overview

We are a leading global technology company that aspires to drive the Information Revolution. We are a holding company, SoftBank Group Corp., and its global portfolio of subsidiaries and associates, which include advanced telecommunications, internet services, robotics, Internet of Things (“IoT”) and clean energy technology providers.

SoftBank Corp. is the core company in our Domestic Telecommunications business, which comprises 35% of our consolidated net sales, and 47% of our consolidated Adjusted EBITDA and a primary source of our cash flow, in each case for the three months ended June 30, 2017, and it is one of Japan’s leading mobile communications providers with approximately 42.0 million subscribers, as of June 30, 2017, and approximately 25% subscriber market share, according to TCA and Company data.

We helped transform the Japanese smartphone market when we were the first to offer the iPhone in Japan in 2008 and built a brand centered on the mobile internet—data-intensive, highly connected and reliable. Our unique brand and outperformance have also been supported by high quality LTE network infrastructure, well developed over a recently completed cycle of significant capital expenditure, which covers nearly all of the population of Japan, with robust and reliable connectivity. We have two mobile service brands, SoftBank and Y!mobile. Our flagship SoftBank brand focuses on the high-end of the market, including the most profitable segment of the mobile market, which we believe to be data-intensive smartphone users (mostly iPhone). We also offer the Y!mobile brand, targeting the low-cost smartphone market to capture first-time, younger or more cost conscious customers.

We combine our stable and profitable domestic telecommunications operations with selected strategic investments in global internet, technology and communications companies, differentiating us from other mobile operators and providing opportunities for mutually advantageous growth among our group companies. Our leadership team is led by Japan’s technology and business innovator, Masayoshi Son, our founder, Chairman and CEO.

- We control one of the four largest telecommunications operators in the United States, Sprint, which had a market capitalization of ¥3,885 billion ($34,685 million) as of June 30, 2017.
- We control Yahoo Japan, which operates Japan’s most frequently visited portal site offering a wide range of internet services with a market capitalization of ¥2,784 billion ($24,855 million) as of June 30, 2017.
- We own Brightstar, one of the world’s largest specialized wireless device distributors in terms of net sales.
- We own Arm, a British company specializing in the design of microprocessor intellectual property.
- We invest in and several of our overseas subsidiaries manage, as its general partners (each, a “General Partner”), the SVF, a unique investment fund intended to make investments in a wide range of technology sectors globally. In May 2017, we completed the first closing of the SVF with $93.2 billion in committed capital.
- We hold a significant minority stake in one of the world’s largest e-commerce companies, Alibaba, with a market value of our owned shares of ¥10,430 billion ($93,126 million) (excluding shares subject to sale pursuant to a variable prepaid forward contract) as of June 30, 2017.

We generated net sales of ¥8,901 billion ($79,473 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and ¥2,186 billion ($19,518 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017, of which ¥3,194 billion

($28,516 million) (35.9%) and ¥756 billion ($6,747 million) (34.6%) were contributed by our Domestic Telecommunications segment, respectively. We generated Adjusted EBITDA of ¥2,564 billion ($22,897 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and ¥700 billion ($6,251 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017, of which ¥1,209 billion ($10,795 million) (47.1%) and ¥329 billion ($2,942 million) (47.1%) were contributed by our Domestic Telecommunications segment, respectively. We maintain a long-term corporate credit rating of BB+ from Standard & Poor's Financial Services LLC ("S&P"), Ba1 from Moody's Japan K.K. ("Moody's") and A- from Japan Credit Agency ("JCR"). We are listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange with a market capitalization of ¥9,911 billion ($88,493 million) as of June 30, 2017.

Strengths

- Well-established position as a leading mobile communications company in Japan, one of the largest and most attractive mobile communications markets in the world, through our well-invested, high-quality network that provides clear and stable communication services
 - One of the wealthiest and most technologically advanced countries in the world, supporting stable and high levels of mobile spending
 - A well-established and stable competitive environment, which benefits from a regulatory stance that discourages excessive competition among major operators
 - Stable customer base backed by large postpaid subscribers with low churn rate
 - Growth opportunities from potential to increase penetration of smartphones and increasing data usage
- Strong cash flow generation and prudent financial management
- Broad range of strategic assets providing significant value, sufficient liquidity and financial flexibility to our group
- World-class management team led by Japan's most successful entrepreneur, with a track record of growing businesses and risk control through disciplined portfolio management

Strategies

- Domestic Telecommunications: Leverage our leading market position in the attractive Japanese telecommunications market to enhance revenue generation
 - Concentrate efforts on acquiring and maintaining higher margin smartphone subscribers by intensifying our dual-brand strategy
 - Offer higher-value, data-intensive pricing plans
 - Continue to expand our discount bundle services which combine mobile services and fixed-broadband services
 - Continue to pursue operating efficiencies and extract synergies from our investments, especially Yahoo Japan
 - Maintain our current level of capital expenditures and generate sustainable free cash flow
- Sprint: Further enhance the operational and financial performance of Sprint through a unique and differentiated value proposition
- Arm: Capture IoT opportunities by leveraging Arm
- Strategic Investments: Continue to make growth investments and manage portfolio strategically

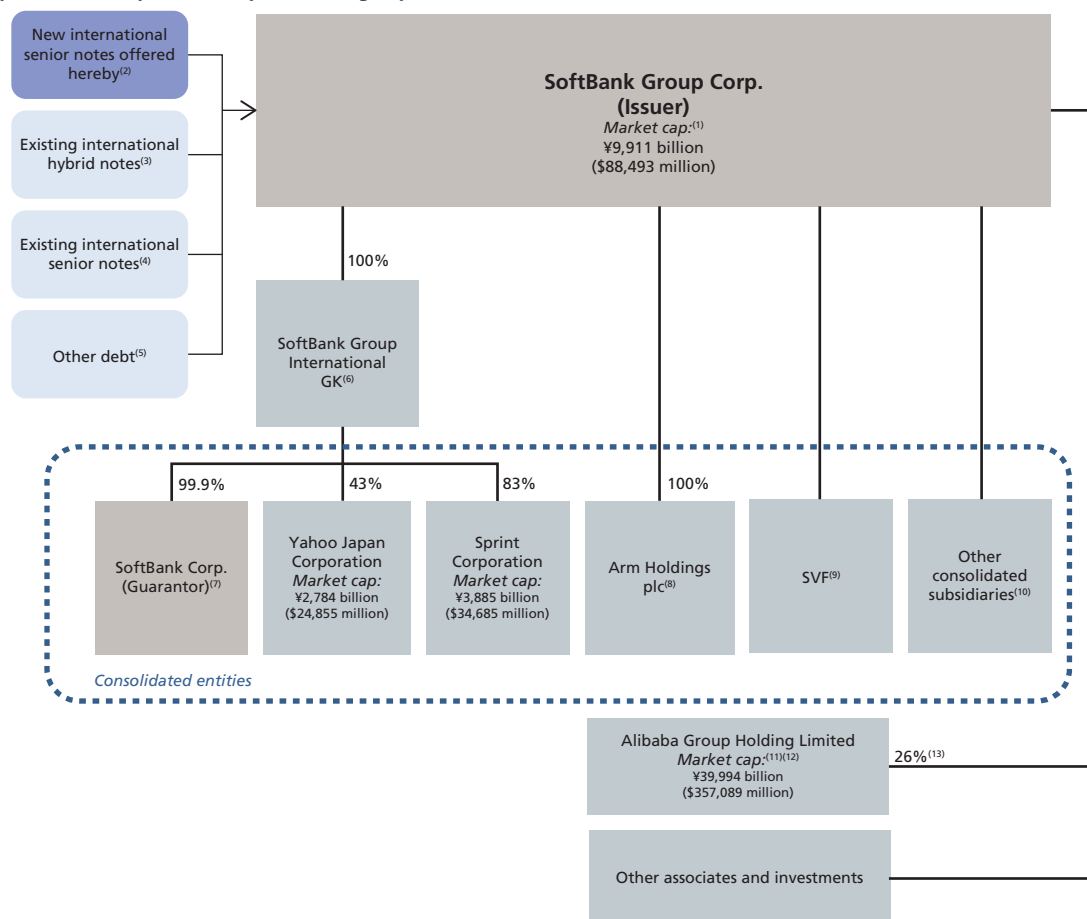

Recent Developments

- Fortress Investment Group LLC Acquisition. In February 2017, we announced that we will acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of Fortress Investment Group, Inc. ("Fortress") for approximately $3.3 billion. The expected closing of the acquisition will be in the second half of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018. We are planning to bring in partners for a portion of the investment.

- Issuance of Hybrid Notes. In July 2017, the Company issued the Hybrid Notes, which comprise the Company's $2.75 billion in USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC6 Resetable Notes and $1.75 billion in USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC10 Resetable Notes. The Hybrid Notes are classified as equity instruments in accordance with IFRS because the Company has the option to defer interest payments, they have no maturity date, their payment priority in the event of bankruptcy is subordinated to senior indebtedness, and other factors.
- Investment in WeWork Companies. In August 2017, we entered into an agreement among SoftBank Group, the SVF and WeWork Companies ("WeWork") whereby SoftBank Group and the SVF will invest $4.4 billion in WeWork, a global provider of shared workspace, community and services for entrepreneurs, freelancers, startups and small businesses. This investment will comprise a $3.0 billion investment in WeWork's parent company via a primary investment in new shares and a secondary purchase of existing shares and a $1.4 billion investment in three newly created companies that will fund WeWork's expansion in China, Japan, Southeast Asia and Korea.
- Initial Capital Calls for SVF. Since July 2017, the SVF has issued initial Capital Calls to us and the several other investors, a portion of which have been successfully settled. All of our obligations under such initial Capital Calls are to be satisfied by contribution of a portion of the shares of Arm. We are in the process of satisfying our obligations under such initial Capital Calls and expect to deliver an aggregate of 178 million shares of Arm, representing 12.4% of the total outstanding shares of Arm. A portion of such shares have been pledged in favor of the SVF pending delivery upon completion of regulatory approvals. The outstanding Capital Calls to other investors have been or will be settled by cash pursuant to the terms of the definitive documentation for the SVF. With respect to subsequent Capital Calls, we intend to continue to contribute shares of Arm up to an aggregate of 24.99% of the total outstanding shares (representing an aggregate of approximately $8.2 billion of capital contributions), at which point, based on our initial relative pro rata commitment to the SVF, we would expect that the SVF would have aggregate contributed investor capital in excess of $27 billion out of the initial committed amount of $93 billion.

Organizational Structure as of June 30, 2017

The following is a simplified summary of the corporate and financing structure of the Company as of June 30, 2017 adjusted to reflect this offering and the offering of the Hybrid Notes in July 2017. The chart does not include all of our subsidiaries or all of our financings and certain groups of subsidiaries are represented collectively, such as the entities comprising the SVF. For more detail on these segments, see “Business—Our Business Segments.” Unless otherwise indicated, the subsidiaries included in the simplified structure below are directly or indirectly owned by the Company.

- (1) The shares of the Company trade on the Tokyo Stock Exchange. As of March 31, 2017, our principal shareholder is our founder, Chairman, and CEO, Masayoshi Son (21%).
- (2) The Notes offered hereby will be general senior obligations of the Company and will rank pari passu in right of payment with any existing and future indebtedness of the Company that is not subordinated to the Notes (including the existing international senior notes, the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan and the Company’s unsubordinated yen-denominated bonds). See “Summary—The Offering.” As of the Issue Date, the Notes will be guaranteed on a senior basis by SoftBank Corp. and will not be secured.
- (3) The existing international hybrid notes comprise the Company’s $2.75 billion 6.000% Undated Subordinated NC6 Resettable Notes and $1.75 billion 6.875% Undated Subordinated NC 10 Resettable Notes, in each case issued on July 19, 2017. The Hybrid Notes have no maturity date and interest payments under the Hybrid Notes may be deferred at the option of the Company. The obligations of the Company under the Hybrid Notes rank junior to the senior obligations of the Company, including the obligations of the Company under the Notes. See “Description of Other Indebtedness—Bonds—USD-denominated Perpetual Subordinated Hybrid Notes.”
- (4) The existing international senior notes comprise the Company’s (i) $2.485 billion 4½% Senior Notes due 2020; (ii) €625 million 4¾% Senior Notes due 2020; (iii) $1 billion 6% Senior Notes due 2025; (iv) $1 billion 5¾% Senior Notes due 2022; (v) €500 million 5¼% Senior Notes due 2027; (vi) €1.25 billion 4¾% Senior Notes due 2025; and (vii) €500 million 4% Senior Notes due 2022. The existing international senior notes are guaranteed by SoftBank Corp. and are unsecured. See “Description of Other Indebtedness—Bonds.”
- (5) The Company’s other debt consists principally of senior, subordinated and hybrid yen-denominated corporate bonds, the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan and the Brightstar Acquisition Loan. See “Description of Other Indebtedness.”
- (6) SoftBank Group International GK (“SBGK”), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, was established as a holding company for certain of the Company’s assets in 2016.

- (7) SoftBank Corp. will guarantee the Notes offered hereby on a senior unsecured basis. The Note Guarantee of SoftBank Corp. will rank pari passu with SoftBank Corp.'s obligations under SoftBank Corp.'s guarantee of the existing international senior notes, and senior loans including the Sprint Acquisition Loan and the Arm Acquisition Loan and will be effectively subordinated to SoftBank Corp.'s obligations under its finance leases.
- (8) In September 2016, we acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of Arm for approximately £24.0 billion. The operations of Arm are conducted through the subsidiaries of Arm and collectively comprise the Arm segment reported in our consolidated results. A portion of the shares of Arm valued at approximately $8.2 billion (approximately 24.99% of the total number of issued shares) is expected to be contributed to the SVF upon the SVF exercising its capital call option and is subject to a pledge in favor of SVF pending this transfer. As of the date hereof, we are in the process of satisfying our obligations under the SVF's initial Capital Calls and expect to deliver an aggregate of 178 million shares of Arm, representing 12.4% of the total outstanding shares of Arm. See "—Recent Developments."
- (9) The SVF segment is comprised of a wholly owned advisory company, SB Investment Advisers (UK) Limited, several general partnerships, including principally SVF GP (Jersey) Limited and SB Delta Fund GP (Jersey) Limited, and several limited partnerships managed by the general partnerships, including primarily SoftBank Vision Fund L.P. Investments will be held through several portfolio holding companies. We have committed capital to several of these limited partnerships in an amount not to exceed $28 billion.
- (10) For a list of the Company's major subsidiaries, their reportable segment, location and voting percentage, see Note 15 to our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. Includes the core companies of our Distribution segment (Brightstar Corp. and SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp.) as well as the core company in our Other segment (Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS Corp.).
- (11) Excludes shares subject to sale pursuant to a variable prepaid forward contract. See "Business—Strategically Important Companies—Alibaba." As of June 30, 2017, our share of Alibaba had a market value of ¥10,430 billion ($93,126 million) (excluding shares subject to sale pursuant to a variable prepaid forward contract). We do not consolidate Alibaba's results.
- (12) On June 10, 2016, West Raptor Holdings, LLC ("WRH LLC"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a variable prepaid forward contract to sell Alibaba shares with a newly formed trust, which in turn issued mandatorily exchangeable securities to third-party investors. Alibaba shares held by WRH LLC are pledged as collateral for the forward contract. ¥717 billion ($6,402 million) is recognized as financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares by variable prepaid forward contract in interest-bearing debt (non-current liabilities) and ¥404 billion ($3,610 million) is recognized as derivative liabilities in other financial liabilities (non-current liabilities) in the consolidated statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017. For further detail, see Note 10(2) to our unaudited condensed interim financial statements as of and for the three months ended June 30, 2017.
- (13) Excludes shares held by WRH LLC.

- be guaranteed, as of the Issue Date, by the Initial Note Guarantor as set forth under “Description of the Notes—The Note Guarantee.”

See “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—The Notes and the Note Guarantees are unsecured obligations and will be effectively subordinated to the existing and future secured indebtedness of the Company and its subsidiaries. We and our subsidiaries may in the future incur substantial amounts of secured debt,” “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—The Notes and the Note Guarantee will be structurally subordinated to any existing or future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries,” and “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—Enforcement of claims on the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be subject to certain limitations arising under Japanese insolvency and corporate laws. Japanese laws may be different from, and not as favorable to you as, the laws in other jurisdictions.”

Ranking of the Note

Guarantees

The Note Guarantees will:

- be a general unsecured obligation of the Note Guarantor;
- in insolvency proceedings of the Note Guarantor, rank pari passu in right of payment with all existing and future Indebtedness of the Note Guarantor (including its obligations under the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan, the 2013 Notes, the 2015 Notes and the Company’s yen-denominated senior unsecured bonds), except that the Note Guarantee will:
 - rank senior in right of payment to all existing and future Indebtedness of the Note Guarantor that is contractually subordinated in right of payment and all existing and future Indebtedness of the Note Guarantor that is subordinated in right of payment by operation of law; and

- be subordinated in right of payment to all existing and future Indebtedness of the Note Guarantor that is preferred by operation of law;
- be effectively subordinated to any existing and future Indebtedness of the Note Guarantor that is secured by property or assets that do not secure the Note Guarantee, including the Initial Note Guarantor’s obligations with respect to ¥1,094 billion ($9,766 million) outstanding under finance leases, to the extent of the value of the property and assets securing such Indebtedness through either enforcement of such Indebtedness outside insolvency proceedings or preferred treatment of such Indebtedness in insolvency proceedings; and
- be effectively subordinated to all existing and future Indebtedness or other obligations, including lease obligations, securitization and installment payable any trade payables, of any Subsidiary of the Note Guarantor that does not Guarantee the Notes.

See “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—The Notes and the Note Guarantees are unsecured obligations and will be effectively subordinated to the existing and future secured indebtedness of the Company and its subsidiaries. We and our subsidiaries may in the future incur substantial amounts of secured debt,” and “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—Enforcement of claims on the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be subject to certain limitations arising under Japanese insolvency and corporate laws. Japanese laws may be different from, and not as favorable to you as, the laws in other jurisdictions.”

Optional Redemption With respect to each series of the notes, at any time prior to the date that is 90 days prior to the final maturity date of such series we may on any one or more occasions, at our option, redeem all or part of such series by paying a “make-whole” premium, and at any time on or after the date that is 90 days prior to the final maturity date of such series we may on any one or more occasions, at our option, redeem all or part of such series at par. See “Description of the Notes—Optional Redemption.”

Tax Redemption In the event of certain developments affecting taxation, we may redeem all, but not less than all, of the Notes at 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date of redemption. See “Description of the Notes—Redemption for Changes in Taxes.”

Repurchase of Notes upon a Change of Control Triggering Event Upon the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event, the Company will make an offer to repurchase all outstanding Notes at a purchase price equal to 100% of their principal amount plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the repurchase date. See “Description of the Notes—Repurchase at the Option of Holders upon a Change of Control Triggering Event.”

Covenants We will issue the Notes under an indenture (the “Indenture”) that will limit, among other things, the Company’s and each Note Guarantor’s ability to:

- layer debt;
- create or incur certain liens;
- pay dividends or make distributions, in excess of a specified leverage ratio, in respect of net proceeds from asset sales; and
- consolidate or merge with other entities.

In addition, the Indenture will limit, among other things, the ability of the Company to guarantee or provide collateral in support of indebtedness of Subsidiaries other than the Note Guarantor with recourse to the Company or the Note Guarantor.

Each of the covenants is subject to a number of important exceptions and qualifications. Certain of the covenants will be suspended if the relevant Notes obtain and maintain an investment-grade rating. See “Description of the Notes—Certain Covenants.”

No Prior Market The Notes will be new securities for which there is currently no market. Although the Initial Purchasers have informed us that they intend to make a market in the Notes, they are not obligated to do so and they may discontinue market making at any time without notice. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that a liquid market for the Notes will develop or be maintained.

Listing Approval has been received for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the SGX-ST. The SGX-ST assumes no responsibility for the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions expressed or information contained in this offering memorandum. Approval in-principle for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the SGX-ST is not to be taken as an indication of the merits of the offering, us, our subsidiaries or associated companies (if any) or the Notes. Currently, there is no public market for the Notes. The Notes will be traded on the SGX-ST in a minimum board lot size of (in the case of the Dollar Notes) $200,000 or (in the case of the Euro Notes) €200,000.

Governing Law The Indenture, the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be governed by the laws of the State of New York.

Transfer Restrictions The Notes and the Note Guarantees have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction. The Notes are being offered and sold only to non-U.S. persons in offshore transactions outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S), except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. See “Notice to Investors” for additional information about eligible offerees and transfer restrictions. We have not agreed to, or otherwise undertaken to, register the Notes and the Note Guarantees (including by way of an exchange offer).

Use of Proceeds We expect to receive a total of approximately $5,850 million (equivalent) in net proceeds from this offering, comprising approximately $3,310 million from the Dollar Notes and €2,223 million from the Euro Notes, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions. We intend to use most of the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes to refinance certain bank loans of the Company and to use the remaining funds for general corporate purposes.

Additional Amounts All payments made by the Company or the Note Guarantor will be made without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes in any taxing jurisdiction unless required by applicable law. If withholding or deduction for such taxes is required to be made in a relevant taxing jurisdiction with respect to a payment on the Notes or a Note Guarantee, subject to certain exceptions, the Company or the Note Guarantor, as the case may be, will pay the additional amounts necessary so that the net amount received after the withholding or deduction is not less than the amount that would have been received in the absence of the withholding or deduction. See “Description of the Notes—Additional Amounts.”

Adjusted Financial Data

The following table shows certain additional metrics on an actual historical basis and adjusted to give effect to (1) our receipt of the net proceeds of ¥498 billion from our July 2017 issuance of the Hybrid Notes, (2) our receipt of $3,267 million (¥366 billion) in reimbursements in connection with certain assets (including our holdings in NVIDIA Corporation and Guardant Health, Inc.) that we have agreed to transfer to the SVF as of June 30, 2017, (3) our receipt of additional amounts of $2,998 million (¥336 billion) in reimbursements in connection with assets (including our holdings in Xiaoju Kuaizhi Inc. and OSIssoft LLC) that we plan, subject to the approval of the SVF, to transfer to entities in our SVF segment as of June 30, 2017, and (4) $189 million (¥21 billion) that we expect to receive in connection with our sale of Supercell as if each of (1) through (4) had occurred on June 30, 2017.

	As of and for the twelve months ended June 30, 2017
	Consolidated
	(billions of yen and billions of dollars except for ratios)
Pro Forma Adjusted EBITDA ⁽¹⁾	¥ 2,600	$ 23
Total interest-bearing debt ⁽²⁾	14,183	127
Cash position ⁽³⁾	1,903	17
Net interest-bearing debt ⁽⁴⁾	12,280	110
Adjusted total interest-bearing debt ⁽⁵⁾	14,200	127
Adjusted cash position ⁽⁶⁾	3,123	28
Adjusted net interest-bearing debt ⁽⁷⁾	11,077	99
Adjusted net interest-bearing debt/Pro Forma Adjusted EBITDA		4.3x

(1) Pro Forma Adjusted EBITDA for the 12 months ended June 30, 2017 is calculated as the sum of Adjusted EBITDA for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 (¥2,564 billion) and Adjusted EBITDA for the three months ended June 30, 2017 (¥700 billion), minus Adjusted EBITDA for the three months ended June 30, 2016 (¥678 billion), plus and an annualization adjustment of ¥14 billion to reflect the contribution from Arm as if it had been consolidated as of July 1, 2016 rather than the historical first date of consolidation, September 5, 2016.

(2) Does not include financial liabilities relating to sale of shares by variable prepaid forward contract.

(3) Cash position is Cash and cash equivalents plus Short-term investments.

(4) Reflects Total interest-bearing debt minus Cash position.

(5) In calculating Adjusted total interest-bearing debt, we classify 50% of the carrying amount of our ¥463 billion ($4,133 million) yen-denominated hybrid bonds and 50% of the net proceeds of our ¥498 billion ($4,444 million) Hybrid Notes as interest-bearing debt. Under IFRS, the entire carrying amount of the yen-denominated hybrid bonds is recorded as a liability and the entire net proceeds of the Hybrid Notes is expected to be recorded as equity.

- (6) Includes (1) the net proceeds of ¥498 billion ($4,444 million) from our July 2017 issuance of the Hybrid Notes, (2) $3,267 million (¥366 billion) in reimbursements in connection with certain assets (including our holdings in NVIDIA Corporation and Guardant Health, Inc.) that we have agreed to transfer to the SVF as of June 30, 2017, (3) additional amounts of $2,998 million (¥336 billion) in reimbursements in connection with assets (including our holdings in Xiaoju Kuaizhi Inc. and OSIsoft LLC) that we plan, subject to the approval of the SVF, to transfer to entities in our SVF segment as of June 30, 2017 and (4) $189 million (¥21 billion) that we expect to receive in connection with our sale of Supercell as if each of (1) through (4) had occurred on June 30, 2017.
- (7) Reflects Adjusted total interest-bearing debt minus Adjusted cash position.

See “Presentation of Financial Information—Adjusted Financial Information” and “Capitalization.” Our historical results may not be indicative of our future results following consummation of this offering. The adjusted financial data has not been prepared in accordance with the requirements of Regulation S-X of the Securities Act, the Prospectus Directive or any generally accepted accounting standards. Neither the assumptions underlying the pro forma adjustments nor the resulting adjusted financial data have been audited or reviewed in accordance with any generally accepted auditing standards.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Notes involves significant risk and uncertainty. You should consider carefully the risk factors described below as well as other information contained in this offering memorandum, including our financial statements and the related notes included elsewhere in this offering memorandum, before making any investment decision. The risks and uncertainties discussed below, as well as additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial, could materially affect our business, financial condition and results of operations, affect our ability to make payments on the Notes or cause the market price of the Notes to decline. This could result in you losing all or part of your investment.

Risks Relating to Our Business

Any adverse conditions in the economy could adversely affect us.

Demand for the services and products that we provide, including, but not limited to, telecommunications services and internet advertising, depends on the performance of the Japanese, United States', Chinese and global economies, which involves factors beyond our control. Additionally, we procure the funds we require for developing new and existing businesses by borrowing from financial institutions, by issuing corporate bonds and from other sources. Therefore, disruptions in the economy that result in a deterioration of economic conditions in Japan, the United States, China or globally could adversely affect us or diminish our ability to procure funds. Our business and results of operations could be adversely affected under difficult economic or market conditions. In addition, the Japanese population, which represents the primary market of our domestic telecommunications products and services, is both aging and declining. As a result, the number of net new subscribers we acquire each month may decline in the future and we may not obtain the number of subscribers we expect.

Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may have a negative impact on our results of operations presented in Japanese yen.

We invest in overseas companies directly at the holding company level or through our subsidiaries outside of Japan, as well as through other means. Additionally, a material portion of our operations is conducted in currencies other than Japanese yen, most significantly, U.S. dollars. As we increase our non-yen revenues, the relative percentage of our non-yen business may increase. Our business is therefore sensitive to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, especially the yen-U.S. dollar exchange rate, and a foreign exchange loss may be recognized if we sell our equity interests when the yen is stronger than at the time of investment. Likewise, the presentation of our results of operations may be affected by the translation of foreign currencies into yen for the purpose of our consolidated financial statements. Also, a weak yen could have the effect of exacerbating losses incurred by our foreign subsidiaries as reflected in our consolidated results of operations. We may not be successful in managing our exposure to currency exchange risks and this may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In connection with the Notes offering and other debt obligations, should we choose to issue in currencies other than yen, we expect to be exposed to increased foreign exchange rate fluctuation risks. To the extent we are unable to successfully hedge our overall risks related to outstanding monetary assets and liabilities, we may record gains or losses in future periods solely attributable to the effects of fluctuations in relevant foreign exchange rates.

We face risks associated with operation and investment in multiple markets, and if we are unable to manage these risks effectively, it could impair our ability to expand our business.

We conduct business and invest in multiple regions including the United States, China, India, Europe and Central and South America as well as other regions and countries and may continue expanding our operations outside of Japan. We do not have a history of successfully operating in these regions, which in some cases have a different level of economic development or different economic structure from that of our traditional region of operations.

Operating and investing in multiple geographic markets exposes us to a number of risks, including:

- difficulties and costs relating to compliance with the different commercial and legal requirements of the markets in which we operate and the potential that such requirements could change to our disadvantage;
- difficulties in staffing and managing international operations;
- government regulations or restrictions on foreign investment, particularly any preventing us from repatriating internationally derived revenue, or foreign tax structures that make repatriation prohibitively expensive, which could affect our ability to effectively reinvest or utilize such revenues in our business; and

- other country risks, including the occurrence of political, social, or economic turbulence in such countries and regions, due to the outbreak of wars, conflicts, and terror attacks, the enactment of economic sanctions and the outbreak of communicable diseases.

Our failure to successfully manage or address any of the above-listed risks could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The loss of key senior management personnel, including Mr. Masayoshi Son in particular, could negatively affect our business.

Our performance is substantially dependent on our senior management and other key personnel. These individuals have acquired specialized knowledge and skills with respect to the companies that form the SoftBank Group and our businesses. This familiarity, in addition to the managerial and financial experience of these individuals as well as their decision-making abilities, makes them especially critical to our success. If one or more members of our key personnel were unable or unwilling to continue to remain in their positions with us, our business and operations could be disrupted and our growth potential could be impaired.

In particular, we depend in large part on the knowledge, expertise and services of Mr. Masayoshi Son, our founder, Chairman and CEO, especially for identifying new business and investment opportunities and creating new business models. Mr. Son's reputation and personal contacts in the industries in which we operate have provided us access to many opportunities which would not otherwise be available to us. There can be no assurance that the departure of Mr. Son would not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations.

Fast-paced innovations in technology and business models, as well as alternative telecommunication technologies may make our services, technology or business models obsolete.

Our future success depends, in part, on our ability to anticipate and adapt in a timely manner to the fast-paced changes in technology and business models that characterize the industries in which we operate. We expect that new services, technologies and business models will emerge on a continuous basis and that existing services, technologies and business models will also further develop. We make significant capital expenditures in connection with the deployment of new or improved technologies. However, if we fail to adapt to the rapidly changing technological development characterized by the introduction and proliferation of new or improved high-speed wireless data technology, fail to upgrade or adapt our existing mobile and fixed-line telecommunications networks or other businesses in a timely and satisfactory manner, or fail to introduce new services based upon such technological innovations, our services may become less attractive to consumers. This could limit our ability to acquire new customers and cause us to lose existing customers to competitors, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, there can be no assurance that the new technologies we anticipate will be developed according to expected schedules, that they will perform according to expectations, that common standards and specifications will be achieved or that they will achieve commercial acceptance. Any failure of new technologies to meet our expectations, or the failure of any technology to achieve commercial acceptance, could place us behind our competitors in terms of technological development. Any such factors may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We face intense competition, including from other large and established competitors, and such competition may intensify.

One of our primary business domains is the information industry, particularly the Japanese mobile communications industry, where we compete for consumer spending with other domestic communications companies such as NTT DOCOMO, Inc. ("NTT DOCOMO") and KDDI Corporation ("KDDI"). We have substantial competitors in the markets in which we operate, and, in certain instances, we may face competitors (including but not limited to mobile communications operators and mobile virtual network operator services ("MVNOs")) that have larger operations than we do, or otherwise have a competitive advantage over us in terms of, for example, capital, services and products, price competitiveness, customer base, sales capability, brand awareness or public recognition.

Going forward, the competition among operators may further intensify, as a result of which we may revise our billing plans, offer discounts or take other steps to capture new subscriptions and maintain existing subscriptions, that could adversely affect our profitability. For example, in September 2016, we introduced Data

Flat-rate (20 GB) and Data Flat-rate (30 GB) (collectively known as “Giga Monster”). However, we cannot be certain that these rate revisions will enable us to acquire new and maintain existing subscribers. Also, the subscription ratio for Giga Monster or the migration trend to Giga Monster may not meet our expectations and may result in a larger decline in ARPU than expected.

If our competitors were to sell services or products that harness their competitive advantages to a greater extent than they currently do, we may be placed at a disadvantage in sales competition or may be unable to provide services and products or acquire or retain customers as anticipated. Moreover, even if we introduce highly competitive services, products or sales methods ahead of our competitors, our competitive advantages may lessen if our competitors deploy equivalent or better services, products or sales methods.

In addition, the Japanese population, which represents the primary market of our domestic telecommunications products and services, is both aging and declining. According to Ovum, the total number of domestic mobile communications service subscribers reached 166 million, as of June 30, 2017, and the penetration rate for mobile phones in Japan stood at approximately 132%, as of June 30, 2017, indicating ownership of more than one handset per person. This suggests that the market may be approaching saturation, which could result in a lower number of customer additions.

Any of the above consequences could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We depend on the satisfactory performance of our network systems and sufficient spectrum to operate our telecommunications services.

The quality of our telecommunications services depends on, among other things, our network systems and the spectrum that the government allocates to us. In order to remain competitive and retain and grow our customer bases in each of the telecommunications markets in which we operate, we will need to undertake continuous maintenance and upgrades to our mobile and fixed-line networks to ensure adequate capacity.

Constraints on network capacity may cause unanticipated system disruptions and slower response times, adversely affecting data transmission. We must accurately predict our future capacity needs based on present and historical amounts of network traffic. If we underestimate the amount of capacity our business requires, or if we are unable to upgrade our network systems quickly enough to accommodate future traffic levels, avoid obsolescence or successfully integrate newly developed or acquired technology with our existing systems, we could experience service problems, adverse consequences to our reputation, a reduction in subscriber base, difficulties in acquiring new subscribers, or the need to make additional unanticipated capital expenditures.

Like all major telecommunications services providers, we are vulnerable to the occurrence of major service disruptions or declines in service quality due to human error, equipment problems or other causes. If such disruptions or declines in quality were to become widespread or if significant time were required to restore services in the event of such a disruption, our credibility and corporate and/or brand image could deteriorate, which could have an adverse effect on our mobile and fixed-line telecommunications businesses.

We are also heavily dependent on the availability of spectrum in order to provide our mobile communications services. As traffic on our mobile communications network continues to increase due to the spread of smartphones, we will need to secure additional spectrum as well as enhance effective use of our frequency band by using LTE technology. We use frequency bands that are allocated to us by MIC and while MIC rarely exercises such authority, it does have the power to reallocate spectrum as it deems necessary to secure an appropriate and reasonable utilization of frequency spectrum, taking into consideration the effect that such actions may have on other spectrum users. See “Regulation—Radio Act of Japan—Allocation of Radio Frequency Spectrum.” If we are unable to secure the required spectrum in the future, service quality may decline, which could make it difficult to acquire or retain subscribers. Additionally, the Japanese government has considered the implementation of a spectrum auction system in the past. If an auction system were officially implemented in Japan or if bidding prices increase in U.S. spectrum auctions, securing spectrum could require considerable expenses and could enable new competitors to enter the market.

We depend on the telecommunications lines and facilities of other companies in certain circumstances and could be materially and adversely affected if our access was restricted or terminated or if related utilization or connection fees were increased.

We utilize certain telecommunications lines and facilities owned by other operators when providing our telecommunications services. For instance, certain of our group companies in Japan are party to interconnection agreements and agreements with respect to optical broadband services with Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corporation (“NTT”) group companies. See “Business—Important Relationships—Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corp.” The potential failure of such third-party operators to comply with relevant interconnection agreements or to properly maintain networks or interconnection facilities may create interruptions or quality problems for our telecommunications services. In addition, if relevant agreements with such operators are not extended or are extended on less favorable conditions, for example if utilization or connection rates were to be increased, we could experience a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We purchase and lease various equipment, products and services from suppliers and our inability to procure such equipment, products and services or defects therein could adversely affect our business.

We procure telecommunications equipment, network devices, mobile devices and various other hardware, software, support and services from various vendors. We rely upon certain key vendors such as Apple, Nokia and Ericsson to supply the network equipment, mobile handsets, software, content and services that we require in our business.

Although we generally expect vendors to supply products and services in a timely manner, in accordance with the specifications contained in the applicable agreements with such vendors, and to cure any defects should they arise, we may be unable to switch suppliers or equipment in a timely manner should problems occur. We do not have direct operational or financial control over these key vendors, and there can be no assurance that such vendors will continue to provide equipment and services at attractive prices or that we will be able to obtain such equipment and services in the future from those or other providers, on the scale and within the time frames that we require, if at all.

Our contractual arrangements with these counterparties also expose us to certain risks. We cannot assure you that we will be able to reach commercially reasonable agreements on the procurement of handsets, installation and maintenance of telecommunications equipment or other key aspects of our business or that the terms of such agreements will not deteriorate over time.

Supply interruptions, delivery delays, order volume shortfalls, defects and the cessation of maintenance and inspection services, as well as any other similar problem could impede our provision of services, making it difficult to acquire and retain customers, or causing us to incur additional costs. Suppliers may also cease providing the maintenance and inspection services required for telecommunications equipment to maintain performance.

Any of the above could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We rely on subcontractors and other third parties for certain of our operations.

We consign sales activities, acquisition and retention of customers mainly for telecommunications services, and the execution of other related operations in whole or part to subcontractors. We also use subcontractors for network construction and maintenance service. Our business development could therefore be impacted if for some reason these subcontractors are unable to execute their duties in line with our expectations.

We also have a network of subcontractors responsible for the sale of our services and products. Damage to the credibility or image of these subcontractors could also have a negative impact on our credibility or corporate image. This could hinder business development and the acquisition and retention of customers, which could impact our operating results. Furthermore, if these subcontractors should fail to comply with laws and regulations, we could receive a warning or administrative guidance from the regulatory authorities, or be investigated or sanctioned for non-fulfillment of our supervisory responsibility, and our credibility or corporate image could deteriorate as a result, making it difficult to acquire and retain customers. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our financial results may be significantly affected by cost of fund procurement and leasing.

We procure the funds required to develop our business by borrowing from financial institutions, issuing corporate bonds and other sources. We also execute capital expenditure utilizing leases. The cost of procuring funds could increase because of rising interest rates or a decline in our creditworthiness stemming mainly from a downgrading of our credit ratings. An increase in fund procurement costs could impact our results of operations. Furthermore, depending on the financial market conditions and our credit standings, we may be unable to procure funds or structure leases as planned. This could impact our business development, results of operations and financial position. In addition, various covenants are attached to our borrowings from financial institutions, corporate bonds and other transactions. If the potential arises for any of these covenants to be breached and we are unable to take steps to avoid breaching them, we could forfeit the benefit of terms relating to the obligation concerned, and in conjunction with this loss we could be requested to repay or redeem other borrowings in one lump sum as well. As a result, our financial position could be adversely affected.

We may sell some of our assets or take other measures to secure resources for repaying the procured funds (excluding the debts non-recourse to SoftBank Group Corp.). This could impact the Group's results of operations and business development.

A downgrade of the credit rating of the Company or our subsidiaries could have a negative effect on us.

Our long-term corporate credit rating is BB+ from S&P, Ba1 from Moody's and A- from JCR. There can be no assurance that our current ratings will not be downgraded further. In addition, S&P, Moody's or any other rating agency may change its methodologies for rating securities with features similar to our Hybrid Notes in the future. Also, our adjusted net interest-bearing debt-to-Pro Forma Adjusted EBITDA ratio as of June 30, 2017, which was 4.3x, could make us susceptible to future credit downgrades. See "Summary—Adjusted Financial Data." A downgrade of our credit ratings or the credit ratings of our subsidiaries may cause us to lose our ability to access bank lending or the capital markets, renew bank credit facilities and access other sources of financing.

Downgrades could also increase our costs of borrowing and affect our ability to make payments on outstanding debt instruments and to comply with other existing obligations. Such events could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Also, even if we hold investments in equity-method associates that experience significant increases in value, there is no assurance that credit rating agencies will take this into account when determining our credit ratings.

In order to set up new businesses, or expand our existing businesses, we have made and may pursue further acquisitions and investments, including through the establishment of joint ventures and subsidiaries, as well as investments in operating or holding companies (including companies that we effectively control through various contracts) and funds, and we may also in certain instances provide subsequent financial assistance in the form of loans, securities or otherwise to such investees. We also may acquire other assets which we believe are strategic, any of which could be material to our business, financial condition and results of operations. In particular, we have made a number of strategic investments in companies in emerging markets and in businesses we view to be in growth industries, such as e-commerce and taxi booking platforms for mobile devices. In September 2016, we acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of Arm, a British microprocessor intellectual property design firm, for approximately £24.0 billion. See "—Our business development may be significantly affected by risks relating to Arm's operations." In February 2017, we announced that we will acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of Fortress for approximately $3.3 billion and expect to close this acquisition during the second half of 2017. See "Summary—Recent Developments." Also, in May 2017, we completed the first closing of the SVF with an initial commitment of $93.2 billion as of May 20, 2017 from investors that include SoftBank Group Corp. and the Public Investment Fund of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. See "Business—Strategies—Strategic Investments: Continue to make growth investments and manage portfolio strategically." If an investee is included in our scope of consolidation in conjunction with these investment activities, this could positively or negatively affect our consolidated results of operations and financial position.

In addition, we carry significant amounts of goodwill and other intangible assets on our balance sheet as a result of our corporate acquisitions and investments. If a company in which we invest is unable to conduct its business as anticipated at the time of investment, our results of operations and financial position could be impacted, for example, through write-downs on assets recognized in conjunction with the investment activities including goodwill, property, plant and equipment, intangible assets or financial assets such as shares. In addition, any decline in the value of assets that were obtained through these investment activities, including investment equities, could cause us to recognize a valuation loss which could have an attendant impact on our results of operations and distributable amounts in our non-consolidated financial statements. Under IFRS, goodwill is tested for impairment whenever there is any indication of potential impairment, and at least annually, while intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortized over their estimated useful lives and are tested for impairment whenever there is any indication of potential impairment. We also have a number of equity-method associates, for which the impairment test is used. For example, we recorded a loss from financial instruments carried at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL," the fair value of which is required to be measured at the end of each quarter under IFRS, with changes to be recognized as net income or loss) of ¥160 billion in our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and a gain from financial instruments carried at FVTPL of ¥24 billion for the three months ended June 30, 2017. Financial instruments at FVTPL includes preferred shares of Jasper Infotech Private Limited, which operates "snapdeal.com," an e-commerce site in India, and ANI Technologies Private Limited, which operates Ola, a taxi booking platform also in India. Furthermore, we recognized a loss on valuation of shares of subsidiaries and associates of ¥114 billion as special losses in our non-consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. The losses represented impairments of our investments in subsidiaries and associates, including STARFISH I PTE LTD, an intermediate holding company that owns preferred shares in Jasper Infotech Private Limited. In addition, our debt burden may increase if we borrow funds to finance any future acquisition or investment, which could have a negative impact on our cash flows and our ability to finance our overall operations. An acquired company may also be subject to an increased interest burden. There can be no assurance that we will be successful in completing business acquisitions or investments or fully integrating previously acquired companies.

If the companies we acquire or in which we invest fail to maintain adequate internal controls or sustain legal or regulatory compliance, we could suffer reputational harm and otherwise suffer adverse effects to our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Although we conduct due diligence investigations of those companies, businesses or technologies which we seek to acquire, our assessments are subject to a number of assumptions concerning profitability, growth, interest rates and company valuations. Our inquiries may fail to uncover all material issues before an acquisition and we may experience unexpected losses arising from such issues after an acquisition. There can be no assurance that our assessments or due diligence of, and assumptions regarding, acquisition targets will prove to be correct, and actual developments may differ significantly from our expectations.

In certain cases we may consolidate or de-consolidate these investments from our consolidated financial results and doing so may affect our results negatively. As a result, period-to-period comparisons of our results of operations are not necessarily meaningful or indicative of future performance in this regard.

Furthermore, proposed acquisitions may require approval by government authorities, which can block, impose conditions, or delay the process, which could result in a failure on our part to proceed with announced transactions on a timely basis or at all, thus hampering our opportunities for growth. In the event that conditions are imposed and we fail to meet them in a timely manner, the relevant government authority may impose fines and, if in connection with a merger transaction, may require restorative measures, such as a mandatory disposition of assets or divestiture of operations.

Any of the above factors could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations or prevent us from achieving improvements in our financial condition and operating margins that could have otherwise been achieved by us without any particular investment.

Our financial condition and results may be significantly affected by risks relating to Sprint, its operations and financial performance.

Our consolidated subsidiary, Sprint, accounted for 43.6% and 40.7% of our net sales for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017 and 41.1% and 41.6% for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, respectively. Sprint is in the business of selling communications services to subscribers and faces business risks associated with the telecommunications industry as well as risks unique to Sprint. Sprint's ability to retain its existing subscribers, to compete successfully for new subscribers and reduce its churn rate depends on, among other things:

- Sprint's ability to anticipate and respond to various competitive factors, including its successful execution of marketing and sales strategies; the acceptance of its value proposition; service delivery and customer care activities, including new account set-up and billing; and execution under credit and collection policies;
- The actual or perceived quality and coverage of Sprint's network;
- Public perception about Sprint's brand;
- Sprint's ability to anticipate, develop and deploy new or enhanced technologies, products and services that are attractive to existing or potential subscribers;
- Sprint's ability to continue to access spectrum and acquire additional spectrum capacity; and
- Sprint's ability to maintain its current MVNO relationships and to enter into new MVNO arrangements.

Sprint's ability to retain subscribers may be negatively affected by industry trends related to subscriber contracts. Sprint has seen aggressive customer acquisition efforts by its competitors. For example, most service providers, including Sprint, are offering wireless service plans without any long-term commitment. Furthermore, some service providers are reimbursing contract termination fees, including paying off the outstanding balance on devices, incurred by new customers in connection with such customers, terminating service with their current wireless service providers. Sprint's competitors' aggressive customer contract terms, such as those described above, could negatively affect Sprint's ability to retain subscribers and could lead to an increase in its churn rates if Sprint is not successful in providing an attractive product, price and service mix, which could adversely affect its operating results.

We expect Sprint to continue to incur expenses, such as the reimbursement of subscriber termination fees and other subscriber acquisition and retention expenses, to attract and retain subscribers, but there can be no assurance that Sprint's efforts will generate new subscribers or result in a lower churn rate. Subscriber losses and a high churn rate could adversely affect Sprint's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Moreover, Sprint and its competitors continue to gain a greater proportion of new subscribers from each other's existing subscriber bases rather than from first-time purchasers. To the extent Sprint cannot compete effectively for new subscribers or if Sprint attracts more subscribers that are not creditworthy, its revenues and results of operations could be adversely affected.

Sprint's service plans allow certain subscribers to purchase or finance the use of an eligible device under an installment or lease contract payable generally over a period of up to 24 months. Subscribers who take advantage of these plans are not required to sign a fixed-term service contract to obtain postpaid service. Sprint could experience a higher churn rate than it expects, due to the ability of subscribers to more easily change service providers, which could adversely affect its results of operations. In addition, because Sprint's lease and installment billing contracts permit customers to pay for devices over time, Sprint maintains a certain level of debt to support its investment in these contracts.

Sprint's installment billing program subjects it to increased risks relating to consumer credit issues, which could result in increased costs, including increases to its bad debt expense and write-offs of installment billing receivables. Sprint also leases devices to certain of its subscribers. Its financial condition and results of operations depend, in part, on its ability to appropriately assess the credit risk of its lease subscribers and the ability of its lease subscribers to perform under its device leases.

We believe that Sprint's business and capital expenditure plans are tailored to Sprint's ability to generate cash from operations and obtain financing on acceptable terms. We consider Sprint to be a public company with substantial independence and the means to secure adequate financing through, among other things, capital markets issuances, securitization of receivables and vendor finance and improvements in cash from operations. However, if Sprint is unable to conduct its business as anticipated, is unable to create sufficient synergies with other Group companies, or requires more funds than anticipated to develop its business, we may provide Sprint with financial assistance such as loans.

We are exploring various options involving a potential transaction involving Sprint and certain other companies in the United States. Any discussions between us and Sprint and such third parties remain at a preliminary stage and no agreements regarding the terms of a potential transaction have been reached with any party. It is our current intention to continue exploring alternatives. There can be no assurance that any agreement will be reached or that a transaction will ultimately be consummated. In addition, there can be no assurance regarding the structure of any such transaction, and there can be no assurance that such a transaction would not involve Sprint or any resulting entity ceasing to be a consolidated subsidiary of ours, or that such a transaction would not involve further investments by us in Sprint or any other entity. See also "—The acquisition of other companies, businesses or technologies, such as the acquisition of Arm, could result in operating difficulties, dilution or other harmful consequences."

Our business development may be significantly affected by risks relating to Arm's operations.

The operations of Arm could substantially affect our business development. Arm's business is subject to risks, including:

- Competition in and changes to the semiconductor industry. Arm operates in the semiconductor market, which is highly competitive and has been characterized by rapid technological changes, short product lifecycles, high capital expenditures and intense pricing pressure. Arm currently competes with both large semiconductor companies and smaller semiconductor intellectual property companies. For example, Intel Corporation is currently developing an x86-based processor for tablets, mobile phones and IoT, which would compete with Arm's products. In growing markets, such as the IoT market, there are low barriers to entry, which allows many small-sized semiconductor intellectual property companies to compete with Arm. The success of the products of Arm's competitors could negatively impact Arm's market share and the value of its intellectual property.

- Risks associated with international sales. Arm’s customers are located in many locations around the world, including in countries and locations (such as Russia, South America and Africa) where Arm has little knowledge or experience with the political culture or regulatory environment. In addition, the proportion of Arm’s sales to customers in China is increasing and it is expected that this trend will continue, and Arm believes that the share will continue to increase. The semiconductor industry has been the subject of repeated disputes over government assistance to domestic manufacturers and fair trading policies, the outcomes of which could materially and adversely affect Arm’s access to particular markets or Arm’s competitive position generally.
- Changes in customer needs. The semiconductor market is characterized by rapidly changing technology that affects industry standards and the types of products that Arm’s customers demand. The changing needs of Arm’s customers may result in Arm’s products no longer meeting customer specifications or being otherwise incompatible with customer-intended end uses. If we are unable to invest sufficient resources to meet the needs of Arm’s customers, if we do so in an inefficient or untimely manner or if Arm’s customers develop the capability to design semiconductors internally, Arm may lose market share and the value of its intellectual property could decrease.
- Customer concentration risk. Due to changes in technological trends and economic conditions, merger activities in the semiconductor industry may increase, resulting in a smaller number of customers to which Arm sells its products and increasing Arm’s reliance on orders from a smaller number of larger customers, increasing the impact on sales of a reduction of orders by individual customers. For example, if a key customer’s products incorporating Arm’s products fail to achieve success in the market, or if a key customer foresees such failure, the relevant customer may reduce purchases of Arm’s products. This risk is especially acute for customers that compete in the highly competitive, rapidly evolving mobile device market. Also, a smaller number of key customers could increase product development costs, as key customers could require Arm to develop or modify its products more frequently than expected.
- Inability to retain and motivate qualified personnel. The number of Arm’s employees has increased rapidly in the last few years, as it has accelerated the hiring of engineers to develop the next-generation of processors that will meet customer demands. We plan to double the number of Arm’s employees since the acquisition. There is no assurance that we will be able to adapt Arm’s organizational structure, corporate culture and infrastructure to accommodate this increase in employees, particularly if the increase in employees continues at the current rate.
- Reputational risk. Arm’s technologies are incorporated into products that are used around the globe by numerous individuals and companies. These products, in turn, are used to accumulate, manage and transmit massive amounts of private, personal and proprietary information. As a result, if issues arise with these products, as a result of problems or defects with Arm’s technologies, Arm could suffer significant reputational harm and the value of Arm’s brand and intellectual property could be negatively affected. As Arm’s technologies are becoming increasingly complex, the risk of problems or defects arising may also increase.
- Risk of infringing on the intellectual property rights of others. Although Arm pays considerable attention to establishing and maintaining its products’ integrity, if Arm is involved in a dispute with another company for infringement of intellectual property, it may become necessary for Arm to defend its intellectual property and its technologies. Occasionally, a third party asserts patent rights, copyrights or other intellectual property rights against Arm’s technologies. Such assertion against Arm or a licensee of Arm’s technologies may cause Arm to incur a significant amount of expenses, and Arm may become obligated to compensate its licensee pursuant to license agreements.
- Dependence on intellectual property licensees. Arm is dependent on its licensees to manufacture and market microprocessors and other intellectual property based on Arm’s architecture in order to receive royalties in the future. Arm is also dependent on licensees to add value to its license architecture by providing complete Arm-based microprocessor solutions to meet specific application needs of systems companies. If one or more of Arm’s licensees stops licensing microprocessors or other intellectual property, reduces its orders, fails to pay license or royalty fees due or does not produce products containing Arm microprocessors or other intellectual property, Arm’s operating results could be materially and negatively affected.
- Arm and its customers fail to invest in the ecosystem of developers who build Arm-based products and services. Arm processors often run software created by independent software vendors (“ISVs”) or through consortiums of companies working together. Each end market has its own ecosystem of consortia and ISVs. These ecosystems need to be supported by engineers from Arm and its customers and through direct monetary investment. Insufficient investment may result in the ecosystems providing better support for products based on non-Arm-based technology, leading to equipment manufacturers not choosing Arm-based chips, leading to a reduction in Arm's revenues.

Our financial results may be significantly affected by risks relating to the SVF, its operations and financial performance.

The SVF, which was established outside of Japan, started its operations in May 2017. The SVF seeks to acquire minority and majority interests in both private and public companies, ranging from emerging technology businesses to established, multi-billion dollar companies requiring substantial growth funding across a wide range of technology sectors, as long as the investments fall within the SVF's investment strategy. Investment opportunities of the Company of $100 million or more within the SVF's investment strategy are generally required to be carried out through the SVF or its associated vehicles, with us making certain other investments, including (but not limited to) investments not meeting the $100 million threshold, strategic investments at the operating company level, and/or other investments that do not fall within the SVF's investment strategy and criteria. Several General Partners, each of which is an overseas subsidiary of the Company, manage the SVF and are advised by another overseas subsidiary in the UK following such entity's registration with the UK Financial Conduct Authority. The investment decisions of the SVF will be made by an investment committee expected to be established at the above-mentioned subsidiary in the UK. Furthermore, we invest in the SVF as its limited partner. Committed capital to the SVF totals $93.2 billion as of May 20, 2017, with committed capital from us totaling $28 billion, including contribution of shares of Arm or certain of its operating subsidiaries by in-kind contribution in satisfaction of approximately $8.2 billion. The final closing of the SVF is expected to occur no later than six months following the above-mentioned date. See "Business—SoftBank Vision Fund." The SVF may not realize the anticipated return on its investments, which may negatively affect our performance or financial condition.

As the SVF is controlled by us for accounting purposes, the results of operations, assets and liabilities of the SVF are included in our consolidated financial statements. The portfolio companies of the SVF that we are deemed to control from an IFRS perspective are treated as our subsidiaries and their results of operations, assets and liabilities are included in our consolidated financial statements. Therefore, the poor financial performance of companies in the SVF may negatively affect our financial condition and results of operations. Also, in the event that the SVF's targets for investment do not become subsidiaries on our consolidated financial statements, as a basic rule, they are measured at fair value at the end of every quarter, and changes in the value are recognized as a net gain or loss. In the event that the fair value of these investments decreases, it may negatively affect our group's performance or financial condition.

Our holdings in Sprint, Yahoo Japan and our strategic associates such as Alibaba will not necessarily generate cash that can be used to pay principal or interest on the Notes or our other indebtedness.

Each of Sprint, Yahoo Japan and Alibaba has equity securities listed on public exchanges and therefore operates with varying degrees of independence from us. To a varying extent, we are able to exercise some control over these companies through our control of certain voting stock and pursuant to shareholders' agreements. However, we are unable to easily access cash generated from operations by these businesses without a dividend, distribution or other payment made in accordance with the relevant corporate articles of each company. In addition, Sprint is subject to financial covenants (including restrictions on dividends and other payments) in certain of its indebtedness that restrict Sprint's ability to make distribution payments to us.

The ability of Sprint, Yahoo Japan, Arm and our strategic associates such as Alibaba to make a dividend, distribution or other payment to us is further constrained by their business results, which are subject to substantial risks. In particular, Yahoo Japan and Alibaba are subject to risks, including:

- Macroeconomic trends reducing advertising and online spending or re-orienting spending in a way that they do not anticipate;
- Technological change undermining expectations on how people will access services;
- Competition from existing companies or disruptive threats;
- Reliance on third-party providers and electrical and internet transmission infrastructure;
- Regulatory changes and interventions affecting e-commerce, social media or financial services particularly in, but not limited to, China;
- Litigation and regulatory sanctions with respect to intellectual property infringement or litigation from end-users, in particular with respect to fraud in online sales and information security; and
- Risks in collecting sums spent through their infrastructure and services.

For further discussion on the risks facing Sprint, see “—Our financial results may be significantly affected by risks relating to Sprint, its operations and financial performance.” For further discussion on the risks facing Arm, see “—Our business development may be significantly affected by risks relating to Arm’s operations.”

In the event we attempt to exit any of our investments, there is no assurance that we would be able to do so successfully, or at all. We have significant unrealized gains in the equity of certain affiliates, which we may be unable to recognize.

Support for subsidiaries and others may not produce the anticipated results.

We occasionally provide subsidiaries and others with financial assistance through loans, guarantees, and other means, when we deem such assistance to be necessary. For example, if Sprint or Brightstar is unable to conduct business as anticipated at the time of acquisition, or is unable to create sufficient synergies with other subsidiaries and associates, or requires more funds than anticipated to develop its business, we may provide either with financial assistance such as loans. If the supported subsidiaries and others are unable to conduct business as we expect, it could impact our financial position and results of operations.

We depend on management resources of other companies.

We develop our business in Japan and overseas through business alliances, joint ventures and similar arrangements with other companies. If an alliance partner or joint venture partner has a significant change of business strategy or experiences deterioration in its results of operations or financial position, it is possible that adequate results may not be obtained from the business alliances, joint ventures and similar arrangements or that it may become difficult to continue such business alliances or joint ventures. In addition, it is also possible that execution of a business alliance or joint venture with a particular third party could preclude the execution of business alliances, joint ventures and similar arrangements with other parties. Such events could impact our business development and results of operations.

We depend on the Yahoo! brand and related trademarks, the continued use of which is important to our business.

Yahoo Japan licenses the use of the Yahoo! brand from a subsidiary of Verizon Communications Inc. (“Verizon”). The licensing agreement with the subsidiary of Verizon is critical to our business and is used in certain service names such as Yahoo! JAPAN, Y!mobile and Yahoo! BB. We have benefited from the strong brand recognition and existing user base of a wide range of internet services offered by Yahoo Japan and its portal site, Yahoo! JAPAN, which is the most frequently visited portal website in Japan.

Yahoo! JAPAN’s brand name, popular internet website and existing user base have contributed significantly to the expansion of our Y!mobile and Yahoo! BB subscriber base. If our current relationship with such subsidiary of Verizon were to deteriorate for any reason, we may not be able to continue using the Yahoo! brand, which could significantly damage the brand recognition related to Yahoo Japan’s portal site or otherwise have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our renewable energy business is vulnerable to reductions in power production due to climatic and other factors.

We engage in the renewable energy business, which is subject to inherent unpredictability, as it is heavily influenced by weather conditions such as sunlight and wind force. As a result, protracted unfavorable weather conditions could significantly reduce the energy generated by our production facilities. Moreover, output of renewable energy could also be reduced if production facilities are damaged or become inoperable due to natural disasters or other events. Our financial condition or results of operations may be adversely affected by any of the above.

Security breaches and illegal or inappropriate use of our services could adversely affect our reputation and expose us to claims from customers and penalties from authorities.

We collect, handle and maintain customer information, including personal information and other confidential information, in the course of our business operations. In some cases we also rely upon third-party subcontractors to handle customer information. Information handled by ourselves or our subcontractors may include a customer’s name and email address, as well as date of birth, address, contact information, bank account information, credit card information and other information. We are subject to various regulations regarding the storage and protection of customer information, and we are required to exercise care in protecting the confidentiality of personal information, as well as to take steps to ensure the security of our services.

Any material leak of personal information, due to hacking or other unauthorized access of one of our databases, or due to the willful misconduct or inadvertent mistake of one of our own employees or subcontractors or otherwise, could result in claims or lawsuits against us, and we could be held legally responsible for any damages sustained by the affected persons. Such events could also result in reputational damage even if we are not held legally responsible. Further, we could incur additional expenses associated with changing our security systems, either voluntarily or in response to administrative guidance or other regulatory initiatives from the government, or in connection with public relations campaigns designed to prevent or mitigate damage to our corporate image or reputation. Any related reputational damage could lead to a decline in new subscribers or users or an increase in subscriber or user cancellations for any of our services. Any of the above consequences could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our operations may be subject to service disruptions or decline in quality due to human error and other factors.

In our provision of various services, including telecommunications services, there is a possibility that a major problem could occur if we became unable to continuously provide the services, or suffer a decline in the quality of the services, due to human error, serious problems with equipment or systems, or other causes. If such disruptions or decline in quality were to become widespread and/or significant time was required to restore services, our credibility or corporate image could deteriorate, making it difficult to acquire and retain customers. This could impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our operations may be significantly affected by natural disasters or other unexpected disruptions such as earthquakes or volcanic eruptions.

We construct and maintain telecommunications networks and information systems necessary for the provision of various services, including telecommunications and internet services. Some regions in which we conduct business operations are susceptible to natural disasters, such as earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, typhoons, tsunamis and floods. Such natural disasters or other unexpected disruptions, such as fires, power outages or shortages, terrorist attacks, human error, computer viruses, cyber-attacks, unauthorized access to our system or servers or system malfunctions could affect the normal operation of telecommunications networks and information systems and hinder our provision of services to consumers, and any resulting decline in the quality of service on a widespread basis or for an extended period of time could result in loss of our reputation or creditworthiness and make it difficult to retain or attract customers. Further, remedying such disruptions could require significant unanticipated capital expenditures. For example, Japan is an earthquake-prone country and has historically experienced numerous large earthquakes that have resulted in extensive infrastructural damage and destruction. Most recently, in the aftermath of the Great East Japan Earthquake, which struck Japan on March 11, 2011, we, as well as other major mobile communications companies, experienced a temporary but widespread decline in the quality of our mobile services due to the sudden influx of text messages and phone calls. We also experienced store closings, widespread damage to our facilities and other effects due to the structural damage caused by the earthquake.

Additionally, the head offices and business offices of various companies within the SoftBank Group are concentrated within the Tokyo metropolitan area. Therefore, the possibility exists that a major earthquake or other catastrophic natural disaster or attack in the Tokyo metropolitan area could significantly affect our operations or impede the continuity of our business. Any of the foregoing may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

To the extent that it is reasonably available, we carry insurance for losses, with policy specifications and insured limits that we believe are adequate and appropriate for our business.

We are subject to laws, government regulations and licensing regimes that restrict and may impose new restrictions on our business.

We are subject to various laws and regulations pertaining to general corporate business activities, as well as laws, regulations and licensing regimes governing our business operations, including laws regulating telecommunications, internet advertising, e-commerce, energy, robots, semiconductors, IoT, financial or payment business or other corporate activities. For example, the Telecommunications Business Act and Radio Act, which govern our telecommunications business in Japan, and the regimes that govern the spectrum allocated to us by the MIC, allow us to conduct our mobile communications operations. Our businesses are also subject to laws and regulations relating to the environment, product liability, unfair competition, consumer protection, privacy protection, prohibition of bribery, labor, intellectual property rights, prevention of money laundering, taxes, currency exchange, business and investment permits and the import and export of goods. See “Regulation.” Additionally, we have been subject to administrative guidance in the past and any future breaches of relevant regulations could further subject us to administrative sanctions or guidance by government agencies that may hinder our business development or create financial burdens that could negatively affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Many of the licenses and permits that we require to provide telecommunications services are subject to various conditions and there is no assurance that we will be able to satisfy such conditions. Additionally, in Japan we are also dependent on radio frequency spectrum allocated to us by the MIC. There can be no assurance that the MIC will grant our application with respect to an allocation of frequency spectrum or that the MIC will not reallocate frequency spectrum in a manner that could be detrimental to us. See “Business—Our Business Segments—Domestic Telecommunications Segment—Mobile Network.”

In the United States, over the past few years, the U.S. Federal Trade Commission (the “FCC”) and other federal and state agencies have engaged in increased regulatory and enforcement activity as well as investigations of the U.S. telecommunications industry generally. Enforcement activities or investigations could make it more difficult and expensive to operate Sprint’s business, and could increase the costs of its wireless operations. In addition, Sprint may offer products that include highly regulated financial services, which subject it to additional state and federal regulations. The costs to comply with such regulations and failure to remain compliant with such regulations could adversely affect its results of operations.

In providing services in different countries, we are subject to various laws and regulations that govern such jurisdictions as well as various licensing regimes under such laws. The enforcement of existing regulations may greatly restrict our ability to conduct and expand our business. Additionally, revisions to or changes in the interpretation or enforcement of applicable laws and regulations and the introduction of new laws and regulations could prevent us from conducting our current businesses or developing new businesses as anticipated.

The Company, Sprint and Sprint Communications, Inc. have entered into a National Security Agreement with the United States Department of Defense, the United States Department of Homeland Security and the United States Department of Justice. Under the National Security Agreement, we have agreed to implement certain measures to protect U.S. national security. Implementing these measures could increase costs and limit control over certain U.S. facilities, contracts, personnel, vendor selection and operations, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

If new laws and regulations are introduced in a form we do not expect, or if existing laws and regulations are amended or subject to changes in interpretation or application, the products and services that we are able to offer to our customers could be limited. We may not be able to accurately predict, prevent or effectively react to new laws and regulations, or new amendments to or interpretations and applications of existing laws and regulations, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We are subject to changes in accounting and taxation systems.

The introduction of new accounting or taxation systems, or changes to existing systems, and the occurrence of an additional tax burden due to differences of views with the tax authorities could adversely affect our financial position and results of operations.

Our business may be adversely affected by actual or perceived health risks associated with mobile communications devices and the location of base stations and antennas.

Mobile communications devices have been alleged to have adverse health effects, due to radio frequency emissions. Similarly, the location of base stations and antennas has become a health-related concern as the radio frequency emissions from these structures are continuous. The actual or perceived risk of using mobile communications devices could adversely affect us through a reduction in subscribers, network usage per subscriber or financing available to the mobile communications industry. These adverse effects are similarly possible based on the perception of the locations of our base stations and antennas (i.e., whether surrounding locations are highly populated or not) and the impact our base stations and antennas have on those locations. We cannot provide assurance that there is no relationship between radio frequency emissions and health risks.

We may suffer from unauthorized use of our intellectual property by third parties and incur costs associated with protecting our intellectual property.

We regard our proprietary products, brands, domain names, trade names, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets and similar intellectual property as critical to our business. However, policing the unauthorized use of our intellectual property is difficult and expensive. Although we have taken steps to prevent the misappropriation of our intellectual property, such protective measures may not be adequate to prevent the unauthorized use of our intellectual property. Any misappropriation of intellectual property that is used in our business, whether licensed to us or owned by us, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Further, the laws and enforcement procedures in some countries do not protect intellectual property rights to the same extent as the laws and enforcement procedures of Japan or the United States. Legal protection of our rights may be ineffective in such countries, and we may be unable to protect our intellectual property rights in such countries. In the future, we may need to resort to court proceedings to enforce our intellectual property rights, which might result in substantial costs and diversion of management attention and resources away from the operation and growth of our business.

We may be subject to intellectual property claims.

We generally operate our business in a way that we believe is reasonably designed to avoid infringing the intellectual property rights of third parties. However, particularly as there are many companies that develop and provide online technologies and broadband products, the features and content of which continue to overlap, there is an increasing possibility that we may be subject to litigation involving claims of patent, copyright or trademark infringement, or other violations of intellectual property rights of third parties. In particular, the patent field covering online and related technology is rapidly evolving and surrounded by a great deal of uncertainty, and our technologies, processes or business models and methods may infringe the intellectual property rights of third parties either now existing or to be issued in the future. Existing or future infringement claims against us, whether valid or not, may be time consuming, distracting to management and expensive to defend.

Intellectual property litigation or claims could force us to:

- cease operating or using products or services that incorporate the intellectual property subject to such claims;
- modify the products or services to avoid infringing upon the intellectual property rights of third parties;
- obtain a license from the holder of the infringed intellectual property, which may not be available on commercially favorable terms, or at all; or
- change our business practices, any of which could result in additional costs.

Additionally, in the event that there is a determination that we have infringed the proprietary rights of any third party, we could incur substantial liabilities. Any of the above may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

From time to time, we may become involved in legal proceedings, which could adversely affect our business.

From time to time, we may become subject to legal proceedings, claims, litigation and government investigations or inquiries, which could be expensive, lengthy or disruptive to normal business operations or affect our corporate image. In addition, the outcome of any legal proceedings, claims, litigation, investigations or inquiries may be difficult to predict and could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Risks Relating to the Notes

There are no prior markets for the Notes and, if markets develop, they may not be liquid.

Although approval in-principle has been received for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the SGX ST, there can be no assurance that we will be able to obtain or maintain such listing or that any liquid markets for the Notes will ever develop or be maintained. The Initial Purchasers have advised us that they currently intend to make a market in the Notes following the offering. However, the Initial Purchasers have no obligation to make a market in the Notes and they may stop at any time. Furthermore, there can be no assurance as to the liquidity of any markets that may develop for the Notes or the prices at which you will be able to sell your Notes, if at all. Future trading prices of the Notes will depend on many factors, including:

- prevailing interest rates;
- our financial condition and results of operations;
- the then-current ratings assigned to the Notes;
- the market for similar securities; and
- general economic conditions.

Any trading markets that develop would be affected by many factors independent of and in addition to the foregoing, including the time remaining to the maturity of the Notes and until we are able to redeem the Notes at our option without paying a make-whole premium; the outstanding amount of the Notes; and the level, direction and volatility of market interest rates generally.

In addition, in the event that our obligations in connection with maintaining the listing and quotation of the Notes on the SGX-ST become unduly burdensome, we may be entitled to, and may decide to, delist the Notes from the SGX-ST and seek an alternate listing for the Notes on another securities exchange.

The Notes and the Note Guarantees are unsecured obligations and will be effectively subordinated to the existing and future secured indebtedness of the Company and its subsidiaries. We and our subsidiaries may in the future incur substantial amounts of secured debt.

The Notes and the Note Guarantees are unsecured obligations ranking effectively junior in right of payment to all existing and future secured indebtedness of the Company and the Note Guarantors, to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such indebtedness. As of June 30, 2017, neither the Company nor the Guarantor had any secured indebtedness except for ¥400 billion ($3,568 million) outstanding under securities lending arrangements whereby we loan shares that we own to a major Japanese lender and receive cash as collateral and ¥1,245 billion ($11,112 million) outstanding under finance lease. See “Description of Other Indebtedness—Borrowings—¥400 billion ($3,568 million) in Securities Lending” and “Description of Other Indebtedness—Leases—¥1,245 billion ($11,112 million) Outstanding on Finance Leases.”

Additionally, the Indenture will not prohibit (other than in certain limited cases) the Company, the Note Guarantor or the Company’s other subsidiaries from incurring indebtedness that is secured by liens over certain property and assets that do not also secure the Notes and Note Guarantees. Among other things, the Indenture will permit the Company and the Note Guarantor to pledge any shares that they own in the Capital Stock of Alibaba Group Holding Limited or any other Excluded Subsidiary (as defined in “Description of the Notes”) or person other than a subsidiary to secure indebtedness that does not provide for recourse to the assets of the Company or Note Guarantor beyond the pledged collateral. In addition, the Indenture will permit our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries to incur unlimited amounts of indebtedness that (i) is secured by, among other collateral, any of our or our subsidiaries’ shares in the Capital Stock of Alibaba Group Holding Limited, SBGK (the direct subsidiary of the Company and parent of the Note Guarantor), Sprint, Arm, the SVF (and any assets held thereby) or any other Excluded Subsidiary or person other than a subsidiary and (ii) is otherwise non-recourse to the Company or the Note Guarantor. In particular, the Indenture will not restrict SBGK from incurring secured indebtedness, including indebtedness secured by the shares of SoftBank Corp. See “Description of the Notes.” The Indenture will not regulate our use of the proceeds of such secured indebtedness and will permit us to use such proceeds for, among other things, capital expenditures (including in ring-fenced subsidiaries such as Sprint), investments in affiliates, associates or our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries (as defined in “Description of the Notes”), repurchase of ordinary or preferred stock, distributions, dividends or any general corporate purpose. We cannot assure you that the proceeds of such secured indebtedness will be available for repayment of the Notes.

In the event of any bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganization, rehabilitation, dissolution, winding-up or other insolvency proceedings of the Company or any Note Guarantor, the rights of the holders of the Notes to participate in the assets of the Company or of such Note Guarantor will rank behind the claims of secured creditors, including trade creditors, if any.

Repayment of the Notes may be compromised if:

- we enter into bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganization, rehabilitation, dissolution or other winding-up proceedings or other insolvency proceedings;
- we default in payment of our secured indebtedness or other unsecured indebtedness; or
- any of our indebtedness is accelerated.

If any of these events occurs, our assets may be used first to satisfy the claims of secured creditors and the remaining assets may be insufficient to pay amounts due on the Notes.

The Notes and the Note Guarantees will be structurally subordinated to any existing or future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries.

As of June 30, 2017, total interest-bearing debt of Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries was ¥4,731 billion ($42,250 million) or 33.4% of the total interest-bearing debt of the Company on a consolidated basis excluding financial liabilities relating to the sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract. The Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries will include Sprint, Yahoo Japan, Arm, Brightstar and the SVF as of the issue date, among others. The holders of the Notes will not have any direct right to claim against any of our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries, and may only participate in the assets of such subsidiaries through the distribution of the remaining assets to us as a common equity interest holder of such subsidiaries or the limited repayment to us as a creditor of such subsidiaries (if we have a claim against such subsidiaries) under bankruptcy or other insolvency procedures. As a result, the Notes and the Note Guarantees are structurally subordinated to the preferred securities, outstanding debt and other obligations, including trade payables, of our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries (other than debt and other obligations of SBGK with respect to the Note Guarantor) and the amount of such preferred securities, debt and obligations and may be significant. The Note Guarantee of any Note Guarantor may be released under certain circumstances, as well, at which point any indebtedness of such former Note Guarantor would also be structurally senior to the obligations of the Company under the Notes. See “—There are circumstances other than repayment or discharge of the Notes under which the Note Guarantees may be released, without your consent or the consent of the Trustee.”

The Indenture will not restrict our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries from issuing additional debt to the extent such further debt is non-recourse to the Company or the Note Guarantor. To the extent the Company or the Note Guarantor provides a guarantee in support of indebtedness or a person other than the Company or the Note Guarantor, the Indenture will limit the principal amount guaranteed to 10% of the Company’s consolidated net tangible assets or, if greater, ¥800 billion, subject to certain exceptions, in particular with respect to project finance indebtedness. See “Description of the Notes—Certain Covenants—Permitted Third Party Guarantees.”

Our obligations under the Notes will rank pari passu in right of payment with the Company’s outstanding unsubordinated corporate bonds (including the 2013 Notes, the 2015 Notes and our senior unsecured yen-denominated bonds), the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan and outstanding amounts under our commitment line facility have equal right to all assets of the Company in the event of an insolvency or liquidation.

In insolvency or liquidation proceedings of the Company, subject to any claims that are preferred by law, secured claims or cases of preference as provided for under Japanese laws of general application, the Notes will rank pari passu in right of payment to all unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Company, including the Company’s unsubordinated corporate bonds (including the 2013 Notes, the 2015 Notes and the Company’s senior unsecured yen-denominated bonds), the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan and outstanding amounts under the commitment line facility, as well as other senior borrowings. See “Description of Other Indebtedness.” Upon any distribution to the creditors of the Company in a liquidation, administration, bankruptcy, moratorium of payments, dissolution or other winding-up of the Company, the creditors under the Company’s unsubordinated corporate bonds (including the 2013 Notes, the 2015 Notes and the Company’s senior unsecured yen-denominated bonds), the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan and other senior borrowings will be entitled to be paid equally and ratably with respect to property and assets of the Company. See “—Enforcement of claims on the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be subject to certain limitations arising under Japanese insolvency and corporate laws. Japanese laws may be different from, and not as favorable to you as, the laws in other jurisdictions.”

As of June 30, 2017, after giving effect to the offering of the Notes and the expected use of proceeds thereof, the Company and the Note Guarantor would have had further adjusted total interest-bearing debt of ¥14,200 billion ($127 billion). The Indenture will not restrict the Company or the Note Guarantor from issuing preferred stock or incurring further unsecured indebtedness, which might dilute recoveries of holders of the Notes in any insolvency or liquidation of the Company or the Note Guarantor.

The Indenture will contain limited restrictive covenants and will not restrict our ability to make investments, incur indebtedness at the Company or the Note Guarantor, pay dividends (except in certain limited circumstances) or enter into affiliate transactions.

The Indenture will contain limited restrictive covenants and the Indenture will not restrict our ability to:

- make capital expenditures (including in ring-fenced subsidiaries such as Sprint);
- invest in affiliates, associates or Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries (including by servicing indebtedness at such affiliates, associates or Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries), invest cash and assets into the SVF (to which we have committed to invest $28 billion in cash and in-kind contributions of investments), repurchase ordinary or preferred stock, make distributions or issue dividends (except in certain limited circumstances);
- issue preferred securities or incur unsecured indebtedness at the Company or the Note Guarantor;
- pledge the Capital Stock of an Excluded Subsidiary, any person other than a subsidiary or any member of the Alibaba group owned by the Company or the Note Guarantor to secure indebtedness that does not provide for recourse to the assets of the Company or the Note Guarantor beyond the pledged collateral; or
- enter into transactions with affiliates.

Our taking such actions under the Indenture could adversely affect our ability to pay amounts due on the Notes.

To the extent the Indenture will contain restrictive covenants, those covenants will be limited in effect and subject to certain exceptions.

- The Indenture will only contain limited restrictions on our ability to guarantee or provide security in respect of indebtedness at Subsidiaries, Affiliates and Associates other than Note Guarantors. See “—The Notes and the Note Guarantees will be structurally subordinated to any existing or future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries.”
- The negative pledge to be provided by the Company and the Note Guarantor under the Indenture does not apply to certain types of indebtedness, including secured indebtedness that does not provide for recourse to the assets of the Company or the Note Guarantor beyond the pledged collateral, and is subject to certain material exceptions. See “Description of the Notes—Certain Covenants—Negative Pledge.”
- The Indenture will prohibit our using the proceeds from an asset sale to repurchase ordinary or preferred stock from or make a distribution or issue dividends to our equity holders only if such repurchases, distributions or dividends exceed $20 billion in the aggregate since the issue date and our Consolidated Net Leverage Ratio (calculated as set forth in the Indenture) exceeds 4.0 to 1.0 at the time of the proposed repurchase, distribution or dividend (after giving pro forma effect thereof). The scope of this covenant is subject to certain material exceptions, including with respect to assets comprising interests in the SVF or our investments of the SVF. See “Description of the Notes—Certain Covenants—Distributions of Proceeds of Asset Sales.”

The ratings of the Notes may change after the issuance of the Notes and those changes may have an adverse effect on the market prices and liquidity of the Notes.

Credit ratings that the Notes may receive will not address all material risks relating to an investment in the Notes, but reflect only the view of each rating agency at the time the rating is issued. There is no assurance that any such credit ratings will remain in effect for any given period of time or that such ratings will not be lowered, suspended or withdrawn entirely by the rating agencies, if, in each rating agency’s judgment, circumstances so warrant. A downgrade or potential downgrade in these ratings or the assignment of new ratings that are lower than existing ratings could reduce the number of potential investors of the Notes and adversely affect the prices and liquidity of the Notes. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the Notes.

We may not have sufficient funds to repurchase the Notes upon a Change of Control Triggering Event and certain strategic transactions may not constitute a Change of Control Triggering Event.

The occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event (as defined in “Description of the Notes”) will require us to offer to repurchase the Notes at a purchase price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount of Notes repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest on the Notes up to but excluding the date of repurchase. It is possible that we will not have sufficient funds upon a Change of Control Triggering Event to purchase the Notes tendered pursuant to such an offer and any failure to do so would be a default under the Indenture and could result in cross defaults under our other financing agreements (including the 2013 Notes, the 2015 Notes and the Hybrid Notes). See “Description of the Notes—Repurchase at the Option of Holders upon a Change of Control Triggering Event.” In addition, some of our financing agreements or other similar agreements to which we may become a party may contain restrictions on our ability to purchase the Notes, regardless of the occurrence of a Change of Control Triggering Event.

We frequently evaluate and may in the future enter into strategic transactions. The change of control provisions contained in the Indenture may not protect you in the event of highly leveraged transactions and other important corporate events, including reorganizations, recapitalizations, delistings, sale of important investments (including our holdings in Alibaba or the SVF (or the portfolio companies thereof)), restructurings or mergers that may adversely affect you, because these transactions may not involve a change in voting power or beneficial interest of the magnitude required to trigger the change of control. The change of control would only be triggered due to a change in beneficial ownership of our shares if, among other things, a person other than Mr. Masayoshi Son, our Chairman and CEO, beneficially owned more than 50% of our voting shares. The change of control would not be triggered if a person other than Mr. Masayoshi Son became our controlling shareholder, unless such other person obtains more than 50% of our voting shares. Strategic transactions such as the foregoing could happen at any time and could be material to our business. Such transactions could significantly increase the amount of our indebtedness outstanding at such time or otherwise affect our capital structure or credit ratings.

One of the ways a change of control can occur is upon a sale of all or substantially all of our assets. With respect to the sale of assets referred to in the definition of change of control in the Indenture, the meaning of the phrase “all or substantially all” as used in that definition varies according to the facts and circumstances of the subject transaction, has no clearly established meaning under the relevant law and is subject to judicial interpretation. Accordingly, in certain circumstances there may be a degree of uncertainty in ascertaining whether a particular transaction would involve a disposition of “all or substantially all” of the assets of a person and therefore it may be unclear whether a Change of Control Triggering Event has occurred and whether we are required to make a change of control offer, to repurchase the Notes.

Our operations may be restricted by the terms of the Indenture and our other financing agreements, which could limit our ability to plan for or to react to market conditions or meet our capital needs.

The Indenture will include certain restrictive incurrence-based covenants, including restrictions on the ability of the Company to incur secured indebtedness or guarantee the indebtedness of Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries, as well as restrictions on the ability of the Company and the Note Guarantor to layer additional debt between other indebtedness and the Notes or the Note Guarantee. See “Description of the Notes—Certain Covenants.”

We are subject to certain restrictive financial maintenance covenants in our other financing agreements, including with respect to designated net interest-bearing debt and leverage ratios. See “Description of Other Indebtedness” and note 19 to our audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 included elsewhere in this offering memorandum. In addition, certain of our subsidiaries, including Sprint and Brightstar, are subject to restrictive covenants in their financing arrangements that limit the ability of such subsidiaries to distribute dividends or otherwise make payments to the Company. See “—Our corporate structure may affect your ability to receive payment on the Notes.”

These covenants and any covenants included in future agreements could limit our ability to plan for or react to market conditions or to meet our capital needs, limit how we conduct our business and execute our business strategy, prevent us from raising additional debt or equity financing to operate during general economic or business downturns, impair our ability to compete effectively or to take advantage of new business opportunities or generally affect our ability to grow in accordance with our plans. Our ability to comply with these covenants may be affected by events beyond our control, and we may have to curtail some of our operations and growth plans to maintain compliance.

If we are unable to comply with the restrictions and covenants in our current or future debt and other agreements (including any such restrictions and covenants in the current and future debt and other agreement of Sprint or its subsidiaries), including the Indenture, there could be a default under the terms of these agreements. In the event of a default under these agreements, the holders of the debt could terminate their commitments to lend to us, accelerate repayment of the debt and declare all amounts borrowed due and payable or terminate the agreements, as the case may be. Furthermore, some of our financing agreements, including the 2013 Notes, the 2015 Notes and the Indenture, contain cross-acceleration or cross-payment-default provisions. As a result, our default under one debt agreement may cause the acceleration of repayment of debt or result in a default under our other financing agreements. If any of these events occur, we cannot assure you that our assets and cash flow would be sufficient to repay in full all of our indebtedness, or that we would be able to find alternative financing. Even if we could obtain alternative financing, we cannot assure you that it would be on terms that are favorable or acceptable to us.

Our substantial leverage and debt service obligations could limit our flexibility, adversely affect our business and prevent us from fulfilling our obligations under the Notes.

Our total interest-bearing debt excluding financial liabilities relating to the sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract was ¥14,183 billion ($126,637 million) as of June 30, 2017.

The degree to which we are leveraged could have important negative consequences for us and you as holder of the Notes. Our ability to make scheduled payments on the Notes and to meet our other debt service obligations depends on our future operating and financial performance and ability to generate cash, which are affected by our ability to implement our business strategy as well as general economic, financial, competitive and other factors beyond our control. For example, our substantial debt could require us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations to making payments on our debt, thereby limiting the availability of funds for working capital, business opportunities and other general corporate purposes, increase our vulnerability to adverse general economic or industry conditions, make it more difficult for us to satisfy our obligations with respect to the Notes, limit our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and the industry in which we operate, increase our cost of borrowing, place us at a competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors that may have less indebtedness and limit our ability to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions or general corporate purposes. If we cannot generate sufficient cash to meet our debt service obligations or fund our other business needs, we may, among other things, need to refinance all or a portion of our debt, including the Notes, obtain additional financing or sell assets.

Additionally, despite our high level of indebtedness and leverage, we may be able to incur significant additional amounts of debt, which could further exacerbate the risks associated with our substantial indebtedness. The restrictive covenants in the Indenture, the indenture governing the 2013 Notes, the indenture governing the 2015 Notes and our other financing agreements impose only limited restrictions on our ability to incur further indebtedness, and debt incurred in compliance with these restrictions could be substantial.

In addition, certain of our outstanding financing agreements will mature or need to be refinanced prior to the maturity of the Notes. If our cash flows and capital resources are insufficient to fund our debt service obligations, we may be forced to reduce or delay capital expenditures, sell assets, seek additional capital or seek to restructure or refinance our indebtedness, including the Notes. We cannot assure you that we will be able to generate sufficient cash through any of the foregoing. If we are not able to refinance any of our debt, obtain additional financing or sell assets on commercially reasonable terms or at all, we may not be able to satisfy our obligations with respect to our debt, including the Notes. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Liquidity and Capital Resources.”

Our corporate structure may affect your ability to receive payment on the Notes.

The Company is a pure holding company and substantially all of its operating income and cash flow are derived from its subsidiaries. As a result, the Company will rely on its subsidiaries’ operating income and cash flow to make payments due under the Notes.

Although much of our business is conducted through our subsidiaries, none of our subsidiaries other than a Note Guarantor is obligated to make funds available to us for payment on the Notes and the terms of the financing agreements of our subsidiaries may restrict them from paying dividends and otherwise transferring assets to us. We cannot assure you that the agreements governing the current and future indebtedness of our subsidiaries will permit our subsidiaries to provide us with sufficient dividends, distributions or loans to fund payments on these notes when due.

In particular, Sprint has incurred substantial amounts of stand-alone indebtedness that has limited recourse to Sprint itself and certain of its guarantor subsidiaries, is highly leveraged and uses a significant portion of its cash flow to service its own indebtedness and substantial capital expenditure requirements. The financial maintenance and incurrence covenants currently included in the terms of Sprint’s indebtedness impose significant restrictions on its ability to pay dividends, distribute cash or return capital to us. Accordingly, only limited reliance can be placed on our Sprint segment’s EBITDA, operating income and cash flow as indicators of our ability to service our indebtedness, including the Notes. See “Presentation of Financial Information.”

There are circumstances other than repayment or discharge of the Notes under which the Note Guarantees may be released, without your consent or the consent of the Trustee.

Under various circumstances, the Note Guarantees may be released, including automatically in connection with any sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets or capital stock of such Note Guarantor (including by way of merger or consolidation) to a person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Company or a subsidiary of the Company or at the option of the Company, subject to certain conditions, upon the release of any Guarantee of any indebtedness of the Company or a Note Guarantor which results in such Note Guarantor no longer guaranteeing any indebtedness of the Company or a Note Guarantor (other than pursuant to the Note Guarantees). See “—The Notes and the Note Guarantees will be structurally subordinated to any existing or future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries.” As of the issue date, the Note Guarantor guarantees the 2013 Notes, the 2015 Notes, the domestic yen-denominated unsecured straight bonds and senior loans including the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan, the Brightstar Acquisition Loan and the Commitment Line. We cannot assure you, however, the such guarantees will not be discharged due to refinancing or amendment of the underlying indebtedness or pursuant to automatic release provisions such as those contained in the Indenture. Once a Note Guarantee of a subsidiary has been released, certain restrictive covenants of the Indenture that apply only to Note Guarantors will no longer restrict such subsidiary. Specifically, such subsidiary will no longer be restricted from incurring secured indebtedness or guaranteeing the debt of third parties.

Our principal shareholder, Mr. Masayoshi Son, maintains significant influence over us, and his interests may conflict with your interests.

Mr. Masayoshi Son, our Chairman and CEO, is our single largest shareholder and owned 21% of the Company’s issued share capital as of March 31, 2017. As a result, Mr. Son has significant influence as to the composition of our board of directors and, in general, may determine the outcome of corporate decisions and other matters submitted to our shareholders for approval. The interests of Mr. Son, in certain circumstances, may conflict with your interests. For example, Mr. Son could vote to declare dividends or cause us to incur indebtedness, in each case as permitted under the Notes, causing capital outflows or increasing debt service obligations, which could hinder our ability to meet our obligations under the Notes.

Enforcement of claims on the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be subject to certain limitations arising under Japanese insolvency and corporate laws. Japanese laws may be different from, and not as favorable to you as, the laws in other jurisdictions.

We are incorporated in Japan and, consequently, will be subject to Japanese laws and procedures affecting debtors and creditors, such as bankruptcy, corporate reorganization, civil rehabilitation or special liquidation proceedings. Under the Bankruptcy Act of Japan (Act No. 75 of 2004, as amended), a petition for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings may be filed with a court by us or any of our directors or creditors if we are generally and continuously unable to pay our debts as they become due because of a lack of ability to pay or if our liabilities exceed our assets. Under the Corporate Reorganization Act of Japan (Act No. 154 of 2002, as amended), a petition for the commencement of corporate reorganization proceedings may be filed with a court by us or certain qualified shareholders or creditors if it is likely that any of the grounds for bankruptcy as described above will arise. In addition, we may file a petition for the commencement of corporate reorganization proceedings if it is likely that the payment of a debt which becomes due would cause serious impediments to our continued business operations. Under the Civil Rehabilitation Act of Japan (Act No. 225 of 1999, as amended), a petition for the commencement of civil rehabilitation proceedings may be filed with a court by us or any of our creditors if it is likely that we face any of the grounds for bankruptcy as described above. A petition for civil rehabilitation may be also filed by us if we are unable to make any payments as they become due without causing any material obstruction to the continuation of our business. Under the Companies Act of Japan (Act No. 86 of 2005, as amended), a petition for the commencement of special liquidation proceedings may be filed with a court by any of our creditors, liquidators, audit and supervisory board members or shareholders if, after liquidation proceedings have commenced, circumstances exist which would seriously impede the carrying out of our liquidation or if there exists any possibility or doubt that our liabilities exceed our assets. The court will be required to order the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings at its initiative if, after a special liquidation has been commenced, the court determines that there exists a fact which constitutes a cause of commencement of the bankruptcy proceedings while: (i) there is no prospect of entering into a settlement agreement; (ii) there is no prospect of performing a settlement agreement; or (iii) the special liquidation conflicts with the general interest of the creditors.

In any of the insolvency proceedings mentioned above, our liabilities under the Notes would, in general, be paid to holders of the Notes and creditors ranking equally with such holders in right of payment on a pro rata basis, only after all of our debts that are entitled to a preferred status under the insolvency laws (such as employment remuneration claims, expenses of insolvency proceedings and taxes) have been paid. Also, the rights of the holders of the Notes will be effectively subordinated to those of secured creditors (tanpo-kensha). In insolvency proceedings other than corporate reorganization proceedings, secured creditors will be entitled to foreclose our collateralized assets outside of the insolvency proceedings, although the foreclosure of collateralized assets by the secured creditors may be suspended upon a special order of the court. In corporate reorganization proceedings, secured creditors will be required to participate in such proceedings, and their rights could be impaired or modified in accordance with a reorganization plan. However, claims of general creditors, including holders of the Notes, would be subordinated under the plan to secured claims to the extent of the net value of the security interest at the commencement of the proceedings unless agreed by a majority of secured creditors. In insolvency proceedings other than special liquidation proceedings, the Notes will rank senior in right of payment to our debts that are subordinated by law, as well as our debts that are contractually subordinated to the extent that we and creditors have agreed prior to the commencement of insolvency proceedings that, if insolvency proceedings are commenced against us, the debts shall be subordinated to any subordinated bankruptcy claims (retsugo-teki hasan saiken) defined in the Bankruptcy Act of Japan (such as claims for interest and default interest accrued after the commencement of insolvency proceedings and creditors' expenses to participate in insolvency proceedings) in the order of priority for receiving a distribution in the insolvency proceedings.

Under Japanese insolvency laws, no party (including, without limitation, any director of a company) is expressly obligated to file for the commencement of insolvency proceedings in any particular circumstance (except that liquidators are required to file for the commencement of special liquidation proceedings in certain circumstances). However, our directors are subject to general fiduciary duties under the Companies Act of Japan, which may in certain circumstances require them to take appropriate steps, including filing for the commencement of insolvency proceedings when a cause for insolvency arises. If our directors do not take appropriate action in such circumstances, they could be subject to civil and criminal liabilities.

If, based on a petition for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, a court orders the commencement of such bankruptcy proceedings, a trustee in bankruptcy (hasan kanzainin) will be appointed to administer our operations, realize all assets belonging to the bankruptcy estate and make distributions to creditors. If, based on a petition for the commencement of corporate reorganization proceedings, a court orders the commencement of such reorganization proceedings, a reorganization administrator (kousei kanzainin) will be appointed to take over our operations, assess all assets and liabilities, propose a reorganization plan and, if the plan is approved by our creditors and confirmed by the court, transfer management responsibilities to the new management under the plan. If, based on a petition for the commencement of civil rehabilitation proceedings, a court orders the commencement of such rehabilitation proceedings, our directors will remain in position (subject to supervision by a court appointed rehabilitation supervisor (kantoku i-in)), to propose a rehabilitation plan and, if approved by our creditors and confirmed by the court, execute the plan. If, based on a petition for the commencement of special liquidation proceedings, a court orders the commencement of such special liquidation proceedings, a liquidator (seisan-nin) will, under court supervision, liquidate all remaining assets and liabilities and make distributions to creditors under a settlement agreement approved by our creditors and confirmed by the court.

The offering of the Notes and payments made to the holders of the Notes may be avoided in insolvency proceedings (except for special liquidation proceedings) by the bankruptcy trustee, reorganization administrator or rehabilitation supervisor pursuant to their “right of avoidance” (hi-nin ken) as a fraudulent conveyance or voidable preference.

The acts that are subject to this right of avoidance include:

- any act by the debtor taken with the knowledge that such act will prejudice creditors and the beneficiary of such act was aware, at the time of the act, of the fact that such act will prejudice creditors (except the creation of a security interest or the extinguishment of obligations as to the already existing obligations);
- any act that (except the creation of a security interest or the extinguishment of obligations as to the already existing obligations):
 - prejudices creditors;
 - occurs after the debtor has suspended payments or after the filing of a petition; and
 - the beneficiary of such act was aware, at the time of the act, that the debtor has suspended payments or the filing of a petition has been made, and of the fact that such act will prejudice creditors;
- any voluntary act that:
 - relates to the creation of a security interest or the extinguishment of obligations as to the already existing obligations;
 - occurs after the debtor has become unable to pay debts in general and the creditor was aware, at the time of the act, of such debtor’s inability or suspension of payments by the debtor;
 - occurs after the filing of a petition and the creditor was aware, at the time of the act, of such filing; or
 - occurs within 30 days prior to the debtor becoming unable to pay debts in general and the creditor was aware, at the time of the act, of the fact that such act will prejudice other creditors; and
- any gratuitous act (or act deemed to be gratuitous) by the debtor after, or within six months prior to, either the suspension of payments by the debtor or the filing of a petition.

For example, the offering of or payment on the Notes may be avoided if: (i) we are deemed to have been aware at the time of the offering that it would be to the detriment of our creditors and you are deemed to have had notice of such fact at that time; or (ii) the payment takes place after we have become unable to pay our debts in general, or a petition for insolvency proceedings has been filed, and you are deemed to have been aware of such fact at that time.

Many of the covenants contained in the Indenture will be suspended if the Notes are rated investment grade by either of Moody’s and S&P.

Many of the covenants in the Indenture will be suspended if the Notes are rated Baa3 or better by Moody’s and BBB- or better by S&P, a division of the McGraw Hill Companies, Inc., provided at such time no default under the Indenture has occurred and is continuing. These covenants relate to, among other things, our ability to layer certain additional debt between other indebtedness and the Notes, guarantee or provide security in respect of the indebtedness at Subsidiaries, Affiliates and Associates other than Note Guarantors, pay dividends with the proceeds of asset sales. There can be no assurance that the Notes will ever be rated investment grade, or that if they are rated investment grade, that the Notes will maintain such ratings. Suspension of these covenants, however, would allow us to engage in certain transactions that would not be permitted while these covenants were in force, including incurring additional indebtedness structurally or effectively senior to the Notes and paying dividends with the proceeds of asset sales, which may conflict with, or otherwise be adverse to, your interests. See “Description of the Notes—Certain Covenants—Suspension of Certain Covenants.”

The transferability of the Notes may be limited under applicable securities laws.

The Notes and the Note Guarantees have not been, and will not be, registered under the U.S. Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or any other jurisdiction and, unless so registered, may not be offered or sold, except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and the applicable securities laws of any state or any other jurisdiction. The Notes are being offered and sold in offshore transactions outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S only to non-U.S. persons. It is the obligation of holders of the Notes to ensure that their offers and sales of the Notes comply with applicable securities laws and the applicable transfer restrictions. See “Notice to Investors.”

The Notes will initially be held in book-entry form and therefore you must rely on the procedures of the relevant clearing systems to exercise any rights and remedies.

Unless and until definitive Notes are issued in exchange for book-entry interests in the Notes (which will only occur in very limited circumstances), owners of the book-entry interests will not be considered owners or holders of the Notes. The common depositary (or its nominee) for the accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream will be the registered holder of any Notes. After payment to the common depositary, we will have no responsibility or liability for the payment of interest, principal or other amounts to the owners of book-entry interests. Accordingly, if you own a book-entry interest, you must rely on the procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream and if you are not a participant in Euroclear or Clearstream, on the procedures of the participant through which you own your interest, to exercise any rights and obligations of a holder under the Indenture. See “Book-Entry, Delivery and Form.”

Unlike holders of the Notes themselves, owners of book-entry interests will not have the direct right to act upon our solicitations for consents or requests for waivers or other actions from holders of the Notes. Instead, if you own a book-entry interest, you will be permitted to act only to the extent you have received appropriate proxies to do so from Euroclear or Clearstream or, if applicable, from a participant. We cannot assure you that procedures implemented for the granting of such proxies will be sufficient to enable you to vote on any requested actions on a timely basis.

Similarly, upon the occurrence of an event of default under the Indenture, unless and until definitive registered notes are issued in respect of all book-entry interests, if you own a book-entry interest, you will be restricted to acting through Euroclear or Clearstream. We cannot assure you that the procedures to be implemented through Euroclear or Clearstream will be adequate to ensure the timely exercise of rights under the Notes. See “Book-Entry, Delivery and Form.”

Holders of the Notes may have difficulty in serving process or enforcing a judgment against us or our directors, executive officers or audit and supervisory board members.

Both the Company and the Note Guarantor are limited liability, joint stock corporations incorporated under the laws of Japan. Most of the directors, executive officers and audit and supervisory board members of both the Company and the Note Guarantor reside in Japan. All or substantially all of our assets and the assets of these persons are located in Japan and elsewhere outside the United States. It may not be possible, therefore, for holders of the Notes to effect service of process within the United States upon us or these persons or to enforce against us or these persons judgments obtained in U.S. courts predicated solely upon the laws of jurisdictions other than Japan. There is also doubt as to the enforceability in Japan, in original actions or in actions for enforcement of judgment of U.S. courts, of liabilities predicated solely upon the federal securities laws of the United States.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We expect to receive a total of approximately $5,850 million (equivalent) in net proceeds from this offering, comprising approximately $3,310 million from the Dollar Notes and €2,223 million from the Euro Notes, after deducting underwriting discounts and commissions and other offering expenses payable by us. We intend to use most of the net proceeds from the sale of the Notes to refinance certain bank loans of the Company and to use the remaining funds for general corporate purposes.

The dollar-equivalent of the net proceeds from the Euro Notes was calculated by translating the euro-denominated net proceeds amount into Japanese yen at the rate of ¥127.97 = €1.00 and translating such yen amount into dollars at the rate of ¥112.00 = $1.00. Due to differences in currency exchange rates, such amount may differ from the amount of dollars that we would be able to receive by exchanging the net proceeds of the Euro Notes for dollars on or around the Issue Date. As of September 12, 2017, the relevant exchange rates were ¥131.63 = €1.00 and ¥110.04 = $1.00.

CAPITALIZATION

The following table sets forth our (i) available cash position and capitalization on an actual historical basis as of June 30, 2017 under IFRS, (ii) available cash position and capitalization adjusted to give effect to (1) our receipt of the net proceeds of ¥498 billion from our July 2017 issuance of the Hybrid Notes, (2) our receipt of $3,267 million (¥366 billion) in reimbursements in connection with certain assets (including our holdings in NVIDIA Corporation and Guardant Health, Inc.) that we have agreed to transfer to the SVF as of June 30, 2017, (3) our receipt of additional amounts of $2,998 million (¥336 billion) in reimbursements in connection with assets (including our holdings in Xiaoju Kuaizhi Inc. and OSIssoft LLC) that we plan, subject to the approval of the SVF, to transfer to entities in our SVF segment as of June 30, 2017 and (4) $189 million (¥21 billion) that we expect to receive in connection with our sale of Supercell, as if each of (1) through (4) had occurred on June 30, 2017, and (iii) such adjusted available cash position and capitalization as further adjusted to give effect to the offering of the Notes and the expected use of proceeds thereof as if it had occurred on June 30, 2017. Under IFRS, the yen-denominated hybrid bonds that we issued in September 2016 are considered debt and the Hybrid Notes that we issued in July 2017 are considered equity. With respect to the adjusted capitalization information below and adjusted financial information presented elsewhere in this offering memorandum, we have treated 50% of the carrying amount of our yen-denominated hybrid bonds issued in September 2016 as equity and 50% of the net proceeds of the Hybrid Notes as debt for the purposes of consistency and to align with the treatment presently applied for such securities for ratings purposes by S&P and JCR. See “Summary—Adjusted Financial Data.”

The financial data presented below has not been adjusted for the announced acquisition of Fortress. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Recent Developments” and “Presentation of Financial Information.” The financial data presented below also excludes financial liabilities relating to the sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract.

The historical financial information has been derived from the unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements, which were prepared in accordance with IAS 34, included elsewhere in this offering memorandum.

The information below is illustrative only, and our capitalization following the completion of this offering will be adjusted based on the actual proceeds from the offering and other terms of this offering determined at pricing. You should read this table in conjunction with the information provided under “Selected Historical Financial Information,” “Use of Proceeds,” “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations,” “Description of Other Indebtedness,” “Description of the Notes” and with our consolidated financial statements and the notes related thereto included elsewhere in this offering memorandum.

- (1) We have not retrospectively revised and re-issued our financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 to reflect certain changes in accounting policies adopted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 described in “Presentation of Financial Information—General”, other than Gain on sales of shares of associates and dilution gain from changes in equity interest. Gain on sales of shares of associates, which was included within Other non-operating income (loss) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, is separately presented. Also, dilution gain from changes in equity interest, which was separately presented for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, is included within Other non-operating income (loss). For more information, see Note 2(4) to our audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, which are included elsewhere in this offering memorandum. The financial data for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 presented in this table was extracted from the consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. The financial data for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 presented in this table was extracted from the consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and reflects certain reclassification due to changes in accounting policy adopted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. Additionally, we have reclassified certain accounting items as originally reported in the previously issued condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 on the same basis of presentation adopted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. See “Presentation of Financial Information—General” for further discussion.

- (a) During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, we changed our reportable segments to better align with our strategic goals. The revised segment information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 presented in this table was extracted from comparative information included in our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 and therefore reflects the changes made to our reportable segments during that fiscal year. See “Presentation of Financial Information—Segment Information.” In addition, the segment information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 presented in this table gives retroactive effect to the reclassification of GungHo as an equity method associate as a result of the completion of a tender offer by GungHo for its own shares during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. See “(1) Analysis of Results or Operations” in our consolidated financial reports as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 for further details.

- (b) Following its sale during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, Supercell, which had been previously assigned to the Other segment, was reclassified as a discontinued operation. For our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, we revised the comparative information presented for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to give retroactive effect to the reclassification of Supercell. The revised segment information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 presented in this table was extracted from comparative information included in our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and therefore reflects this retroactive reclassification.
- (c) Reconciliations include an elimination of intersegment transaction and the corporate general expenses unallocated to each reportable segment. Corporate general expenses include expenses arising mainly from the Company and SB Group US, Inc., which manages and supervises investment activities in the internet, communication and media fields overseas.
- (d) Excludes discontinued operations.

- (b) Following its sale during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, Supercell, which had been previously assigned to the Other segment, was reclassified as a discontinued operation. For our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, we revised the comparative information presented for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to give retroactive effect to the reclassification of Supercell. The revised segment information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 presented in this table was extracted from comparative information included in our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and therefore reflects this retroactive reclassification.
- (c) Reconciliations include an elimination of intersegment transactions and corporate general expenses unallocated to each reportable segment. Corporate general expenses include expenses arising mainly from the Company and SB Group US, Inc., which manages and supervises investment activities in the internet, communication and media fields overseas.
- (d) Excludes discontinued operations.
- (4) For the three months ended June 30, 2017, Operating income (excluding income from the SVF) was ¥374 billion and Operating income from the SVF was ¥105 billion.
- (5) In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, GungHo no longer qualified as a subsidiary and became an equity method associate as a result of the completion of a tender offer by GungHo for its own shares. Accordingly, GungHo’s net income and loss up until June 1, 2015, when GungHo became an equity method associate, are presented as discontinued operations separately from continuing operations. The Company’s equity in the net income and loss of GungHo following its transition to an equity method associate is recognized as income and loss on equity method investments as part of continuing operations. Net income and loss of GungHo for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 has been revised retrospectively and presented as part of discontinued operations.
- (6) For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, Derivative gain (loss) was included within Other non-operating income (loss). Derivative loss in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 resulted from the collar transaction included in a variable prepaid forward contract. For further information, see Note 38 to our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and Note 19 to our unaudited condensed interim financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2017.
- (7) For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 and the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, Gain (loss) from financial instruments at FVTPL was included within Other non-operating income (loss). Loss from financial instruments at FVTPL in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 resulted from changes in fair value of preferred stock investments, including embedded derivatives such as ANI Technologies Pvt. Ltd. and Jasper Infotech Private Limited in India, designated as financial assets at FVTPL. For further information, see Note 39 to our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and Note 20 to our unaudited condensed interim financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2017.
- (8) Dilution gain from changes in equity interest, which was separately presented for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, is included within Other non-operating income (loss) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 due to the decrease in the significance of the amount. For further information, see Note 40 to our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.
- (9) In the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, the Company sold all of its shares in Supercell to an affiliate of Tencent Holdings Limited. Accordingly, Supercell’s net income until July 29, 2016 is presented as discontinued operations, separately from continuing operations. Net income of Supercell for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 has been revised retrospectively and presented under discontinued operations. Supercell ceased to qualify as the Company's subsidiary and was therefore excluded from the scope of consolidation on July 29, 2016 when the shares were transferred. Net income for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 has not been revised to account for the eventual disposal of Supercell, and Net income from continuing operations for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 therefore includes net income from this business. See Note 21 to our unaudited condensed interim financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

- (10) Total interest-bearing debt consists of borrowings (short-term and long-term), commercial paper, corporate bonds (current and non-current) lease obligations (current and non-current), current portion of preferred securities, installment payables (current and non-current) and financial liabilities relating to the sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract.

Historical Financial Information of the Guarantor

The table below shows net sales, operating income, net income, total assets and total equity of SoftBank Corp. The financial information in this table was prepared under JGAAP, which differs materially in certain respects from IFRS as applied in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements contained elsewhere in this offering memorandum, and line items under JGAAP cannot be compared to similar line items under IFRS. See "Presentation of Financial Information—Guarantor Financial Information." The JGAAP financial information of SoftBank Corp. cannot be arithmetically aggregated to produce an approximation of the historical financial information of the Note Guarantor. Material reconciliations and eliminations of intra-group transactions, which have not been applied, are necessary to calculate the Note Guarantor's historical financial information.

(2) Cash position is cash and cash equivalents plus short-term investments.

(3) Net interest-bearing debt: total interest-bearing debt minus cash position.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Financial data presented for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017 is derived from our audited consolidated financial statements and financial data presented for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 is derived from our unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements which, together with their notes, are included elsewhere in this offering memorandum. Prospective investors should read the following discussion of our financial condition and results of operations together with such financial statements and notes to such statements included elsewhere in this offering memorandum. The presentation in this section contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Our actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of factors, including, but not limited to, those set forth under "Risk Factors," "Presentation of Financial Information" and elsewhere in this offering memorandum. Unless the context otherwise requires, references to the "Company" refer to SoftBank Group Corp., and references to "we," "our," "us," "SoftBank" and the "SoftBank Group" refer to the Company, its consolidated subsidiaries and equity method non-consolidated subsidiaries and associates, as the context requires.

Overview

We are a leading global technology company that aspires to drive the Information Revolution. We are a holding company and its global portfolio of subsidiaries and associates, which include advanced telecommunications, internet services, robotics, IoT and clean energy technology providers. For more details regarding our business, see "Business."

We generated net sales of ¥8,901 billion ($79,473 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and ¥2,186 billion ($19,518 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017, of which ¥3,194 billion ($28,516 million) (35.9%) and ¥756 billion ($6,747 million) (34.6%) were contributed by our Domestic Telecommunications segment, respectively. We generated Adjusted EBITDA of ¥2,564 billion ($22,897 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and ¥700 billion ($6,251 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017, of which ¥1,209 billion ($10,795 million) (47.1%) and ¥329 billion ($2,942 million) (47.1%) were contributed by our Domestic Telecommunications segment, respectively. We maintain a long-term corporate credit rating of BB+ from S&P, Ba1 from Moody's and A- from JCR. We are listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange with a market capitalization of ¥9,911 billion ($88,493 million), as of June 30, 2017.

Our business segments are:

- Domestic Telecommunications. SoftBank Corp. and Wireless City Planning Inc. provide mobile communications services, sell mobile devices and accessories, and provide consumer broadband services and corporate fixed-line telecom services in Japan;
- Sprint. Sprint operates both a wireless and wireline business, providing mobile communications services, mobile devices, mobile handsets and accessories, and fixed-line telecommunications services in the United States, where it competes as one of the "big four" established nationwide wireless carriers;
- Yahoo Japan. Yahoo Japan provides internet-based advertising, e-commerce services and other services;
- Distribution. Through Brightstar Corp., we provide services, including mobile device and accessory wholesaling, and mobile device distribution. Through SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp., we sell mobile device accessories and IT-related software and hardware in Japan;
- Arm. Arm is a UK-based semiconductor company that designs and licenses technologies used in microprocessors used in mobile devices, enterprise infrastructure and embedded intelligence in automobiles and home appliances;
- SVF. The Company established the SVF segment as a new reportable segment during the three months ended June 30, 2017 upon the SVF having completed its initial closing on May 20, 2017. The SVF segment covers the investment activities of the SVF. The purpose of the SVF is to invest in companies across a wide range of technology sectors; and
- Other. Various businesses including renewable energy- and robotics-related businesses, businesses related to the Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS, a Japanese professional baseball team and other businesses.

We also invest in promising companies, mainly in the internet field, and continually seek new services and content to provide to our customers.

The following table shows the percentage of our net sales, Adjusted EBITDA and segment income for the three months ended June 30, 2017 attributable to each of our segments:

	For the three months ended June 30, 2017
	Domestic Telecommunications	Sprint	Yahoo Japan	Distribution	Arm	SVF	Other	Reconciliations ⁽¹⁾	Consolidated

- (1) Reconciliations include an elimination of intersegment transaction and corporate general expenses unallocated to each reportable segment. Expenses arising mainly from SoftBank Group Corp. and SB Group US, Inc., which manages and supervises investment activities in the internet, communication and media fields overseas, are included in the corporate general expenses.
- (2) Excludes discontinued operations.
- (3) Adjusted EBITDA is defined as operating income and loss after addition of depreciation and amortization, deduction of gain from remeasurement relating to business combination and addition or deduction of other adjustments (gains are deducted). Adjusted EBITDA of the SVF segment is obtained by adding or deducting unrealized gain and loss on valuation of investments (gains are deducted). See “Presentation of Financial Information—Non-IFRS Financial Measures—Adjusted EBITDA.”

- (2) Excludes discontinued operations.
- (3) Adjusted EBITDA is defined as operating income and loss after addition of depreciation and amortization, deduction of gain from remeasurement relating to business combination and addition or deduction of other adjustments (gains are deducted). See “Presentation of Operational Information—Key Performance Indicators—General—Adjusted EBITDA.”

Recent Developments

Since June 30, 2017, we have continued to pursue our business and investment strategies. The following are some recent developments and investments:

- Fortress Investment Group LLC Acquisition. In February 2017, we announced that we will acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of Fortress for approximately $3.3 billion. The expected closing of the acquisition will be in the second half of the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018. We are planning to bring in partners for a portion of the investment.
- Issuance of Hybrid Notes. In July 2017, the Company issued $2.75 billion in USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC6 Resettable Notes and $1.75 billion in USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC10 Resettable Notes. The Hybrid Notes are classified as equity instruments in accordance with IFRS because the Company has the option to defer interest payments, the notes have no maturity date, the payment priority of the notes in the event of bankruptcy is subordinated to senior indebtedness, and other factors.
- Investment in WeWork Companies. In August 2017, we entered into an agreement among SoftBank Group, the SVF and WeWork whereby SoftBank Group and the SVF will invest $4.4 billion in WeWork, a global provider of shared workspace, community and services for entrepreneurs, freelancers, startups and small businesses. This investment will comprise a $3.0 billion investment in WeWork’s parent company via a primary investment in new shares and a secondary purchase of existing shares and a $1.4 billion investment in three newly created companies that will fund WeWork’s expansion in China, Japan, Southeast Asia and Korea.
- Initial Capital Calls for SVF. Since July 2017, the SVF has issued initial Capital Calls to us and several other investors, a portion of which have been successfully settled. All of our obligations under such initial Capital Calls are to be satisfied by contribution of a portion of the shares of Arm. We are in the process of satisfying our obligations under such initial Capital Calls and expect to deliver an aggregate of 178 million shares of Arm, representing 12.4% of the total outstanding shares of Arm. A portion of such shares have been pledged in favor of the SVF pending delivery upon completion of regulatory approvals. The outstanding Capital Calls to other investors have been or will be settled by cash pursuant to the terms of the definitive documentation for the SVF. With respect to subsequent Capital Calls, we intend to continue to contribute shares of Arm up to an aggregate of 24.99% of the total outstanding shares (representing an aggregate of approximately $8.2 billion of capital contributions), at which point, based on our initial relative pro rata commitment to the SVF, we would expect that the SVF would have aggregate contributed investor capital in excess of $27 billion out of the initial committed amount of $93 billion.

(1) In our consolidated financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2017, we have presented prior period financial information for the three months ended June 30, 2016 on the same basis of presentation adopted for the three months ended June 30, 2017, and have therefore reclassified certain accounting items as originally reported in the previously issued consolidated financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2016. The financial data for the three months ended June 30, 2016 presented in this table was extracted from the Company's consolidated financial statements as of and for the three months ended June 30, 2017 and therefore reflect these reclassifications.

(2) We sold all of our shares in Supercell to an affiliate of Tencent Holdings Limited on July 29, 2016. Accordingly, Supercell's net income for the three months ended June 30, 2016 is presented as discontinued operations separately from continuing operations. Supercell ceased to qualify as our subsidiary and was therefore excluded from the scope of consolidation on July 29, 2016 when the shares were transferred. See Note 21 to our unaudited condensed interim financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

(3) Adjusted EBITDA is defined as operating income and loss after addition of depreciation and amortization, addition or deduction of unrealized gain and loss on valuation of investments in the SVF and addition or deduction of other adjustments (gains are deducted). A reconciliation of Adjusted EBITDA to operating income can be found at Note 6(2) of our unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2017. See "Presentation of Financial Information—Non-IFRS Financial Measures—Adjusted EBITDA."

Net sales. Net sales increased by ¥60 billion ($532 million), or 2.8%, from ¥2,126 billion ($18,987 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥2,186 billion ($19,518 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017 mainly due to increases in the net sales of the Sprint segment and the Yahoo Japan segment and the addition of the Arm segment despite decreases in the net sales of the Domestic Telecommunications segment and the Distribution segment.

Net sales of the Domestic Telecommunications segment decreased by ¥6 billion ($55 million), or 0.8%, from ¥762 billion ($6,801 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥756 billion ($6,747 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to a decrease in mobile communications revenue of ¥21 billion ($192 million), or 4.5%, year on year, reflecting an increase in the total amount of discounts associated with growth in the cumulative number of applications of the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set, as well as decreases in mobile data communications device and PHS subscribers. The decrease in mobile communications revenue was partially offset by an increase in broadband revenue of ¥18 billion ($164 million), or 31.0%, in line with subscriber growth for the SoftBank Hikari fiber-optic service. Product and other sales decreased mainly due to lower shipments of mobile data communications devices.

Net sales of the Sprint segment increased by ¥37 billion ($326 million), or 4.2%, from ¥874 billion ($7,803 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥910 billion ($8,129 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. U.S. dollar-based net sales of the Sprint segment increased by $145 million, or 1.8%, from $8,012 million for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to $8,157 million for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to increases in device revenue which was the result of increased sales of used devices to third parties and an increase in mobile handset lease revenues.

Net sales of the Yahoo Japan segment increased by ¥7 billion ($65 million), or 3.5%, from ¥204 billion ($1,824 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥211 billion ($1,888 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017 mainly due to a recovery in the growth rate of paid search advertising and premium advertising revenue and growth in shopping-related advertising revenue.

Net sales of the Distribution segment decreased by ¥18 billion ($158 million), or 5.6%, from ¥315 billion ($2,817 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥298 billion ($2,659 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017 mainly due to revenues declining in some Asian countries.

The Arm segment was established after we consolidated Arm on September 5, 2016. Net sales of the Arm segment for the three months ended June 30, 2017 were ¥47 billion ($420 million).

Cost of sales. Cost of sales decreased by ¥12 billion ($108 million), or 1.0%, from ¥1,267 billion ($11,315 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥1,255 billion ($11,206 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017 mainly due to cost reduction in the Sprint segment.

Gross profit. Gross profit increased by ¥72 billion ($640 million), or 8.3%, from ¥859 billion ($7,672 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥931 billion ($8,312 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Selling, general and administrative expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses increased by ¥82 billion ($728 million), or 16.1%, from ¥508 billion ($4,534 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥589 billion ($5,262 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017 mainly due to the consolidation of Arm in September 2016.

Other operating income and loss. Other operating income increased by ¥65 billion ($577 million), or 200.9%, from a loss of ¥32 billion ($287 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to a gain of ¥32 billion ($290 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017 mainly due to the recording of gain on spectrum license exchange related to an exchange of certain portions of telecommunications spectrum with other carriers in a non-cash transaction, partially offset by ¥20 billion of loss on disposal of property, plant and equipment related to cell site construction costs that are no longer expected to be used as a result of changes in Sprint's network plans.

Operating income (excluding income from the SVF). Operating income (excluding income from the SVF) increased by ¥55 billion ($489 million), or 17.2%, to ¥374 billion ($3,340 million), due to an increase in segment income from the Sprint Segment and Yahoo Japan segments, despite a decrease in segment income from the Domestic Telecommunications segment and a segment loss in the Arm segment.

The SVF segment was established as a new reportable segment during the three months ended June 30, 2017 upon the SVF having completed its initial closing on May 20, 2017. To enable investors to understand and assess the Company's management performance, the Company presents operating income (excluding income from the SVF) which excludes income and loss arising from the SVF segment. Operating income and loss from SVF segment includes gain and loss on investments at the SVF (realized gain and loss on sales of investments, unrealized gain and loss on valuation of investments, interest and dividend income from investments, except for gain and loss on investments in subsidiaries) and operating expenses such as incorporation expenses of entities that comprise the SVF, investment research expenses arising from the General Partners and advisory companies, and administrative expenses arising from each entity. See “—Significant Accounting Policies for the SVF” for further discussion of how accounting policies concerning the results of the SVF may affect our consolidated financial results.

Operating income. Operating income increased by ¥160 billion ($1,429 million), or 50.1%, from ¥319 billion ($2,850 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥479 billion ($4,279 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017 due to the reasons set forth above and due to the inclusion of operating income of ¥105 billion ($940 million) from the SVF.

Finance cost. Finance cost increased by ¥9 billion ($78 million), or 7.8 %, from ¥112 billion ($1,001 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥121 billion ($1,079 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017 due to an increase in the interest expense at SoftBank Group Corp. despite a decrease in the interest expense at Sprint.

Income on equity method investments. Income on equity method investments decreased by ¥34 billion ($302 million), or 95.4%, from ¥35 billion ($317 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥2 billion ($15 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to a decrease in income on equity method investments related to Alibaba of ¥27 billion ($241 million) (73.2%) year on year to ¥10 billion ($88 million). Alibaba’s IFRS-based adjusted net income for the three months ended March 31, 2017 decreased by RMB 4,721 million (69.4%) year on year to RMB 2,078 million. Although Alibaba’s U.S. GAAP-based net income continued to expand steadily, IFRS-based net income was significantly reduced after reconciliation adjustments that recognized a loss on change in fair value of the non-controlling interests of Alibaba’s subsidiaries (recognized as a financial liability due to the assignment of a put option) and a negative adjustment for gain on sales of financial instruments at FVTPL held by Alibaba (under IFRS, a valuation gain on financial instruments at FVTPL had been previously recorded).

Gain on sales of shares of associates. Gain on sales of shares of associates for the three months ended June 30, 2016 was ¥204 billion ($1,824 million), which was the primarily the result of the sale of a portion of Alibaba shares to Alibaba and two Singaporean sovereign wealth funds. We did not recognize a gain on sale of shares of associates for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Derivative gain and loss. Derivative gain was ¥22 billion ($192 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 compared to a loss of ¥257 billion ($2,295 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly attributable to derivative loss of ¥260 billion ($2,319 million) recorded in relation to a collar transaction included in a variable prepaid forward contract for Alibaba shares. The collar transaction is measured at the end of each quarter based on fair value (primarily linked to the share price of Alibaba). The cumulative derivative gain and loss for the three years, from the conclusion of the variable prepaid forward contract on June 10, 2016 until the settlement date, will be a loss of $900 million, equal to the amount of derivative assets initially recognized.

Change in third-party interests in the SVF. We recognized a loss of ¥44 billion ($389 million) in changes in third-party interests in the SVF for the three months ended June 30, 2017 and this line item was not reported for the three months ended June 30, 2016. The SVF had not made any investments as of June 30, 2017. However, within operating income from the SVF, income attributable to third-party interests in the SVF was recognized as an increase in third-party interests in SVF.

Other non-operating income and loss. Other non-operating loss was ¥112 billion ($1,000 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 compared to an income of ¥19 billion ($162 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. Impairment loss on assets classified as held for sale of ¥43 billion ($380 million) was recorded for the three months ended June 30, 2016, which was primarily due to a difference between the valuation of the 248,300,000 GungHo shares we tendered in the same period of the previous fiscal year at the tender offer price of ¥294 per share and their carrying amount on a consolidated basis. No loss was recorded for the three months ended June 30, 2017. Additionally, loss on financial instruments at FVTPL was ¥30 billion ($270 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 compared to a gain of ¥25 billion ($220 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to the recognition of gain for the change in the fair value of investments, primarily in Southeast Asia and India, from the previous fiscal year-end to June 30, 2017.

Income before income tax. As a result of the foregoing, income before income tax decreased by ¥279 billion ($2,489 million), or 78.2%, from ¥356 billion ($3,182 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥78 billion ($693 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Income taxes. Income taxes were ¥144 billion ($1,286 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 compared to ¥47 billion ($420 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to recording deferred tax liabilities for gains from spectrum license exchanges at Sprint, while deferred tax assets for losses excluding these gains at Sprint were not recorded.

Net income from continuing operations. As a result of the foregoing, net income from continuing operations decreased by ¥182 billion ($1,623 million), or 85.6%, from ¥212 billion ($1,895 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥31 billion ($273 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Net income from discontinued operations. Net income from discontinued operations for the three months ended June 30, 2016 was ¥60 billion ($536 million). During the three months ended June 30, 2016, income after income tax from Supercell (which was excluded from the scope of consolidation on July 29, 2016) of ¥21 billion ($189 million) and deferred tax expenses for investment temporary differences of ¥39 billion ($348 million) as a negative expense were recorded. Net income from discontinued operations was not recorded for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Net income. As a result of the foregoing, net income decreased by ¥242 billion ($2,159 million), or 88.8%, from ¥272 billion ($2,432 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥31 billion ($273 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Segment income of the Domestic Telecommunications segment decreased by ¥21 billion ($183 million), or 8.6%, from ¥239 billion ($2,134 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥218 billion ($1,951 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to a decrease in net sales, as well as an increase in operating expenses (cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses) of ¥14 billion ($129 million), or 2.8%, year on year.

Segment income of the Sprint segment increased by ¥87 billion ($773 million), or 190.9%, from ¥45 billion ($405 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥132 billion ($1,178 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. U.S. dollar-based segment income increased by $767 million, or 184.4%, from $416 million for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to $1,183 million for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to an increase in net sales, as well as a decrease in operating expenses (cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses) of $129 million, or 1.8 %, year on year. Another contributing factor was the recording of gain on spectrum license exchange of $477 million under other operating income.

Segment income of the Yahoo Japan segment increased by ¥1 billion ($11 million), or 2.5%, from ¥50 billion ($449 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥52 billion ($461 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to growth in net sales and recognition of proceeds from insurance payments related to the fire at the logistics center of ASKUL Corporation.

Segment income in the Distribution segment decreased by ¥4 billion ($39 million) from ¥7 billion ($60 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥2 billion ($21 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This was mainly due to a decrease in net sales as well as an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses.

Segment loss of the Arm segment for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was ¥7 billion ($62 million). This was mainly due to an increase in research and development (“R&D”) expenditure. During the three months ended June 30, 2017, Arm increased its employee headcount, mainly engineers, by a net 330 people, up 6.8% overall from the previous fiscal year-end, aiming to further strengthen its R&D capability. Arm has also been enhancing its employee compensation system, including the introduction of a new performance-linked incentive program. Operating expenses also included ¥13 billion ($119 million) of amortization expenses recorded for intangible assets recognized at the purchase price allocation for the Arm acquisition.

Segment income of the SVF segment for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was ¥105 billion ($940 million). This was mainly due to recognition of unrealized gain on valuation of investments in NVIDIA Corporation that have been agreed to be transferred from the Company to the SVF. These assets are planned to be transferred to the SVF. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Recent Developments.” As of June 30, 2017, no investments were made by the SVF.

Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA increased by ¥22 billion ($194 million), or 3.2%, from ¥678 billion ($6,057 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥700 billion ($6,251 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Domestic Telecommunications segment decreased by ¥22 billion ($195 million), or 6.2%, from ¥351 billion ($3,136 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥329 billion ($2,942 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Sprint segment increased by ¥50 billion ($448 million), or 18.5%, from ¥272 billion ($2,426 million) in the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥322 billion ($2,874 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. U.S. dollar-based Adjusted EBITDA increased by $393 million, or 15.8% from $2,491 million for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to $2,884 million for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Yahoo Japan segment decreased by ¥3 billion ($25 million), or 4.8%, from ¥59 billion ($531 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥57 billion ($506 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Distribution segment decreased by ¥4 billion ($39 million), or 51.7%, from ¥8 billion ($76 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥4 billion ($37 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Arm segment for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was ¥8 billion ($71 million).

Adjusted EBITDA of the SVF segment for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was negative ¥2 billion ($15 million).

Comparison of the Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2017 with the Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2016

The following table shows selected statement of income data for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017. The comparisons below are with respect to the financial information derived from our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and the financial information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 is presented as comparative information therein.

(1) In our consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, we have presented prior period financial information for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 on the same basis of presentation adopted for fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, and have therefore reclassified certain accounting items as originally reported in the previously issued consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. The financial data for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 presented in this table were extracted from the consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and therefore reflect these reclassifications.

(2) We sold all of our shares in Supercell to an affiliate of Tencent Holdings Limited on July 29, 2016. Accordingly, Supercell's net income until July 29, 2016 is presented as discontinued operations separately from continuing operations. Net income of Supercell for the same period of the previous fiscal year has been revised retrospectively and presented under discontinued operations. See Note 42 to our audited financial statements for fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. Supercell ceased to qualify as our subsidiary and was therefore excluded from the scope of consolidation on July 29, 2016 when the shares were transferred.

Net sales. Net sales increased by ¥19 billion ($172 million), or 0.2%, from ¥8,882 billion ($79,302 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥8,901 billion ($79,473 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to increases in net sales of the Domestic Telecommunications segment and the Yahoo Japan segment and the addition of the new Arm segment despite decreases in net sales of the Sprint segment and the Distribution segment.

Net sales of the Domestic Telecommunications segment increased by ¥49 billion ($439 million), or 1.6%, from ¥3,145 billion ($28,077 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥3,194 billion ($28,516 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, mainly due to an increase in broadband revenue associated with a growth in fiber-optic service subscribers despite a decrease in mobile communication revenue associated with promotion of and increased number of customers subscribing to the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set.

Net sales of the Sprint segment decreased by ¥248 billion ($2,217 million), or 6.4%, from ¥3,872 billion ($34,568 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥3,623 billion ($32,352 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to the negative impact of a stronger yen, which resulted in ¥388 billion less in net sales, despite an increase in segment net sales under U.S. dollar-based results. U.S. dollar-based net sales of the Sprint segment increased by $1,167 million, or 3.6%, from $32,180 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to $33,347 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to an increase in device revenue which offset a decrease in telecom service revenue.

Net sales of the Yahoo Japan segment increased by ¥201 billion ($1,798 million), or 30.9%, from ¥652 billion ($5,822 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥853 billion ($7,620 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 as the consolidation of ASKUL Corporation from August 2015 affected the net sales of Yahoo Japan.

Net sales of the Distribution segment decreased by ¥125 billion ($1,116 million), or 8.8%, from ¥1,420 billion ($12,682 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥1,295 billion ($11,566 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to the stronger yen in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016.

The Arm segment was established after we consolidated Arm on September 5, 2016. Net sales of the Arm segment from September 6, 2016 to March 31, 2017 were ¥113 billion ($1,008 million).

Cost of sales. Cost of sales decreased by ¥46 billion ($410 million), or 0.8%, from ¥5,518 billion ($49,269 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥5,472 billion ($48,859 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to significant cost reductions in the Sprint segment.

Gross profit. As a result of the foregoing, gross profit increased by ¥65 billion ($581 million), or 1.9%, from ¥3,364 billion ($30,033 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥3,429 billion ($30,614 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Selling, general and administrative expenses. Selling, general and administrative expenses decreased by ¥98 billion ($872 million), or 4.1%, from ¥2,375 billion ($21,205 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥2,277 billion ($20,333 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to lower costs in the Sprint and the Domestic Telecommunications segments.

Gain from remeasurement relating to business combination. Gain from remeasurement relating to business combination was ¥59 billion ($531 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 due to the consolidation of ASKUL Corporation, compared to ¥18 billion ($162 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Other operating loss. Other operating loss increased by ¥4 billion ($40 million), or 3.2%, from ¥139 billion ($1,243 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥144 billion ($1,282 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to loss on disposal of property, plant and equipment in the Sprint segment, impairment loss on goodwill of the Distribution segment and acquisition-related costs of the Arm segment.

Operating income. As a result of the foregoing, operating income increased by ¥117 billion ($1,045 million), or 12.9%, from ¥909 billion ($8,115 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥1,026 billion ($9,161 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Finance cost. Finance cost increased by ¥27 billion ($237 million), or 6.0 %, from ¥441 billion ($3,935 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥467 billion ($4,172 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to an increase in interest expense at the Company.

Income on equity method investments. Income on equity method investments decreased by ¥54 billion ($481 million), or 14.3%, from ¥375 billion ($3,352 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥322 billion ($2,871 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. This was mainly due to a decline in income on equity method investments related to Alibaba. Our income on equity method investments in Alibaba declined by ¥50 billion ($451 million), or 13.3%, to ¥330 billion ($2,948 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 due to the stronger yen and a decrease in our interest ratio in Alibaba following the sale of a portion of our Alibaba shares despite Alibaba's IFRS-based adjusted net income for the 12 months ended December 31, 2016 increasing by RMB 4.7 billion, or 7.6%, to RMB 66.0 billion.

Gain on sales of shares of associates. Gain on sales of shares of associates increased by ¥226 billion ($2,015 million) from ¥12 billion ($111 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥238 billion ($2,126 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to the sale of a portion of Alibaba shares to Alibaba, two Singaporean sovereign wealth funds, and Alibaba Partnership (which is not an associate of Alibaba).

Derivative gain and loss. Derivative gain was ¥13 billion ($114 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 compared to a loss of ¥253 billion ($2,257 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. This was mainly attributable to loss on valuation of derivatives of ¥233 billion ($2,078 million) that was recorded in relation to a collar transaction included in a variable prepaid forward contract for Alibaba shares. The collar transaction is measured at the end of each quarter based on fair value (primarily linked to the share price of Alibaba). The cumulative derivative gain and loss for the three years, from the conclusion of the variable prepaid forward contract on June 10, 2016 until the settlement date, will be a loss of $900 million, equal to the amount of derivative assets initially recognized.

Gain and loss from financial instruments at FVTPL. Gain on financial instruments at FVTPL was ¥114 billion ($1,021 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 compared to a loss of ¥160 billion ($1,432 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. This was mainly due to recording a loss for the amount of changes in the fair value of the Company's financial instruments in India at FVTPL from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Other non-operating income and loss. Other non-operating loss was ¥63 billion ($571 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 compared to income of ¥7 billion ($65 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. The primary components of this change were (i) dilution gain from changes in equity interest of ¥78 billion ($692 million) mainly due to gain from private placement of new shares by Alibaba, (ii) foreign exchange gain of ¥53 billion ($476 million) mainly due to settlement and translation of foreign currency-denominated borrowings from a foreign subsidiary, (iii) loss on loss of control of ¥79 billion ($708 million) mainly due to SOFTBANK GROUP CAPITAL APAC PTE. LTD. ("APAC," currently Foxconn Ventures Pte. Ltd., a joint venture of Foxconn Technology Group of Taiwan and us) becoming an equity method associate and (iv) impairment loss on assets classified as held for sales of ¥43 billion ($380 million) mainly due to a difference between the valuation and the carrying amount on a consolidated basis of the GungHo shares tendered by us.

Income before income tax. As a result of the foregoing, income before income tax decreased by ¥207 billion ($1,845 million), or 22.5%, from ¥919 billion ($8,207 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥713 billion ($6,362 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Income taxes. Income taxes were ¥423 billion ($3,774 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 compared to a credit of ¥207 billion ($1,849 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

The credited income taxes mainly accompanied a transaction (the "Transaction") from June to August 2016 in which the Company's then wholly owned subsidiary, APAC, sold a portion of its Alibaba shares to the Company, our wholly owned subsidiary West Raptor Holdings, LLC ("WRH LLC"), and third parties. As a consequence of the Transaction, the tax basis of Alibaba shares exceeded its consolidated carrying amount on an accounting basis. The Company therefore reversed deferred tax liabilities of ¥383 billion ($3,416 million) previously recorded for the temporary differences (between the consolidated carrying amount on the accounting base and the tax base) in the investment in Alibaba. Also, because the Company plans to sell these shares in 2019, the Company recognized deferred tax assets of ¥179 billion ($1,602 million) for the temporary difference between the carrying amount on the accounting base and the tax base of the Alibaba shares sold to WRH LLC.

For the nine-month period ended December 31, 2016, the Company had recognized deferred tax liabilities of ¥913 billion ($8,152 million) on its expected taxable income for the next fiscal year (April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018) out of the Transaction. The Company had also recorded deferred tax assets of ¥60 billion ($540 million), as it was deemed probable that, in conjunction with the Transaction, taxable profit would be available against which carryforwards and deductible temporary differences could be utilized. However, because ownership of APAC's outstanding shares was below 50% on March 31, 2017 and taxable profit was not expected at the Company for the next fiscal year, we did not recognize any deferred tax liabilities relating to the Transaction for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. In addition, the Company did not recognize any deferred tax assets for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, as it was deemed probable that taxable profit would not be available against which carryforwards and deductible temporary differences could be utilized.

Net income from continuing operations. As a result of the foregoing, net income from continuing operations increased by ¥423 billion ($3,778 million), or 85.2%, from ¥496 billion ($4,433 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥920 billion ($8,211 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Net income from discontinued operations. Net income from discontinued operations increased by ¥493 billion ($4,402 million) from ¥62 billion ($551 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥554 billion ($4,954 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. This was mainly due to after-tax gain on sale of Supercell shares of ¥527 billion ($4,701 million) recorded for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Net income. As a result of the foregoing, net income increased by ¥916 billion ($8,180 million), or 164.1%, from ¥558 billion ($4,984 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥1,474 billion ($13,165 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Segment income of the Domestic Telecommunications segment increased by ¥31 billion ($278 million), or 4.5%, from ¥688 billion ($6,146 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥720 billion ($6,425 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 due to the small increase in operating expenses of 0.7% in relation to the increase in net sales of 1.6%.

Segment income of the Sprint segment increased by ¥125 billion ($1,116 million), or 203.2%, from ¥61 billion ($549 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥186 billion ($1,664 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. U.S. dollar-based segment income increased by $1,222 million, or 241.5%, from $506 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to $1,728 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. This was mainly due to the small increase in operating expense in relation to the increased net sales and the decrease in other operating loss.

Segment income of the Yahoo Japan segment decreased by ¥33 billion ($294 million), or 14.8%, from ¥223 billion ($1,989 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥190 billion ($1,695 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to the inclusion of the ¥59 billion ($531 million) of gain from remeasurement relating to business combination in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 for the consolidation of ASKUL Corporation.

Segment loss in the Distribution segment increased by ¥9 billion ($78 million) from ¥1 billion ($11 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥10 billion ($90 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. This was mainly due to the ¥30 billion ($270 million) of impairment loss on goodwill of Brightstar recorded for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Segment income of the Arm segment from September 6, 2016 to March 31, 2017 was ¥13 billion ($115 million).

Adjusted EBITDA. Adjusted EBITDA increased by ¥239 billion ($2,137 million), or 10%, from ¥2,325 billion ($20,760 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥2,564 billion ($22,897 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Domestic Telecommunications segment increased by ¥46 billion ($408 million), or 3.9%, from ¥1,163 billion ($10,387 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥1,209 billion ($10,795 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Sprint segment increased by ¥96 billion ($861 million), or 9.8%, from ¥983 billion ($8,779 million) in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥1,080 billion ($9,640 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. U.S. dollar-based Adjusted EBITDA increased by $1,759 million, or 21.5% from $8,172 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to $9,931 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. Japanese yen-based Adjusted EBITDA saw a smaller increase due to the negative impact of a stronger yen, which resulted in ¥114.8 billion less in Japanese yen-based Adjusted EBITDA.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Yahoo Japan segment increased by ¥43 billion ($388 million), or 22.2%, from ¥196 billion ($1,750 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥240 billion ($2,138 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Distribution segment increased by ¥2 billion ($18 million), or 7.9%, from ¥25 billion ($227 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥27 billion ($241 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Adjusted EBITDA of the Arm segment from September 6, 2016 to March 31, 2017 was ¥53 billion ($474 million).

The Trust, on the other hand, utilized Alibaba shares scheduled to be transferred from WRH LLC at the time of settlement under the contract and issued $6.6 billion of Mandatory Exchangeable Trust Securities (“Trust Securities”) which are mandatorily exchangeable into American depositary shares (“ADSs”) of Alibaba. WRH LLC received $5.4 billion of the proceeds from the Trust, after a portion of the proceeds were used to purchase U.S. Treasury securities used to fund distributions on the Trust Securities and to pay expenses related to the issuance of the Trust Securities.

The settlement by Alibaba shares based on the variable prepaid forward contract will be conducted concurrently with the exchange of Trust Securities. At the exchange date, which is expected to be the first scheduled trading day after June 1, 2019, Trust Securities will be exchanged for a certain number of ADSs, determined by reference to the trading price of the ADSs at that time, and the number of Alibaba shares sold by the variable prepaid forward contract is determined by this number of ADSs. A cap and a floor are set for the number of shares settled and the variable prepaid forward contract is classified as a hybrid financial instrument with embedded derivatives providing a protective collar.

WRH LLC has the option to settle the variable prepaid forward contract by either delivering cash or a combination of cash and Alibaba shares. Also, WRH LLC has the option to settle the variable prepaid forward contract prior to the scheduled exchange date.

We account for the variable prepaid forward contract by bifurcating the main contracts and embedded derivatives. We received ¥578 billion ($5,165 million) in cash and initially recognized ¥674 billion ($6,018 million) as financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares by variable prepaid forward contract and ¥96 billion ($853 million) as derivative assets. Subsequent to initial recognition, financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares by variable prepaid forward contract are measured at amortized cost and embedded derivatives are measured at fair value. ¥717 billion ($6,402 million) is recognized as financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares by variable prepaid forward contract in interest-bearing debt (non-current liabilities) and ¥404 billion ($3,610 million) is recognized as derivative liabilities in other financial liabilities (non-current liabilities) in the consolidated statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017. ¥260 billion ($2,319 million) is recognized as a derivative loss in the consolidated statements of income for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Alibaba shares held by WRH LLC are pledged as collateral pursuant to the variable prepaid forward contract. We apply the equity method of accounting to these shares and they are included in “Investments accounted for using the equity method” in our consolidated statements of financial position as of June 30, 2017. The carrying amount of Alibaba shares pledged as collateral as of June 30, 2017 is ¥157 billion ($1,400 million).

Commitment to the SVF

On May 20, 2017, we completed the initial closing of the SVF and at that time we committed to invest a maximum of $28 billion to the SVF by way of in-kind contributions and cash investments. Since July 2017, the SVF has issued initial Capital Calls to us and the several other investors, a portion of which have been successfully settled. We are in the process of satisfying our obligations under such capital calls and expect to deliver an aggregate of 178 million shares of Arm, representing 12.4% of the total outstanding shares, a portion of which have been pledged pending delivery upon completion of regulatory approvals. See “—Recent Developments.”

Separate from our capital contribution, we are also in the process of transferring certain assets to the SVF in exchange for reimbursement. The timing and magnitude of future contributions to the SVF will depend on the timing and capital required for the investments pursued by the SVF.

Capital Expenditures

We incur significant amounts of capital expenditures to expand and maintain our network. The following details our capital expenditures by business segment for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2016 and 2017 and the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017.

	For the fiscal year ended March 31,			For the three months ended June 30,

Capital expenditures (cash flow basis) ⁽⁴⁾	¥1,398	¥1,361	¥924	¥234	¥284

(1) We recognize capital expenditures on an acceptance basis following our inspection and acceptance of new assets.

(2) Reflected from September 6, 2016.

(3) Reflected from May 20, 2017.

(4) We define capital expenditures on a cash flow basis as purchases of property and equipment and intangibles as reflected in our cash flows from investing activities.

Capital expenditures to acquire or upgrade our physical assets, such as equipment, are recognized on an inspection and acceptance basis. This differs from capital expenditure measured on a cash flow basis, which we define as purchases of property and equipment and intangibles as reflected in our cash flows from investing activities.

We made significant investments early on for the development of our LTE network in the fiscal years ended March 31, 2013 and 2014 of ¥716 billion and ¥739 billion, respectively. Our investment in the Domestic Telecommunications segment has gradually decreased since the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 to ¥321 billion ($2,862 million) in capital expenditure for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 because of the completion of LTE roll-out. Our investments have provided us with state-of-the-art smartphone data connectivity and smartphone communication speed and our future capital expenditures in our domestic networks can in the near-to-mid-term be limited to life-cycle maintenance and discretionary incremental build-out and significantly reduced from prior periods.

We currently anticipate that capital expenditures (calculated on an acceptance basis) in our Domestic Telecommunications segment will be approximately ¥398.5 billion ($3,558 million) for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 (including life-cycle expenditures), in part so that we can maintain excess network capacity despite the expected increase in mobile data usage.

In our Sprint segment, we are utilizing capital expenditure to steadily improve Sprint's telecommunications network. We expect cash capital expenditures of approximately $3.5 billion to $4.0 billion (¥392 billion to ¥448 billion) (excluding devices leased through indirect channels) in our Sprint business in fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 and our aim is for Sprint to remain self-funding.

The estimated capital expenditures set forth above are forward-looking statements based upon the assumptions and beliefs of our management as of the time of the announcements, and are subject to the qualifications described under "Disclosure Regarding Forward-Looking Statements."

Dividend Payment

Our basic policy is to maintain a sound financial position, while at the same time both investing prudently to ensure sustained growth and returning profits to shareholders. Returns to shareholders include cash dividends paid twice per year, in principle, as an interim dividend and a year-end dividend. Our board of directors resolved to propose a year-end dividend of ¥22.00 per share for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 which was paid on June 22, 2017. Together with the interim dividend of ¥22.00 per share paid in December 2016, this brings the annual dividend for the fiscal year to ¥44.00 per share, an increase of ¥3 per share. Our total dividend payments during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 were ¥46 billion ($413 million).

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Liquidity

The below table reflects the cash position of certain of our key subsidiaries, our consolidated cash position as of March 31, 2017 and June 30, 2017.

	As of March 31, 2017	As of June 30, 2017
	(billions of yen)
Cash Position⁽¹⁾
SoftBank Group Corp.	¥1,122	¥ 233
SoftBank Corp.	23	44
Sprint	935	767

Other	173	214
Total cash position	¥2,935	¥1,903

(1) Cash position is cash and cash equivalents plus short-term investments.

Our operating cash flows, including cash generated from our business segments, are used for those businesses, and cash is easily transferable between us and most of our consolidated subsidiaries, except for Sprint, Yahoo Japan and certain other subsidiaries. As of June 30, 2017, our consolidated cash position (cash and cash equivalents plus short term investments) equaled ¥1,903 billion ($16,992 million).

We invested in NVIDIA Corporation, Guardant Health, Inc. and other companies with the intent of transferring such investments to the SVF. The temporary decrease of our cash position caused by these agreed-upon transfers will be covered by the SVF via an aggregate cash payment of $3,267 million (¥366 billion) after completion of the transfer of these investments. These investments are presented as investments by the SVF in our consolidated balance sheet. We also invested in certain other Companies, our interests in which we plan to transfer to entities in our SVF segment and for which we expect to receive cash reimbursements in an aggregate amount of $2,998 million (¥336 billion).

We use diversified financing methods for raising funds through bank loans, as well as the issuance of bonds (in the local and international capital markets), taking market conditions and debt ratios into consideration. Some of our other financing methods include:

- We utilize proceeds from sales of investment securities and investments in associated companies as required, including sale of shares by variable prepaid forward contract. See “—Cash and Capital Requirements—Debt Repayments and Certain Other Contractual Commitments—Transaction for Sale of Alibaba Shares by Variable Prepaid Forward Contract.”
- We finance a portion of our network equipment through sale and lease-back transactions. We account for such financing as lease obligations on our consolidated balance sheet.
- We securitize certain accounts receivable on a non-recourse basis.

Although we consolidate Yahoo Japan’s and Sprint’s financial results with our own, Yahoo Japan and Sprint are public companies. In addition, Sprint has incurred substantial amounts of indebtedness with financial maintenance or incurrence covenants that impose significant restrictions on its ability to pay dividends, distribute cash or return capital to us. Accordingly, only limited reliance can be placed on our Sprint segment’s Adjusted EBITDA, operating income and cash flow as indicators of our ability to service our indebtedness, including the Notes. As a result, we are limited in our ability to move cash and capital resources in and out of these companies.

As of June 30, 2017, our consolidated liquidity, including cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments and available borrowing capacity under our commitment line was ¥1,903 billion ($16,992 million), which was equal to our consolidated cash position as the commitment line was fully drawn. We expect our liquidity position, together with cash flows from operations, to be sufficient to cover our expected liquidity needs through the end of March 2018.

As of June 30, 2017, Sprint’s liquidity (including cash and cash equivalents), short-term investments, available borrowing capacity under our secured revolving bank credit facility and availability under its Receivables Facility was $8.7 billion (¥974 billion). Sprint’s cash and cash equivalents and short-term investments totaled $6.8 billion (¥762 billion) as of June 30, 2017 compared to $8.3 billion (¥930 billion) as of March 31, 2017. We expect Sprint’s operations and capital requirements to continue being funded from Sprint’s stand-alone operating cash flows and financing arrangements and we currently do not intend to provide Sprint with additional financial support to meet its capital expenditure plans or other liquidity needs.

Commitment Line

In order to improve our liquidity position, we enter into commitment lines of credit and other credit facilities from time to time with various financial institutions. On August 5, 2016, we renewed one such commitment line of credit for borrowings up to ¥178.5 billion ($1,594 million). As of June 30, 2017, this commitment line was fully drawn. On August 1, 2017, we renewed this commitment line, which was fully drawn as of the date of this offering memorandum. See “Description of Other Indebtedness.”

Cash Flow

Cash Flows for the Three Months Ended June 30, 2016 and 2017

The following table shows our consolidated cash flow data for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017.

	For the three months ended June 30,
	2016	2017
	(billions of yen)
Cash and cash equivalents at the beginning of the period	¥2,570	¥ 2,183
Net cash flows from operating activities	253	196
Net cash flows from investing activities	(155)	(1,068)
Net cash flows from financing activities	680	(26)
Effect of exchange rate changes	(78)	3
Decrease in cash and cash equivalents arising from transfer to assets classified as held for sale	(39)	—
Increase in cash and cash equivalents	661	(895)
Cash and cash equivalents at the end of the period	¥3,231	¥ 1,288

Our cash flows from operating activities decreased by ¥57 billion ($507 million) from ¥253 billion ($2,257 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to ¥196 billion ($1,750 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. This mainly reflects a year-on-year increase of ¥114 billion ($1,015 million) in income taxes paid due to the payment in the three months ended June 30, 2017 of income taxes related to the sale of Supercell Oy shares in the previous fiscal year.

Our cash flows from investing activities for the three months ended June 30, 2016 were a cash outflow of ¥155 billion ($1,383 million) compared to a cash outflow of ¥1,068 billion ($9,539 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017, representing an increase in cash outflow of ¥914 billion ($8,156 million). This was mainly due to ¥865 billion ($7,721 million) of payments for the acquisition of investments, which mostly represent investments executed by the Company as part of its plan of transferring such investments to the SVF.

Our cash flows from financing activities for the three months ended June 30, 2016 were a cash flow of ¥680 billion ($6,068 million) compared to a cash outflow of ¥26 billion ($232 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017, representing a decrease in cash flow of ¥706 billion ($6,300 million). This was mainly due to a net repayment of long-term interest-bearing debt of ¥145 billion ($1,298 million) for the three months ended June 30, 2017. Net proceeds of long-term interest-bearing debt for the three months ended June 30, 2016 were ¥842 billion ($7,519 million).

Cash Flows for the Fiscal Years Ended March 31, 2016 and 2017

The following table shows our consolidated cash flow data for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017.

	For the fiscal years ended March 31,
	2016	2017
	(billions of yen)
Cash and cash equivalents at the beginning of the period	¥ 3,259	¥ 2,570
Net cash flows from operating activities	940	1,501
Net cash flows from investing activities	(1,652)	(4,214)
Net cash flows from financing activities	43	2,381
Effect of exchange rate changes	(20)	(55)
Increase in cash and cash equivalents	(689)	(387)
Cash and cash equivalents at the end of the period	¥ 2,570	¥ 2,183

Our cash flows from operating activities increased by ¥561 billion ($5,005 million) from ¥940 billion ($8,395 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥1,501 billion ($13,399 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 mainly due to a decrease of ¥543 billion ($4,847 million) in income taxes paid (net of refund).

Our cash flows from investing activities for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 was a cash outflow of ¥1,652 billion ($14,747 million) compared to a cash outflow of ¥4,214 billion ($37,621 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, representing an increase in cash outflow of ¥2,562 billion ($22,874 million). This was mainly due to our acquisition of Arm, which accounted for ¥3,249 billion ($29,012 million) of cash outflow and was partially offset by cash inflow from our sales/redemption of our Alibaba, GungHo and Supercell shares.

Our cash flows from financing activities increased by ¥2,337 billion ($20,870 million) from ¥43 billion ($386 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to ¥2,381 billion ($21,257 million) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. The primary components of cash flows from financing activities were proceeds from long-term interest bearing debt.

Market Risk

As we operate in a wide range of markets, we face a variety of financial risks (currency risk, price risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and liquidity risk) in its operations. We manage our risks based on established policies to prevent and reduce these financial risks.

Derivative transactions entered into by us are conducted and controlled based on our internal rules and procedures for derivative transactions and are limited to the extent of actual demands. For more information, see Note 25 to our audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 included elsewhere in this offering memorandum.

Significant Accounting Policies for the SVF

Portfolio Company Investments Made by the SVF

The portfolio companies that the Company is deemed to control under IFRS are treated as subsidiaries of the Company and their results of operations, assets and liabilities are included in the Company's consolidated financial statements. Investments except for subsidiaries made by the SVF, including investments in associates, are in principle treated as financial assets at FVTPL, and they are measured at fair value at the end of each quarter. The change during the reporting period is recognized in net profit or loss.

The recognition of changes in the value of investments held at FVTPL through the SVF could impact the volatility of certain line items in our consolidated financial statements, including total non-current assets, operating income and net income. Moreover, both realized gain and loss on sales and unrealized valuation gain and loss in connection with these investments are recognized in our financial statements over the relevant quarter or fiscal year.

Results from the SVF

Income and loss arising from the SVF segment are separated from operating income and loss arising from other segments, recognized as a component of operating income, and presented as "Operating income from SVF" in our consolidated statements of income. Gain and loss on investments at the SVF (realized gain and loss on sales of investments, unrealized gain and loss on valuation of investments, interest and dividend income from investments, except for gain and loss on investments in subsidiaries) and operating expenses such as incorporation expenses of entities that comprise the SVF, investment research expenses arising from General Partners and advisory companies, and administrative expenses arising from each entity, are included in “Operating income from SVF.” For more information, see Note 5 to our unaudited condensed interim financial statements for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Contribution from Limited Partners to the SVF

The SVF periodically draws down a portion of its committed capital from its limited partners (a “Capital Call”). Uncalled committed capital from third-party investors in the SVF is deemed to be a loan commitment and not subject to IAS 39, “Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement,” and therefore this amount is not recorded in our consolidated statements of financial position.

Contribution from the Company to the SVF (Transfer of a portion of the shares of Arm)

The Company will contribute up to approximately 24.99% of the total number of issued shares of Arm (the “Arm Shares”), all of which are owned by the Company, to the SVF through an in-kind contribution (the “In-kind Contribution”) in satisfaction of approximately $8.2 billion of the Company’s $28 billion commitment to the SVF. At each Capital Call, the Company will be obligated to contribute a portion of the Arm Shares with a value equivalent to the amount of the Capital Call issued to the Company. After (and to the extent that) the aggregate amount of the Capital Calls issued to the Company exceeds approximately $8.2 billion (the aggregate value of the In-kind Contribution), the Company will contribute cash in satisfaction of future Capital Calls. The In-kind Contribution will be effected through the transfer of Arm Shares to the SVF, subject to the satisfaction of preconditions related to regulatory approvals prescribed in the SVF’s documents. Such conditions include clearance from the Committee on Foreign Investments in the United States in respect of the transfer of the Arm Shares. Pending delivery of the Arm Shares to the SVF upon satisfaction of such conditions, the undelivered Arm Shares will be pledged in favor of the SVF to support this obligation. After the completion of the In-kind Contribution of Arm Shares, Arm will continue to be a consolidated subsidiary of the Company.

In connection with this and any other such future contributions, we may record valuation gains or losses to reflect changes in fair value of shares of investees that are agreed to be transferred from the Company to the SVF.

Contribution from Third-Party Investors to the SVF

The interests attributable to third party investors to the SVF are classified as financial liabilities, “third-party interests in the SVF” in our consolidated statements of financial position, due to the predetermined finite life (at least 12 years from the final closing) and contractual payment provision to each of the limited partners within the limited partnership agreement. The amounts equivalent to the liabilities are recorded as “other financial liabilities” of non-current liabilities in the condensed interim consolidated statements of financial position as of June 30, 2017. The liabilities are classified as “financial liabilities measured at amortized cost” upon initial recognition. The amounts attributable to such third-party investors represent the amounts that would be distributed in accordance with the limited partnership agreement in a theoretical liquidation scenario, and are disclosed on the consolidated statements of financial position as a liability. Changes in the interests of such third-party investors are recognized through net profit or loss and presented as “changes in third-party interests in the SVF” in non-operating income and loss in the condensed interim consolidated statements of income.

Contributions from third-party investors to the SVF will be included in “contributions into the SVF from third-party investors” under cash flows from financing activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows. There were no such contributions for the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Intercompany Transactions

Intercompany transactions, such as management fees and performance fees to the General Partners or SBIA paid out from each limited partnership, are eliminated in consolidation. The results of operations, assets, and liabilities of SVF after eliminations are recorded in the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

Mobile Market

Japan’s mobile telecommunications market is the world’s third-largest by revenue and was worth approximately $66 billion in 2016 according to IDC. Japan is the third largest economy in the world by GDP and its GDP per capita was $38,894, which was greater than that of the EU of $32,059 in 2016 according to the World Bank. The number of mobile phone subscriptions has grown over the last few years and is expected to continue to grow at 1.9% CAGR between 2016 and 2020 to reach nearly 177 million in 2020 as a result of mobile penetration increase, according to Ovum. According to BMI Research, mobile penetration in Japan reached 129% at the end of 2016, but remains below other developed markets such as Germany (143%) or Italy (142%). The number of mobile subscriptions is greater than the resident population due to certain customers owning more than one SIM card for multiple devices (e.g., mobile phones, smartphones, tablets and mobile broadband modems), non-resident customers and customers that are legal entities. Smartphone penetration is expected to rapidly grow from 73% in 2016 to 91% in 2020, which we believe will be a key growth driver of the market together with the potential growth in mobile data traffic.

The Japanese mobile market is one of the most attractive and technologically advanced in the world due to a number of unique characteristics which together have historically promoted strong mobile subscriber growth and healthy competition as outlined in more detail below.

Established market in a stable competitive environment dominated by three network operators

The mobile market is primarily served by three firmly established mobile network operators (“MNOs”)—NTT DOCOMO, the mobile arm of NTT, KDDI and our group—with market shares of 45%, 30% and 25%, respectively, as of June 2017, and these shares have been stable over the last few years. The market is characterized by rational competition. Each of these three companies has its own spectrum allocation and the infrastructure necessary to operate an independent mobile network. The three MNOs provide nationwide coverage, and therefore do not incur costs in relation to internetwork termination fees. Given the current spectrum allocation and well-developed networks of the three established MNOs, combined with the capital-intensive nature of the industry and licensing requirements and administrative restrictions for obtaining permits to build mobile sites, other competitors are not expected to enter the market, aside from MVNOs, without owned network and infrastructure.

As each operator offers similar pricing plans, which combine unlimited voice calling with a variety of flat-rate data packages, similar handset access and sufficiently robust networks, competition has significantly stabilized and we believe it has set itself for more resilient subscriber bases with shifting focus on customer retention and operational efficiency. ARPU has been stable in recent years, with data ARPU growth driven by greater use of online, video and multimedia services offsetting the decline in voice ARPU through the introduction of unlimited voice plans as well as the rising threat of IP telecommunications such as LINE and MVNOs.

Historical ARPU (yen)^(a)

High ARPU supported by high proportion of postpaid subscriptions and heavy mobile data usage

The Japanese mobile market is characterized by a high proportion of postpaid subscriptions, which results in one of the highest ARPU markets in the world. According to Ovum, more than 99% of mobile telecommunication service subscribers in Japan are postpaid subscribers as of December 2016, who accept two-year contract commitments and display relatively low levels of churn. This compares favorably to other attractive markets such as Germany, where only 53% of the total subscription base was postpaid. Heavy mobile data usage also contributes to maintain high ARPU. Monthly mobile data usage increased to 1.9 times in March 2017 compared from March 2015 according to MIC. The offering of technologically advanced products and services including high-quality nationwide LTE network incentivizes users to subscribe to more expensive data packages. LTE population coverage in Japan reached more than 99% as of June 2017, according to public disclosures by the three established MNOs.

Attractive regulatory environment

The telecommunication sector is administered centrally by the MIC which is responsible for all aspects of telecommunications regulation including licensing, frequencies, planning and policy and pricing.

Different from other established mobile markets, in Japan, mobile spectrum is not auctioned off.

Instead, the MIC allocates bandwidth after considering applications from interested parties. In this process, the MIC considers a range of factors, including which proposed use of spectrum best serves public needs and whether the parties have the necessary means to accomplish their proposals. Because the MIC might revoke allocations under certain circumstances, we are obligated to develop our spectrum in accordance with the proposals we made when applying for use of the spectrum. Spectrum users are required to pay radio utilization fees to the MIC. See “Regulation—Radio Act of Japan—Allocation of Radio Frequency Spectrum.”

(a) Based on published data current as of August 1, 2016

Limited Presence of Mobile Virtual Network Operators

In addition to the three MNOs, there are branded wholesale resellers that deliver their services independently over the network of MNOs, referred to as MVNOs, including NTT Communications, IIJ, Rakuten, U-Next and UQ Communications. MVNOs contract directly with customers, but rely on existing MNO networks. The MVNO market has grown in Japan since 2010, mainly driven by the decrease of line rental fees and the regulatory push for removing “SIM-lock” restrictions on handsets along with smartphone penetration. According to the MM Research Institute, the independent MVNO market, excluding MVNO services supplied by MNOs, accounted for 3.4% (5.4 million subscribers) and 5.0% (8.1 million subscribers) of the total mobile subscription as of March 2016 and 2017, respectively.

While the market is growing and increasing in competition due to the participation of new entrants, given the different target markets, MVNOs are generally not considered a significant threat for more-established providers such as ourselves. Subscribers in Japan generally prefer comprehensive and value-added services, such as customer support over-the-counter and by phone and a full lineup of handsets. In addition, as MVNOs pay network access charges to MNOs, MNOs will partly benefit from the further growth of the MVNO market. MNOs also offer low-price handsets and services, such as our Y!mobile brand, KDDI’s “au Pitatto Plan” and NTT DOCOMO’s “docomo with” to compete against MVNOs in the niche segment to capture first-time, younger or more cost-conscious customers.

Fixed-line Broadband Market

Japan's broadband market is established and growing, with approximately 38.7 million subscribers as of March 31, 2017. Growth in the market is now primarily driven by FTTH adoption and this trend is expected to continue in the near future.

In 2015, NTT started to offer fiber wholesale via NTT East and NTT West which allowed a variety of service providers including MNOs as ourselves to bundle their own services and fiber services. The introduction of NTT's fiber wholesale has contributed to the growing penetration of FTTH in the market.

Overview

We are a leading global technology company that aspires to drive the Information Revolution. We are a holding company, SoftBank Group Corp., and its global portfolio of subsidiaries and associates, which include advanced telecommunications, internet services, robotics, IoT and clean energy technology providers.

We operate the following business segments:

- Domestic Telecommunications Segment, which includes our core operating subsidiary SoftBank Corp. and Wireless City Planning Inc.;
- Sprint Segment, which includes Sprint, one of the “big four” established nationwide wireless carriers in the United States;
- Yahoo Japan Segment, which, operating through Yahoo Japan, provides internet-based advertising, e-commerce services and other services;
- Distribution Segment, which provides services, including mobile device and accessory wholesaling, and mobile device distribution through Brightstar and SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp.;
- Arm Segment, under which Arm designs and licenses technologies used in semiconductor chips used in mobile devices, enterprise infrastructure and embedded intelligence in automobiles and home appliances;
- SVF segment, a unique investment fund intended to make investments in a wide range of technology sectors globally; and
- Other Segment, including, among other things, the Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS and energy- and robotics-related businesses.

Our Domestic Telecommunications business, comprising 36% and 35% of our consolidated net sales, and 47% and 47% of our consolidated Adjusted EBITDA and a primary source of our cash flow, in each case for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and the three months ended June 30, 2017, respectively, is one of Japan’s leading mobile communications providers with approximately 42.0 million subscribers, as of June 30, 2017, and approximately 25% subscriber market share, according to TCA and Company data.

We helped transform the Japanese smartphone market when we were the first to offer the iPhone in Japan in 2008 and built a brand centered on the mobile internet—data-intensive, highly-connected and reliable. Our unique brand and outperformance have also been supported by high quality LTE network infrastructure, well developed over a recently-completed cycle of significant capital expenditure, which covers nearly all of the population of Japan, with robust and reliable connectivity. We have two mobile service brands, SoftBank and Y!mobile. Our flagship SoftBank brand focuses on the high-end of the market, including the most profitable segment of the mobile market, which we believe to be data-intensive smartphone users. We also offer the Y!mobile brand, targeting the low-cost smartphone market to capture first-time, younger or more cost-conscious customers.

We combine our stable and profitable domestic telecommunications operations with selected strategic investments in global internet, technology and communications companies, differentiating us from other mobile operators and providing opportunities for mutually-advantageous growth among our group companies. Our leadership team is led by Japan’s technology and business innovator, Masayoshi Son, our founder, Chairman and CEO.

- We control one of the four largest telecommunications operators in the United States, Sprint, which had a market capitalization of ¥3,885 billion ($34,685 million) as of June 30, 2017.
- We control Yahoo Japan, which operates Japan’s most frequently visited portal site offering a wide range of internet services with a market capitalization of ¥2,784 billion ($24,855 million) as of June 30, 2017.

- We own Brightstar, one of the world’s largest specialized wireless device distributors in terms of net sales.
- We own Arm, a British company specializing in the design of microprocessor intellectual property.
- We hold a significant minority stake in one of the world’s largest e-commerce companies, Alibaba, with a market value of our owned shares of ¥10,430 billion ($93,126 million) (excluding shares subject to sale pursuant to a variable prepaid forward contract) as of June 30, 2017.
- We invest in and several of our overseas subsidiaries manage, as its General Partners, the SVF, a unique investment fund intended to make investments in the technology sector globally and be one of the world’s largest of its kind. In May 2017, we completed the first closing of the SVF with $93.2 billion in committed capital.

Strengths

Well-established position as a leading mobile communications company in Japan, one of the largest and most attractive mobile communications markets in the world, through our well-invested, high-quality network that provides clear and stable communication services

We are one of Japan’s leading mobile communications companies in terms of mobile subscribers. As of June 30, 2017, we had approximately 42.0 million subscribers (including PHS), which according to TCA and Company data, amounted to approximately 25% market share in the Japanese market. Japan is one of the most technologically advanced and attractive mobile communications markets in the world and is the third-largest globally, following the United States and China, with user-spending worth approximately $66 billion in 2016, according to IDC. We and the other major network operators in Japan provide nationwide coverage, and therefore, we do not incur costs in relation to internetwork termination fees. As further described in “Market and Industry—Japanese Market Overview,” the Japanese mobile market is supported by several attractive characteristics:

- One of the wealthiest and most technologically advanced countries in the world, supporting stable and high levels of mobile spending.
- A well-established and stable competitive environment, which benefits from a regulatory stance that discourages excessive competition among major operators.
- Stable customer base backed by large postpaid subscribers with low churn rate.
- Growth opportunities from potential to increase penetration of smartphones and increasing data usage.

We believe that the quality of our mobile network is a key factor in acquiring and retaining mobile subscribers and have focused on maintaining and improving the quality and speed of our mobile network, especially with respect to our LTE network, and increasing network capacity to respond to the rapid rise in traffic attributable to increased penetration of smartphones and resultant increased data usage.

We have invested in our domestic network, with ¥1,317 billion ($11,758 million) invested in our Domestic Telecommunications segment over the last three fiscal years. We have overtaken our competitors in terms of connectivity and have carefully managed the explosive growth in data traffic that has accompanied the rapid popularization of smartphones. We achieved this, among other means, by using big data to make efficient, large-scale capital investments and massively increasing the number of base stations using the “platinum band” (the band of spectrum between 700 MHz and 900 MHz, which is optimal for mobile communications services). We were allocated our first access to the platinum band in 2012 and then expanded our available spectrum through our acquisitions of WILLCOM and eAccess (now merged with SoftBank Corp.). To further enhance our network connectivity, we have expanded the number of base stations for LTE services, which can make the most efficient use of spectrum and allow for rollout of more advanced technology using software rather than capital-intensive infrastructure, such as carrier aggregation.

Our investments have provided us with Japan’s foremost network in terms of smartphone data connectivity. According to Agoop Corp., our industry data aggregator subsidiary, our smartphone data connectivity as of July 30, 2017 was 98.6%, compared to 98.5% and 98.4% for our primary competitors NTT DOCOMO and KDDI, respectively. We believe that our high-quality network has bolstered our customer retention and led to reduced churn, and will strengthen our competitive position relative to the other MNOs.

Our well-invested infrastructure allows us to operate a technologically advanced network, supported by a comprehensive and all-but-completed footprint of steel towers for base stations, at controlled cost. We currently anticipate that capital expenditures in our Domestic Telecommunications segment will run at a rate of approximately ¥398.5 billion ($3,558 million) going for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 (including life-cycle expenditures), in part with a view to maintaining the cushion of excess network capacity we currently enjoy despite the expected increase in mobile data usage.

Strong cash flow generation and prudent financial management

Our strong market position as a leading mobile carrier and as a diversified telecommunications operator in Japan, coupled with our synergistic ties with leading internet businesses and other strategic assets, has provided us with stable and strong recurring cash flows. In addition, steady growth of our mobile subscriber base coupled with agile control of operating costs, has allowed us to maintain consistent Adjusted EBITDA growth, as well as a steady Adjusted EBITDA margin, both for our consolidated group and for our Domestic Telecommunications segment. For the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017 and the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, our Domestic Telecommunications segment generated Adjusted EBITDA of ¥1,163 billion ($10,387 million), ¥1,209 billion ($10,795 million), ¥351 billion ($3,136 million) and ¥329 billion ($2,942 million), respectively and made capital expenditures of ¥413 billion ($3,684 million), ¥321 billion ($2,862 million), ¥51 billion ($453 million) and ¥53 billion ($474 million), respectively. As a result, our Domestic Telecommunications segment also generated free cash flow of ¥402 billion ($3,591 million), ¥562 billion ($5,016 million), ¥70 billion ($622 million) and ¥77 billion ($683 million), respectively, for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017 and the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017.

For the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018, segment income could decrease up to 7% year on year due to the impact of medium-term growth measures such as the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set, Giga Monster, and the strengthening of our collaboration with Yahoo Japan Corporation. Free cash flow for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 exceeded ¥560 billion and we expect strong cash flow to continue for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018, even with an increase in capital expenditures, an increase in working capital associated with expansion of smartphone sales and a lower profit projection.

We believe that our high level of prior investment in our network has stabilized our capital requirements over the medium term and will allow us to absorb the expected growth in mobile data usage with reduced incremental capital expenditures. Because of these previous investments, we can now limit capital expenditures to incremental upgrades required by new customer subscriptions and increased usage. We believe that the strength of our domestic telecommunications businesses, coupled with operating efficiencies and reduced levels of capital investment, will bolster our free cash flow from domestic operations, allowing us to dedicate additional resources to strategic high-value areas and to gradually reduce our leverage and repay outstanding debt. In addition, further improvement of Sprint Adjusted EBITDA leads to Adjusted EBITDA growth of our consolidated group, which contributes to our deleveraging. We have a proven track record of deleveraging and improving our credit profile over time. For example, we lowered our net interest-bearing debt and achieved 1.1x net interest-bearing debt-to-EBITDA ratio in the six years following the acquisition of Vodafone Japan in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007. Subsequently, the net interest-bearing debt-to-EBITDA ratio of our Group increased to 3.6x as of March 31, 2014 as a result of the Sprint acquisition and 4.2x as of March 31, 2017 (excluding financial liabilities relating to the sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract) due to the Arm acquisition. We intend to continue deliberately managing our net leverage with an aim to improving our credit profile in the medium term.

We also have a proven track record of strategically managing and monetizing our investment portfolio. For example, between June and August 2016, we monetized a portion of our investment in Alibaba through the sale of shares to Alibaba and other investors, as well as entering into a variable prepaid forward contract to sell a variable amount of Alibaba shares. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Cash and Capital Requirements—Debt Repayments and Certain Other Contractual Commitments—Transaction for Sale of Alibaba Shares by Variable Prepaid Forward Contract.” Total proceeds from these transactions were approximately $8.8 billion (¥986 billion). Also, in the summer of 2016, we successfully monetized our investments in Supercell and GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc. (“GungHo”), by selling our entire stake in Supercell and a 90% of our stake in GungHo, for total proceeds of $7.4 billion (¥826 billion) and ¥72 billion ($645 million), respectively. Through these transactions in 2016, we successfully monetized an aggregate $16.8 billion (¥1,884 billion) of portfolio assets. We intend to manage our investment portfolio strategically, to maximize the return and cash flows from our investments.

We have a prudent and conservative approach to financial management as reflected by the large liquidity position available to us. As of June 30, 2017, we held a cash position of ¥1,903 billion ($16,992 million), including ¥1,259 billion ($11,245 million) which was collectively held by Sprint and Yahoo Japan and to which we do not have ready access. Despite the expansion of our balance sheet in connection with the Arm acquisition, we experienced no changes in our credit ratings and continue to have ample access to multiple sources of funding and stakes in listed companies such as Alibaba, including through the regular issuance of debt securities in the Japanese domestic market. For example, in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, we issued ¥500 billion ($4,464 million) of yen-denominated unsecured straight corporate bonds and ¥471 billion ($4,205 million) of yen-denominated unsecured subordinated bonds with interest deferrable clauses and early redemption options. Additionally, on July 19, 2017, we issued $2.75 billion of USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC6

Resetable Notes and $1.75 billion of USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC10 Resetable Notes. Also, going forward, we expect that the SVF will be our primary vehicle for making investments in excess of $100 million, which allow us to explore further investment opportunities through the fund while managing our group financial leverage.

Broad range of strategic assets providing significant value, sufficient liquidity and financial flexibility to our group

We own a variety of assets that provide strategic value and financial flexibility to our Group. As of June 30, 2017, we owned 43% of the voting rights in Yahoo Japan, the operator of the most popular internet portal site in Japan with a market value of our owned shares of ¥1,196 billion ($10,677 million), and 26% of the voting rights in Alibaba (excluding shares subject to sale pursuant to a variable prepaid forward contract), one of the largest online and mobile commerce groups in China, with a market value of our owned shares of ¥10,430 billion ($93,126 million) (excluding shares subject to sale pursuant to a variable prepaid forward contract). In addition to Yahoo Japan and Alibaba, we owned 83% of the voting rights in Sprint, a major provider of mobile communications services, mobile devices, mobile handsets and accessories and fixed-line telecommunications services in the United States with a market value of our owned shares of ¥3,220 billion ($28,747 million) as of June 30, 2017.

As of June 30, 2017, we owned 99.99% of the voting rights in SoftBank Corp., a leading domestic telecommunications company and a primary source of our cash flow. We acquired Arm, a British company specializing in designing semiconductor intellectual property, in September 2016. We believe that Arm, which is a world leader in design of microprocessor intellectual property, is positioned to capture new business opportunities, particularly with the proliferation of IoT products that integrate Arm's technology. Our investments in Arm, as well as companies such as WorldVu Satellites Limited. ("OneWeb"), a global communications company and satellite operator, Social Finance, Inc. ("Social Finance"), provider of consumer finance services, Tokopedia, one of Indonesia's largest online marketplaces, Coupang, an e-commerce firm based in South Korea, and mobile ride-sharing service operators Xiaoju, Ola Cabs and Grab, will position us to seize the many business opportunities that we expect to accompany the widespread integration of artificial intelligence, and related technology, into daily life.

In order to better facilitate investment in strategic assets, we established the SVF, which will deploy capital from SoftBank Group Corp. and our investment partners. See "—Strategies—Strategic Investments: Continue to make growth investments and manage portfolio strategically" and "—SoftBank Vision Fund."

World-class management team led by Japan's most successful entrepreneur, with a track record of growing businesses and risk control through disciplined portfolio management

With our strong senior management team and a group of transformational internet entrepreneurs, we believe our leadership team has the experience and vision to continue our success.

Our founder, Chairman and CEO Masayoshi Son is Japan's foremost information technology and business innovator. Under his leadership, we have grown from a new-born distributor of packaged software in 1981 to what we believe is Japan's most innovative mobile-internet company, with a market capitalization of ¥9,911 billion ($88,493 million) as of June 30, 2017. Mr. Son's entrepreneurial vision for SoftBank has placed us at the forefront of the Information Revolution. Anticipating the future of the mobile internet, under Mr. Son's leadership, we founded the dominant portal site in Japan in 1996 through our joint venture Yahoo Japan, introduced the iPhone in Japan in 2008 and have become one of the leading mobile communications providers in Japan.

Our management team has proven our ability to build successful businesses, even in challenging circumstances. We acquired a controlling interest in Sprint in 2013 and our founder, Chairman and CEO Masayoshi Son, is part of the management team of Sprint. Due, in part, to management's focus on increasing the number of postpaid phone subscribers, which are its largest source of revenue and profit, and cost management, Sprint has recently seen a sharp recovery in profitability. U.S. dollar-based income of the Sprint segment increased from $506 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 to $1.7 billion for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, and it increased from $416 million for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to $1.2 billion for the three months ended June 30, 2017. Also, its Adjusted EBITDA has steadily improved this year, nearly reaching $10 billion for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. Before Sprint, we acquired Vodafone's Japanese operations in 2006 and through prudent investment transformed a below-average network into our market leading LTE offering. Before that, we acquired Japan Telecom Co., Ltd. (a fixed-line business) and built that into our profitable fixed-line segment.

Our management team also has a proven ability to execute successful investment partnerships with transformational, high growth potential businesses. We first invested in Alibaba in 2000. Alibaba went public in 2014 and as of June 30, 2017 the market value of our stake in Alibaba was ¥10,430 billion ($93,126 million) (excluding shares subject to sale pursuant to a variable prepaid forward contract). As of June 30, 2017, the market value of our shares in Alibaba, Sprint and Yahoo Japan totaled ¥14.8 trillion ($132.5 billion). Other disruptive subsidiaries and strategic associates include British semiconductor firm Arm, Chinese mobile ride-hailing application Didi Chunxing and Social Finance, which provides consumer finance services such as student loan refinancing service in the United States.

Our disciplined portfolio management and prudent financial policy are demonstrated by the monetization of our investments in GungHo and Supercell and a portion of our investment in Alibaba. We will continue to balance strategic investments and prudent financial management.

Strategies

We seek to leverage our strong position in our domestic market to maximize profitability in our Japanese business and to build from our successful development in Japan to become a global company with a strong presence in the United States, where we have successfully returned Sprint to profitability, the UK, China, India and other markets where we can profitably and sustainably build a synergistic corporate group. At the same time, we recognize the need, as a technology company, to keep flexibility and to adapt to changes in the market. We therefore aggressively invest in internet and technology-related companies that have the potential to drive innovation and the Information Revolution.

Domestic Telecommunications: Leverage our leading market position in the attractive Japanese telecommunications market to enhance revenue generation

We have succeeded in achieving a robust market share and an established brand recognition as well as building effective marketing capabilities and a superior network infrastructure in the Japanese mobile telecommunications market and this gives us the opportunity to improve free cash flow in the near term.

Concentrate efforts on acquiring and maintaining higher margin smartphone subscribers by intensifying our dual-brand strategy

Smartphone subscribers generate more revenue and lower churn rates relative to subscribers to other devices. We have focused our sales and marketing efforts on acquiring and retaining higher value smartphone subscribers, including by offering discounted rates in bundled plans of handset and fixed-line subscriptions, such as the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set, which offers a discount on the communication charges of mobile communications services to customers subscribing to both mobile communications services and broadband services, such as SoftBank Hikari. Our SoftBank Hikari services have seen brisk subscriber growth, with cumulative subscribers growing from 119 thousand as of March 31, 2015 to 4.0 million as of June 30, 2017. This growth helped increase broadband revenue by ¥18,334 million ($164 million), or 31%, from the three months ended June 30, 2016 to the three months ended June 30, 2017 and by ¥91,945 million ($821 million), or 51.9%, year-on-year during fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, which in turn contributed to an overall increase in the revenue of our Domestic Telecommunications segment.

While we concentrate on higher margin smartphone subscribers using our SoftBank brand, as the low cost smartphone market continues to expand, and with the recent increased presence of MVNOs in Japan, we are aggressively pursuing market share in the low cost smartphone market by promoting expansion of our mobile communications service sub-brand Y!mobile. We believe that we have a competitive advantage by appealing to existing and future customers through our dual brand approach. With our dual-brand strategy we will continue targeting clearly defined market segments with relevant dedicated products and service offerings in order to optimize our market reach and achieve further growth. In particular, our SoftBank brand is targeted at the mass market, which comprises the highest value customers. At the same time, we will continue to capture first-time, younger or more cost-conscious customers through our distinct Y!mobile brand, which expands our subscriber base and creates up-selling potential for the mass market segment once customers become older or more settled and increase the usage of their devices.

Offer higher-value, data-intensive pricing plans

Because mobile phone users are consuming increasingly large amounts of data-rich content such as video content, we have introduced a high-data cap, fixed-rate “Giga Monster” data plan. This plan has both 20GB and 30GB options. These plans allow subscribers to consume large amounts of data-rich content without worrying about running out of data or incurring large fees. We believe that subscribers value the peace of mind that these high-data cap plans provide and that will discourage high-data usage subscribers from migrating to budget mobile phone services, such as MVNOs.

Continue to expand our discount bundle services which combine mobile services and fixed-broadband services

We greatly emphasize the acquisition of smartphone users and the improvement of the churn rate thereof by focusing on the promotion of the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set, which offers a discount on the communication charges of mobile communications services to customers subscribing to both mobile communications services and broadband services such as SoftBank Hikari.

Continue to pursue operating efficiencies and extract synergies from our investments, especially Yahoo Japan

As we seek to improve margins, we intend to find ways of reducing our operating costs. One example of this is the cost savings we achieved in network operations, information systems, sales and marketing and personnel as part of the April 2015 merger of our domestic telecommunications companies into SoftBank Corp. We also aim to cooperate with and develop synergies with various group companies and associates. For example, in collaboration with Yahoo Japan, we launched a mobile commerce service that enables customers to easily and conveniently use internet shopping and other Yahoo Japan services on their smartphones. In addition to improving the experience of our subscribers, through the introduction of features like “Smart Login,” “T Point” awards and “SoftBank Consolidated Billing,” in June 2017, we launched a partnership with Yahoo Japan whereby SoftBank smartphone users will be able to receive all the privileges of Yahoo! Premium membership and obtain ten times as many T Points than users normally would while conveniently purchasing products without registration on Yahoo Japan’s e-commerce platform. Through these activities, we aim to encourage smartphone subscribers to make even greater use of the services of Yahoo Japan, and to generally promote the mobile internet usage of our subscribers, in order to increase revenues from the use of data communications services and other services and content.

Maintain our current level of capital expenditures and generate sustainable free cash flow

In recent years, we made large-scale capital investments to improve our domestic network, with ¥1,317 billion ($11,758 million) invested during the three-year period ended March 31, 2017. However, we have mostly finished building our steel towers for base stations throughout Japan, the most-costly aspect of our network revamp program, and have entered a period of expected moderate capital expenditure and stable free cash flows. In particular, we anticipate capital investment of ¥398.5 billion ($3,558 million) for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 in our Domestic Telecommunications segment (including life-cycle expenditure), which, paired with our steady Adjusted EBITDA levels, is expected to generate strong cash flows.

Sprint: Further enhance the operational and financial performance of Sprint through a unique and differentiated value proposition

Sprint has achieved significant operation and financial improvement in fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and the three months ended June 30, 2017. Due to continuous engagement in cost management across its business, which led to a cumulative reduction of $3.4 billion in its cost of service and SG&A (US-GAAP) over the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 and the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, as well as management’s focus on increasing the number of postpaid phone subscribers, which are Sprint’s largest source of revenue and profit, Sprint has recently seen a sharp recovery in profitability. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, Sprint’s consolidated net operating revenue (US-GAAP) increased for the first time in three years and Sprint’s adjusted free cash flow (US-GAAP) turned positive in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. Also, Sprint’s Adjusted EBITDA (US-GAAP) has steadily improved over the last three years, from $6.0 billion in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 to $8.1 billion in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 and nearly $10 billion for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and from $2.1 billion in the three months ended June 30, 2015 to $2.5 billion in the three months ended June 30, 2016 and $2.9 billion in the three months ended June 30, 2017.

With the aim of continuing this momentum, we promote further improvements to the Sprint brand and the experience of Sprint customers. For example, we plan to migrate Sprint to an all-LTE service and to further invest in improving network coverage. We have already achieved significant success in this regard. Independent mobile analytics firm RootMetrics awarded Sprint over 25% more first-place (outright or shared) Metropolitan area RootScore Awards (from 166 to 211) for reliability, speed, data, call, text, or overall network performance in the first half of 2017 compared to the year-ago testing period. Additionally, Sprint’s overall network reliability continues to perform within 1% of Verizon and AT&T, based on an analysis of the latest Nielsen drive test data in the top 106 metro markets. Ookla's Speedtest Intelligence data for all results from January through June 2017 also demonstrates that Sprint's average download speeds have increased 20% in the last six months. We hope to continue this success by further enhancing Sprint's network connectivity and speed, going beyond Sprint's current population coverage of over 300 million people with its LTE network area. Sprint is also densifying its network through leveraging its abundant spectrum holding and utilizing innovative tools including "Magic Box" and femtocells to improve customer experience in indoor environments and other hard-to-reach areas.

Masayoshi Son has been deeply involved in improving Sprint's network. We believe these network improvements will allow us to further improve Sprint's profitability by steadily increasing postpaid phone net additions and undertaking cost-reduction initiatives. Demonstrating our success so far in these areas, Sprint's net additions of postpaid phone subscribers, a focus of their management, increased from a net loss of 1,526,000 for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 to net additions of 438,000 and 930,000 for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017, respectively, marking a nearly twofold increase over the last two fiscal years. Furthermore, Sprint had 88,000 postpaid phone net additions for the three months ended June 30, 2017, marking eight consecutive quarters of net additions. Sprint's annual phone churn rate for postpaid phones also improved continuously, decreasing to 2.04%, 1.52% and 1.48% for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2016 and 2017, respectively. Postpaid phone churn rate was 1.39% and 1.50% for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, respectively. See "Presentation of Operational Information—Key Performance Indicators—Sprint Segment" for further details.

While we will play an active role in Sprint's further improvement, we expect that Sprint will continue to act as an independent subsidiary with stand-alone funding capacity for its operations and capital requirements, including through the utilization of asset financing such as spectrum-back financing that was executed in October 2016.

Arm: Capture new business opportunities by leveraging Arm and other portfolio companies that are well positioned to drive the paradigm shift to IoT

We expect to see, in the near future, a paradigm shift to IoT and the widespread integration of artificial intelligence, and related technology, into daily life. We believe that this shift will present many business opportunities. For example, an increasing number of smart devices means demand for processors that drive these devices will increase. In September 2016, we acquired all the shares of Arm, one of the world's leading technology companies with strong capabilities in global microprocessor intellectual property design and licensing. Our investment in Arm positions us to participate in and help drive the paradigm shift to IoT and a widespread integration of artificial intelligence, and related technology, into daily life. Insight from over 100 billion Arm-based chips shipped to date and Arm partnership provides us with technology expertise to identify an industry trends. By accelerating our investment in new technologies and markets, expanding market share in markets with a growth potential such as network infrastructure, servers, automotive, IoT and AI, while also maintaining its share in smartphone microprocessor intellectual property design licensing, we aim to further grow Arm as a core business in the SoftBank Group and a leader in IoT.

Strategic Investments: Continue to make growth investments and manage portfolio strategically

The information industry is characterized by rapid changes in technology, business models and market needs. To become a provider of the most essential technologies and services to people around the world, it is imperative that we are flexible with regard to specific technologies and business models, and cultivate the flexibility to transform our business, for example by expanding and adjusting the scope of our businesses, to adapt to changes in the market. To meet this challenge, we aggressively invest in internet and technology-related companies that are expected to achieve strong growth. We then leverage our cultivated knowledge base and business networks to support the growth of our portfolio companies. At the same time, we aim to continuously expand and change our business offerings by organically combining our own strengths with those of portfolio companies to create synergies. Through this process, we aim to realize sustainable growth. Also, we have a proven track record of monetizing our portfolio companies including a partial monetization of our Alibaba shares through a variable prepaid forward contract entered into in June 2016 and through sale of shares to Alibaba and other investors for a total of $8.8 billion (¥986 billion) and disposition of our interest in Supercell in July 2016 for $7.4 billion (¥826 billion). See "—Strengths—World-class management team led by Japan's most successful entrepreneur, with a track record of growing businesses and risk control through disciplined portfolio management." We will continue to strategically manage our portfolio to monetize investments when appropriate, as part of our prudent group financial policy.

To facilitate strategic investment in technologies globally, we launched on May 20, 2017, the SVF. This fund will deploy capital from SoftBank Group Corp. and our investment partners, and will allow us to step up investments in global technology. Over the next decade, we aim to make SVF the biggest investor in the technology sector, driving innovation in the sector and accelerating the Information Revolution. Through the SVF, we can maximize our ability to pursue investment opportunities up to an aggregate $100 billion in scale with our committed capital of up to $28 billion. The SVF will enable a balanced new investment strategy accelerating enterprise value and balance sheet management toward credit improvement. While we consolidate the SVF for accounting purposes, we do not intend to provide direct credit support for investments by the SVF or for its portfolio companies.

History

We were founded on September 3, 1981 by Masayoshi Son to distribute software, with a focus on innovation, and with a corporate philosophy of bringing happiness to everyone through an information revolution. Masayoshi Son named us “SoftBank,” reflecting his vision of us as a “bank of software”—a key source of infrastructure for the information society. This philosophy has been the backbone of our steady growth, and we now engage in a broad array of communications, technology and internet-related businesses, both domestically and globally.

We believe SoftBank Group is the leading internet and communications company in Japan. We entered the internet business in 1996 when we formed Yahoo Japan through a joint venture with Yahoo! Inc. (currently Altaba Inc.). We entered the communications services business in 2001 when we began our Yahoo! BB ADSL service and in 2004 we acquired a fixed-line telecommunications operator, Japan Telecom Co., Ltd. We entered the mobile communications business in 2006 with our landmark acquisition of mobile communications operator Vodafone Japan for approximately ¥1.7 trillion ($15.2 billion), or ¥1.8 trillion ($16.4 billion) net of loans to and cash and cash equivalent held at Vodafone Japan. Since then, we have introduced innovative and top-of-market products such as the iPhone, which we were the first Japanese company to distribute in Japan. Despite a period during which our mobile connectivity rate lagged behind other mobile communication companies in Japan, mainly due to a lack of spectrum in the band between 700 MHz and 900 MHz, known as the “platinum band,” we have subsequently built our network into one of Japan’s largest and most reliable mobile networks for coverage and connectivity.

In 2010, in celebrating the thirtieth anniversary of our founding, we announced “SoftBank’s Next 30-Year Vision,” re-confirming our aim to contribute to people’s happiness through an information revolution, and to become “the corporate group needed most by people around the world.” We have expanded globally, and in 2013, we completed another landmark acquisition by becoming the majority owner of Sprint, a wireless communications company in the United States. Since 2014, we have accelerated strategic and synergistic investments in innovative and disruptive companies, in particular in internet technologies where we anticipate future growth. In September 2016, we acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of Arm, for approximately £24.0 billion. We now hold shares of Alibaba with a value of ¥10,430 billion ($93,126 million) (excluding shares subject to sale pursuant to a variable prepaid forward contract), as of June 30, 2017, although the carrying amount of ¥157 billion ($1,400 million) of Alibaba shares were pledged as collateral, as of June 30, 2017, in relation to a variable prepaid forward contract entered into in June 2016. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Cash and Capital Requirements—Debt Repayments and Certain Other Contractual Commitments—Transaction for Sale of Alibaba Shares by Variable Prepaid Forward Contract.”

In order to seek to enable the next age of innovation, in October 2016, we announced the intention to form the SVF. We announced the first major closing of this fund, with $93.2 billion of committed capital, on May 20, 2017. See “—SoftBank Vision Fund.”

SoftBank Vision Fund

On October 14, 2016, we announced the intention to form the SVF, a unique investment fund established within the SoftBank Group in order to facilitate investment in the global technology sector and further our business strategy of investing in transformative technologies and disruptive entrepreneurs that we expect to achieve strong growth. See “—Strategies—Strategic Investments: Continue to make growth investments and manage portfolio strategically.” As it is managed and held separately, the SVF maximizes investment opportunities while managing group financial leverage. On May 20, 2017, we announced the initial closing of the SVF with $93.2 billion of committed capital. Our limited partners in the SVF include the Public Investment Fund of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the Mubadala Investment Company of the United Arab Emirates, Apple, Foxconn Technology Group, Qualcomm Incorporated and Sharp Corporation, or their respective affiliates. The final closing of the SVF is expected to occur no later than six months following the date of this initial closing. The investment period for the SVF will be five years from the final closing and the fund period will last at least 12 years from the final closing.

We believe that the next stage of the Information Revolution is underway, and building the businesses that will make this possible will require unprecedented large-scale long-term investment. The SVF will make long-term investments in companies and foundational platform businesses that seek to enable the next age of innovation. We plan to achieve this by the SVF acquiring minority and majority interests in both private and public companies, from emerging technology businesses to established, multi-billion dollar companies requiring substantial growth-funding. The SVF and its associated vehicles are expected to be active across a wide range of technology sectors, including but not limited to: IoT, artificial intelligence, robotics, mobile applications and computing, communications infrastructure and telecoms, computational biology and other data-driven business models, cloud technologies and software, consumer internet businesses and financial technology.

Our Business Segments

We are a holding company, SoftBank Group Corp., with a global portfolio of 761 subsidiaries, 130 associates and 23 jointly controlled companies as of March 31, 2017. We operate in the following business segments: Domestic Telecommunications, Sprint, Yahoo Japan, Distribution, Arm, SVF and Other. Our Domestic Telecommunications segment includes SoftBank Corp., our core operating subsidiary since we acquired Vodafone Japan in April 2006 and our 99.99% owned subsidiary as of March 31, 2017, and Wireless City Planning Inc. Our Sprint segment includes Sprint, one of the “big four” established nationwide wireless carriers in the United States, with approximately 53.7 million cumulative subscribers to its mobile communications services, as of June 30, 2017. Our Yahoo Japan segment, with Yahoo Japan as its main operating company, provides internet-based advertising, e-commerce services and other services. In our Distribution segment, we provide services, including mobile device and accessory wholesaling, and mobile device distribution through Brightstar. In the Arm segment, Arm designs and licenses technologies used in semiconductor chips used in mobile devices, enterprise infrastructure and embedded intelligence in automobiles and home appliances. In our SVF segment, which was newly established during the three months ended June 30, 2017, the SVF and other entities invest in companies across a wide range of technology sectors. In the Other segment, we are involved in various businesses, including energy-and robotics-related businesses and business related to the Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS, a Japanese professional baseball team.

Domestic Telecommunications Segment

The Domestic Telecommunications segment comprises the subsidiaries that operate domestic telecommunications businesses, such as SoftBank Corp. and Wireless City Planning. SoftBank Corp. provides (i) mobile communications services under the SoftBank and Y!mobile brands, (ii) broadband services for retail customers, such as SoftBank Hikari and Yahoo! BB and (iii) fixed-line telecommunications services for corporate customers, such as data communications and fixed-line telephone services. Wireless City Planning provides broadband wireless access services using the 2.5 GHz band. According to TCA and Company data, total mobile subscribers attributable to our Domestic Telecommunications segment, which we count as the total number of subscribers under the SoftBank brand and Y!mobile brand, was approximately 42.0 million subscribers as of June 30, 2017 (including PHS), representing a subscriber market share of 25% as of June 30, 2017.

We entered the mobile communications business in April 2006 when we acquired Vodafone Japan (the predecessor to SoftBank Corp.). By recognizing the imminent arrival of the mobile internet era and executing smartphone-based strategy and network enhancement initiatives, we became the fastest growing provider of mobile communications services by subscribers in Japan. One important milestone in this process was being the first carrier to offer the iPhone in Japan in 2008. Since then, in an effort to ensure steady profit growth in mobile communications, we have been pursuing our key strategic initiatives aimed at expanding our smartphone subscribers and increasing telecommunications service revenue.

Through our Domestic Telecommunications segment, we offer LTE mobile services on a variety of devices over our nationwide mobile communications network. Although we have seen a general decline in ARPU—mirroring the general trend in the industry—mainly due to the dilutive impact of an increase in the ratio of Y!mobile smartphone subscribers, which have a relatively low service charge. Further penetration of the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set to the subscriber base also lowered ARPU by increasing the discount amount on telecom ARPU. These impacts were partially offset by an increase in the ratio of smartphone subscribers. For the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2016 and 2017 and the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, main mobile subscribers generated ARPU in the amount of ¥4,670, ¥4,700 and ¥4,500, ¥4,610 and ¥4,380, respectively.

Our Products and Services

The primary business within our Domestic Telecommunications segment is the provision of mobile voice and data services, broadband services for retail customers and fixed-line telecommunications services for corporate customers. Revenues from voice and data services for SoftBank Corp., the primary operating subsidiary in our Domestic Telecommunications segment, accounted for the vast majority of net sales for the segment. We offer subscribers mobile data services on most of our handsets as well as mobile voice services.

Our mobile communications services are offered on our 3G and LTE networks on the FDD-LTE and TD-LTE standards. Our LTE service is available throughout the most populated areas of Japan. Our Voice over LTE service transmits voice data over our LTE network, allowing for clear, higher quality voice calls.

We currently offer mobile communications services on a contract, or postpaid, basis and as a prepaid service. Our typical postpaid subscriber contracts are for periods of 24 months, with auto renewal for an additional term if not cancelled. As of June 30, 2017, almost all of our customers were subscribers to our postpaid service.

Data Flat-rate Plan

Given that mobile phone users are consuming increasingly large amounts of data-rich content such as videos, we introduced the Data Flat-rate (20GB) and Data Flat-rate (30GB) (collectively known as “Giga Monster”) data plans for smartphones in September 2016. This plan offers both a 20GB and 30GB option, for ¥6,000 per month and ¥8,000 per month, respectively.

Content and Services

We are collaborating with Yahoo Japan Corporation, aiming to encourage smartphone subscribers to make even greater use of Yahoo! Services. For example, we have offered award points to long-term users and awarded additional points to users of Yahoo Japan Corporation e-commerce services. In addition, SoftBank smartphone users enjoy all the privileges of Yahoo! Premium membership for free, encouraging our subscribers to use Yahoo! Japan’s various internet services.

Discounts and Special Plans

Additionally, we offer various discounts and special plans, including the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set plans. Since March 2015, we have offered the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set plan, a discount bundled service, which combines mobile services and optical broadband services, by utilizing optical fiber wholesale services of NTT East and NTT West. As of June 30, 2017, cumulative Hikari Set subscribers consisted of SoftBank Hikari subscribers corresponding to 6.6 million associated mobile subscribers taking advantage of the discount. A typical subscriber might pay approximately ¥8,000 per month for our mobile service opting for five-minute unlimited voice calling and Data Flat-rate (20GB) and ¥5,700 per month for our residential optical broadband services (including related mandatory service charges). When subscribers choose a data package for 20 GB of monthly usage, and also subscribe to our optical broadband services, they receive a monthly discount of ¥1,410 to their smartphone bill and, for a period of two years at most, the smartphone bill of up to ten family members. After two years, the discount is reduced to ¥1,008 and applies only to the smartphone bill of the subscriber.

Y!mobile Pricing Plans

Y!mobile offers fixed-rate smartphone mobile subscription plans with a one-year discounted rate and a two-year double data bonus. Subscribers may choose from three different plans with (i) data cap of 2GB (1GB without a two-year double data bonus) and unlimited voice calls up to ten minutes, (ii) data cap of 6GB (3GB without a two-year double data bonus) and unlimited voice calls up to ten minutes or (iii) data cap of 14GB (7GB without a two-year double data bonus) and unlimited voice calls up to ten minutes. The monthly fee for the 2GB plan is at a discounted rate of ¥1,980 for the first 12 months of the subscription and ¥2,980 for the remaining subscription term. The monthly fees for the 6GB and 14GB plans for the first 12 months are ¥2,980 and ¥4,980, respectively and ¥3,980 and ¥5,980, respectively, for the remaining subscription term.

Handsets

We offer a wide selection of handsets, with a particular focus on smartphones, which generally have a higher ARPU than feature phone offerings. In addition to the iPhone 7, iPhone 7 Plus and iPhone SE, we offer a range of Android smartphones including Sony Mobile’s Xperia™ XZs, Sharp’s AQUOS R and AQUOS ea, and Kyocera’s DIGNO® G. We also offer a number of feature phones, including Sharp’s AQUOS keitai2 and Panasonic Mobile Communication’s COLOR LIFE 5 WATERPROOF and tablets such as Apple’s iPad and iPad Pro.

We source our handsets from a number of well-known suppliers, including Apple, Sharp, Sony, Kyocera, Panasonic, Samsung and ZTE, as SoftBank-brand handsets. These products are sold both through direct and indirect channels. Our Y!mobile brand sources its handsets from suppliers including Apple, LG Electronics and Kyocera, as Y!mobile brand handsets. We are continuously striving to improve the quality and breadth of our handset offerings to take advantage of new developments and new mobile handset features. The iPhone is our best-selling handset.

The majority of the subscribers in the Japanese mobile market are postpaid subscribers. We offer a monthly discount program which is a type of sales promotion that provides customers support as they purchase new handsets, by allowing customers who purchase handsets by installment contract (typically a 24-month contract) to deduct all or a part of their installment payment from their monthly service fees. This program allows subscribers to purchase handsets practically for a significantly reduced price. In addition, we offer to a certain extent cash back, a points program and a trade-in program, in order to gain subscribers from our competitors and retain our existing subscribers. The amount of these offerings depends on the applied price plan, our marketing strategy and the guideline issued by MIC. They are standard in the Japanese mobile market, and believe that they are effective for subscriber acquisition and retention. Also, by increasing the number of subscribers with advanced smartphones that can access our LTE network, we can facilitate our subscribers' use of various mobile content, including mobile applications and internet services, which we believe will lead to an increase in mobile data usage. In effect, we expect this strategy to lead to both improved customer satisfaction as well as increased future data consumption. We believe this strategy is important, as we expect that data usage from smartphones will be one of the drivers of our ARPU, going forward. See “—Strategies—Domestic Telecommunications: Leverage our leading market position in the attractive Japanese telecommunications market to enhance revenue generation” and “—Strategies—Concentrate efforts on acquiring and maintaining higher margin smartphone subscribers by intensifying our dual-brand strategy.”

Fixed-line Telecommunications Products and Services

Our fixed-line services to corporate customers include Otoku Line, a direct-connection fixed-line voice service, or landline service, data transmission services that support work style innovations and promote cross-selling with our other mobile communication services. Our broadband services to individual customers include Yahoo! BB ADSL broadband internet access service, Yahoo! BB hikari with FLET'S ISP services offered as a package with NTT East's and NTT West's FLET'S Hikari Series fiber-optic connection, IP telecommunications services and wireless LAN services. In addition, in March 2015, we began offering fiber-optic connections services, under the SoftBank Hikari brand, through which we resell optical broadband access obtained wholesale from NTT East and NTT West.

Sales and Marketing

Our current marketing strategy is focused on the dual brand strategy of the SoftBank brand for premium service offering and the Y!mobile brand for competitive pricing against MVNO. We have found that marketing communications, such as television commercials, website banners, or media and promotions, in addition to the base line power of a company, which we believe includes the quality of our sales personnel and brand recognition, are the biggest contributors to subscriber additions.

Branding

As a part of our branding strategy, we own the Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS, a Japanese professional baseball team, which won the 2014 and 2015 Japan Series championships. Moreover, we are attempting to develop an image of being cutting-edge through promotional activities that use “Pepper,” the humanoid robot developed by our subsidiaries SoftBank Robotics and SoftBank Robotics Europe. Furthermore, our series of commercials featuring the Shirato family continues to have enduring popularity, even almost ten years after these commercials were first introduced.

Point Program

The T Point program is one of Japan's largest collective points programs in which users can earn T Points through spending at affiliated stores, nationwide, and internet vendors, and to use these points with these same associates. We offer a program through which users can earn T Points by incurring SoftBank mobile phone charges. SoftBank Corp. and Yahoo Japan have a minority investment in Tpoint Japan Co., Ltd., the operator of the T Point program.

Prepaid Cards

We offer a SoftBank Card, which is a refillable pre-paid card, with no registration or annual fee, that allows users to accumulate T Points when shopping and can be used wherever Visa is accepted. The SoftBank

Card is easily refilled by transferring money to a designated bank account and can be used at the approximately 38 million vendors that accept Visa, which include department stores, convenience stores, drugstores, restaurants, clothing stores and internet shops, both in Japan and abroad. For each ¥200 charged to a SoftBank Card, the user accumulates one T Point, which can be used, for example, to offset the user's mobile phone bill or to re-fill the SoftBank Card, at a rate of ¥1 per T Point used.

Trade-in Campaign

We allow our customers to trade in their mobile devices and offer these customers a range of monthly fee discounts, based on the type of device traded in. Devices which are traded in are resold by Brightstar.

Customer Service

We realize that customer service, including the service that we provide, both when signing up a customer and when addressing the needs of existing customers is important to retaining subscribers and maintaining the reputation and recognition of our brand name. We provide extensive customer service at the point of sale through our nationwide network of shops, the employees of which we train in customer support and to whom we provide further assistance through our shop support centers. Post-sale support is handled through our toll-free support lines, which include general support services as well as technical support dedicated to the iPhone, email center and Twitter support. Customers also participate in surveys after receiving assistance from our support staff, which enables us to monitor performance and motivate our personnel to continue to provide excellent service. Our customer service efforts are also supported by fully integrated information systems. For example, customers can use their mobile telephones or personal computers to access our website, where they can change their services, pricing plans and email addresses 24 hours a day.

Consumer Marketing Channels

We have established an extensive nationwide distribution and after-sales service and support network comprised primarily of dealers, which, as of June 30, 2017, included dealers in approximately 2,500 SoftBank-branded stores and 1,000 Y!mobile-branded stores that exclusively offer our products and services. Additionally, we market through an extensive network of mass electronics retailers and mobile retail shops, as well as mobile specialty shops, which sell multiple brands of mobile phones. We have longstanding relationships with mass electronics retailers and we believe that we can leverage these relationships to promote our mobile communications services.

We also use the SoftBank Corp. and Y!mobile website to market our products and services. The websites contain online shopping and detailed information on our products and services, such as product specifications, pricing plan details and service area coverage. Our websites are also increasingly focused on customer self-service in order to provide subscribers with greater convenience. Subscribers can access services related to their accounts through the websites in order to see, for example, their service plan, monthly statements and customer support information.

In addition, we use our existing customer relationships related to fixed-line and other corporate solutions to cross-sell mobile, cloud and other solutions to corporate customers.

Fixed-line Telecommunications Sales and Marketing

As a fixed-line telecommunications company, we attempt to differentiate our business through network reliability and information and communications technology solutions, building on what we believe to be a trusted reputation and strong track record in the fixed-line telecommunications market and price competitiveness. As discussed above, subscribers to our fixed-line broadband services, mainly our SoftBank Hikari service, can receive discounts on their mobile phone services. See “—Our Products and Services—Discounts and Special Plans.”

Subscribers

As of June 30, 2017, our Domestic Telecommunications business had 42.0 million subscribers of smartphones, feature phones, tablets and mobile communications devices representing a subscriber market share of approximately 25% according to TCA and Company data. This is up from 15.2 million when we acquired Vodafone Japan in 2006. We believe that our customer base will contribute to our ability to achieve stable cash flows from our mobile business communications business. We have identified users of smartphones, feature phones, tablets, and mobile data communication devices, which are all sources of revenue and profit, as the “main mobile subscribers” and concentrated our efforts on acquiring and maintaining such subscribers. As of June 30, 2017, the cumulative number of main mobile subscribers of mobile communications services stood at 32 million, 299 thousand net additions from June 30, 2016. In addition, the churn rate in phone subscribers decreased from 0.85% for the three months ended June 30, 2016 to 0.79% for the three months ended June 30, 2017 while our churn rate in main mobile subscribers remained stable at 1.13% for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017.

As of June 30, 2017, our Domestic Telecommunications business had 6.4 million subscribers of fixed-broadband services. The number of SoftBank Hikari subscribers successfully increased by 1.8 million from 2.2 million as of June 30, 2016 to 4.0 million as for June 30, 2017 due to focused efforts to expand sales of the Home Bundle Discount Hikari Set and an aggressive campaign to encourage users to switch over from competing telecom carriers' fiber-optic services.

Mobile Network

We operate the foremost domestic mobile communications network, in terms of smartphone data connectivity and smartphone communication speed. We purchase and operate our network infrastructure directly. Our primary providers of network equipment include affiliates of Ericsson and Nokia.

According to Agoop Corp., an industry data aggregator, our smartphone data connectivity as of July 30, 2017, was 98.6%, compared to 98.5% and 98.4% for our primary competitors NTT DOCOMO and KDDI, respectively. See “—Japanese Market Overview.”

After acquiring Vodafone Japan in 2006, we began strengthening our network by doubling the number of our 3G base stations. Following this investment in our network, and before we were allocated spectrum of the 900 MHz band, we focused on improving our network coverage, particularly poor area coverage, by making appropriate and well-timed capital investments in our network, while minimizing capital expenditure in order to improve our financial position, such as free cash flows. In 2010, as our iPhone subscribers began to increase, we began to upgrade our network to better serve the needs of subscribers in the smartphone age. We doubled the number of our base stations particularly in metropolitan areas, so that our network could handle the anticipated increase in data usage. In 2012, we were allocated spectrum of the 900 MHz band and undertook efforts to further improve our network area coverage and quality, such as by building new base stations and towers in areas in which our network previously did not cover. In addition, we began to utilize the networks of Wireless City Planning and eAccess, allowing our smartphone user subscribers to access multiple spectrums and allowing us to build a network that enabled users to more seamlessly access internet media and services. Now that our network has improved significantly, as planned, required capital expenditure has declined from prior periods, as the most costly aspects of our network improvement, such as setting up steel towers for base stations, are mostly complete. Going forward, as we continuously improve our network, we believe that our capital expenditures will be primarily limited to maintenance and upgrades of our existing base stations for introducing the newest network technologies.

Our LTE services include FDD-LTE and TD-LTE. We provide these services using a combination of our available spectrum, based on availability and data traffic, which helps us to achieve higher effective speed than other carriers.

Our LTE services use the 2.1 GHz band throughout most of Japan. We have enhanced our nationwide LTE coverage with the addition of our 900 MHz band LTE services. Our 2.5 GHz TD-LTE services, which are used for data offloading, are provided primarily in cities in which data traffic is high. This TD-LTE network utilizes a one-of-a-kind architecture of “cloud-type base stations” where “base band units,” each controlling 30 to 50 base stations, are installed in local telephone exchanges. This system enables us to reduce the geographic coverage area, or cell size, served by base stations through coordinated control, thereby reducing interference between base stations. We believe this system and continuous upgrade of our network with advanced technology will play an increasingly important role in offloading an increasing amount of data traffic.

We also enhance our LTE services by using carrier aggregation, which we began in September 2014. Carrier aggregation is a wireless communication technology used in concert with LTE-Advanced to aggregate multiple radio transmission signals together to achieve faster communication speeds. iPhone 7, iPhone 7 Plus, iPhone 6s, iPhone 6s Plus and certain of the latest Android smartphones and certain data cards are also compatible with carrier aggregation technology. In addition, in September 2016, we launched an unprecedented commercial multiple-input and multiple-output (“Massive MIMO”) technology combined with beamforming technology, which is a signal processing technique that directs signals from antennas towards where our users are. Massive MIMO is one of the core technologies of 5G used to enhance network capacity in Japan.

We have agreed with Qualcomm Technologies for the 2.5GHz band and Nokia Solutions and Networks Japan Corp., ZTE JAPAN K.K., Huawei Technologies Japan K.K. and Ericsson Japan K.K., respectively, for the 4.5GHz band to develop technologies for a future 5G network. We plan to provide commercial services and devices utilizing 5G networks around 2020.

Spectrum

SoftBank Corp. has been allocated spectrum in the 700 MHz, 900 MHz, 1.5 GHz, 1.7 GHz, 2.1 GHz, 2.5 GHz and 3.5 GHz bands for operation of our mobile communications networks.

Unlike in the United States and certain European countries, radio spectrum in Japan historically has not been allocated via an auction system. Instead, the MIC allocates bandwidth after considering applications from interested parties. In this process the MIC considers a range of factors, including which proposed use for the spectrum best serves public needs and whether the parties have the necessary means to accomplish their proposals. Because the MIC can revoke allocations under certain circumstances, we are obligated to develop our spectrum in accordance with the proposals we made when applying for use of the spectrum. Spectrum users are required to pay radio utilization fees to the MIC. See “Regulation—Radio Act of Japan—Allocation of Radio Frequency Spectrum.”

Sprint Segment

The Sprint segment was established as a reportable segment in conjunction with the consolidation of Sprint in 2013. Sprint is a communications company that primarily offers wireless communications products and services that are designed to meet the needs of individual consumers, businesses and resellers. Its operations are organized to meet the needs of our targeted subscriber groups through focused communications solutions that incorporate the capabilities of our wireless services. Sprint is one of the major mobile operators in the U.S. with approximately 53.7 million subscribers to its mobile communications services as of June 30, 2017.

Products and Services

Sprint operates both a wireless and wireline business, providing fixed-line telecommunications services, mobile telecommunications services, mobile devices, mobile handsets and accessories services in the United States. Sprint offers wireless services on a postpaid and prepaid payment basis to retail subscribers and also on a wholesale basis, which includes the sale of wireless services that utilize the Sprint network but are sold under the wholesaler’s brand. Sprint continues to support the open development of applications, content and devices on the Sprint platform.

Sprint’s wireless data communications services include mobile productivity applications, such as internet access, messaging and email services; wireless photo and video offerings; location-based capabilities, including asset and fleet management, dispatch services and navigation tools; and mobile entertainment applications, including the ability to view live television, listen to satellite radio, download and listen to music, and play games. Sprint’s wireless voice communications services include basic local and long-distance wireless voice services throughout the United States, as well as voicemail, call waiting, three-way calling, caller identification, directory assistance and call forwarding. Sprint also provides voice and data services in numerous countries outside of the United States through roaming arrangements. Sprint offers customized design, development, implementation and support for wireless services provided to large companies and government agencies.

Sprint’s services are provided using a broad array of devices and applications and services that run on these devices to meet the growing needs of subscriber mobility. Sprint’s device portfolio includes many cutting edge handsets, from various original equipment manufacturers, as well as hotspots, which allow the connection of multiple Wi-Fi enabled devices to the Sprint platform and embedded tablets and laptop devices. In addition, Sprint sells accessories, such as carrying cases, hands-free devices and other items to subscribers, and sells devices and accessories to agents and other third-party distributors for resale.

In Sprint’s postpaid portfolio, it offers several price plans for both consumer and business subscribers. Many of its price plans include unlimited talk, text and data or allow subscribers to purchase monthly data allowances. Sprint also offers family plans that include multiple lines of service under one account. Sprint currently offers these plans through installment billing or leasing programs, and within limited plan offerings through subsidy. Sprint’s installment billing program does not require a service contract and offers service plans at lower monthly rates compared to subsidy plans, but requires the subscriber to pay full or near full price for the device over monthly installments. Sprint’s leasing program also does not require a service contract, provides for service plans at lower monthly rates compared to subsidy plans and allows qualified subscribers to lease a device and make payments for use of the device over the term of the lease. At the end of the lease term, the subscriber can either turn in the device, continue leasing the device or purchase the device. The terms of Sprint’s installment billing and lease contracts require that customers maintain service otherwise the balance of the note is due or they are in default under their lease. The subsidy program, which is being de-emphasized, requires a service contract and allows for a subscriber to purchase a device at a discount for a new line of service.

Sprint’s prepaid portfolio currently includes multiple brands, each designed to appeal to specific subscriber uses and demographics. Sprint Forward (formerly Sprint Prepaid) primarily serves as a complementary offer to Sprint Postpaid offer for those subscribers who want plans that are affordable, simple and flexible without a long-term commitment. Boost Mobile primarily serves subscribers that are looking for value without data limits. Virgin Mobile primarily serves subscribers that are looking to optimize spend but need solutions that offer control, flexibility and connectivity through various plans with high speed data options. Virgin Mobile is also designated as a Lifeline-only Eligible Telecommunications Carrier. Under the Assurance Wireless brand, Virgin Mobile provides service to Lifeline eligible subscribers (for whom it seeks reimbursement from the federal Universal Service Fund) and subscribers who have lost their Lifeline eligibility and retain Assurance Wireless retail service. The Lifeline program requires applicants to meet certain eligibility requirements and existing subscribers must recertify as to those requirements annually. While Sprint will continue to support our Lifeline subscribers through its Assurance Wireless prepaid brand, Sprint has excluded these subscribers from its reported prepaid customer base for all periods presented due to recent regulatory changes resulting in tighter program restrictions.

Sprint has focused its wholesale business on enabling its diverse network of customers to successfully grow their business by providing them with an array of network, product and device solutions. This allows its customers to customize Sprint's full suite of value-added solutions to meet the growing demands of their businesses.

Sales and Marketing

Sprint focuses the marketing and sales of wireless services on targeted groups of retail subscribers, mainly individual consumers, business and governments, and utilizes a variety of sales channels to attract new subscribers to its wireless services. These sales include direct sales representatives, retail outlets, indirect sales agents and third-party retailers and subscriber-convenient channels, including internet sales and telesales.

Prior to commencing installment billing and leasing programs, Sprint historically sold devices below its cost in response to competition to attract new subscribers and as retention inducements for existing subscribers. Subscribers also have the option to purchase eligible devices through Sprint's installment billing program or to lease eligible devices through its leasing program.

Sprint offers lower monthly service fees without a traditional service contract as an incentive to attract subscribers to certain of its service plans. These lower rates for service are available whether subscribers bring their own device, pay the full or near full retail price of the device, purchase the device under Sprint's installment billing program, or leases their device through Sprint's leasing program. As Sprint's base of subscribers shift away from its traditional subsidy program to lower-priced service plans associated with device financing options, Sprint expects its postpaid ARPU to continue to decline due to lower service revenue; however, Sprint expects higher equipment revenue associated with the installment billing and leasing programs to substantially offset these declines. Since inception, the combination of lower priced plans and installment billing and leasing programs have been accretive to Sprint's wireless segment earnings. Sprint expects that trend to continue with the magnitude of the impact being dependent on subscriber adoption rates. The installment billing and leasing programs will continue to require a greater use of operating cash flows in the earlier part of the contracts as the subscriber will generally pay less upfront than the traditional subsidy program because they are financing the device.

Subscribers

The Sprint platform had approximately 53.7 million subscribers as of June 30, 2017. For the three months ended June 30, 2017, Sprint added 61 thousand net subscribers, including 88 thousand postpaid phone subscribers.

Network

Sprint delivers wireless and wireline services to subscribers through its ownership of extensive wireless networks, an all-digital global wireline network and a Tier 1 Internet backbone. Sprint offers wireless services on its wireless networks utilizing various technologies including third generation (3G) code division multiple access (CDMA) and fourth generation (4G) services utilizing Long Term Evolution (LTE). Sprint utilizes these networks to offer its wireless subscribers differentiated products and services through the use of a single network or a combination of these networks.

Sprint continues to increase coverage and capacity by densifying and optimizing its existing network. Densification, which includes increasing the number of small cells and antennas, is intended to enhance coverage and capacity across the network. Sprint expects the densification efforts to cost significantly less than its historical macro cell site builds (i.e. adding traditional cell towers). Sprint is also deploying new technologies, such as carrier aggregation, which allows Sprint to move more data at faster speeds over the same spectrum. Additionally, Sprint's introduction of tri-band devices, which support each of its spectrum bands, allows Sprint to manage and operate its network more efficiently and at a lower cost. Sprint has continued to see positive results from these infrastructure upgrades in key U.S. markets.

The 2.5 GHz spectrum band carries the highest percentage of Sprint's LTE data traffic. Sprint has significant additional capacity to grow the use of its 2.5 GHz spectrum holdings into the future. Sprint believes it is well-positioned with spectrum holdings of more than 160 MHz of 2.5 GHz spectrum in the top 100 markets in the U.S.

Yahoo Japan Segment

Yahoo Japan, our primary subsidiary operating in the Yahoo Japan segment, was established in 1996 as a joint venture between Yahoo! Inc. (currently Altaba Inc.) and the Company and is the dominant search and portal site in Japan. Monthly page views, based on IP address, for its portal site for the three months ended June 30, 2017 reached over 72 billion. As of June 30, 2017, the SoftBank Group held 43% of the voting shares of Yahoo Japan, which is listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange with a market capitalization of ¥2,784 billion ($24,855 million) as of June 30, 2017.

Products and Services

Yahoo Japan offers internet users a wide range of services, including search, information listing, community, e-commerce and games, all of which are accessible from the Yahoo! Japan internet portal site. We leverage the Yahoo! brand in our other businesses as well.

Sales and Marketing

In 2013, Yahoo Japan launched a new strategy for its advertising business, which included eliminating store tenant and other fees for shops on the Yahoo! Shopping and YAHUOKU! platforms. Although the new strategy has caused revenues to decline in the short term, the goal is to invigorate the market by expanding the numbers of sellers and products, and to set the overall business on a new growth trajectory by increasing advertisements. In Yahoo! Shopping, contributed by the continued increase in the number of product items, enhanced traffic referral from its own services and, in addition, the T Point reward measure for SoftBank smartphone users, the total merchandise volume of Yahoo! Shopping, YAHUOKU! and LOHACO for fiscal 2016 significantly expanded by 23.0% year-on-year to ¥1.8 trillion.

Yahoo Japan utilizes big data and advanced advertising technologies to enhance its response to diversifying advertiser needs and realize multi-device compatibility. For example, Yahoo Japan uses big data obtained from its customer base, which we believe to be the largest in Japan, to enable real-time distribution of advertisements, significantly increasing advertising efficiency. Yahoo Japan also made a full-scale expansion into the video advertisement distribution business. Yahoo Japan focuses on multi-device compatibility to strengthen its response to the ongoing evolution of content, from text to images and video.

Distribution Segment

The Distribution segment comprises subsidiaries such as Brightstar and SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp. Brightstar's operations include a wholesaling business purchasing mobile devices from manufacturers and distributing them to telecommunications operators and retailers globally. We utilize Brightstar's world-wide distribution network to sell smartphone accessories to mobile carriers across the globe. SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp.'s operations include the sale of mobile device accessories and IT-related software and hardware in Japan.

SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp. offers accessories for iPhone, iPad and other smartphones under the SoftBank SELECTION brand.

Arm Segment

The Arm segment provides microprocessor intellectual property designs for use in mobile phones and other mobile devices, as well as software designs and software tools. Arm is seeing continued growth with 17.7 billion Arm-based chips shipped in the year ended December 31, 2016 and 4.7 billion in the three months ended March 31, 2017, compared to 15.1 billion chips in the year ended December 31, 2015 and 3.6 billion in the three months ended March 31, 2016. During the year ended December 31, 2015, Arm's technologies were used in over 95% of the primary microprocessors used in smartphones. In 2016, Arm had 34% worldwide market share, calculated by the number of Arm-based chips shipped divided by the number of semiconductors shipped (excluding memory and analog chips, which do not contain processor technology) according to WSTS. In July 2016, anticipating that Arm would be a key driver in the paradigm shift to IoT, we announced a long-term strategic agreement with Arm. Since September 2016, Arm has conducted its business as a member of the SoftBank Group. Arm technology is used in many leading-edge products, including those for mobile, enterprise infrastructure and embedded intelligence in automobiles and home appliances. These markets are expected to see expansion with the future adoption of IoT. By accelerating investment in new technologies and markets and by expanding market share in markets with growth potential and pursuing growth opportunities in network infrastructure, servers, automotive, IoT, and AI, Arm will aim for further growth as a core business in the SoftBank Group leading IoT.

SVF Segment

We established the SVF segment as a new reportable segment during the three months ended June 30, 2017 upon the SVF having completed its initial closing on May 20, 2017. The SVF segment covers the investment activities of the SVF. The purpose of the SVF is to invest in companies across a wide range of technology sectors. The SVF consists of several funds which are composed of the following entities:

- several General Partners, each of which is a subsidiary of the Company;
- several limited partnerships managed by the General Partners, mainly SoftBank Vision Fund L.P.;
- newly-established holding entities for several of the portfolio company investments; and
- SB Investment Advisers (UK) Limited (“SBIA”), a wholly owned UK subsidiary of the Company, which will provide investment advice to each General Partner, and US and Japanese advisory companies supporting SBIA.

The General Partners will receive investment advice and certain investment execution and other services from SBIA once SBIA is registered with the UK Financial Conduct Authority. Investment decisions for the various entities comprising the SVF are made by the Investment Committee established at the General Partners or expected to be established at SBIA.

The terms of the SVF partnership agreement generally require us to make investments and acquisitions of $100 million or more, that fall within the SVF’s investment strategy, through the SVF or its associated vehicles, but we will continue to make certain other investments and acquisitions, including (but not limited to) investments not meeting the $100 million threshold, strategic investments at the operating company level and other investments that do not fall within the SVF’s investment strategy and criteria.

Since July 2017, the SVF has issued initial Capital Calls to us and several other investors, a portion of which have been successfully settled. We are in the process of satisfying our respective obligations under such capital calls and expects to deliver an aggregate of 178 million shares of Arm, representing 12.4% of the total outstanding shares, a portion of which have been pledged pending delivery upon completion of regulatory approvals. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Recent Developments.”

Separate from our capital contribution, we are also in the process of transferring certain assets to the SVF in exchange for reimbursement. For example, we have agreed to transfer our investments in Nvidia Corporation and Guardant Health, Inc. to the SVF, and we plan to transfer, in whole or in part, other investments, including our investments in Xiaoju Kuaizhi Inc. and OSISOFT LLC, to entities in our SVF segment. When the SVF makes capital calls requiring us to contribute capital in a cumulative amount exceeding the value of the Arm shares contributed to the SVF, we will then contribute cash to the SVF to fulfill our capital contribution obligations. We do not plan to use the remaining shares in Arm or any other securities (including those we hold in Alibaba) for in-kind contributions to the SVF.

For information regarding accounting policies for the SVF, see “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations—Significant Accounting Policies for the SVF.”

Other Segment

We are also involved in various businesses, including energy- and robotics-related businesses, businesses related to the Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS, a Japanese professional baseball team, and other businesses.

Strategically Important Companies

Alibaba

Alibaba operates Taobao Marketplace, one of China’s largest mobile commerce destinations and Tmall, one of China’s largest third-party platforms for brands and retailers. Alibaba also operates Alibaba.com, a leading platform for global wholesale trade serving millions of buyers and suppliers around the world, and AliExpress, a global retail marketplace enabling consumers from around the world to buy directly from wholesalers and manufacturers. As a platform, Alibaba provides the fundamental technology infrastructure and marketing reach to help businesses leverage the power of the internet to establish an online presence and conduct commerce with consumers and businesses. We believe that Alibaba is one of the largest online and mobile commerce companies in the world in terms of gross merchandise volume and the largest e-commerce company by transaction volume in China. Alibaba provides a platform for third parties, and does not engage in direct sales, compete with its merchants or hold inventory.

We have built a mutually advantageous relationship with Alibaba, as seen in our joint investment with Alibaba in Travice Inc. (currently Xiaoju), a provider of one of China's most popular ride sharing mobile applications. Furthermore, in May 2016, we announced the establishment of SB Cloud Corporation with Alibaba to launch cloud computing services in Japan that utilize technologies and solutions from Alibaba Cloud, the cloud computing arm of the Alibaba group. In addition, Alibaba's executive chairman Mr. Yun Ma serves as a director of the company and Mr. Masayoshi Son (our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer), serves as a director of Alibaba, with both directors using their knowledge and rich experience to contribute to the growth of each company.

We are party to a voting agreement with Alibaba, Altaba Inc. (formerly Yahoo! Inc.), Yun Ma, Joseph Tsai and certain other shareholders of Alibaba, pursuant to which the parties agreed to certain voting arrangements with respect to Alibaba shares respectively controlled by them, including an agreement to vote for our director nominee.

Other Strategically Important Associates and Investees

The below information is based on our experience and belief, as well as other publicly available information about the below companies. We do not control these companies and, as such, rely on our status as a shareholder for our information with respect to their operations.

Coupang (Forward Ventures, LLC) In June 2015, we invested $1 billion in Coupang, which offers mobile-first e-commerce end-to-end fulfillment services in Korea and one of the most revolutionary last-mile delivery services in the world.

Social Finance, Inc. In October 2015, we participated in a $1 billion Series E financing of Social Finance, a U.S. fintech company that focuses on individual financial services, such as student loan refinancing. In April 2017, we participated in a $500 million Series F financing of Social Finance, the funds from which Social Finance plans to use to accelerate its expansion into new product areas and countries outside of the United States.

OneWeb (WorldVu Satellites Limited) In December 2016, we announced that we entered into an agreement with OneWeb, which is building a constellation of satellites to enable global broadband access, whereby we will make a total investment of $1.0 billion in OneWeb. We invested $320 million during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 and $150 million in April 2017. We plan to invest the remaining $530 million subject to the satisfaction of certain customary closing conditions. Additionally, we have a conditional purchase commitment of $4 billion for satellite communication service capacity to the OneWeb group as of March 31, 2017. The minimum payment of $4 billion is subject to OneWeb achieving certain service levels, which are set forth in two stages and include, among other things, the positioning of a particular number of satellites on prescribed orbital planes in operation. An initial payment of $0.5 billion will be made within 12 months of OneWeb completing the first service level, and the remaining $3.5 billion will be paid within 48 months of OneWeb completing the second service level.

Didi Chunxing In April and May 2017, one of our overseas subsidiaries made a total investment of $5 billion in Xiaoju, the operator of a taxi allocation service Didi Chunxing, one of the largest ride sharing app providers in China by user base. After the investment, Xiaoju has not been and is not classified as a subsidiary or an associate of the Company.

Important Relationships

Vendors

We rely on key vendors for mobile handsets and networking equipment, including the Apple iPhone. As the first carrier to market the iPhone in Japan, we have a well-established relationship with Apple Inc. We believe that our relationship with Apple Inc., as with other major vendors, is healthy.

Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corp.

Maintaining our relationship with NTT is important to us. NTT, which is approximately one-third owned by the Japanese government, is the incumbent telecommunications operator that owns a significant portion of the telecommunications infrastructure in Japan. As telecommunications providers, certain SoftBank Group companies in Japan are party to interconnection agreements with NTT. Furthermore, certain SoftBank Group companies have formed alliances with NTT East and NTT West whereby these entities provide fixed-line broadband services to users while SoftBank Group companies provide mobile broadband or other package services to the same users. For example, we offer fiber-optic connection services under the SoftBank Hikari brand, through which we re-offer optical broadband access obtained wholesale from NTT East and NTT West.

Altaba Inc. and Verizon Communications Inc.

In 1996, we entered into a joint venture agreement with Yahoo! Inc. (currently Altaba Inc.) (as amended by the Amendment Agreement dated September 17, 1997, the “Yahoo Joint Venture Agreement”) in order to create a Japanese version of Yahoo! Inc.’s online navigational services and to sell online advertisement space, among other purposes. On June 13, 2017, Yahoo! Inc. completed a transaction in which it sold its core operating business to a subsidiary of Verizon; in connection with the transaction, the Yahoo! brand was transferred to Verizon, while Yahoo! Inc.’s interest in the Yahoo Japan joint venture remained with the former Yahoo! Inc., which was renamed Altaba Inc.

The Yahoo Joint Venture Agreement has a perpetual term under which either party may terminate for material breaches. However, Altaba Inc. may also terminate the agreement if Yahoo Japan sustains net losses for four consecutive fiscal quarters and the parties cannot agree on a future business plan for the joint venture. Additionally, neither Altaba Inc. nor SoftBank may directly or indirectly sell, assign, transfer, dispose, pledge, or encumber any shares of Yahoo Japan common stock, or purchase shares on the open market, without the prior consent of the other.

Yahoo Japan has a license to the Yahoo! brand in Japan from Verizon, which succeeded Yahoo! Inc. as the licensor pursuant to the licensing agreement dated April 1, 1996 and as amended on September 17, 1997 (the “Yahoo! Licensing Agreement”) in connection with Verizon’s acquisition of Yahoo! Inc.’s internet business and brand. The Yahoo! Licensing Agreement is critical to our Yahoo Japan segment, enabling us to use the Yahoo! brand for certain of our products and services. If Yahoo Japan is unable to use the Yahoo! brand for any reason, Yahoo Japan’s services, our internet service and other services with Yahoo! branding could be significantly damaged. As of March 31, 2017, as a group, we held 43% of the voting rights in Yahoo Japan, our consolidated subsidiary.

Intellectual Property

The Company is the holder of the registered trademark “SoftBank” and the related corporate logo. The Company permits certain SoftBank Group companies to use its registered trademark.

Certain of the SoftBank Group companies have registered, and have patents pending with respect to, trademarks, registered designs, patents and utility models. In addition, certain of the SoftBank Group companies license the right to use certain intellectual property from third parties, including the Yahoo! Licensing Agreement.

Insurance

To the extent that it is reasonably available, we maintain insurance policies, which have policy specifications and insured limits that are adequate and appropriate for our business. Like many other companies in Japan, risks are covered by our fire insurance policies.

We also maintain a range of insurance policies for our directors that are appropriate for our business.

Properties and Leases

Our major subsidiaries lease certain telecommunications equipment and service lines, buildings and structures, other property, equipment and software. Once the assembly, installation and inspection of newly acquired equipment is complete, we sell the equipment, excluding the installed software, to leasing companies and lease the equipment back from them under sale and lease-back arrangements. At the same time, we enter into loan contracts with the lessors to pay for the value of the software installed in the equipment. We include the cash inflows from the sale of the equipment to leasing companies and the proceeds from the loan arranged for the software portion as proceeds from the sale and lease-back of equipment newly acquired under cash flows from financing activities in our consolidated financial statements. As of June 30, 2017, the value of our consolidated outstanding leases was ¥1,245 billion ($11,112 million).

We generally lease all of our offices including our head office in Tokyo. Generally, our subsidiaries also lease their properties, although each subsidiary may at its own discretion purchase office space and other properties.

Employees

As of March 31, 2017, we had 68,402 full-time employees.

The following table shows the aggregate number of our full-time employees. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, we had an average of 12,924 part-time employees.

	As of March 31,
	2015	2016	2017
Domestic Telecommunications	17,986	17,834	17,899
Sprint	29,670	26,221	24,845
Yahoo Japan	6,949	9,010	11,013
Distribution	7,928	7,433	7,019
Arm	—	—	4,748
Other	3,407	2,840	2,611
Corporate	214	253	267
Total	66,154	63,591	68,402

Group-wide, we enjoy good relations with our employees. While the Company's employees are not unionized, some of our consolidated subsidiaries have labor unions.

We believe the level of remuneration, fringe benefits, working conditions and other allowances, which include pension payments to employees upon retirement, provided to our employees is generally competitive with those offered in Japan by other companies in similar industries.

Legal Proceedings

We are routinely involved in litigation and other legal proceedings in connection with our ordinary course business activities. We are not currently involved in any litigation or other legal proceedings that, if determined adversely to us, would individually or in the aggregate be expected to have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations.

REGULATION

General

The business activities of the SoftBank Group are subject to various governmental regulations in Japan and the other jurisdictions in which we operate, including regulations relating to business and investment approvals, consumer protection, intellectual property, taxation, foreign exchange controls and environmental requirements. Applicable regulations are frequently introduced, abolished or amended, and in any event are subject to interpretation by governmental and judicial authorities.

In particular, our mobile communications business, broadband infrastructure business and fixed-line telecommunications business are subject to general regulations applicable to the telecommunications industry in Japan, of which the following are the most significant:

- the Telecommunications Business Act of Japan (Act No. 86 of 1984, as amended) (the “TBA”);
- the Radio Act of Japan (Act No. 131 of 1950, as amended) (the “Radio Act”); and
- the Wire Telecommunications Act of Japan (Act No. 96 of 1953, as amended) (collectively together with the TBA and the Radio Act, the “Telecommunications Regulations”).

The Telecommunications Regulations are administered primarily by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Communications of Japan (the “Ministry”) through regulatory actions of the responsible government minister (the “MIC Minister” and together with the Ministry, the “MIC”). Additionally, the Japan Fair Trade Commission (the “JFTC”) has jurisdiction over telecommunications carriers by virtue of its powers under the Act Concerning Prohibition of Monopoly and Maintenance of Fair Trade (Act No. 54 of 1947, as amended) to prohibit anti-competitive practices.

As is typical for regulatory authorities in Japan, the MIC has announced various guidelines in connection with the implementation of applicable laws for the primary purpose of clarifying the meaning of such laws as well as ordinances made under them. Such guidelines are informal in nature and do not have the status of legislation passed by the National Diet of Japan, the primary legislative body in Japan (the “Diet”). Accordingly they are not legally binding on telecommunications carriers. Nevertheless, such guidelines serve as a statement of the regulatory interpretation of applicable laws and, accordingly, telecommunications carriers are, in practice, required to comply with them.

Telecommunications Business Act of Japan

General

The TBA applies to entities that conduct telecommunications activities such as mobile communications services, fixed-line telecommunications services, DSL access services, internet and FTTH access services. Pursuant to the TBA, companies that conduct such activities are subject to registration and notification requirements, interconnection requirements, as well as various other regulations.

The following summarizes certain material requirements under the TBA.

Registration of Telecommunications Business Operations

Under the TBA, registration carriers, such as SoftBank Corp. and Wireless City Planning, must file a detailed application for registration with the MIC. Such application must include information on the facilities and equipment, and the target service areas. The MIC will generally approve the applicant’s registration if the MIC finds that commencement of the applicant’s business is not likely to impede fair competition within the telecommunications market or is otherwise appropriate for the sound development of the telecommunications industry of Japan.

Once registration is granted, the MIC has the authority to rescind a registration in certain cases, including, among others, where the registered carrier has breached the TBA or any order or disposition issued under the TBA, and the MIC considers such breach damaging to the public interest. If a telecommunications carrier violates certain provisions under the TBA, such as by providing telecommunications services without registration or by failing to comply with orders issued by the MIC, such carrier may be subject to penalty. In addition, an amendment to the TBA was promulgated on May 22, 2015 and became effective on May 21, 2016. Under the amendment, registration must be renewed when a registration carrier succeeds, in whole or in part, to a telecommunications business through a merger, a company split, or a business transfer from an entity outside of the SoftBank Group of the registered telecommunications carrier. Such renewal must be made within three months of the date of such succession, and if the registration carrier fails to renew, the registration becomes void.

The SoftBank Group is subject to regulation of interconnection fees as applicable to operators of Category II-designated telecommunications facilities (mobile communication systems).

Interconnection

Subject to certain exceptions, the TBA requires telecommunications carriers to allow other telecommunications carriers to interconnect with their telecommunications facilities. In general, the carriers enter into a mutual written agreement setting forth the terms of such interconnection, including interconnection fees. If operators of Category I-designated telecommunications facilities (local fixed-line systems) or Category II-designated telecommunications facilities are included in the parties of the agreement, such agreement must contain the terms of interconnection, including interconnection fees, which, depending on the type of operator, have been notified to or approved by the MIC.

Upon an application by a carrier or both carriers, the MIC has the power, directly or through its dispute settlement commission, to require negotiation, mediation and arbitration of disputes between telecommunications carriers, to order telecommunications carriers to modify proposed interconnection fees and to grant awards with respect to the terms of interconnection (including interconnection fees).

Interconnection fees to interconnect with Category II-designated telecommunications facilities, such as those operated by SoftBank Corp., are determined according to a calculation prescribed by the MIC. In particular, the “Ordinance Relating to Interconnection Fees of the Category II-Designated Telecommunications Facilities” was promulgated on March 29, 2016 and became effective on May 21, 2016 which generally prescribes that interconnection fees shall be calculated by dividing the sum of the maintenance costs with respect to the facilities and enterprise capital costs by the aggregate hours of communication or the volume of traffic.

Operators of Category II-designated telecommunications facilities determine their interconnection fees based upon such calculation. Further, they are required to notify the MIC of the tariff, including interconnection fees and other interconnection terms. Such notification is required prior to the implementation of the tariff or any amendment thereof, and the operator cannot enter into or amend an interconnection agreement in a manner that is inconsistent with the tariff previously notified to the MIC. Such tariffs, including interconnection fees, must be publicly disclosed (for example on the website of the operator of the Category II-designated telecommunications facilities).

The MIC may order a carrier to modify such interconnection fees in certain cases, such as where the interconnection fees exceed an amount corresponding to maintenance costs for the facilities plus enterprise capital costs, as deemed appropriate under efficient management.

Universal Services

Under the TBA, certain types of calls—calls to public facilities, calls to home telephones and emergency calls to police or fire stations—are considered “Universal Services” (i.e., telecommunications services deemed to be indispensable for daily life). As of the date hereof, the only “qualified carriers” of Universal Services are NTT East and NTT West. Therefore, other carriers, including SoftBank Corp., that benefit by interconnecting to the NTT East and NTT West facilities, must share the cost of such services pursuant to a prescribed formula for allocating costs.

Land Use Privilege

The MIC may designate certain carriers as “Approved Carriers”—carriers who enjoy certain privileges specified in the TBA, such as the ability to obtain rights-of-way to use other parties’ land under certain specified circumstances. SoftBank Corp., BB BACKBONE Corp. and Wireless City Planning are Approved Carriers.

An Approved Carrier may, provided it has justifiable reason, refuse to provide telecommunications services relating to its Approved Carrier status. If the Approved Carrier is unable to provide such services, the MIC may order the Approved Carrier to improve its business activities or take other measures to the extent deemed necessary to protect the interests of end users or the public. Further, the MIC has the authority to rescind the approval in certain cases, including, among others, where the Approved Carrier has breached the TBA or any order or disposition issued under the TBA, and the MIC considers such breach damaging to the public interest.

Radio Act of Japan

General

Certain of our businesses are subject to the provisions of the Radio Act, which regulates licenses for radio transmission stations, radio equipment, radio operators, radio operations and the transmission of radio waves. The Radio Act impacts, among other matters, our mobile communications business, due to the fact that radio waves are used by transmitters to communicate with mobile telephone handsets.

License Requirement

Any person who intends to establish radio transmission stations must first obtain a license from the MIC. In particular, mobile communications service providers must obtain a license for each base station and for handsets.

The MIC has introduced a technical standards verification system and a blanket licensing system (which can be used for handsets) in order to expedite the licensing process. With certain exceptions, a license under the Radio Act has a term of five years, and is thereafter renewable for additional five-year terms pursuant to the Radio Act. A license holder must generally obtain MIC approval in advance of any operational changes relating to the licensed activities, such as modifications to wireless facilities, changes to the location of wireless facilities or changes to the recipients of wireless communications services, and is subject to periodic inspection of its facilities.

The MIC has the authority to rescind a license under certain circumstances, and may order cessation or restriction on the operation of radio stations after a cure period of less than three months if the license holder has breached the Radio Act or the Broadcasting Act of Japan (Act No. 132 of 1950, as amended) or any order or disposition under such laws. If a license-holder violates certain provisions under the Radio Act, such as operating a radio transmission station in violation of the terms of its license, such carrier may be subject to penalties.

Allocation of Radio Frequency Spectrum

Unlike other jurisdictions which allot frequency spectrums by way of an auction system, use of radio frequency spectrum in Japan is allocated at the discretion of the MIC after consultation with the Radio Regulatory Council and consideration of plans submitted by operators.

At the end of February 2012, the MIC approved a plan submitted by SoftBank Corp. to establish radio transmission stations using the 945 MHz to 960 MHz frequency band, which is currently available for our use. In addition, in June 2012, the MIC approved plans submitted by NTT DOCOMO, Okinawa Cellular Telephone Company (a subsidiary of KDDI) and eAccess to establish radio transmission stations using the 773 MHz to 803 MHz frequency band, which is also currently available for the carriers' use.

In addition, on December 19, 2014, the MIC approved a plan submitted by SoftBank Corp. to establish radio transmission stations using 3,560 MHz to 3,600 MHz, and submitted by NTT DOCOMO and KDDI/Okinawa Cellular Telephone Company to establish radio transmission stations using 3,480 MHz to 3,520 MHz and 3,520 MHz to 3,560 MHz (allocation for implementing the fourth generation mobile communication system). In connection with this application, the MIC has announced its new group-based spectrum allocation policy in considering the allocation for the fourth generation.

See “Business—Japanese Market Overview—Established market in a stable competitive environment dominated by three network operators—High ARPU supported by high proportion of postpaid subscriptions and heavy mobile data usage” and “Business—Japanese Market Overview—Established market in a stable competitive environment dominated by three network operators—Attractive regulatory environment” for a distribution of existing spectrum allocations between the SoftBank Group and our primary competitors.

Other Major Guidelines Concerning TBA and the Radio Act

Guideline Regarding MVNOs

Mobile virtual network operators (“MVNOs”) are companies that have not received allocations of spectrum and do not own network infrastructure, but who provide mobile telecommunications services by leasing network capacity from other network operators. MVNOs therefore increase the variety of mobile telecommunications services available to consumers and promote the active exploitation of radio spectrum.

The MIC has formulated the “Guidelines Regarding the Application of the Telecommunications Business Act and the Radio Act to Mobile Virtual Network Operators” (the “MVNO Guidelines”) to promote market entry by new MVNOs. Under the MVNO Guidelines, the telecommunications services to be provided by a mobile network operator to an MVNO, and the terms of MVNO services, are decided by consultation between the parties. However, when an MVNO requests access to a mobile network on behalf of its customers, unless the operator has grounds to refuse (such as where there is a risk that such interconnection would affect the smooth provision of telecommunications services or where there is a risk that such interconnection would unfairly impair the interests of the carrier), the TBA requires the operator to grant access to the MVNO. Upon an application by a carrier or both carriers, the MIC has the power, directly or through its dispute settlement commission, to require carriers to negotiate, to arbitrate or mediate disputes with other carriers, to order carriers to modify proposed interconnection fees and to grant awards with respect to the terms of interconnection (including interconnection fees).

Guidelines Regarding Terms of Offering of Mobile Service and Handsets

Most mobile handsets now contain a removable subscriber identity module (“SIM”) card that authenticates the device when it connects to a mobile telecommunications network. In the past, carriers generally sold handsets to customers with a software lock that prevented the device from working with SIM cards from other carriers, even if the handset was otherwise technologically capable of connecting to other carriers’ networks. The “Guidelines Regarding Terms of Offering of Mobile Service and Handsets” (the “Mobile Service and Handsets Guidelines”) issued by the MIC in January 2017 intends to increase consumer convenience and enhance the international competitiveness of Japan’s mobile communications industry. Under the Mobile Service and Handsets Guidelines, it is required that MNOs provide SIM card unlocking services for mobile handsets sold by them with some exceptions (with respect to the handsets released before May 1, 2015, provision of SIM card unlocking services is recommended). As at the date of this offering memorandum, the Diet deliberations on legislation to govern SIM locking have been postponed for an indefinite period.

Also, under the Mobile Service and Handsets Guidelines, MNOs are required to decrease the amount of discount on charges or purchase price of handsets.

Guidelines Regarding Encouragement of Competition in Telecommunication Business Area

In May 2016, the MIC and the JFTC issued the “Guidelines Regarding Encouragement of Competition in Telecommunication Business Area,” which is composed of the following four chapters: necessity of such guidelines, problematic actions under the TBA and the Act on Prohibition of Private Monopolization and Maintenance of Fair Trade of Japan (the “Antimonopoly Act”), desirable actions by carriers to further encourage competition, and organizational structure relating to reports, consultations and opinions. The guidelines state that, among other matters, the cancellation penalty for certain-period contracts by the carriers who have a relatively big share in the market could be problematic under the Antimonopoly Act. In August 2016, the JFTC separately announced that the cancellation penalty and automatic renewal system for two-year contracts is not desirable from the viewpoint of fair competition.

U.S. Regulatory Framework

Communications services in the U.S. are subject to regulation at the federal level by the FCC and in certain states by public utilities commissions. Since the SoftBank Merger, Sprint has been subject to regulatory conditions imposed by the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States pursuant to a National Security Agreement among SoftBank, Sprint, the Department of Justice, the Department of Homeland Security and the Department of Defense. Other federal agencies, such as the Federal Trade Commission and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, have also asserted jurisdiction over Sprint’s business.

The FCC regulates the licensing, construction, operation, acquisition and sale of Sprint’s wireless operations and wireless spectrum holdings. FCC requirements impose operating and other restrictions on Sprint’s wireless operations that increase its costs. The FCC does not currently regulate rates for services offered by commercial mobile radio service providers, and states are legally preempted from regulating such rates and entry into any market, although states may regulate other terms and conditions. The Communications Act of 1934 and FCC rules also require the FCC’s prior approval of the assignment or transfer of control of an FCC license, although the FCC’s rules permit spectrum lease arrangements for a range of wireless radio service licenses, including Sprint’s licenses, with FCC oversight. Approval from the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice, as well as state or local regulatory authorities, also may be required if Sprint sells or acquires spectrum interests. The FCC sets rules, regulations and policies to, among other things:

- grant and renew licenses in the 800 MHz, 1.9 GHz and 2.5 GHz bands;
- rule on assignments and transfers of control of FCC licenses and leases covering Sprint’s use of FCC licenses held by other persons and organizations;
- govern the interconnection of Sprint’s networks with other wireless and wireline carriers;
- establish access and universal service funding provisions;
- impose rules related to unauthorized use of and access to subscriber information;
- impose fines and forfeitures for violations of FCC rules;
- regulate the technical standards governing wireless services; and
- impose other obligations that it determines to be in the public interest.

MANAGEMENT

Management

Our board of directors has the ultimate responsibility for the administration of our affairs. Our Articles of Incorporation provide for not more than 15 directors, and at the present, we have 11 directors including four external directors. External directors are responsible for supervising our business management.

All directors are elected at general meetings of shareholders. The normal term of office of directors is one year, although they may serve any number of consecutive terms. To elect directors, the Board of Directors selects candidates in accordance with our Articles of Incorporation and the Regulations of the Board of Directors and these candidates are proposed at the General Meeting of Shareholders. Shareholders can also propose candidates in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act of Japan. Cumulative voting is not allowed in the election of our directors.

Our Articles of Incorporation provide for not more than five audit and supervisory board members, and at present, we have four audit and supervisory board members, including three external audit and supervisory board members, two of which are full-time audit and supervisory board members. We have one full-time, non-external audit and supervisory board member, who formerly served as Corporate Officer, Head of Legal Unit and General Manager, Legal Department and Group Compliance Officer responsible for compliance issues of the Group as a whole. All audit and supervisory board members are elected at general meetings of shareholders. The normal term of office of audit and supervisory board members is four years, although they may serve any number of consecutive or non-consecutive terms. The audit and supervisory board members are not required to be certified public accountants and may not at the same time be our directors or employees of any of our group companies. In addition, not less than half of the audit and supervisory board members must be external corporate auditors.

The audit and supervisory board members form the audit and supervisory board, which determines matters relating to the duties of audit and supervisory board members such as audit policy and methods of investigating our affairs. The audit and supervisory board also receives quarterly briefings and reports relating to financial results from the independent auditor and briefings on individual matters from directors as necessary and exchanges information and opinions with the independent auditor as necessary.

We established the assistant to audit department to support the audit and supervisory board members. This department acts under the direction of the audit and supervisory board members to gather information, investigate matters and provide other assistance.

Under the Companies Act of Japan, the audit and supervisory board members have the statutory duty of supervising the administration of our affairs by the directors and also of examining the financial statements and business reports to be submitted by a representative director to general meetings of shareholders. The audit and supervisory board members must attend meetings of the board of directors and express opinions there, if necessary, but they are not entitled to vote. Audit and supervisory board members also have a statutory duty to provide their report to the audit and supervisory board, which must submit its audit report to a representative director. If the audit report covers financial statements, the audit and supervisory board must also submit its audit report to the independent auditor.

We must appoint independent certified public accountants or audit firms in addition to audit and supervisory board members. Such independent certified public accountants or audit firms have the statutory duty of auditing the financial statements, prepared in accordance with the Companies Act of Japan, to be submitted by a representative director to general meetings of shareholders and reporting their opinion thereon to the audit and supervisory board, and a representative director. Our audit firm for such purposes is Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu LLC.

Under the Companies Act of Japan and our Articles of Incorporation, we may, by resolution of our board of directors, limit the liability of our directors and audit and supervisory board members for losses sustained by us in connection with the failure of such directors and audit and supervisory board members to perform their duties, except in the case of willful misconduct or gross negligence. The applicable liability thresholds are calculated, in accordance with the Companies Act of Japan, with reference to the amounts of annual remuneration, retirement allowance and profits received upon exercise or transfer of stock options for the relevant individual. In addition, we have entered into agreements limiting the liability of our non-executive directors and audit and supervisory board members for losses sustained by us in connection with the failure of such directors and audit and supervisory board members to perform their duties, except in the case of willful misconduct or gross negligence, to the greater of either an amount previously agreed in the liability limitation agreement that is no less than ¥10 million ($89 thousand) or an amount calculated as described above.

Directors and Audit and Supervisory Board Members

Among all directors, Messrs. Tadashi Yanai, Shigenobu Nagamori, Mark Schwartz and Yasir O. Al-Rumayyan are external directors, meaning that they are not and have not been executive directors or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

Among all audit and supervisory board members, Messrs. Maurice Atsushi Toyama, Soichiro Uno and Hidekazu Kubokawa are external audit and supervisory board members, meaning that they are not and have not been directors or employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

Investment Committee

The investment committee has been authorized by our board of directors to make decisions on investments, financing, and related matters. It is made up of four directors elected by the board of directors.

The agenda matters for discussion by the investment committee are set forth in the regulations of the investment committee. The committee makes decisions on the following, among other matters:

- investments and loans under a certain specified amount; and
- matters relating to subsidiaries (excluding listed subsidiaries and their subsidiaries), such as (a) investments and loans under a certain specified amount; (b) the issuance and granting of new stock or stock acquisition rights (except issue of new stocks that will not alter the shareholding ratio); (c) the issuance of corporate bonds; (d) overseas business expansion; and (e) entry into new business fields.

The committee requires unanimous agreement from all members to make a decision. If one or more members is against a proposal, the board of directors must consider such proposal. All decisions of the investment committee are reported to the board of directors.

Executive Compensation

The aggregate compensation, including bonuses, paid by SoftBank Group Corp. to our directors and audit and supervisory board members as a group during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 was ¥425 million ($3.8 million). During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, consolidated net compensation provided by the SoftBank consolidated group to Mr. Son, Mr. Miyauchi and Mr. Fisher was ¥139 million ($1.2 million), ¥617 million ($5.5 million) and ¥2,427 million ($21.7 million) (including non-cash compensation, except for Mr. Son), respectively. In addition, Mr. Nikesh Arora received the equivalent of ¥10,346 million ($92 million) (including non-cash compensation) during the same period.

Stock Option Plan

Pursuant to resolutions at the general meeting of shareholders held on June 22, 2016 and meetings of the board of directors held on July 4, 2016 and July 26, 2016, we granted stock acquisition rights to purchase up to 4,269,000 shares, of our common stock to certain of our directors, employees and advisors and those of our subsidiaries. As of March 31, 2017, such stock acquisition rights to purchase up to 4,264,000 shares will be exercisable at an exercise price of ¥6,159 during the period from August 1, 2018 to July 31, 2022. As of July 31, 2017, we did not issue any new shares based upon the exercise of these options.

Pursuant to resolutions at the general meeting of shareholders held on June 22, 2016 and meetings of the board of directors held on January 25, 2017 and February 24, 2017, we granted stock acquisition rights to purchase up to 95,000 shares of our common stock to certain of our employees and those of our subsidiaries. As of July 31, 2017, such stock acquisition rights to purchase up to 95,000 shares will be exercisable at an exercise price of ¥8,891 during the period from March 1, 2019 to February 28, 2023. As of July 31, 2017, we did not issue any new shares based upon the exercise of these options.

Pursuant to resolutions at the general meeting of shareholders held on June 21, 2017 and meetings of the board of directors held on July 5, 2017 and July 28, 2017, we granted stock acquisition rights to purchase up to 5,002,000 shares of our common stock to certain of our directors, corporate officers and employees and those of our subsidiaries. As of July 31, 2017, such stock acquisition rights to purchase up to 5,002,000 shares will be exercisable at an exercise price of ¥9,582 per share during the period from August 1, 2019 to July 31, 2023. As of July 31, 2017, we did not issue any new shares based upon the exercise of these options.

RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The following discussion is a summary of the significant transactions with our associates in the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015, 2016 and 2017 and the three months ended June 30, 2017. We believe that each of these arrangements has been entered into on arm's-length terms or on terms that we believe have been at least as favorable to us as similar transactions with non-related parties would have been. See Note 45 to our audited consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, which are included elsewhere in this offering memorandum.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015

We received ¥0.3 billion ($2.4 million) for temporary advances for expenses and ¥0.04 billion ($0.4 million) for office facility usage by our Chairman and CEO, Mr. Masayoshi Son, and companies controlled by him ("Masayoshi Son Affiliates").

We paid dividends totaling ¥10 billion ($90 million) and made a transfer of fixed assets of ¥5 billion ($40 million) to Masayoshi Son Affiliates.

We paid dividends ¥0.3 billion ($2.4 million) directly from us and ¥0.9 billion ($8 million) through GungHo, our consolidated subsidiary, and outsourcing costs totaling ¥0.1 billion ($0.8 million) to Mr. Taizo Son, the brother of Mr. Masayoshi Son, and companies controlled by him ("Taizo Son Affiliates").

We completed the acquisition of all of the shares of the parent company of Brightstar, held by Mr. Marcelo Claire, who at the time was President and CEO of Brightstar, representing 37.7% of the outstanding shares of Brightstar's parent company, for an acquisition price of approximately $297 million. Upon closing of the transaction, we indirectly controlled all of the voting rights of Brightstar.

A director of the Company exercised stock options totaling ¥0.2 billion ($1.8 million).

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

We received ¥0.3 billion ($2.3 million) for temporary advances for expenses and ¥0.04 billion ($0.4 million) for office facility usage by Masayoshi Son Affiliates.

We paid dividends totaling ¥10 billion ($90 million) to Masayoshi Son Affiliates and we paid dividends totaling ¥0.2 billion ($2.0 million) and outsourcing costs totaling ¥0.1 billion ($0.8 million) to Taizo Son Affiliates. We also paid outsourcing costs totaling ¥0.7 billion ($6.5 million) to Yun Ma, a director of the Company and companies controlled by him ("Yun Ma Affiliates").

A director of the Company exercised stock options totaling ¥0.1 billion ($0.9 million).

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

We received ¥0.2 billion ($2.1 million) for temporary advances for expenses and ¥0.04 billion ($0.4 million) for office facility usage by Masayoshi Son Affiliates. We have also received a guaranteed deposit of ¥4 million ($0.04 million) from such persons.

We paid dividends totaling ¥11 billion ($98 million) to Masayoshi Son Affiliates. We paid dividends totaling ¥43 million ($0.4 million) and outsourcing costs totaling ¥14 million ($0.1 million) to Taizo Son Affiliates.

We paid dividends totaling ¥0.2 billion ($1.8 million) to Mr. Nikesh Arora, who retired from the position of Representative Director, President and COO of the Company as of June 22, 2016. At the time of retirement, we purchased shares of associate companies which were granted to him in December 2014 for a purchase price of ¥11 billion ($96 million).

For the three months ended June 30, 2017

There were no significant transactions with our associates during the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Borrowings

The table below summarizes our loans outstanding as of June 30, 2017:

Loan	As of June 30, 2017
	(billions of yen and millions of dollars)
Sprint Acquisition Loan	¥1,471	$13,133

Total loans	5,391	48,133

¥1,471 billion ($13,133 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Sprint Acquisition Loan as of June 30, 2017

In September 2013, we procured a syndicated loan from several Japanese and international financial institutions in the principal amount of ¥1,980 billion ($17,679 million), under which ¥1,471 billion ($13,133 million) of indebtedness remains outstanding (measured at amortized costs pursuant to IFRS). We used the proceeds of this loan mainly to pay off certain debt, including but not limited to, the bridge facilities that we acquired in connection with the Sprint acquisition. The Sprint Acquisition Loan is a direct, unsecured obligation of the Company and ranks pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of the Company. The Sprint Acquisition Loan is guaranteed by SoftBank Corp. on a senior, unsecured basis and such guarantee by SoftBank Corp. will rank pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of SoftBank Corp., including SoftBank Corp.'s obligations under the Guarantee of the Notes.

The following table shows the total remaining scheduled repayments for the facilities for the periods indicated:

Fiscal year ending March 31,	Total Principal Amount Due ⁽¹⁾
	(billions of yen)
2018	400
2019	415
2020	430
2021	235

(1) Amounts correspond to the face amounts.

Each facility under the Sprint Acquisition Loan accrues interest at a floating rate that is calculated based on the applicable index rate plus the applicable margin for the relevant facility.

The Sprint Acquisition Loan is subject to representations and warranties customary in the Japanese syndicated loan market. It is also subject to certain financial and operational covenants that require us to maintain certain financial ratios and that restrict our business activities. The covenants include an affirmative obligation for the Company to maintain net assets on a stand-alone basis of at least 75% of the net assets at the end of the previous fiscal year, as measured at the end of each fiscal year. Other covenants set certain caps on the total amount of net interest-bearing debt the Company can incur on a consolidated basis excluding some newly consolidated subsidiaries such as Sprint and subject to certain other adjustments as of each cut-off date. We are also restricted from changing our principal business activity. Additionally, the Company is required to maintain a leverage ratio to be calculated on a semi-annual basis, which shall not exceed a certain level as of each cut-off date.

The Sprint Acquisition Loan is also subject to certain events of default, including breach of the covenants described above. Any event of default could trigger acceleration of amounts outstanding under the Sprint Acquisition Loan through the majority lenders' decision, provided that a certain limited number of events shall automatically lead to acceleration of the loan. We may prepay certain facilities under the Sprint Acquisition Loan under certain conditions.

¥992 billion ($8,857 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Arm Acquisition Loan as of June 30, 2017

On July 15, 2016, we entered into a bridge loan agreement with Mizuho Bank, Ltd. (subsequently syndicated to other Japanese and international financial institutions) for a maximum amount of ¥1.0 trillion to finance a portion of the acquisition price of approximately £24.0 billion in connection with our acquisition of Arm. The loan will mature on July 13, 2018. The Arm Acquisition Loan is guaranteed by SoftBank Corp. on a senior, unsecured basis and such guarantee by SoftBank Corp. will rank pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of SoftBank Corp.

¥178.5 billion ($1,594 million) Commitment Line

On August 5, 2016, we renewed a commitment line agreement with several Japanese and international financial institutions for borrowings up to ¥178.5 billion ($1,594 million) (the "Commitment Line"). As of June 30, 2017, the Commitment Line was fully drawn. On August 1, 2017, we renewed this commitment line, which was fully drawn as of the date of this offering memorandum. The Commitment Line is a direct, unsecured obligation of the Company and ranks pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of the Company. The Commitment Line is also guaranteed by SoftBank Corp. on a senior, unsecured basis and such guarantee by SoftBank Corp. ranks pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of SoftBank Corp.

The Commitment Line has a one-year term, which we have historically renewed annually, and the interest rate is equal to the sum of the announced Japanese yen TIBOR, for the applicable interest period, plus a margin.

The Commitment Line is subject to representations and warranties customary in the Japanese syndicated loan market. It is also subject to certain financial and operational covenants similar to those under the Sprint Acquisition Loan.

The Commitment Line is also subject to customary events of default including breach of the covenants described above. Any event of default could trigger acceleration of the amount outstanding under the Commitment Line through the majority lenders' decision, provided that a certain limited number of events shall automatically lead to acceleration of the loan. We are obliged to report the occurrence of an event of default or a potential event of default as soon as we become aware of it. We may prepay the loan by paying breakfunding costs (if any) and without penalty.

¥772 billion ($6,890 million) in Securitization of Receivables

We have several continuous securitization programs of receivables of SoftBank Corp., Sprint and others. As of June 30, 2017, the balances were ¥556 billion ($4,957 million), ¥208 billion ($1,858 million) and ¥8 billion ($75 million) for SoftBank Corp., Sprint and others, respectively.

Under the securitization programs, SoftBank Corp. (or the relevant subsidiary) entrusts the installment receivables to trust banks as special purpose vehicles for each program on a true-sale basis and the holders of financial instruments backed by those installment receivables issued under these securitization programs, have only recourse to the trust assets and not to SoftBank Corp. (or the relevant subsidiary)

Under IFRS, however, most of these securitized receivables are still booked on our financial statements.

$4 billion Principal Amount Outstanding under 2024 Secured Term Loan of Sprint

On February 3, 2017, Sprint entered into a new credit agreement for $6.0 billion, consisting of a $4.0 billion, seven-year secured term loan that matures in February 2024 and a $2.0 billion secured revolving bank credit facility that expires in February 2021.

$3.5 billion Principal Amount of Spectrum Financing of Sprint

In October 2016, Sprint transferred certain directly held and third-party leased spectrum licenses (collectively, the "Spectrum Portfolio") to wholly owned bankruptcy-remote special purpose entities. The Spectrum Portfolio, which represents approximately 14% of Sprint's total spectrum holdings on a MHz-pops basis, was used as collateral to raise an initial $3.5 billion in senior secured notes at 3.36% per annum from external investors under a $7.0 billion program. Sprint can utilize this financing structure to potentially raise up to an additional $3.5 billion subject to certain conditions. The notes will be repaid over a five-year term, with interest-only payments over the first four quarters and amortizing quarterly principal payments thereafter commencing in December 2017 through September 2021.

¥400 billion ($3,568 million) in Securities Lending

We loan shares that we own in one of our subsidiaries to a major Japanese lender and receive cash as collateral. These loans are on a monthly basis and are typically rolled over each month. As of June 30, 2017, our securities lending totaled ¥400 billion ($3,568 million).

¥660 billion ($5,898 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Other Loans

We have also entered into other loan agreements with a number of major financial institutions, under which the total outstanding indebtedness as of June 30, 2017 was ¥660 billion ($5,898 million) (measured at amortized costs pursuant to IFRS). Of these, (i) ¥139 billion ($1,238 million) was borrowed by the Company, and (ii) ¥70 billion ($629 million), ¥361 billion ($3,223 million) and ¥90 billion ($808 million) were borrowed by Brightstar, Sprint and others, respectively. These loan agreements contain terms that we believe are customary for these types of loans provided by financial institutions.

¥2,226 billion ($19,872 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Domestic Yen-denominated Unsecured Straight Bonds

We have issued domestic unsubordinated yen-denominated unsecured bonds (the “Yen-denominated Senior Bonds”), which are senior, unsecured obligations of the Company and rank pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of the Company. These bonds are guaranteed by SoftBank Corp. on a senior, unsecured basis, ranking pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of SoftBank Corp.

These bonds contain terms that are customary for these types of securities issued by Japanese companies in Japan. However, we note the 39th, 43rd, 45th, 46th, 47th, 48th and 51st Yen-denominated Senior Bonds contain a financial covenant requiring that the Company’s net assets on a stand-alone basis must be at least ¥369.8 billion ($3,302 million) at the end of each fiscal year. These bonds contain various events of default, including those relating to the non-payment of principal or interest, cross-acceleration of other indebtedness in excess of specified thresholds and insolvency events. Upon the occurrence of an event of default, holders of the bonds are immediately entitled to redeem the bonds on all amounts due. As of June 30, 2017, the aggregate outstanding indebtedness under these bonds was ¥2,226 billion ($19,872 million) (measured at amortized costs pursuant to IFRS).

¥861 billion ($7,689 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Foreign Currency-denominated Unsecured Senior Notes

We have issued foreign currency-denominated senior notes (the “Foreign Currency-denominated Bonds”), which are senior, unsecured obligations of the Company and rank pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of the Company. These bonds are guaranteed by SoftBank Corp. on a senior, unsecured basis, ranking pari passu with all other outstanding unsecured, unsubordinated obligations of SoftBank Corp.

The Foreign Currency-denominated Bonds contain restrictive covenants that limit our ability to, among other things: (i) incur secured indebtedness, (ii) guarantee the indebtedness of non-guarantor subsidiaries and other non-subsidiary affiliates and (iii) use proceeds from asset sales to make restricted payments in the event that aggregate restricted payments exceed $15 billion since the original issuance date of the Foreign Currency-denominated Bonds.

Upon the occurrence of a change of control triggering event, the Company would be required to make an offer to repurchase all outstanding Foreign Currency-denominated Bonds at a purchase price equal to 100% of their principal amount plus any accrued and unpaid interest.

The Foreign Currency-denominated Bonds are redeemable by the Company at any time prior to maturity at a redemption price equal to 100% of the outstanding principal amount, with accrued and unpaid interest plus a “make-whole” premium.

¥839 billion ($7,495 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Domestic Yen-denominated Unsecured Subordinated Bonds

We have issued domestic yen-denominated unsecured subordinated bonds (the “Domestic Subordinated Bonds”) at 2.50% coupon per annum, which are direct, unsecured obligations of the Company and contractually subordinated to all existing and future debt except for debt equal or subordinated to the Domestic Subordinated Bonds. The Domestic Subordinated Bonds are not guaranteed by SoftBank Corp.

As of June 30, 2017, the aggregate outstanding indebtedness under these Domestic Subordinated Bonds was ¥839 billion ($7,495 million) (measured at amortized costs pursuant to IFRS).

¥463 billion ($4,133 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Domestic Yen-denominated Unsecured Hybrid Bonds with Interest Deferral and Early Redemption Clauses

In September 2016, we issued three series of unsecured subordinated bonds with interest deferral and early redemption clauses, with two series due 2041 and one series due 2043 (the “Yen-denominated Hybrid Bonds”). The Yen-denominated Hybrid Bonds are subordinated to all existing and future debt, including the Domestic Subordinated Bonds, except for debt equal or subordinated to the Yen-denominated Hybrid Bonds.

As of June 30, 2017, the aggregate outstanding indebtedness under these Yen-denominated Hybrid Bonds was ¥463 billion ($4,133 million) (measured at amortized costs pursuant to IFRS). The Yen-denominated Hybrid Bonds have been assigned 50% equity credit from both S&P and JCR.

¥498 billion ($4,444 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under USD-denominated Perpetual Subordinated Hybrid Notes

On July 19, 2017, we issued the Hybrid Notes, which consisted of $2.75 billion in USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC6 Resettable Notes and $1.75 billion in USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC10 Resettable Notes. The Hybrid Notes are classified as equity instruments in accordance with IFRS because we have the option to defer interest payments, they have no maturity date, their payment priority in the event of bankruptcy is subordinated to senior indebtedness, and other factors. They will be recorded as equity in the Company’s consolidated financial statements. The Hybrid Notes have been assigned 50% equity credit from both S&P and JCR.

¥35 billion ($313 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Unsecured Straight Bonds Issued by Yahoo Japan

On February 28, 2017, Yahoo Japan issued three series of unsecured straight bonds due 2020, 2022 and 2024, respectively, in the form of ¥5,000 million 0.04% Unsecured Straight Bonds due 2020, ¥15,000 million 0.17% Unsecured Straight Bonds due 2022 and ¥15,000 million 0.37% Unsecured Straight Bonds due 2024.

¥2,978 billion ($26,589 million) of Indebtedness Outstanding under Unsecured Senior Notes issued by Sprint and Its Subsidiaries

As of June 30, 2017, Sprint’s outstanding notes consisted of senior notes, guaranteed notes, and exchangeable notes, all of which are unsecured, as well as senior secured notes associated with Sprint’s spectrum financing transaction and secured senior notes issued by Sprint Communications. Cash interest on all of the notes is generally payable semi-annually in arrears with the exception of the spectrum financing senior secured notes, for which interest is payable quarterly. As of June 30, 2017, $28.7 billion aggregate principal amount of the notes was redeemable at the Sprint’s discretion at the then-applicable redemption prices plus accrued interest.

As of June 30, 2017, approximately $22.5 billion aggregate principal amount of Sprint’s senior notes and guaranteed notes provide holders with the right to require Sprint to repurchase the notes if a change of control triggering event (as defined in the applicable indentures and supplemental indentures) occurs.

During the three-month period ended June 30, 2017, pursuant to a cash tender offer, Sprint Communications, Inc. retired $388 million principal amount of its outstanding 8.375% Notes due 2017 and $1.2 billion principal amount of its outstanding 9.000% Guaranteed Notes due 2018. Sprint incurred costs of $130 million, which consisted of call redemption premiums and tender expenses, and removed unamortized premiums of $64 million associated with these retirements resulting in a loss on early extinguishment of debt of $66 million, which is included in “Other (expense) income, net” in Sprint’s consolidated statements of comprehensive income (loss).

Leases

The table below shows our finance leases and the future minimum lease payments related to non-cancelable operating leases as of June 30, 2017.

	As of June 30, 2017
	(billions of yen and millions of dollars)
Finance leases	¥1,245	$11,112
Future minimum lease payments related to non-cancelable operating leases . .	2,599	23,204

¥1,245 billion ($11,112 million) Outstanding on Finance Leases

Our major subsidiaries lease certain telecommunications equipment and service lines, buildings and structures, other property, equipment and software. Once the assembly, installation and inspection of newly acquired equipment are complete, we sell the equipment, excluding the installed software, to leasing companies and lease the equipment back from them under sale and lease-back arrangements. At the same time, we enter into loan contracts with the lessors to pay for the value of certain software. We include the cash inflows from the sale of the equipment to leasing companies and the proceeds from the loan arranged for the software portion as proceeds from the sale and lease-back of equipment newly acquired under cash flows from financing activities in our consolidated financial statements. SoftBank Corp. holds ¥1,094 billion ($9,766 million), or approximately 88%, of all of our finance leases.

As of June 30, 2017, we had outstanding finance leases totaling ¥1,245 billion ($11,112 million).

Operating Leases

The future minimum lease payments as of June 30, 2017 related to non-cancelable operating leases are ¥2,599 billion ($23,204 million). We lease various equipment, office facilities, retail outlets and kiosks, switching facilities and cell sites under operating leases, mostly through Sprint. The non-cancelable portion of these leases generally ranges from monthly up to 15 years. These leases, with few exceptions, provide for automatic renewal options and escalations that are either fixed or based on the consumer price index.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NOTES

The definitions of certain terms used in this Description of the Notes can be found under the subheading “Certain Definitions.” In this Description of the Notes, the term the “Company” refers only to SoftBank Group Corp. and not to any of its Subsidiaries.

The Company will issue $1,350,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4¾% Senior Notes due 2024 denominated in U.S. dollars (the “2024 Dollar Notes”), $2,000,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 5⅛% Senior Notes due 2027 denominated in U.S. dollars (the “2027 Dollar Notes” and, together with the 2024 Dollar Notes, the “Dollar Notes”), €1,500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 3⅛% Senior Notes due 2025 denominated in euro (the “2025 Euro Notes”) and €750,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its 4% Senior Notes due 2029 denominated in euro (the “2029 Euro Notes”, together with the 2025 Euro Notes, the “Euro Notes”, and, together with the Dollar Notes, the “Notes”) under an indenture (the “Indenture”), to be dated as of the Issue Date, among the Company, SoftBank Corp., as guarantor (the “Initial Note Guarantor”), The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch, as trustee (the “Trustee”) and as paying agent, and The Bank of New York Mellon SA/NV, Luxembourg Branch, as transfer agent and registrar, in a private transaction that is not subject to the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act. Holders of the Notes will not be entitled to any registration rights. See “Notice to Investors.”

The following description is a summary of the material provisions of the Indenture. It does not restate the Indenture in its entirety. The Indenture, and not this description, defines the rights of holders of the Notes. Copies of the Indenture are available for inspection at the corporate trust office of the Trustee at One Canada Square, London, E14 5AL, United Kingdom. Certain defined terms used in this description but not defined below have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture. The Indenture is not required to be nor will it be qualified under and will not be subject to the U.S. Trust Indenture Act.

The registered holder of a Note will be treated as the owner of it for all purposes. Only registered holders will have rights under the Indenture.

Brief Description of the Notes and the Note Guarantee

The Notes

The Notes will:

- be general unsecured obligations of the Company;
- in insolvency proceedings of the Company, rank pari passu in right of payment with all existing and future Indebtedness of the Company (including the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan, the Brightstar Acquisition Loan, the Existing Senior Notes, any drawings under the Commitment Line and the Company’s unsubordinated yen-denominated bonds), except that the Notes will:
 - rank senior in right of payment to all existing and future Indebtedness of the Company that is contractually subordinated in right of payment and all existing and future Indebtedness of the Company that is subordinated in right of payment by operation of law (including the Company’s subordinated yen-denominated bonds and the Hybrid Notes); and
 - be subordinated in right of payment to all existing and future Indebtedness of the Company that is preferred by operation of law;
- be effectively subordinated to any existing and future Indebtedness of the Company that is secured by property or assets that do not secure the Notes, to the extent of the value of the property and assets securing such Indebtedness through either enforcement of such Indebtedness outside insolvency proceedings or preferred treatment of such Indebtedness in insolvency proceedings;
- be effectively subordinated to all existing and future Indebtedness, lease obligations or other obligations and any trade payables of any Subsidiary of the Company that does not Guarantee the Notes (including the substantial financial liabilities outstanding under the corporate bonds issued, and loan facilities utilized, by Sprint and West Raptor Holdings, LLC’s obligations under the variable prepaid forward contract in respect of certain shares in the Alibaba Group); and
- be guaranteed, as of the Issue Date, by the Initial Note Guarantor as set forth below under “—The Note Guarantees.”

See “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—The Notes and the Note Guarantee are unsecured obligations and will be effectively subordinated to the existing and future secured indebtedness of the Company” and its subsidiaries. We and our subsidiaries may in the future incur substantial amounts of secured debt”; “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—The Notes and the Note Guarantee will be structurally subordinated to any existing or future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries”; and “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—Enforcement of claims on the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be subject to certain limitations arising under Japanese insolvency and corporate laws. Japanese laws may be different from, and not as favorable to you as, the laws in other jurisdictions.”

The Note Guarantees

The Notes will be guaranteed as of the Issue Date by the Initial Note Guarantor. Other Subsidiaries of the Company may be required to Guarantee the Notes in the future under certain circumstances. See “—Certain Covenants—Subsidiary Guarantees of Indebtedness.”

Each Guarantee of the Notes (a “Note Guarantee”) of a Note Guarantor will:

- be a general unsecured obligation of such Note Guarantor;
- in insolvency proceedings of the Note Guarantor, rank pari passu in right of payment with all existing and future Indebtedness of the Note Guarantor (including, in the case of the Initial Note Guarantor, its obligations under the Sprint Acquisition Loan, the Arm Acquisition Loan, the Existing Senior Notes, any drawings under the Commitment Line and any unsubordinated yen-denominated bonds that it guarantees), except that the Note Guarantee will:
 - rank senior in right of payment to all existing and future Indebtedness of such Note Guarantor that is contractually subordinated in right of payment and all existing and future Indebtedness of such Note Guarantor that is subordinated in right of payment by operation of law; and
 - be subordinated in right of payment to all existing and future Indebtedness of the Note Guarantor that is preferred by operation of law;
- be effectively subordinated to any existing and future Indebtedness of the Note Guarantor that is secured by property or assets that do not secure the Note Guarantee, to the extent of the value of the property and assets securing such Indebtedness through either enforcement of such Indebtedness outside insolvency proceedings or preferred treatment of such Indebtedness in insolvency proceedings; and
- be effectively subordinated to all existing and future Indebtedness or other obligations, including any trade payables, of any Subsidiary of such Note Guarantor that does not Guarantee the Notes.

Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries

Substantially all of the operations of the Company are conducted through its Subsidiaries and, therefore, the Company depends on the cash flow of its Subsidiaries to meet its obligations, including its obligations under the Notes. The Notes will be effectively subordinated in right of payment to all existing and future Indebtedness, lease obligations or other obligations and any trade payables of all Subsidiaries of the Company (the “Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries”) that do not Guarantee the Notes (including the substantial financial liabilities outstanding under the corporate bonds issued, and loan facilities utilized, by Sprint and West Raptor Holdings, LLC’s obligations under the variable prepaid forward contract in respect of certain shares in the Alibaba Group). Any right of the Company to receive assets of any of its Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries upon such Subsidiary’s liquidation or reorganization (and the consequent right of the holders of the Notes to participate in those assets) will be effectively subordinated to the claims of that Non-Guarantor Subsidiary’s creditors, except to the extent that the Company is itself recognized as a creditor of the Non-Guarantor Subsidiary, in which case the claims of the Company may be effectively subordinated in right of payment to any security in the assets of the Non-Guarantor Subsidiary and any Indebtedness of such Subsidiary senior to that held by the Company. See “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—Our corporate structure may affect your ability to receive payment on the Notes”; “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—The Notes and the Note Guarantee will be structurally subordinated to any existing or future indebtedness, preferred stock and other liabilities of our Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries”; and “Risk Factors—Risks Relating to the Notes—Enforcement of claims on the Notes and the Note Guarantees will be subject to certain limitations arising under Japanese insolvency and corporate laws. Japanese laws may be different from, and not as favorable to you as, the laws in other jurisdictions.”

Principal, Maturity and Interest

The Company will issue $1,350,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of 2024 Dollar Notes, $2,000,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of 2027 Dollar Notes, €1,500,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of 2025 Euro Notes and €750,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of 2029 Euro Notes in this offering.

The Company may issue additional 2024 Dollar Notes (“Additional 2024 Dollar Notes”), additional 2027 Dollar Notes (“Additional 2027 Dollar Notes”), additional 2025 Euro Notes (“Additional 2025 Euro Notes”) or additional 2029 Euro Notes (“Additional 2029 Euro Notes”, together with the Additional 2024 Dollar Notes, the Additional 2027 Dollar Notes and the Additional 2025 Euro Notes, the “Additional Notes”) under the Indenture from time to time after this offering. Unless the context otherwise requires, in this “Description of the Notes,” references to the “Notes” include any Additional Notes that are actually issued and references to each series of Notes include any Additional Notes of the same series that are issued. The Notes and any Additional Notes will be treated as a single class for all purposes of the Indenture, including, without limitation, certain waivers, amendments, redemptions and offers to purchase, except as otherwise provided for in the Indenture. The Company will issue the Dollar Notes in minimum denominations of $200,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof and the Euro Notes in minimum denominations of €100,000 and integral multiples of €1,000 in excess thereof. The 2024 Dollar Notes will mature on September 19, 2024, the 2027 Dollar Notes will mature on September 19, 2027, the 2025 Euro Notes will mature on September 19, 2025 and the 2029 Euro Notes will mature on September 19, 2029.

Interest on the 2024 Dollar Notes will accrue at the rate of 4¾% per annum, interest on the 2027 Dollar Notes will accrue at the rate of 5⅛% per annum, interest on the 2025 Euro Notes will accrue at the rate of 3⅛% per annum and interest on the 2029 Euro Notes will accrue at the rate of 4% per annum and, in each case, will be payable semi-annually in arrears on March 19 and September 19 in each year, commencing on March 19, 2018.

The Company will make each interest payment, to the extent that Notes are represented by Global Notes, to the holders of record of the Notes at the close of business (in the relevant clearing system) on the Clearing System Business Day immediately before the due date for such payment. Interest on the Notes will accrue from the date of original issuance or, if interest has already been paid, from the date it was most recently paid. Interest will be computed on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months.

Methods of Receiving Payments on the Notes

The Notes will be issued in the form of one or more registered notes in global form (the “Global Notes”). Principal, interest and premium, if any, and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Global Notes will be payable at the specified office or agency of the Paying Agent; provided that all such payments shall be made by a wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account specified by the common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream or its nominee.

Paying Agent, Registrar and Transfer Agent for the Notes

The Company will maintain one or more paying agents (each, a “Paying Agent”) for the Notes in the City of London. The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch will initially act as Paying Agent in London.

If and for so long as the Notes are listed on the SGX-ST, and the rules of the SGX-ST so require, in the event that a Global Note is exchanged for definitive notes in registered form (“Definitive Registered Notes”), the Company will appoint and maintain a paying agent in Singapore where the Notes may be presented or surrendered for payment or redemption. In the event that a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Registered Notes, an announcement of such exchange shall be made by or on behalf of the Company through the SGX-ST and such announcement will include all material information with respect to the delivery of the Definitive Registered Notes, including details of the Paying Agent in Singapore.

The Bank of New York Mellon SA/NV, Luxembourg Branch will initially act as Registrar (the “Registrar”).

The Bank of New York Mellon SA/NV, Luxembourg Branch will initially act as a transfer agent in Luxembourg. The Company may change the Paying Agent, the Transfer Agent or the Registrar without prior notice to the holders of the Notes, and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries may act as paying agent, transfer agent or registrar.

Transfer and Exchange

A holder may transfer or exchange Notes in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture. The Registrar and the Trustee may require a holder, among other things, to furnish appropriate endorsements and transfer documents in connection with a transfer of Notes. Holders of the Notes will be required to pay all taxes due on transfer. Neither the Registrar nor the Company will be required:

- to register the transfer or exchange of any Notes during a period beginning at the opening of business on the day (to the extent that Notes are represented by Global Notes) or at the opening business on the 15th day (to the extent that Notes are represented by Definitive Registered Notes) prior to (i) the day fixed for the redemption of the Notes or (ii) the day fixed for selection of Notes to be redeemed in part and ending at the close of business on the day of such redemption or selection;
- to register the transfer of or to exchange any Note selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Note being redeemed in part;
- to register the transfer of or to exchange a Note between a record date and the next succeeding interest payment date; or
- to register the transfer or exchange of any Notes that the registered holder has tendered (and not withdrawn) for repurchase in connection with a Change of Control Offer.

During the 40-day “distribution compliance period” (as such term is defined in Rule 902 of Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act), book-entry interests in the Notes may be transferred only to non-U.S. persons as defined under Regulation S.

For further discussion of the requirements (including the presentation of transfer certificates) under the Indenture to effect exchanges or transfer of interests in Global Notes, see “Book-Entry, Delivery and Form.”

Additional Amounts

All payments made by or on behalf of the Company under or with respect to the Notes (whether or not in the form of Definitive Registered Notes) or any Note Guarantor with respect to its Note Guarantee will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future Taxes unless the withholding or deduction of such Taxes is then required by law. If any withholding, deduction or imposition for, or on account of, any Taxes imposed or levied by or on behalf of any jurisdiction in which the Company or Note Guarantor (including any Successor Entity), is then incorporated, engaged in business or resident for tax purposes, or any political subdivision thereof or therein or any jurisdiction from or through which payment is made (each, a “Tax Jurisdiction”), will at any time be required to be made from any payments made by or on behalf of the Company under or with respect to the Notes or any Note Guarantor with respect to any Note Guarantee, including payments of principal, redemption price, purchase price, interest or premium, the Company or the Note Guarantor, as applicable, will pay such additional amounts (the “Additional Amounts”) as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received in respect of such payments (including Additional Amounts) after such withholding, deduction, or imposition will equal the respective amounts that would have been received in respect of such payments in the absence of such withholding, deduction or imposition; provided, however, that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to:

- (1) any Taxes that would not have been imposed but for the holder or beneficial owner of the Notes being a citizen, resident or national of, incorporated in or carrying on a business, in the relevant Tax Jurisdiction in which such Taxes are imposed, other than by the mere holding of such Note, enforcement of rights thereunder, the receipt of payments in respect thereof or any other connection with respect to the Notes;
- (2) any Taxes imposed or withheld as a result of the failure of the holder or beneficial owner of the Notes to comply with any written request, made to the relevant holder in writing at least 90 days before any such withholding or deduction would be payable, by the Company or a Note Guarantor to provide timely or accurate information concerning the nationality, residence or identity of such holder or beneficial owner or to make any valid or timely declaration or similar claim or satisfy any certification information or other reporting requirement applicable to such holder or beneficial owner, which is required or imposed by a statute, treaty, regulation or administrative practice of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction as a precondition to exemption from all or part of such Taxes;
- (3) any Note presented for payment (where Notes are in the form of Definitive Registered Notes and presentation is required) more than 30 days after the relevant payment is first made available for payment to the holder (except to the extent that the holder would have been entitled to Additional Amounts had the Note been presented on the last day of such 30 day period);
- (4) any estate, inheritance, gift, sale, transfer, personal property or similar tax or assessment;

- (5) any Note presented for payment by or on behalf of a holder who is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation and is liable for such Taxes in respect of such Notes by reason of its (a) having some connection with Japan, other than the mere holding of such Notes, enforcement of rights thereunder, the receipt of payments in respect thereof or any other connection with respect to the Notes or (b) being a Specially-Related Person of the Company);
- (6) any Note presented for payment by or on behalf of a holder of the Notes who would otherwise be exempt from any such withholding or deduction but who fails to comply with any applicable requirement to provide certain information prescribed by the Special Taxation Measures Act to enable a participant of a depository or financial intermediary through which the Notes are held (a “Participant”) to establish that such beneficial owner is exempted from the requirement for Japanese taxes to be withheld or deducted (the “Interest Recipient Information”);
- (7) any Note presented for payment by or on behalf of a holder of the Notes who is for Japanese tax purposes treated as an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation (except for (a) a designated Japanese financial institution within certain categories as prescribed by the Special Taxation Measures Act (a “Designated Financial Institution”), which complies with the requirement to provide Interest Recipient Information or to submit a written application for tax exemption and (b) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation that duly notifies (directly or through the Participant or otherwise) the Paying Agent of its status as exempt from Taxes to be withheld or deducted by the Company by reason of such individual resident of Japan or Japanese corporation receiving interest on the Notes through a payment handling agent in Japan appointed by it);
- (8) any Taxes that are imposed under FATCA; or
- (9) any combination of items (1) through (8) above.

In addition to the foregoing, the Company and each Note Guarantor (including any Successor Entities thereof) will also pay and indemnify the holder for any present or future stamp, issue, registration, court or documentary taxes, or any other excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies or Taxes which are levied by any Tax Jurisdiction on the execution, delivery, registration or enforcement of any of the Notes, the Indenture, any Note Guarantee, or any other document or instrument referred to therein.

If the Company or any Note Guarantor becomes aware that it will be obligated to pay Additional Amounts with respect to any payment under or with respect to the Notes or any Note Guarantee, the Company or the relevant Note Guarantor, as the case may be, will deliver to the Trustee, copied to the Paying Agent, on a date at least 30 days prior to the date of payment (unless the obligation to pay Additional Amounts arises after the 30th day prior to that payment date, in which case the Company or the relevant Note Guarantor, as the case may be, shall notify the Trustee promptly thereafter) an officers’ certificate stating the fact that Additional Amounts will be payable and the amount estimated to be so payable. The officers’ certificate must also set forth any other information reasonably necessary to enable the Paying Agent to pay Additional Amounts to holders of the Notes on the relevant payment date. The Company or the relevant Note Guarantor, as the case may be, will provide the Trustee with documentation reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee evidencing the payment of Additional Amounts. The Trustee, will be entitled to rely solely on such officers’ certificate as conclusive proof that such payments are necessary.

The Company or the relevant Note Guarantor, as the case may be, will make all withholdings and deductions required by law and will remit the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Tax authority in accordance with applicable law. The Company or the relevant Note Guarantor, as the case may be, will use its reasonable efforts to obtain Tax receipts from each Tax authority evidencing the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld. The Company or the relevant Note Guarantor, as the case may be, will furnish to the holders of the Notes, within 60 days after the date the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld is made, certified copies of Tax receipts evidencing payment by the Company or the relevant Note Guarantor, as the case may be, or if, notwithstanding the Company’s or the relevant Note Guarantor’s efforts to obtain receipts, receipts are not obtained, other evidence of payments by the Company or the relevant Note Guarantor, as the case may be.

Whenever the Indenture or this “Description of the Notes” mentions the payment of amounts based on the principal amount, interest of any other amount payable under, or with respect to, any of the Notes, such mention shall be deemed to include the payment of Additional Amounts to the extent that, in such context, Additional Amounts are, were or would be payable in respect thereof.

The above obligation will survive any termination, defeasance or discharge of the Indenture, any transfer by a holder or beneficial owner of its Notes, and will apply, mutatis mutandis, to any jurisdiction in which any Successor Entity is organized or resident (or deemed resident) for tax purposes.

Where the Notes are held through a Participant, in order to receive payments free of withholding or deduction by the Company for, or on account of Taxes, if the relevant holder is, in accordance with the Special Taxation Measures Act, (A) an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation (other than a Specially-Related Person of the Company) or (B) a Designated Financial Institution, such holder shall, at the time of entrusting a Participant with the custody of the Notes, provide the Interest Recipient Information and advise the Participant if the holder of the Notes ceases to be so exempted (including the case where the holder who is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation becomes a specially-related person of the Company).

Where the Notes are not held by a Participant, in order to receive payments free of withholding or deduction by the Company for, or on account of, Taxes, if the relevant holder is (A) an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation (other than a specially-related person of the Company) or (B) a Designated Financial Institution, such holder shall, prior to each time on which it receives interest, submit to the Paying Agent a written application for tax exemption in a form obtainable from the Paying Agent stating the name and address of the holder of the Notes, the title of the Notes, the relevant interest payment date, the amount of interest and the fact that the holder is qualified to submit the written application for tax exemption, together with documentary evidence regarding its identity and residence.

Redemption for Changes in Taxes

The Company or any Note Guarantor may redeem the Notes, in whole but not in part, at any time upon giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' prior notice to the holders of the Notes (which notice will be irrevocable and given in accordance with the procedures described in "—Selection and Notice"), at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date fixed by the Company for redemption (a "Tax Redemption Date") and all Additional Amounts (if any) then due and that will become due on the Tax Redemption Date as a result of the redemption or otherwise (subject to the right of holders of the Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date and Additional Amounts (if any) in respect thereof), if on the next date on which any amount would be payable in respect of the Notes, the Company has or would be required to pay Additional Amounts, and the Company cannot avoid any such payment obligation by taking reasonable measures available to it (including by changing the jurisdiction of the Paying Agent), as a result of:

- (1) any change in, or amendment to, the laws (or any regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder) of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction affecting taxation which change or amendment has not been publicly announced as formally proposed before and which becomes effective on or after the date of the Indenture (or, if the relevant Tax Jurisdiction has changed since the date of the Indenture, the date on which the then current Tax Jurisdiction became the applicable Tax Jurisdiction under the Indenture); or
- (2) any change in, or amendment to, the existing official position or the introduction of an official position regarding the application, administration or interpretation of such laws, regulations or rulings (including a holding, judgment or order by a court of competent jurisdiction or a change in published practice), which change, amendment, application or interpretation has not been publicly announced as formally proposed before and becomes effective on or after the date of the Indenture (or, if the relevant Tax Jurisdiction has changed since the date of the Indenture, the date on which the then current Tax Jurisdiction became the applicable Tax Jurisdiction under the Indenture).

The Company or such Note Guarantor will not give any such notice of redemption earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Company would be obligated to make such payment or withholding if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither the Company nor the Note Guarantors may redeem the Notes under this provision if the relevant Tax Jurisdiction changes under the Indenture and the Company is obligated to pay any Additional Amounts as a result of a change in, or an amendment to, the laws (or any regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder), or any change in or amendment to, any official position regarding the application, administration or interpretation of such laws, regulations or rules, of the then current Tax Jurisdiction which, at the time such Tax Jurisdiction became the applicable Tax Jurisdiction under the Indenture, was publicly announced as formally proposed.

Prior to the publication or, where relevant, mailing of any notice of redemption of the Notes pursuant to the foregoing, the Company will deliver to the Trustee an officers' certificate and opinion of counsel, the choice of such counsel to be subject to the prior written approval of the Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), to the effect that there has been such change or amendment which would entitle the Company or such Note Guarantor to redeem the Notes hereunder and the Company cannot avoid any obligation to pay Additional Amounts by taking reasonable measures available to it. The Trustee will accept such officers' certificate and opinion as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the conditions precedent described above, without further inquiry, in which event it will be conclusive and binding on holders of the Notes.

Optional Redemption

At any time prior to the date that is 90 days prior to the final maturity date of the Notes of any series, the Company or any Note Guarantor may on any one or more occasions redeem all or a part of such series of Notes, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' notice, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed, plus the Applicable Premium as of, and accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the date of redemption, subject to the rights of holders of such Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

At any time on or after the date that is 90 days prior to the final maturity date of the Notes of any series, the Company or any Note Guarantor may on any one or more occasions redeem all or a part of the Notes of such series, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' notice, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, to the date of redemption, subject to the rights of holders of such Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

Except pursuant to the two preceding paragraphs, as set forth above under "—Redemption for Changes in Taxes" or as set forth in the ninth paragraph under "—Repurchase at the Option of Holders upon a Change of Control Triggering Event," the Notes will not be redeemable at the Company's option prior their final maturity date.

The Company and its Subsidiaries shall also be entitled at their option at any time and from time to time to purchase the Notes in the open market or otherwise.

Unless the Company defaults in the payment of the redemption price, interest will cease to accrue on the Notes or portions thereof called for redemption on the applicable redemption date.

Any redemption and notice of redemption of Notes may, at the Company's discretion, be subject to the satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent (including, without limitation, the incurrence of Indebtedness the proceeds of which will be used to redeem the Notes). In addition, if such redemption or notice is subject to satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, such notice may state that, at the Company's discretion, the redemption date may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied, or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied by the redemption date, or by the redemption date so delayed; provided that in no case shall the notice have been delivered less than 10 days or more than 60 days prior to the date on which such redemption (if any) occurs.

Mandatory Redemption

The Company is not required to make mandatory redemption or sinking fund payments with respect to the Notes.

Selection and Notice

If less than all of the Notes (or any series of Notes) are to be redeemed, the Notes will be selected for redemption as follows: (i) if the Notes are listed on any securities exchange and/or being held through the clearing systems, in compliance with the requirements of the securities exchange on which the Notes are then listed, or the requirements of the clearing systems, as applicable; or (ii) if the Notes are not listed on any securities exchange and/or held through the clearing systems, on a pro rata basis or by lot or such other method as the Trustee may determine in its sole and absolute discretion, unless otherwise required by law.

No Dollar Note in the principal amount of $200,000 or less and no Euro Note in the principal amount of €100,000 or less can be redeemed in part.

If any Note is to be redeemed in part only, the notice of redemption that relates to that Note will state the portion of the principal amount of that Note that is to be redeemed. A new Note in principal amount equal to the unredeemed portion of the original Note will be issued in the name of the holder of Notes upon cancellation of the original Note. Notes called for redemption become due on the date fixed for redemption. Unless the Company defaults in the payment of the redemption price, on and after the redemption date, interest ceases to accrue on Notes or any portion of Notes called for redemption.

Repurchase at the Option of Holders upon a Change of Control Triggering Event

If a Change of Control Triggering Event occurs, each holder of Notes will have the right to require the Company or any Note Guarantor to repurchase all or any part (in case of Dollar Notes, equal to $200,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof and in case of Euro Notes, equal to €100,000 or an integral multiple of €1,000 in excess thereof) of that holder's Notes pursuant to an offer described below (the "Change of Control Offer") and on the terms set forth in the Indenture. In the Change of Control Offer, the Company will offer a payment (the "Change of Control Payment") in cash equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount of Notes repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes repurchased to the date of purchase, subject to the rights of holders of the Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

Within 30 days following any Change of Control Triggering Event, the Company or such Note Guarantor will provide notice to the Trustee and each holder describing the events that constitute the Change of Control Triggering Event and offering to repurchase Notes on a date (the "Change of Control Payment Date") specified in the notice, which date will be no earlier than 10 days and no later than 60 days from the date such notice is given, pursuant to the procedures required by the Indenture and described in such notice.

The Company or such Note Guarantor will comply with the requirements of relevant securities laws and regulations to the extent those laws and regulations are applicable in connection with the repurchase of the Notes as a result of a Change of Control Triggering Event. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the Change of Control provisions of the Indenture, the Company or such Note Guarantor will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under the Change of Control provisions of the Indenture by virtue of such compliance.

On the Change of Control Payment Date, the Company or such Note Guarantor will, to the extent lawful:

- (1) accept for payment all Notes or portions of Notes properly tendered pursuant to the Change of Control Offer;
- (2) deposit with the Paying Agent an amount equal to the Change of Control Payment in respect of all Notes or portions of Notes properly tendered; and
- (3) deliver or cause to be delivered to the Paying Agent the Notes properly accepted together with an officers' certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of Notes or portions of Notes being purchased by the Company or such Note Guarantor.

The Paying Agent will promptly deliver to each holder of Notes properly tendered the Change of Control Payment for such Notes, and the Trustee (or its authenticating agent) will promptly authenticate and cause to be transferred to each holder a new Note equal in principal amount to any unpurchased portion of the Notes surrendered, if any. The Company will announce the results of the Change of Control Offer on or as soon as practicable after the Change of Control Payment Date.

The provisions described above that require the Company to make a Change of Control Offer following a Change of Control Triggering Event will be applicable whether or not any other provisions of the Indenture are applicable. Except as described above with respect to a Change of Control Triggering Event, the Indenture does not contain provisions that permit the holders of the Notes to require that the Company repurchase or redeem the Notes in the event of a takeover, recapitalization or similar transaction.

The Company will not be required to make a Change of Control Offer upon a Change of Control Triggering Event if (1) a third party makes the Change of Control Offer in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in the Indenture applicable to a Change of Control Offer made by the Company or any Note Guarantor and purchases all Notes properly tendered and not withdrawn under the Change of Control Offer, or (2) notice of redemption has been given pursuant to the Indenture as described above under the caption "—Redemption for Changes in Taxes" or "—Optional Redemption," unless and until there is a default in payment of the applicable redemption price.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, a Change of Control Offer may be made in advance of a Change of Control, conditioned upon the consummation of such Change of Control, if a definitive agreement is in place for the Change of Control at the time the Change of Control Offer is made.

If holders of not less than 90% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Notes of any series validly tender and do not withdraw such Notes in a Change of Control Offer and the Company, or any third party making a Change of Control Offer in lieu of the Company, purchase all of the Notes of such series validly tendered and not withdrawn by such holders of the Notes, the Company, any Note Guarantor or such third party will have the right, upon not less than 10 nor more than 60 days' prior notice, given not more than 30 days following such purchase pursuant to such Change of Control Offer, to redeem the Notes of such series that remain outstanding in whole, but not in part, at a purchase price in cash equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest and Additional Amounts, if any, on the Notes so redeemed to the date of redemption, subject to the rights of holders of the Notes on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date.

The phrase “all or substantially all” relating to the direct or indirect sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of the properties or assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole has no precise established definition under applicable law. Accordingly, the ability of a holder of Notes to require the Company or any Note Guarantor to repurchase its Notes as a result of a sale, lease, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of less than all of the assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole to another Person or group may be uncertain. The sale, lease, conveyance, assignment, transfer, or other disposition by the Company and/or any of its Subsidiaries, in any single transaction or series of related transactions, whether direct or indirect, of (i) any Capital Stock of, or other Equity Interests or securities issued by, any member of the Alibaba Group; (ii) interests in SoftBank Vision Fund L.P. or any portfolio assets thereof; or (iii) any investment assets controlled by the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company in its capacity as general partner of any fund or interests in any such fund, in each case, will not be deemed a sale or disposition of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of the Company or any Note Guarantor.

The agreements governing the Company’s other Indebtedness contain, and future agreements may contain, prohibitions of certain events, including events that would constitute a Change of Control and including repurchases of or other prepayments in respect of the Notes. The exercise by the holders of the Notes of their right to require the Company to repurchase the Notes upon a Change of Control could cause a default under these other agreements, even if the Change of Control itself does not, due to the financial effect of such repurchases on the Company. In the event a Change of Control occurs at a time when the Company is prohibited from purchasing Notes, the Company could seek the consent of its other lenders to the purchase of Notes or could attempt to refinance the borrowings that contain such prohibition. If the Company does not obtain a consent or repay those borrowings, the Company will remain prohibited from purchasing Notes. In that case, the Company’s failure to purchase tendered Notes would constitute an Event of Default under the Indenture which could, in turn, constitute a default under the other indebtedness. Furthermore, the Company’s ability to pay cash to the holders of the Notes upon a repurchase may be limited by the Company’s then existing financial resources. See “Risk Factors Risks Relating to the Notes—We may not have sufficient funds to repurchase the Notes upon a Change of Control Triggering Event and certain strategic transactions may not constitute a Change of Control Triggering Event.”

Certain Covenants

Anti-Layering

The Company will not incur any Indebtedness that is contractually subordinated in right of payment to any of its other Indebtedness unless such Indebtedness is also contractually subordinated in right of payment to the Notes on substantially identical terms.

No Note Guarantor will incur any Indebtedness that is contractually subordinated in right of payment to any of its other Indebtedness unless such Indebtedness is also contractually subordinated in right of payment to its Note Guarantee on substantially identical terms.

For the purposes of this covenant, no Indebtedness will be deemed to be contractually subordinated in right of payment to any other Indebtedness of the Company or such Note Guarantor solely by virtue of being unsecured or by virtue of being secured on a junior priority basis.

Negative Pledge

None of the Company or any Note Guarantor will create, incur, assume or otherwise cause or suffer to exist or become effective any Lien of any kind, securing any Relevant Indebtedness upon any of their property or assets, now owned or hereafter acquired (an “Initial Lien”), unless:

- (1) all payments due under the Notes or the relevant Guarantees, as applicable, are secured on an equal and ratable basis with the obligations so secured until such time as such obligations are no longer so secured; or
- (2) such Initial Lien is a Permitted Lien.

Any Lien created for the benefit of the holders of the Notes pursuant to the preceding paragraph shall be automatically and unconditionally released and discharged under any one or more of the following circumstances:

- (a) upon the release and discharge of the Initial Lien to which it relates;
- (b) upon full and final payment of the Notes and performance of all obligations of the Company and any Note Guarantors under the Indenture and the Notes, as provided under “—Satisfaction and Discharge”;
- (c) upon a Note Guarantor that has granted such Liens becoming a Non-Guarantor Subsidiary or the Note Guarantee provided by such Note Guarantor being otherwise discharged or terminated, in either case pursuant to the terms of the Indenture;
- (d) upon the sale or other disposition of the assets which are subject to such Liens (including by way of merger, consolidation, amalgamation or combination) to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction), the Company or an Affiliate of the Company, if such sale or other disposition does not violate the covenant described under “—Distributions of Proceeds of Asset Sales”;
- (e) upon legal or covenant defeasance in accordance with the provisions described under “—Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance”; or
- (f) as described under the caption “—Amendment, Supplement and Waiver.”

Upon any occurrence giving rise to a release and discharge of a Lien created for the benefit of the holders of the Notes pursuant to this covenant, as specified in this paragraph, the Trustee, subject to receipt of an officers’ certificate and an opinion of counsel certifying that the event or circumstance in question has occurred and such release of Lien complies with the Indenture and all conditions precedent to the release of such Liens have been satisfied, will execute any documents reasonably requested by the Company in order to evidence or effect such release and discharge in respect of such Lien.

Permitted Third Party Guarantees

None of the Company or any Note Guarantor will make any Third Party Guarantee if, on the date of incurrence of any Third Party Guarantee, after giving pro forma effect thereto, the aggregate principal amount (or deemed amount, in the case of Attributable Debt) of all Third Party Guarantees then outstanding (expressed in the Account Currency) exceeds the greater of ¥800 billion or 10.0% of the Company’s Consolidated Net Tangible Assets.

The accrual of interest or preferred stock dividends on any Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock that is Guaranteed under a Third Party Guarantee, the accretion or amortization of original issue discount on any Indebtedness or Disqualified Stock that is Guaranteed under a Third Party Guarantee, the payment of interest on any Indebtedness that is Guaranteed under a Third Party Guarantee in the form of additional Indebtedness with the same terms, the reclassification of any preferred stock or other liability as Indebtedness that is Guaranteed under a Third Party Guarantee due to a change in accounting principles and the payment of dividends on preferred stock or Disqualified Stock that is Guaranteed under a Third Party Guarantee in the form of additional shares of the same class of preferred stock or Disqualified Stock will not be deemed to be an incurrence of additional Third Party Guarantees for purposes of this covenant.

Subsidiary Guarantees of Indebtedness

The Company will not permit any of its Non-Guarantor Subsidiaries, directly or indirectly, to Guarantee any Indebtedness of the Company or a Note Guarantor unless such Non-Guarantor Subsidiary simultaneously executes and delivers a supplemental indenture providing for a Note Guarantee by such Subsidiary, which Note Guarantee will be senior to or pari passu with such Subsidiary’s Guarantee of such other Indebtedness.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to cause such Subsidiary to Guarantee the Notes to the extent that such Guarantee by such Subsidiary would give rise to or result in a violation of applicable law or any liability for the officers, directors or shareholders of such Subsidiary which, in any case, cannot be prevented or otherwise avoided through measures available to the Company or such Subsidiary.

Automatic Release of Note Guarantees

The Note Guarantee of any Note Guarantor will automatically and unconditionally be released:

- (1) other than in the case of the Note Guarantee provided by the Initial Note Guarantor, in connection with any sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of such Note Guarantor

- (including by way of merger or consolidation) to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Company or a Subsidiary of the Company;
- (2) in connection with any sale or other disposition of all of the Capital Stock of such Note Guarantor to a Person that is not (either before or after giving effect to such transaction) the Company or another Subsidiary of the Company;
 - (3) upon legal defeasance, covenant defeasance or satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture as provided below under the captions “—Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance” and “—Satisfaction and Discharge;” or
 - (4) as a result of a transaction permitted by “—Merger or Consolidation.”

Optional Release of Note Guarantees

Except as provided below, the Company may at any time unconditionally release the Note Guarantee of any Note Guarantor; provided that:

- (1) such release will not cause or result in a Default or an Event of Default;
- (2) (i) immediately after such release such Note Guarantor will no longer Guarantee any Indebtedness of the Company or a Note Guarantor or (ii) the Company delivers to the Trustee an officers’ certificate stating (a) that such Note Guarantor’s Guarantee of any Existing Senior Notes outstanding at such time will be released in accordance with the relevant Existing Senior Notes Indentures substantially concurrently with the release of its Note Guarantee and (b) that, upon the release of such Note Guarantor’s Guarantee of any outstanding Existing Senior Notes and the Note Guarantee, such Note Guarantor will no longer Guarantee any Indebtedness of the Company or any Note Guarantor;
- (3) any Third Party Guarantees of Indebtedness of such Note Guarantor outstanding at the time of such release (which will be deemed to have been incurred at the time of such release) would be permitted to be incurred by the covenant described under “—Permitted Third Party Guarantees;” and
- (4) any assets or businesses previously transferred to such Note Guarantor by the Initial Note Guarantor and owned by such Note Guarantor at the time of such release (which transfers will be deemed to have been made to an Excluded Subsidiary at the time of such release) would be permitted to be transferred to an Excluded Subsidiary pursuant to the covenant described under “—Transfers of Businesses to Excluded Subsidiaries.”

Distributions of Proceeds of Asset Sales

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to:

- (i) pay any dividend or make any other payment or distribution on account of the Company’s or any of its Subsidiaries’ Equity Interests or to the direct or indirect holders of the Company’s or any of its Subsidiaries’ Equity Interests in their capacity as such (other than a payment or distribution by a Subsidiary of the Company to the holders of its Equity Interests on a pro rata basis); or
- (ii) purchase, redeem or otherwise acquire for value any Equity Interests of the Company or any direct or indirect parent of the Company, in each case using the Net Proceeds from any Asset Sale (each such payment, distribution, purchase, redemption or acquisition of value, a “Restricted Payment”) unless, at the time of such Restricted Payment, no Default or Event of Default of the type specified in clauses (1) or (2) under “—Events of Default and Remedies” has occurred and is continuing and either:

- 1) after giving pro forma effect to such Restricted Payment, the Consolidated Net Leverage Ratio would not exceed 4.0 to 1.0; or
- 2) such Restricted Payment, individually or when aggregated with all other Restricted Payments made since the Issue Date under this clause (2), does not exceed the Dollar Equivalent of $20.0 billion.

Merger or Consolidation

The Company

The Company will not, directly or indirectly: (1) consolidate or merge with or into another Person (whether or not the Company is the surviving Person), or (2) sell, assign, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of the Company and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, in one or more related transactions, to another Person, unless:

- (1) either: (a) the Company is the surviving Person; or (b) the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than the Company) or to which such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition has been made is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of Japan, any jurisdiction which is at the Issue Date or at any time thereafter a member state of the European Union, Switzerland, the United States, any state of the United States or the District of Columbia, Singapore, the Cayman Islands, Jersey, Guernsey, Hong Kong or the British Virgin Islands;
- (2) the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger (if other than the Company) or the Person to which such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition has been made assumes all the obligations of the Company under the Notes and the Indenture (pursuant to a supplemental indenture) and under any security documents providing for Liens for the benefit of holders of the Notes in accordance with the covenant described under “—Negative Pledge” (pursuant to customary agreements reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee);
- (3) immediately after such transaction, no Default or Event of Default exists; and
- (4) the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an officers’ certificate and an opinion of counsel, each to the effect that such consolidation, merger, sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition and such supplemental indenture (if any) comply with the Indenture and an opinion of counsel to the effect that such supplemental indenture (if any) has been duly authorized, executed and delivered and is a legal, valid and binding agreement enforceable against the Company, the surviving Person (if other than the Company) or the Person to which such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition has been made (in each case, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee); provided that in giving an opinion of counsel, counsel may rely on an officers’ certificate as to any matters of fact, including as to satisfaction of clauses (2) and (3) above, and provided, further, that no such certificate and opinion of counsel shall be required in connection with (i) the Company consolidating with, merging into or selling, assigning, transferring, leasing, conveying or otherwise disposing of all or part of its properties and assets to any Subsidiary that is not an Excluded Subsidiary, or (ii) the Company consolidating or otherwise combining with or merging into an Affiliate incorporated or organized for the purpose of changing its legal domicile, reincorporating in another jurisdiction or changing its legal form.

In addition, the Company will not, directly or indirectly, lease all or substantially all of the properties and assets of it and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, in one or more related transactions, to any other Person.

The Note Guarantors

A Note Guarantor may not sell, assign, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its assets to, or consolidate with or merge with or into (whether or not such Note Guarantor is the surviving Person) another Person, other than the Company or another Note Guarantor, unless:

- (1) either (a) the Person acquiring the property in any such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or disposition or the Person formed by or surviving any such consolidation or merger becomes a Note Guarantor under the Indenture (pursuant to a supplemental indenture) and assumes all the obligations of the Note Guarantor under any security documents providing for Liens for the benefit of holders of the Notes in accordance with the covenant described under “—Negative Pledge” (pursuant to customary agreements reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee); or (b), except in the case of the Initial Note Guarantor (to which only sub-clause (a) above applies), the Net Proceeds of such sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance or other disposition are applied in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Indenture; and
- (2) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Default or Event of Default exists.

General

The provisions of this covenant shall not restrict (and shall not apply to): (a) any Subsidiary of the Company that is not a Note Guarantor from consolidating with, merging or liquidating into or transferring all or substantially all of its properties and assets to the Company, a Note Guarantor or any Non-Guarantor Subsidiary of the Company, so long as, immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Default or Event of Default exists; (b) any Note Guarantor from liquidating into the Company or another Note Guarantor; or (c) any consolidation or merger of the Company into any Note Guarantor; provided that, if the Company is not the surviving Person of such consolidation or merger, the relevant Note Guarantor will assume all the obligations of the Company under the Notes and the Indenture pursuant to a supplemental indenture reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee.

Though there is a limited body of case law interpreting the phrase “substantially all”, there is no precise established definition of the phrase under applicable law. Accordingly, in certain circumstances there may be a degree of uncertainty as to whether a particular transaction would involve “all or substantially all” of the property or assets of a Person. For the avoidance of doubt, for all purposes under the Indenture, the sale, lease, conveyance, assignment, transfer, or other disposition by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, in any single transaction or series of related transactions, whether direct or indirect, of (a) any Capital Stock of, or other Equity Interests or securities issued by, any member of the Alibaba Group, (b) interests in SoftBank Vision Fund L.P. or any portfolio assets thereof or (c) any investment assets controlled by the Company or its Subsidiary in its capacity as general partner of any fund or interests in any such fund will not be deemed a sale or disposition of all or substantially all of the properties or assets of the Company or any Note Guarantor, as applicable.

Excluded Subsidiaries

Every Subsidiary of the Company (other than the Initial Note Guarantor) that is not a Note Guarantor will be an “Excluded Subsidiary” under the Indenture, until such time as it executes and delivers a supplemental indenture providing for a Note Guarantee or is required to provide a Note Guarantee under the Indenture. For the avoidance of doubt, the Initial Note Guarantor or its Successor Entity will not be deemed an Excluded Subsidiary under the Indenture, even while the Notes have an Investment Grade Rating or its Note Guarantee is released in accordance with the provisions described under “—Subsidiary Guarantees of Indebtedness.”

Transfers of Businesses to Excluded Subsidiaries

Neither the Company nor the Initial Note Guarantor (nor any of their respective Successor Entities) will, and the Company will procure that none of its Subsidiaries from time to time will, transfer to an Excluded Subsidiary a business directly owned by the Initial Note Guarantor on the Issue Date that is at the time of such transfer material to the operations of the Initial Note Guarantor.

Any assets or businesses that are directly owned by the Initial Note Guarantor on the Issue Date that have previously been transferred (through one or more transfers) to another Note Guarantor and are owned by such other Note Guarantor at the time when its Note Guarantee is released in accordance with the provisions described under “—Subsidiary Guarantees of Indebtedness” will be deemed to have been transferred to an Excluded Subsidiary for the purposes of this covenant at the time of such release.

Suspension of Certain Covenants

If on any date following the Issue Date:

- (1) the Notes have received an Investment Grade Rating; and
- (2) no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, then, beginning on that day and subject to the provisions of the following paragraph, the covenants specifically listed under the following captions in this offering memorandum will be suspended:

- (1) “—Anti-Layering;”
- (2) “—Permitted Third Party Guarantees;” and
- (3) “—Distributions of Proceeds of Asset Sales.”

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if on any subsequent date (the “Reinstatement Date”), the Notes cease to maintain Investment Grade Ratings, respectively, the foregoing covenants will be reinstated as of and from the date of such rating decline. Calculations under the reinstated “Distributions of Proceeds of Asset Sales” covenant will be made as if the “Distributions of Proceeds of Asset Sales” covenant had been in effect since the date of the Indenture except that no default will be deemed to have occurred solely by reason of a distribution made while that covenant was suspended. Calculations under the reinstated “Permitted Third Party Guarantees” covenant will be made as if the “Permitted Third Party Guarantees” covenant had been in effect since the date of the Indenture except that no default will be deemed to have occurred solely by reason of Third Party Guarantees issued while that covenant was suspended.

The Company shall notify the Trustee in writing that the conditions set forth in the first paragraph under this caption have been satisfied; provided that, no such notification shall be a condition for the suspension of the covenants described under this caption to be effective. There can be no assurance that the Notes will ever achieve an Investment Grade Rating or that any such rating will be maintained.

Payments for Consent

The Company will not, and will not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, directly or indirectly, pay or cause to be paid any consideration to or for the benefit of any holder of Notes (or, if the relevant consent, waiver or amendment is separately being sought with respect to one or more series of Notes, any holder of Notes of such series) for or as an inducement to any consent, waiver or amendment of any of the terms or provisions of the Indenture or the Notes unless such consideration is paid to all holders of the Notes (or to all holders of such series of Notes, as applicable) that consent, waive or agree to amend in the time frame set forth in the solicitation documents relating to such consent, waiver or agreement (the “Consenting Holders”); provided that (i) the Company and its Subsidiaries will be permitted, in any such consent solicitation or liability management transaction, to exclude holders of the Notes in any jurisdiction or any category or number of holders of the Notes so long as such consideration is paid within 30 days of the closing of any such consent solicitation or liability management transaction; and (ii) the Company and its Subsidiaries may in their sole discretion furnish or cause to be furnished the same consideration, in whole or in part, to any holder of Notes other than the Consenting Holders.

For purposes of determining whether the same consideration is offered or paid to all holders of the Notes or to all holders of one or more series of Notes, as applicable, under the terms of this covenant, the amount of consideration offered in euro to holders of Euro Notes shall be deemed to be the Dollar Equivalent of such amount as of (a) if a record date has been set with respect to the consent solicitation or liability management transaction referred to in the preceding paragraph, such date or (b) if no such record date has been set, the date of payment of such consideration.

Reports

So long as any Notes are outstanding, the Company will furnish to the holders of the Notes, as soon as they are available but in any event not more than 10 days after they are filed with the Tokyo Stock Exchange or any other internationally recognized exchange on which the Company’s common shares are at any time listed for trading, true and correct copies of any financial or other report in the English language filed with such exchange; provided that if at any time the Company’s common shares cease to be listed for trading on an internationally recognized stock exchange, the Company will furnish to the holders of the Notes as soon as they are available, but in any event:

- (1) within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Company, copies of the financial statements (on a consolidated basis and in the English language) of the Company in respect of such fiscal year (including a statement of income, balance sheet and cash flow statement) prepared in accordance with GAAP and audited by a member firm of an internationally recognized firm of independent accountants; and
- (2) within 60 days after the end of the first, second and third quarters of each fiscal year of the Company, copies of the financial statements (on a consolidated basis and in the English language) of the Company in respect of such period (including a statement of income, balance sheet and cash flow statement) prepared in accordance with GAAP and reviewed by a member firm of an internationally recognized firm of independent accountants.

To the extent any reports are filed on the Company’s website, such reports shall be deemed to have been furnished to the holders of the Notes.

Events of Default and Remedies

Each of the following is an “Event of Default”:

- (1) default for 30 days in the payment when due of interest on, or Additional Amounts with respect to, if any, the Notes;
- (2) default in the payment within two Business Days after the date when such payment is due (at maturity, upon redemption or otherwise) of the principal of, or premium, if any, on, the Notes;
- (3) failure by the Company or Note Guarantors to comply with the provisions described under the captions “—Repurchase at the Option of Holders upon a Change of Control Triggering Event” or “—Certain Covenants—Merger or Consolidation;”

- (4) failure by the Company for 60 days after notice to the Company by the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Notes then outstanding voting as a single class to comply with any of the agreements in the Indenture (other than a default in performance covered under clauses (1), (2) or (3) above);
- (5) default under any mortgage, indenture or instrument under which there may be issued or by which there may be secured or evidenced any (i) Indebtedness for money borrowed by the Company or any Note Guarantor or (ii) Guarantee by the Company or any Note Guarantor of Indebtedness for money borrowed by another Person, whether such Indebtedness or Guarantee now exists, or is created after the date of the Indenture or arises under the Indenture, if that default:
 - (a) is caused by a failure to pay principal of, premium on, if any, or interest, if any, on, such Indebtedness or Guarantee prior to the expiration of the grace period provided in such Indebtedness or Guarantee on the date of such default (a “Payment Default”); or
 - (b) results in the acceleration prior to the Stated Maturity of such Indebtedness or of such indebtedness guaranteed by the Company or a Note Guarantor, and, in each case, the principal amount of any such Indebtedness or principal amount in respect of such Guarantee, together with the principal amount of any other such Indebtedness and principal amount in respect of any other such Guarantee under which there has been a Payment Default or the maturity of which has been so accelerated, aggregates ¥15 billion (or foreign currency equivalent) or more;

- (6) failure by the Company or any Note Guarantor to pay final judgments entered by a court or courts of competent jurisdiction aggregating in excess of ¥15 billion (or foreign currency equivalent), which judgments are not paid, discharged or stayed, for a period of 60 days;
- (7) except as permitted by the Indenture, any Note Guarantee is held in any judicial proceeding to be unenforceable or invalid, in whole or in part, or ceases for any reason to be in full force and effect, or any Note Guarantor, or any Person acting on behalf of any Note Guarantor, denies or disaffirms its obligations under its Note Guarantee; or
- (8) certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency described in the Indenture with respect to the Company or any Note Guarantor.

In the case of an Event of Default arising from certain events of bankruptcy or insolvency, with respect to the Company or any Note Guarantor, all outstanding Notes will become due and payable immediately without further action or notice. If any other Event of Default occurs and is continuing with respect to the Notes of any series (regardless of whether the same Event of Default has occurred and is continuing with respect to other series of Notes), the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes of such series may declare all the Notes of such series to be due and payable immediately; provided that holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes (as a whole) may declare all the Notes then outstanding to be due and payable immediately.

Subject to certain limitations, holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes of any series may direct the Trustee in its exercise of any trust or power with respect to the Notes of such series; provided that, to the extent holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes provide directions to the Trustee as to all Notes, such directions shall prevail over directions from holders of one or more specific series of Notes that are limited to such series, to the extent of any inconsistency between or among directions. The Trustee may withhold from holders of the Notes notice of any continuing Default or Event of Default if it determines that withholding notice is in their interest, except a Default or Event of Default relating to the payment of principal, premium, interest or Additional Amounts, if any.

Subject to the provisions of the Indenture relating to the duties of the Trustee, in case an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers under the Indenture at the request or direction of any holders of the Notes unless such holders have offered to the Trustee indemnity or security satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense. Except to enforce the right to receive payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest, if any, when due, no holder of a Note may pursue any remedy with respect to the Indenture or the Notes of any series unless:

- (1) such holder has previously given the Trustee written notice that an Event of Default is continuing;
- (2) either (a) holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes of such series make a written request to the Trustee to pursue the remedy with respect to the Notes of such series or (b) holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding

Notes (as a whole) make a written request to the Trustee to pursue the remedy with respect to all Notes;

- (3) such holder or holders offer to the Trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to the Trustee against any loss, liability or expense;
- (4) the Trustee does not comply with such request within 60 days after receipt of the request and the offer of security or indemnity; and
- (5) during such 60-day period, neither (a) holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes of such series nor (b) holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes (as a whole) give the Trustee a direction inconsistent with such request; provided that a written request under clause (a) of this paragraph shall not reverse a request made under clause (b) of the above paragraph (2).

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes of the relevant series by written notice to the Trustee may, on behalf of the holders of all of the Notes of the relevant series, rescind an acceleration or waive any existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences under the Indenture as to such series and holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes by written notice to the Trustee may, on behalf of the holders of all of the Notes (as a whole), rescind an acceleration or waive any existing Default or Event of Default and its consequences under the Indenture as to all of the Notes then outstanding (as a whole) if, in either case, the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree, except a Default or Event of Default in the payment of principal of, premium on, interest on or Additional Amounts, if any, with respect to the Notes (which may only be rescinded or waived by the holders of not less than 90% in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes of the relevant series or the Notes as a whole, as applicable).

The Company is required to deliver to the Trustee annually a statement regarding compliance with the Indenture. Upon becoming aware of any Default or Event of Default, the Company is required to deliver to the Trustee a statement specifying such Default or Event of Default.

No Personal Liability of Directors, Officers, Employees and Stockholders

No director, officer, employee, incorporator or stockholder of the Company or any Note Guarantor as such, will have any liability for any obligations of the Company or any Note Guarantor under the Notes, the Note Guarantees, the Indenture or for any claim based on, in respect of, or by reason of, such obligations or their creation. Each holder of Notes by accepting a Note waives and releases all such liability. The waiver and release are part of the consideration for issuance of the Notes. The waiver may not be effective to waive liabilities under U.S. federal securities laws.

Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance

The Company may at any time, at the option of its Board of Directors evidenced by a resolution set forth in an officers' certificate, elect to have all of its obligations discharged with respect to the outstanding Notes and the Note Guarantors' obligations discharged with respect to the Note Guarantees ("Legal Defeasance") except for:

- (1) the rights of holders of outstanding Notes to receive payments in respect of the principal of, premium on, interest on or Additional Amounts with respect to, if any, such Notes when such payments are due from the trust referred to below;
- (2) the Company's obligations with respect to the Notes concerning issuing temporary Notes, registration of Notes, mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Notes and the maintenance of an office or agency for payment and money for security payments held in trust;
- (3) the rights, powers, trusts, duties and immunities of the Trustee under the Indenture, and the Company's and the Note Guarantors' obligations in connection therewith; and
- (4) the Legal Defeasance and Covenant Defeasance provisions of the Indenture.

In addition, the Company may, at its option and at any time, elect to have its obligations or obligations of the Note Guarantors released with respect to certain covenants (including its obligation to make Change of Control Offers) that are described in the Indenture ("Covenant Defeasance") and thereafter any omission to comply with those covenants will not constitute a Default or Event of Default with respect to the Notes. In the event Covenant Defeasance occurs, all Events of Default described under "—Events of Default and Remedies" (except those relating to payments on the Notes or bankruptcy, receivership, rehabilitation or insolvency events) will no longer constitute an Event of Default with respect to the Notes.

In order to exercise either Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance:

- (1) the Company must irrevocably deposit with the Trustee or such other entity designated by the Trustee for this purpose, in trust, for the benefit of the holders of the Dollar Notes, cash in U.S. dollars, U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof, or, for the benefit of the holders of the Euro Notes, cash in euro, European Government Obligations or a combination thereof, in amounts as will be sufficient, in the opinion of an internationally recognized investment bank, appraisal firm or firm of independent public accountants, to pay the principal of, premium on, interest on and Additional Amounts with respect to, if any, the outstanding Notes on the stated date for payment thereof or on the applicable redemption date, as the case may be, and the Company must specify whether the Notes are being defeased to such stated date for payment or to a particular redemption date;
- (2) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing either: (a) on the date of such deposit (other than a Default or Event of Default resulting from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit (and any similar concurrent deposit relating to other Indebtedness), and the granting of Liens to secure such borrowing) or (b) insofar as Events of Default from bankruptcy or insolvency events are concerned, at any time in the period ending on the 366th day after the date of deposit;
- (3) such Legal Defeasance or Covenant Defeasance will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any material agreement or instrument (other than the Indenture and the agreements governing any other Indebtedness being defeased, discharged or replaced) to which the Company is a party or by which the Company is bound;
- (4) the Company must deliver to the Trustee an opinion of counsel, reasonably acceptable to the Trustee, to the effect that after the 366th day following the deposit, the trust funds will not be subject to the effect of any applicable preference or similar insolvency laws affecting creditors' rights generally;
- (5) the Company must deliver to the Trustee an officers' certificate stating that the deposit was not made by the Company with the intent of preferring the holders of the Notes over the other creditors of the Company or the Note Guarantors with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding any creditors of the Company, the Note Guarantors or others; and
- (6) the Company must deliver to the Trustee an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent relating to the Legal Defeasance or the Covenant Defeasance have been complied with.

Amendment, Supplement and Waiver

Except as provided in the next two succeeding paragraphs, the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees may be amended or supplemented with the consent of the holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes (including, without limitation, Additional Notes, if any) voting as a single class (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for, or purchase of, the Notes), and any existing Default or Event of Default (other than a Default or Event of Default in the payment of the principal of, premium on, interest on or Additional Amounts with respect to, if any, the Notes, except a Payment Default resulting from an acceleration that has been rescinded) or compliance with any provision of the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees may be waived with the consent of the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes (including, without limitation, Additional Notes, if any) voting as a single class (including, without limitation, consents obtained in connection with a purchase of, or tender offer or exchange offer for, Notes); provided that, if any amendment, waiver or other modification only relates to the 2024 Dollar Notes, the 2027 Dollar Notes, the 2025 Euro Notes or the 2029 Euro Notes, then only the consent of the holders of at least a majority in principal amount of the then outstanding 2024 Dollar Notes, the 2027 Dollar Notes, the 2025 Euro Notes or the 2029 Euro Notes (including, without limitation, any Additional 2024 Dollar Notes, any Additional 2027 Dollar Notes, any Additional 2025 Euro Notes or any Additional 2029 Euro Notes, as applicable), and not the consent of at least a majority of all Notes then outstanding, shall be required.

Without the consent of (i) holders of Notes holding not less than 90% of the then outstanding aggregate principal amount of Notes, or, (ii) if the amendment, supplement or waiver only relates to the 2024 Dollar Notes, the 2027 Dollar Notes, the 2025 Euro Notes or the 2029 Euro Notes, then holders of 2024 Dollar Notes, 2027 Dollar Notes, 2025 Euro Notes or 2029 Euro Notes holding not less than 90% of the then outstanding aggregate principal amount of the 2024 Dollar Notes, the 2027 Dollar Notes, the 2025 Euro Notes or the 2029 Euro Notes (as applicable), an amendment, supplement or waiver may not (with respect to any Notes held by a non-consenting holder):

- (1) reduce the principal amount of Notes whose holders must consent to an amendment, supplement or waiver;
- (2) reduce the principal of or change the fixed maturity of any Note or alter or waive any of the provisions with respect to the redemption of the Notes (except those provisions relating to the covenant described above under the caption “—Repurchase at the Option of Holders upon a Change of Control Triggering Event”);
- (3) reduce the rate of or change the time for payment of interest, including default interest, on any Note;
- (4) waive a Default or Event of Default in the payment of principal of, premium on, interest on or Additional Amounts with respect to, if any, the Notes (except a rescission of acceleration of the Notes by the holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes and a waiver of the Payment Default that resulted from such acceleration);
- (5) make any Note payable in money other than that stated in the Notes;
- (6) make any change in the provisions of the Indenture relating to waivers of past Defaults or the rights of holders of the Notes to receive payments of principal of, premium on, interest on or Additional Amounts with respect to, if any, the Notes;
- (7) waive a redemption payment with respect to any Note (other than a payment required by the covenant described above under the caption “—Repurchase at the Option of Holders upon a Change of Control Triggering Event”);
- (8) release any Note Guarantor from any of its obligations under its Note Guarantee or the Indenture, except in accordance with the terms of the Indenture; or
- (9) make any change in the preceding amendment and waiver provisions.

Notwithstanding the preceding, without the consent of any holder of Notes, the Company, the Note Guarantor and the Trustee may amend or supplement the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees:

- (1) to cure any ambiguity, defect or inconsistency;
- (2) to provide for uncertificated Notes in addition to or in place of Definitive Registered Notes;
- (3) to provide for the assumption of the Company’s or a Note Guarantor’s obligations to holders of the Notes and Note Guarantees in the case of a merger or consolidation or sale of all or substantially all of the Company’s or such Note Guarantor’s assets;
- (4) to make any change that would provide any additional rights or benefits to the holders of the Notes or that does not adversely affect the legal rights under the Indenture of any holder in any material respect;
- (5) to conform the text of the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees to any provision of this Description of the Notes to the extent that such provision in this Description of the Notes was intended to be a verbatim recitation of a provision of the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees, which intent may be evidenced by an officers’ certificate to that effect;
- (6) to provide for the issuance of Additional Notes in accordance with the limitations set forth in the Indenture as of the date thereof;
- (7) to allow any Note Guarantor to execute a supplemental indenture or a Note Guarantee with respect to the Notes;
- (8) to secure the Notes;
- (9) to give effect to Permitted Liens;
- (10) to evidence and provide for the acceptance and appointment under the Indenture of a successor trustee pursuant to the requirements thereof; or
- (11) to make any amendment to the provisions of the Indenture relating to the transfer and legending of Notes as permitted by the Indenture, including, without limitation to facilitate the issuance and administration of the Notes; provided that (i) compliance with the Indenture as so amended would not result in Notes being transferred in violation of the U.S. Securities Act or any applicable securities law and (ii) such amendment does not materially and adversely affect the rights of holders to transfer Notes.

For purposes of determining whether the holders of the requisite principal amount of Notes have taken any action under the Indenture (other than with respect to a determination that only affects one or more series of the Euro Notes), the principal amount of Euro Notes shall be deemed to be the Dollar Equivalent of such principal amount of such Euro Notes as of (a) if a record date has been set with respect to the taking of such action, such date or (b) if no such record date has been set, the date the taking of such action by the holders of such requisite principal amount is certified to the Trustee by the Company.

The consent of the holders of the Notes is not necessary under the Indenture to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment. It is sufficient if such consent approves the substance of the proposed amendment. A consent to any amendment or waiver under the Indenture by any holder given in connection with a tender of such holder's Notes will not be rendered invalid by such tender.

In formulating its decision on such matters, the Trustee shall be entitled to require and rely conclusively on such evidence as it deems necessary, including officers' certificates and opinions of counsel.

Satisfaction and Discharge

The Indenture will be discharged and will cease to be of further effect as to all Notes issued thereunder, when:

- (1) either:
 - (a) all Notes that have been authenticated, except lost, stolen or destroyed Notes that have been replaced or paid and Notes for whose payment money has been deposited in trust and thereafter repaid to the Company, have been delivered to the Paying Agent for cancellation; or
 - (b) all Notes that have not been delivered to the Paying Agent for cancellation have become due and payable by reason of the mailing of a notice of redemption or otherwise or will become due and payable within one year and the Company or any Note Guarantor has irrevocably deposited or caused to be deposited with the Trustee (or such other entity designated by the Trustee for such purpose) as trust funds in trust solely for the benefit of the holders, cash in U.S. dollars, U.S. Government Obligations or a combination thereof, with respect to the Dollar Notes, or cash in euro, European Government Obligations or a combination thereof, with respect to the Euro Notes, and, in either case, in amounts as will be sufficient, without consideration of any reinvestment of interest, to pay and discharge the entire Indebtedness on the Notes not delivered to the Paying Agent for cancellation for principal of, premium on, interest on or Additional Amounts with respect to, if any, the Notes to the date of maturity or redemption;
- (2) in respect of clause 1(b), no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of the deposit (other than a Default or Event of Default resulting from the borrowing of funds to be applied to such deposit and any similar deposit relating to other Indebtedness and, in each case, the granting of Liens to secure such borrowings) and the deposit will not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any other instrument to which the Company or any Note Guarantor is a party or by which the Company or any Note Guarantor is bound (other than with respect to the borrowing of funds to be applied concurrently to make the deposit required to effect such satisfaction and discharge and any similar concurrent deposit relating to other Indebtedness, and in each case the granting of Liens to secure such borrowings);
- (3) the Company or any Note Guarantor has paid or caused to be paid all sums payable by it under the Indenture; and
- (4) the Company has delivered irrevocable instructions to the Trustee under the Indenture to apply the deposited money toward the payment of the Notes at maturity or on the redemption date, as the case may be.

In addition, the Company must deliver an officers' certificate and an opinion of counsel to the Trustee stating that all conditions precedent to satisfaction and discharge have been satisfied.

Judgment Currency

The sole currency of account and payment for all sums payable by the Company or any Note Guarantor under the Indenture with respect to Dollar Notes is U.S. dollars and with respect to Euro Notes is euro. Any payment on account of an amount that is payable in U.S. dollars or euros, as the case may be (the “Required Currency”), which is made to or for the account of any holder of the Notes or the Trustee in lawful currency of any other jurisdiction (the “Judgment Currency”), whether as a result of any judgment or order or the enforcement thereof or the liquidation of the Company or a Note Guarantor, shall constitute a discharge of the obligations of the Company and the Note Guarantor under the Indenture, the Notes and the Note Guarantees only to the extent of the amount of the Required Currency which such holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, could purchase in the London foreign exchange markets with the amount of the Judgment Currency in accordance with normal banking procedures at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date of the receipt or recovery of the payment in the Judgment Currency (or, if it is not practicable to make that purchase on that date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so).

If the amount of the Required Currency that could be so purchased is less than the amount of the Required Currency originally due to such holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, the Company and the Note Guarantor shall indemnify and hold harmless the holder or the Trustee, as the case may be, from and against all loss or damage arising out of, or as a result of, such deficiency. For the purposes of this indemnity, it will be sufficient for the holder to certify that it would have suffered a loss had an actual purchase of Required Currency been made with the amount so received in Judgment Currency on the date of receipt or recovery (or, if a purchase of Required Currency on such date had not been practicable, on the first date on which it would have been practicable). This indemnity shall constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by any holder or the Trustee from time to time and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order for a liquidated sum in respect of an amount due under the Indenture, the Notes or the Note Guarantees or under any judgment or order.

Concerning the Trustee

If the Trustee becomes a creditor of the Company or any Note Guarantor, the Indenture limits the right of the Trustee to obtain payment of claims in certain cases, or to realize on certain property received in respect of any such claim as security or otherwise. The Trustee will be permitted to engage in other transactions; however, if it acquires any conflicting interest it must eliminate such conflict within 90 days or resign.

The holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes (as a whole) or, to the extent relating solely to such series, holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes of any series of Notes will have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for exercising any remedy available to the Trustee with respect to all the Notes (as a whole) or the Notes of such series, as the case may be, in each case subject to certain exceptions. To the extent holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes provide directions to the Trustee with respect to all the Notes (as a whole), such directions shall prevail over directions from holders of any specific series of Notes that are only expressed with respect to such series, to the extent of any inconsistency between or among directions. The Indenture provides that in case an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Trustee will be required, in the exercise of its power, to use the degree of care of a prudent man in the conduct of his own affairs. Subject to such provisions, the Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of its rights or powers under the Indenture at the request of any holder of Notes, unless such holder has offered to the Trustee indemnity or security satisfactory to it against any loss, liability or expense.

Listing

Approval in-principle has been received for the listing of the Notes on the SGX-ST. There can be no assurance that such listing will be obtained or maintained.

Governing Law, Consent to Jurisdiction and Service of Process

The Notes, the Note Guarantees and the Indenture will provide that they will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York.

The Company and the Note Guarantor will irrevocably agree that any suit, action or proceeding arising out of, related to, or in connection with the Indenture, the Notes and the Note Guarantees may be instituted in any U.S. federal or state court located in the Borough of Manhattan in The City of New York. The Company and the Note Guarantor will appoint Cogency Global Inc. as its agent for service of process in any such action or proceeding.

- (2) that is not Guaranteed, in whole or in part, by the Company or any Note Guarantor (except to the extent of Liens on assets of the Company or any Note Guarantor permitted by clause (4) of this definition),
- (3) that is not recourse to, and does not obligate, the Company or any Note Guarantor in any way (except to the extent of Liens on assets of the Company or any Note Guarantor permitted by clause (4) of this definition), and
- (4) that does not subject any property or asset of the Company or any Note Guarantor to the satisfaction thereof, directly or indirectly, contingently or otherwise, except for (i) Liens on Capital Stock of, or other Equity Interests or securities issued by, any Excluded Subsidiary or any Person other than a Subsidiary, (ii) other Permitted Liens, or (iii) the ability to be converted into or exchanged for Capital Stock of, or other Equity Interests or securities issued by, any Excluded Subsidiary or any Person other than a Subsidiary.

“Note Guarantors” means each of the Initial Note Guarantor and any Additional Note Guarantor.

“OneWeb Group” means WorldVu Satellite Limited and its affiliates.

“Permitted Holders” means (1) Mr. Masayoshi Son, (2) any of his immediate family members and (3) any trust, corporation, partnership, limited-liability company or other entity, the beneficiaries, stockholders, partners, members, owners or Persons beneficially holding a majority (and controlling) interest of which consist of Mr. Masayoshi Son and/or any of his immediate family members.

“Permitted Lien” means:

- (1) Liens on Capital Stock of, or other Equity Interests or securities issued by, any Excluded Subsidiary or any Person other than a Subsidiary securing Non-Recourse Relevant Indebtedness;
- (2) Liens arising or already arisen automatically by operation of law which are promptly discharged or disputed in good faith by appropriate proceedings;
- (3) Liens created or outstanding in favor of the Company or any Note Guarantor;
- (4) Liens with respect to (a) Relevant Indebtedness that, when taken together with the aggregate principal amount of all other outstanding Relevant Indebtedness secured by Liens incurred pursuant

- to this clause (4) and any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness thereof (expressed in the Account Currency), does not exceed 2.0% of the Company's Consolidated Net Tangible Assets and (b) any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness of Indebtedness described under sub-clause (a) above;
- (5) Liens on accounts receivables pledged, encumbered or otherwise disposed of pursuant to any receivables financing or asset-backed financing of the Company or any Note Guarantor that consists of Relevant Indebtedness and has a maturity no longer than 180 days from its funding date;
 - (6) Liens on tangible assets incurred for the purpose of securing Relevant Indebtedness of the Company or a Note Guarantor incurred or assumed to finance the acquisition, construction, development or improvement of tangible assets in the ordinary course of business and any Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness thereof; provided that any such Lien may not extend to any assets or property of the Company or any Note Guarantor other than the tangible assets acquired, improved, developed or constructed with the proceeds of such Relevant Indebtedness and any improvements or accessions to such tangible assets; or
 - (7) Liens on Capital Stock of, or other Equity Interests or securities issued by, any Person that incurs Project Finance Indebtedness or Designated Project Finance Indebtedness, and shareholder loans made to such Person, securing such Project Finance Indebtedness or such Designated Project Finance Indebtedness, as applicable; provided that such Person has been established specifically for the purpose of ownership, acquisition, construction, development, operation and/or improvement of the relevant tangible assets and such Person owns no other significant assets and carries on no other business.

“Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness” means any Indebtedness (including Guarantees) of the Company or any Note Guarantor issued in exchange or replacement for, or the net proceeds of which are used to renew, refund, refinance, defease or discharge other Indebtedness of the Company or any Note Guarantor (other than intercompany Indebtedness); provided that:

- (1) the principal amount (or accreted value, if applicable) of such Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness does not exceed the principal amount (or accreted value, if applicable) of the Indebtedness being renewed, refunded, refinanced, replaced, defeased or discharged (plus all accrued interest on the Indebtedness and the amount of all fees and expenses, including premiums, incurred in connection therewith);
- (2) any Permitted Liens securing such Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness are limited to all or part of the same property and assets that were subject to Permitted Liens securing the Indebtedness being renewed, refunded, refinanced, replaced, defeased or discharged (plus improvements and accessions to such property or proceeds or distributions thereof);
- (3) such Indebtedness is incurred either by the Company or by the Note Guarantor who is the obligor on the Indebtedness being renewed, refunded, refinanced, replaced, defeased or discharged; and
- (4) if the Indebtedness being renewed, refunded, refinanced, replaced, defeased or discharged is Relevant Indebtedness, such Permitted Refinancing Indebtedness is also Relevant Indebtedness.

“Person” means any individual, corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, joint-stock company, trust, unincorporated organization, limited-liability company or government or other entity.

“Project Finance Indebtedness” means Indebtedness incurred by any Person (a “Debtor”) other than the Company or a Note Guarantor for the purpose of financing the ownership, acquisition, construction, development, operation and/or improvement of tangible assets in respect of which the creditors have no recourse whatsoever for the payment of any sum relating to such Indebtedness other than:

- (1) recourse to such Debtor or any Subsidiary of such Debtor for amounts limited to such assets and/or the cash flows from such assets;
- (2) recourse to such Debtor generally, or to the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company or any joint venture in which the Company or any its Subsidiaries participate (as applicable, the “Sponsor”), which recourse is limited to a claim for damages (other than liquidated damages and damages required to be calculated in a specific way) for breach of an obligation, representation or warranty (not being a payment obligation, representation or warranty or an obligation to procure payment by another, to comply or to procure compliance by another with any financial ratios or other test of financial condition only) by such Debtor or Sponsor or for gross negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud by such Debtor or Sponsor or similar cause on such Debtor's or Sponsor's side;
- (3) if such Debtor has been established specifically for the purpose of constructing, developing, owning and/or operating the relevant asset and such debtor owns no other significant assets and carries on no other business, recourse to all or any part of the assets and undertakings of such Debtor and the shares in the capital of such Debtor and shareholder loans made to such Debtor;

- (4) recourse to the Sponsor pursuant to any form of assurance, undertaking or support, including a keepwell agreement or comfort letter or agreement (including a sponsor support agreement or a keiei shido nensho), entered into in respect of such Project Finance Indebtedness (a “Sponsor Support Agreement”); provided that such Sponsor Support Agreement (i) does not expressly provide for legal recourse to the Company or the Note Guarantors beyond seeking specific performance or damages in respect of obligations of the Sponsor to maintain the solvency or financial health of the Debtor (including after giving effect to the incurrence of such Indebtedness) or the overall soundness of the Debtor’s assets or business or to procure compliance by the Debtor with terms and conditions of such Indebtedness (other than express obligations to procure direct payments proscribed by sub-clause (ii) below) or for gross negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud by such Sponsor or similar cause on such Sponsor’s side, and (ii) does not expressly obligate the Sponsor to make or procure direct payments of principal or interest (or pay liquidated damages relating to non-payment defaults) in respect of such Indebtedness to the holders thereof;
- (5) recourse to the Company or any Note Guarantor pursuant to any form of assurance, undertaking or support, including a keepwell agreement or comfort letter or agreement (including a sponsor support agreement or a keiei shido nensho) entered into in respect of the obligations of a Sponsor pursuant to a Sponsor Support Agreement as set forth in clause (4) of this definition; provided that such keepwell agreement or comfort letter or agreement (including a sponsor support agreement or a keiei shido nensho) (i) does not expressly provide for legal recourse to the Company or such Note Guarantor beyond seeking specific performance or damages in respect of obligations of the Company or such Note Guarantor to maintain the solvency or financial health of such Sponsor (including after giving effect to the incurrence of Indebtedness under such Sponsor Support Agreement) or the overall soundness of such Sponsor’s assets or business or to procure compliance by such Sponsor with terms and conditions of such Sponsor Support Agreement (other than express obligations to procure direct payments proscribed by sub-clause (ii) below) or for gross negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud by the Company or such Note Guarantor or similar cause on the Company or such Note Guarantor’s side, and (ii) does not expressly obligate the Company or such Note Guarantor to make or procure direct payments of principal or interest (or pay liquidated damages relating to non-payment defaults) in respect of such Indebtedness to the holders thereof;
- (6) recourse to the Company or any Note Guarantor or any Sponsor pursuant to or in respect of an equity contribution undertaking or similar arrangement providing for the injection of capital or similar support by the Company or such Note Guarantor or Sponsor to facilitate the achievement of designated milestones (or contingent upon the failure to achieve such milestones) with respect to the tangible assets in respect of which the Project Finance Indebtedness is incurred; provided that such undertaking or arrangement (i) does not expressly provide for legal recourse to the Company or such Note Guarantor or Sponsor beyond seeking specific performance or damages in respect of obligations of the Company or such Note Guarantor or Sponsor to make such equity contribution or for gross negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud by the Company or such Note Guarantor or similar cause on the Company or such Note Guarantor or Sponsor’s side, and (ii) does not expressly obligate the Company or such Note Guarantor or Sponsor to make or procure direct payments of principal or interest (or pay liquidated damages relating to non-payment defaults) in respect of such Indebtedness to the holders thereof; and/or
- (7) recourse under any guarantee and/or indemnity of such Indebtedness for completion of construction or development of an asset; provided that in any case the guarantee and/or indemnity is or is intended to be released or discharged if completion of the relevant construction or development occurs in accordance with the terms governing such Indebtedness and/or the guarantee and/or indemnity and/or any agreement relating thereto; provided that such guarantee and/or indemnity (i) does not expressly provide for legal recourse to the Company or such Note Guarantor beyond seeking specific performance or damages in respect of obligations of the Company or such Note Guarantor to complete construction or development of the relevant assets or for gross negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud by the Company or such Note Guarantor or similar cause on the Company or such Note Guarantor’s side, and (ii) does not expressly obligate the Company or such Note Guarantor to make or procure direct payments of principal or interest (or pay liquidated damages relating to non-payment defaults) in respect of such Indebtedness to the holders thereof.

“Qualified Securitization Financing” means any Securitization Facility of a Securitization Subsidiary that meets the following conditions: (i) all sales of Securitization Assets and related assets by the Company or any Subsidiary to the Securitization Subsidiary or any other Person are made at fair market value (as determined in good faith by the Company or such Subsidiary), (ii) the financing terms, covenants, termination events and other provisions thereof shall be market terms (as determined in good faith by the Company or such Subsidiary) and may include Standard Securitization Undertakings, and (iii) the obligations under such Securitization Facility are non-recourse (except for customary representations, warranties, covenants and indemnities made in connection with such facilities) to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (other than a Securitization Subsidiary).

“Rating Category” means:

- (1) with respect to S&P, any of the following categories: AAA, AA, A, BBB, BB, B, CCC, CC, C and D (or equivalent successor categories); and

BOOK-ENTRY, DELIVERY AND FORM

Each series of Notes sold to non-U.S. persons in offshore transactions outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act will initially be represented by global notes in registered form without interest coupons attached (the “Global Notes”). The Global Notes representing the 2024 Dollar Notes (the “2024 Dollar Global Notes”), the Global Notes representing the 2027 Dollar Notes (the “2027 Dollar Global Notes” and, together with the 2024 Dollar Global Notes, the “Dollar Global Notes”), the Global Notes representing the 2025 Euro Notes (the “2025 Euro Global Notes”) and the Global Notes representing the 2029 Euro Notes (the “2029 Euro Global Notes” and, together with the 2025 Euro Notes, the “Euro Global Notes”) will be deposited, on the Issue Date, with a common depository and registered in the name of the nominee of the common depository for the accounts of Euroclear and Clearstream.

Ownership of interests in the Global Notes (the “Book-Entry Interests”) will be limited to persons that have accounts with Euroclear and/or Clearstream or persons that may hold interests through such participants. Book-Entry Interests will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained in book-entry form by Euroclear and Clearstream and their participants.

The Dollar Notes will be issued in registered, global form in minimum denominations of $200,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof and the Euro Notes will be issued in registered, global form in minimum denominations of €100,000 and integral multiples of €1,000 in excess thereof.

The Book-Entry Interests will not be held in definitive form. Instead, Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, will credit on their respective book-entry registration and transfer systems a participant’s account with the interest beneficially owned by such participant. The laws of some jurisdictions may require that certain purchasers of securities take physical delivery of such securities in definitive form. The foregoing limitations may impair the ability to own, transfer or pledge Book-Entry Interests. In addition, while the Notes are in global form, owners of interest in the Global Notes will not have the Notes registered in their names, will not receive physical delivery of the Notes in certificated form and will not be considered the registered owners or “holder” of the Notes under the Indenture for any purpose.

So long as the Notes are held in global form, the common depository for Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable (or their respective nominees), will be considered the holders of Global Notes for all purposes under the Indenture. As such, participants must rely on the procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, and indirect participants must rely on the procedures of Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, and the participants through which they own Book-Entry Interests in order to exercise any rights of holders under the Indenture.

Beneficial interests in the Global Notes may not be exchanged for Definitive Registered Notes except in the limited circumstances described below. See “—Exchange of Global Notes for Definitive Registered Notes.” Except in the limited circumstances described below, owners of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will not be entitled to receive physical delivery of Notes in certificated form.

The Notes will bear the legend described under “Notice to Investors.”

Exchange of Global Notes for Definitive Registered Notes

Under the terms of the Indenture, owners of Book-Entry Interests will receive definitive notes in registered form (the “Definitive Registered Notes”):

- (1) if Euroclear or Clearstream notifies the Company that it is unwilling or unable to continue to act as depository and a successor depository is not appointed by the Company within 120 days; or
- (2) if the owner of a Book-Entry Interest requests such exchange in writing delivered through Euroclear or Clearstream following an event of default under the Indenture.

Euroclear and Clearstream have advised the Company that upon request by an owner of a Book-Entry Interest described in the immediately preceding clause (2), their current procedure is to request that the Company issues or causes to be issued Notes in definitive registered form to all owners of Book-Entry Interests and not only to the owner who made the initial request.

In such an event described in clauses (1) and (2), the Registrar will issue Definitive Registered Notes, registered in the name or names and issued in any approved denominations, requested by or on behalf of Euroclear, Clearstream or the Company, as applicable (in accordance with their respective customary procedures and based upon directions received from participants reflecting the beneficial ownership of Book-Entry Interests), and such Definitive Registered Notes will bear the restrictive legend as provided in the Indenture, unless that legend is not required by the Indenture or applicable law.

Exchange of Certificated Notes for Global Notes

Certificated Notes may not be exchanged for beneficial interests in any Global Note unless the transferor first delivers to the Trustee a written certificate (in the form provided in the Indenture) to the effect that such transfer will comply with the appropriate transfer restrictions applicable to such Notes. See “Notice to Investors.”

Redemption of the Global Notes

In the event any Global Note, or any portion thereof, is redeemed, Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, will distribute the amount received by it in respect of the Global Note so redeemed to the holders of the Book-Entry Interests in such Global Note from the amount received by it in respect of the redemption of such Global Note. The redemption price payable in connection with the redemption of such Book-Entry Interests will be equal to the amount received by Euroclear or Clearstream, as applicable, in connection with the redemption of such Global Note (or any portion thereof). The Company understands that under existing practices of Euroclear and Clearstream if fewer than all of the Notes are to be redeemed at any time, Euroclear and Clearstream will credit their respective participants’ accounts on a proportionate basis (with adjustments to prevent fractions) or on such other basis as they deem fair and appropriate; provided that no Book-Entry Interest of less than €100,000 (in the case of the Euro Global Notes) or $200,000 (in the case of the Dollar Global Notes) principal amount at maturity, or less, may be redeemed in part.

Payments on Global Notes

Payments of amounts owing in respect of the Global Notes (including principal, premium, interest, additional interest and Additional Amounts) will be made by the Company to the paying agent. The paying agent will, in turn, make such payments to the common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, which will distribute such payments to participants in accordance with their respective procedures.

Under the terms of the Indenture governing the Notes, the Company, the Trustee and the Agents (as defined in the Indenture) will treat the registered holder of the Global Notes (for example, Euroclear or Clearstream (or their respective nominees)) as the owner thereof for the purpose of receiving payments and for all other purposes. Consequently, neither the Company, the Trustee nor any Agent nor any of their respective agents has or will have any responsibility or liability for:

- any aspects of the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant relating to or payments made on account of a Book-Entry Interest, for any such payments made by Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant relating to, or payments made on account of, a Book-Entry Interest;
- payments made by Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant, or for maintaining, supervising or reviewing the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant relating to or payments made on account of a Book-Entry Interest; or
- Euroclear, Clearstream or any participant or indirect participant.

Payments by participants to owners of Book-Entry Interests held through participants are the responsibility of such participants, as is now the case with securities held for the accounts of subscribers registered in “street name.”

Currency of Payment for the Global Notes

The principal of, premium, if any, and interest on, and all other amounts payable in respect of (including Additional Amounts), the Global Notes will be paid to holders of interests to such Notes (the “Euroclear/Clearstream Holders”) through Euroclear and/or Clearstream in U.S. dollars with respect to the Dollar Notes or in euro with respect to the Euro Notes.

Action by Owners of Book-Entry Interests

Euroclear and Clearstream have advised the Company that they will take any action permitted to be taken by a holder of Notes (including the presentation of Notes for exchange as described above) only at the direction of one or more participants to whose account the Book-Entry Interests in the Global Notes are credited and only in respect of such portion of the aggregate principal amount of Notes as to which such participant or participants has or have given such direction. Euroclear and Clearstream will not exercise any discretion in the granting of consents or waivers or the taking of any other action in respect of the Global Notes. However, if there is an event of default under the Notes, each of Euroclear and Clearstream, at the request of the holders of the Notes, reserve the right to exchange the Global Notes for Definitive Registered Notes and to distribute such Definitive Registered Notes to their participants.

Transfers

Transfers between participants in Euroclear and/or Clearstream will be effected in accordance with Euroclear and Clearstream's rules and will be settled in immediately available funds. If a holder of Notes requires physical delivery of Definitive Registered Notes for any reason, including to sell Notes to persons in states which require physical delivery of such securities or to pledge such securities, such holder of Notes must transfer its interests in the Global Notes in accordance with the normal procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Indenture.

The Global Notes will bear a legend to the effect set forth in "Notice to Investors." Book-Entry Interests in the Global Notes will be subject to the restrictions on transfer discussed in "Notice to Investors."

Information Concerning Euroclear and Clearstream

All Book-Entry Interests will be subject to the operations and procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, as applicable. The Company provides the following summaries of those operations and procedures solely for the convenience of investors. The operations and procedures of each settlement system are controlled by that settlement system and may be changed at any time. Neither the Company nor the initial purchasers are responsible for those operations or procedures.

The Company understands as follows with respect to Euroclear and Clearstream: Euroclear and Clearstream hold securities for participating organizations. They facilitate the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between their participants through electronic book-entry changes in the accounts of such participants. Euroclear and Clearstream provide various services to their participants, including the safekeeping, administration, clearance, settlement, lending and borrowing of internationally traded securities. Euroclear and Clearstream interface with domestic securities markets. Euroclear and Clearstream participants are financial institutions such as underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and certain other organizations. Indirect access to Euroclear and Clearstream is also available to others such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Euroclear and Clearstream participant, either directly or indirectly.

Because Euroclear and Clearstream can only act on behalf of participants, who in turn act on behalf of indirect participants and certain banks, the ability of an owner of a beneficial interest to pledge such interest to persons or entities that do not participate in the Euroclear and/or Clearstream system, or otherwise take actions in respect of such interest, may be limited by the lack of a definitive certificate for that interest. The laws of some jurisdictions require that certain persons take physical delivery of securities in definitive form. Consequently, the ability to transfer beneficial interests to such persons may be limited.

Global Clearance and Settlement under the Book-Entry System

Although Euroclear or Clearstream currently follow the foregoing procedures in order to facilitate transfers of interests in the Global Notes among participants in Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be, they are under no obligation to perform or continue to perform such procedures, and such procedures may be discontinued or modified at any time. None of the Company, any Note Guarantor, the Trustee or the Agents will have any responsibility for the performance by Euroclear or Clearstream or their respective participants or indirect participants, of their respective obligations under the rules and procedures governing their operations.

Initial Settlement

Initial settlement for the Notes will be made in U.S. dollars and euros. Book-Entry Interests owned through Euroclear or Clearstream accounts will follow the settlement procedures applicable to conventional Eurobonds in registered form. Book-Entry Interests will be credited to the securities custody accounts of Euroclear/Clearstream Holders on the Business Day following the settlement date against payment for value on the settlement date.

Secondary Market Trading

The Book-Entry Interests that trade through participants of Euroclear or Clearstream will settle in same-day funds. Since the purchase determines the place of delivery, it is important to establish at the time of trading of any Book-Entry Interests where both the purchaser's and the seller's accounts are located to ensure that settlement can be made on the desired value date.

Special Timing Considerations

You should be aware that investors will only be able to make and receive deliveries, payments and other communications involving the Notes through Euroclear or Clearstream on days when those systems are open for business.

Trustee's Powers

In considering the interests of the holders of the Notes, while title to the Notes is registered in the name of a nominee of a clearing system, the Trustee may have regard to, and rely on, any information provided to it by that clearing system as to the identity (either individually or by category) of its accountholders with entitlements to Notes and may consider such interests as if such accountholders were the holders of the Notes.

Enforcement

For the purposes of enforcement of the provisions of the Indenture by the Trustee, the persons named in a certificate of the holder of the Notes in respect of which a Global Note is issued shall be recognized as the beneficiaries of the trusts set out in the Indenture to the extent of the principal amounts of their interests in the Notes set out in the certificate of the holder, as if they were themselves the holders of the Notes in such principal amounts.

MATERIAL JAPANESE TAXATION CONSIDERATIONS

The following discussion summarizes certain Japanese tax consequences to prospective holders arising from the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes. The summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all potential Japanese tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Notes and is not intended as tax advice to any particular investor. This summary does not describe any tax consequences arising under the laws of any state, locality or other taxing jurisdiction other than Japan or any Japanese consequences other than Japanese tax consequences.

Prospective holders of the Notes should consult their own tax advisors as the Japanese or other tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of the Notes, including, in particular, the application of the tax considerations discussed below to their particular situations, as well as the application of any state, local, foreign or other tax laws.

The following description is a summary of Japanese tax consequences (limited to national taxes) to holders of the Notes, principally relating to such holders that are individual non-residents of Japan or non-Japanese corporations, having no permanent establishment in Japan, and applicable to interest and the Issue Differential (as defined below) with respect to Notes that we will issue outside Japan, as well as to certain aspects of capital gains, inheritance and gift taxes. It does not address the tax treatment of the original issue discount of the Notes bearing no interest that fall under “discounted bonds” as prescribed by the Special Taxation Measures Act or any Notes on which interest is calculated based on any indices, including the amount of our profits or assets or those of any specially-related person of ours (as defined below).

The statements regarding Japanese tax laws set out below are based on the laws in force and as interpreted by the Japanese taxation authorities as at the date hereof and are subject to changes in the applicable Japanese laws or tax treaties, conventions or agreements or in the interpretation thereof after such date. Prospective investors should note that the following description of Japanese taxation is not exhaustive.

Representation upon Initial Distribution

By subscribing for Notes, an investor will be deemed to have represented that it is a “gross recipient,” i.e., (1) a beneficial owner that is, for Japanese tax purposes, neither an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, nor an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a person having a special relationship with us as described in Article 6, Paragraph 4 of the Special Taxation Measures Act, or a specially-related person of ours, (2) a Japanese financial institution or financial instruments business operator as designated in Article 3-2-2, Paragraph 28 of the Cabinet Order (Cabinet Order No. 43 of 1957, as amended) relating to the Special Taxation Measures Act that will hold the Notes for its own proprietary account or (3) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation whose receipt of interest on the Notes will be made through a payment-handling agent in Japan as defined in Article 2-2, Paragraph 2 of the Cabinet Order. The Notes are not as part of the initial distribution by the Initial Purchasers at any time to be directly or indirectly offered or sold in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any person other than a gross recipient, except as specifically permitted under the Special Taxation Measures Act.

Interest and Issue Differential

Interest payments on the Notes will be subject to Japanese withholding tax unless the holder establishes that the Note is held by or for the account of a holder that is (1) for Japanese tax purposes, neither (a) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, nor (b) an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a specially-related person of ours, and in compliance with certain requirements for tax exemption under the Special Taxation Measures Act, or (2) a Japanese designated financial institution or financial instruments business operator as described in Article 6, Paragraph 9 of the Special Taxation Measures Act which complies with the requirement for tax exemption under that Paragraph.

Interest payments on the Notes to an individual resident of Japan, to a Japanese corporation not described in item (2) of the preceding paragraph, to an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a specially-related person of ours, or to an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is not a specially-related person of ours and does not comply with the requirements described in item (1) of the preceding paragraph will be subject to deduction in respect of Japanese income tax at a rate of 15.315% of the amount specified in subparagraphs (a) or (b) below, as applicable:

- (a) if interest is paid to an individual resident of Japan, to a Japanese corporation, or to an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a specially-related person of ours (except as provided in subparagraph (b) below), the amount of such interest; or

- (b) if interest is paid to a public corporation, a financial institution, a financial instruments business operator or certain other entities through a Japanese payment-handling agent, as provided in Article 3-3, Paragraph 6 of the Special Taxation Measures Act in compliance with the requirement for tax exemption under that paragraph, the amount of such interest minus the amount accrued during the period held, without any cessation, by such entities as provided in the Cabinet Order relating to the said Paragraph 6.

A legend containing a statement to the same effect as set forth in the preceding paragraphs will be printed on the relevant Notes or global Note, as applicable, in compliance with the requirements of the Special Taxation Measures Act and regulations thereunder.

If the recipient of interest on the Notes is a holder that is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation, having no permanent establishment in Japan, or having a permanent establishment in Japan but the receipt of the interest on the Notes is not attributable to the business thereof carried on in Japan through such permanent establishment, that in either case is not a specially-related person of ours, no Japanese income tax or corporation tax will be payable with respect to such interest whether by way of withholding or otherwise, if such recipient complies with certain requirements, inter alia:

- (x) if the relevant Notes are held through a participant in an international clearing organization, such as DTC, Euroclear and Clearstream or through a financial intermediary, in each case, as prescribed by the Special Taxation Measures Act (each such participant or financial intermediary being referred to as a “Participant”), the requirement to provide certain information prescribed by the Special Taxation Measures Act to enable the Participant to establish that the recipient is exempt from the requirement for Japanese tax to be withheld or deducted, and to advise the Participant if the holder of the Notes ceases to be so exempted (including the case where the holder became a specially-related person of ours); and
- (y) if the relevant Notes are not held through a Participant, the requirement to submit to the relevant paying agent that makes payment of interest on the Notes a written application for tax exemption (hikazei tekiyo shinkokusho), together with certain documentary evidence, at or prior to each time interest is received.

If a recipient of interest on the Notes is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation, having no permanent establishment in Japan, which is subject to Japanese withholding tax due to its status as a specially-related person of ours or for any other reason, (1) the rate of withholding tax may be reduced, generally to 10%, under the applicable tax treaty, convention or agreement, and (2) if such recipient is not subject to Japanese tax under the applicable tax treaty, convention or agreement due to its status as a financial institution in the relevant country, such as the United States and the United Kingdom, or for any other reason, no Japanese income tax or corporation tax will be payable with respect to such interest whether by way of withholding or otherwise; provided that, in either case (1) or (2) above, such recipient shall submit required documents and information (if any) to the relevant tax authority.

If the recipient of any difference between the issue price and the redemption price of the Notes as referred to in Article 41-13, Paragraph 3 and Article 67-17, Paragraph 3 of the Special Taxation Measures Act (the “Redemption Gains”) is a holder that is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation, having no permanent establishment in Japan, that in either case is not a specially-related person of ours, no income tax or corporation tax will be withheld with respect to such Redemption Gains.

Capital Gains, Inheritance and Gift Taxes

Gains derived from the sale of the Notes, whether within or outside Japan, by a holder that is an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation, having no permanent establishment in Japan, will be, in general, not subject to Japanese income or corporation tax.

Japanese inheritance and gift taxes at progressive rates may be payable by an individual who has acquired the Notes as a legatee, heir or donee, even if the individual is not a Japanese resident.

No stamp, issue, registration or similar taxes or duties will, under present Japanese law, be payable by holders of the Notes in connection with the issue of the Notes outside Japan.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Subject to the terms and conditions of a purchase agreement dated the date of this offering memorandum entered into between the Company, the Note Guarantor and the Initial Purchasers, each of the Initial Purchasers has agreed, severally and not jointly, to purchase from us the Notes at the initial offering price set forth on the cover page of this offering memorandum minus discounts and commissions.

The purchase agreement provides that the obligations of the several Initial Purchasers to purchase the Notes are subject to certain conditions precedent and that the Initial Purchasers will purchase all of the Notes if any of the Notes are purchased. The purchase agreement also provides that if an Initial Purchaser defaults, the purchase commitments of the non-defaulting Initial Purchasers may be increased or this offering may be terminated.

The Company and the Note Guarantor have agreed, on a joint and several basis, to indemnify the Initial Purchasers against some specified types of liabilities, including liabilities under the U.S. Securities Act, and to contribute to payments the Initial Purchasers may be required to make in respect of any of these liabilities. The Company and the Note Guarantor have also agreed, on a joint and several basis, to reimburse the Initial Purchasers for certain expenses incidental to the sale of the Notes.

The Initial Purchasers are offering the Notes, subject to prior sale, when, as and if issued to and accepted by them, subject to approval of legal matters by their counsel, including the validity of the Notes, and other conditions contained in the purchase agreement, such as the receipt by the Initial Purchasers of certain legal opinions and officers' certificates confirming, among other things, the lack of any legal restriction or injunction with respect to the consummation of the offering of the Notes. The Initial Purchasers reserve the right to withdraw, cancel or modify offers to investors and to reject orders in whole or in part. After the initial offering, the Initial Purchasers may change the offering price and other selling terms.

No Sale of Similar Securities

The Company and the Note Guarantor have agreed that during the period from the date hereof through and including the date that is 45 days after the date the Notes are issued, without the prior written consent of Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch, the Company and the Note Guarantor will not offer, sell, contract to sell or otherwise dispose of any debt securities issued or guaranteed by the Company or the Note Guarantor. This provision does not apply to (i) any debt securities which either confer a right to receive payment, or by their terms are payable, in yen, or are denominated in any other currency and more than 50% of the aggregate principal amount thereof is initially distributed in Japan; (ii) any equity-linked securities; or (iii) any securities classified as equity under IFRS.

New Issue of Notes

The Notes are a new issue of securities with no established trading market. The Initial Purchasers may make a market in the Notes after completion of this offering, but will not be obligated to do so and may discontinue any market-making activities at any time without notice. If an active trading market for the Notes does not develop, the market price and liquidity of the Notes may be adversely affected.

Approval in-principle has been received for the listing and quotation of the Notes on the SGX-ST. There can be no assurance that such listing will be obtained or maintained.

Delivery, Payment and Settlement

The Company expects that delivery of the Notes will be made against payment therefore on or about the date specified on the cover page of this offering memorandum, which will be the fifth business day following the date of pricing of the Notes (this settlement cycle being referred to as "T+5").

Stabilization

In connection with this offering, the Initial Purchasers may purchase and sell the Notes in the open market. These transactions may include short sales, purchases to cover positions created by short sales and stabilizing transactions. Short sales involve the sale by the Initial Purchasers of a greater principal amount of Notes than they are required to purchase in this offering. The Initial Purchasers may close out any short position by purchasing Notes in the open market. A short position is more likely to be created if the Initial Purchasers are concerned that there may be downward pressure on the price of the Notes in the open market prior to the completion of this offering.

Stabilizing transactions consist of various bids for or purchases of the Notes made by the Initial Purchasers in the open market prior to the completion of this offering. The Initial Purchasers may impose a penalty bid. This occurs when a particular Initial Purchaser repays to the other Initial Purchasers a portion of the underwriting discount received by it because the other Initial Purchasers have repurchased the Notes sold by or for the account of that Initial Purchaser in stabilizing or short covering transactions.

Purchases to cover a short position and stabilizing transactions may have the effect of preventing or slowing a decline in the market price of the Notes. Additionally, these purchases, along with the imposition of the penalty bid, may stabilize, maintain or otherwise affect the market price of the Notes. As a result, the price of the Notes may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market. These transactions may be effected in the over-the-counter market or otherwise.

Other Relationships

Some of the Initial Purchasers and their affiliates have engaged in, and may in the future engage in, investment banking and other commercial dealings in the ordinary course of business with us or our affiliates. They have received, or may in the future receive, customary fees and commissions for these transactions. Some of the Initial Purchasers and their respective affiliates may also enter into hedging agreements with us in connection with this offering, and the proceeds from the sale of the Notes may be used to refinance loans or other indebtedness owed to one or more of the Initial Purchasers.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Initial Purchasers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of ours or our affiliates. Certain of the Initial Purchasers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with us routinely hedge their credit exposure to us consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Initial Purchasers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in our securities, including potentially the Notes. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of the Notes. The Initial Purchasers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

Selling Restrictions

General

No action has been or will be taken by us or the Initial Purchasers that would, or is intended to, permit a public offering of the Notes, or possession or distribution of this offering memorandum or any other offering material relating to the Notes, in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Persons into whose possession this offering memorandum comes are required to comply with all applicable laws and regulations in each country or jurisdiction in which they purchase, offer, sell or deliver the Notes or have in their possession or distribute this offering memorandum or any other offering material relating to the Notes.

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act. Each Initial Purchaser has agreed that it will offer and sell the Notes only to non-U.S. persons outside the United States in offshore transactions in reliance on Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act. The Notes may not be offered, sold or delivered in the United States unless they are registered under the U.S. Securities Act or an exemption from the registration requirements thereof is available. Terms used above have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act. See “Notice to Investors.”

United Kingdom

Each of the Initial Purchasers has represented, warranted and agreed that (i) it has only communicated or caused to be communicated, and will only communicate or cause to be communicated, any invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”)) received by it in connection with the issue or sale of any Notes in circumstances in which section 21(1) of the FSMA does not apply to the Company or the Note Guarantor and (ii) it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to the Notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

Japan

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and are subject to the Special Taxation Measures Act. Each of the Initial Purchasers has represented and agreed that (i) it has not, directly or indirectly, offered or sold and will not, directly or indirectly, offer or sell, Notes in Japan or to any person resident in Japan for Japanese securities law purposes (including any corporation or other entity organized under the laws of Japan), except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with, the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act; and (ii) it has not, directly or indirectly, offered or sold and will not, as part of its initial distribution, directly or indirectly offer or sell Notes to, or for the benefit of, any person other than a gross recipient or to others for re-offering or re-sale, directly or indirectly, to, or for the benefit of, any person other than a gross recipient. A “gross recipient” for this purpose is (i) a beneficial owner that is, for Japanese tax purposes, neither (x) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation, nor (y) an individual non-resident of Japan or a non-Japanese corporation that in either case is a person having a special relationship with the Company as described in Article 6, paragraph 4 of the Special Taxation Measures Act, (ii) a Japanese financial institution or financial instruments business operator as, designated in Article 3-2-2 paragraph 28 of the Cabinet Order relating to the Special Taxation Measures Act (Cabinet Order No. 43 of 1957, as amended) that will hold Notes for its own proprietary account or (iii) an individual resident of Japan or a Japanese corporation whose receipt of interest on the Notes will be made through a payment-handling agent in Japan as defined in Article 2-2 paragraph 2 of the Cabinet Order.

Bahrain

Each Lead Manager has represented and agreed that it has not offered or sold, and will not offer or sell, any Notes except on a private placement basis to persons in the Kingdom of Bahrain who are “accredited investors.” For this purpose, an “accredited investor” means: (i) an individual holding financial assets (either singly or jointly with a spouse) of $1,000,000 or more; (ii) a company, partnership, trust or other commercial undertaking which has financial assets available for investment of not less than $1,000,000; or (iii) a government, supranational organization, central bank or other national monetary authority or a state organization whose main activity is to invest in financial instruments (such as a state pension fund).

Hong Kong

The Notes may not be offered or sold in Hong Kong by means of any document other than (i) in circumstances which do not constitute an offer to the public within the meaning of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous provisions) Ordinance (Cap. 32, Laws of Hong Kong), (ii) to “professional investors” within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571, Laws of Hong Kong) and any rules made thereunder, or (iii) in other circumstances which do not result in the document being a “prospectus” within the meaning of the Companies (Winding up and Miscellaneous provisions) Ordinance (Cap. 32, Laws of Hong Kong) and no advertisement, invitation or document relating to the Notes may be issued or may be in the possession of any person for the purpose of issue (in each case whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere), which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public in Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the laws of Hong Kong) other than with respect to the Notes which are, or are intended to be, disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to “professional investors” within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571, Laws of Hong Kong) and any rules made thereunder.

Singapore

This offering memorandum has not been registered as a prospectus with the Monetary Authority of Singapore. Accordingly, this offering memorandum and any other document or material in connection with the offer or sale, or invitation for subscription or purchase, of the Notes may not be circulated or distributed, nor may the Notes be offered or sold, or be made the subject of an invitation for subscription or purchase, whether directly or indirectly, to persons in Singapore other than (i) to an institutional investor under Section 274 of the SFA, (ii) to a relevant person pursuant to Section 275(1), or any person pursuant to Section 275(1A), and in accordance with the conditions specified in Section 275, of the SFA, or (iii) otherwise pursuant to, and in accordance with the conditions of, any other applicable provision of the SFA.

Where the Notes are subscribed or purchased under Section 275 of the SFA by a relevant person which is:

- (a) a corporation (which is not an accredited investor (as defined in Section 4A of the SFA)), the sole business of which is to hold investments and the entire share capital of which is owned by one or more individuals, each of whom is an accredited investor; or
- (b) a trust (where the trustee is not an accredited investor) whose sole purpose is to hold investments and each beneficiary of the trust is an individual who is an accredited investor, securities (as defined in Section 239(1) of the SFA) of that corporation or the beneficiaries' rights and interest (howsoever described) in that trust shall not be transferred within six months after that corporation or that trust has acquired the Notes pursuant to an offer made under Section 275 of the SFA except:

- (1) to an institutional investor or to a relevant person defined in Section 275(2) of the SFA, or to any person arising from an offer referred to in Section 275(1A) or Section 276(4)(i)(B) of the SFA;
- (2) where no consideration is or will be given for the transfer;
- (3) where the transfer is by operation of law;
- (4) as specified in Section 276(7) of the SFA; or
- (5) as specified in Regulation 32 of the Securities and Futures (Offers of Investments) (Shares and Debentures) Regulations 2005 of Singapore.

Dubai International Financial Centre

Each Lead Manager has represented and agreed that it has not offered and will not offer the Notes to any person in the Dubai International Financial Centre unless such offer is: (i) an "Exempt Offer" in accordance with the Markets Rules (MKT module) of the Dubai Financial Services Authority (the "DFSA") and (ii) made only to persons who meet the Professional Client criteria set out in Rule 2.3.2 of the DFSA Conduct of Business Module.

Qatar

Each Lead Manager has represented and agreed that it has not offered or sold, and will not offer or sell or deliver, directly or indirectly, any Notes in the State of Qatar including the Qatar Financial Centre, except: (i) in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations of the State of Qatar including the Qatar Financial Centre and (ii) through persons or corporate entities authorized and licensed to provide investment advice and/or engage in brokerage activity and/or trade in respect of foreign securities in the State of Qatar.

Saudi Arabia

No action has been or will be taken in Saudi Arabia that would permit a public offering of the Notes. Any investor in Saudi Arabia or who is a Saudi person (a Saudi Investor) who acquires any Notes pursuant to an offering should note that the offer of Notes is a private placement under Article 10 or Article 11 of the Offer of Securities Regulations as issued by the Board of the Capital Market Authority resolution number 2-11-2004 dated October 4, 2004 and amended by the Board of the Capital Market Authority resolution number 1-28-2008 dated August 18, 2008 (the "KSA Regulations"), through a person authorized by the Capital Market Authority (the "CMA") to carry on the securities activity of arranging and following a notification to the CMA under the KSA Regulations. The Notes may thus not be advertised, offered or sold to any person in Saudi Arabia other than to "Sophisticated Investors" under Article 10 of the KSA Regulations or by way of a limited offer under Article 11 of the KSA Regulations. Each Lead Manager has represented and agreed that any offer of Notes will be made in compliance with the KSA Regulations.

Each offer of Notes shall not therefore constitute a public offer pursuant to the KSA Regulations, but is subject to the restrictions on secondary market activity under Article 17 of the KSA Regulations. Any Saudi Investor who has acquired Notes pursuant to a private placement under Article 10 and/or Article 11 of the KSA Regulations may not offer or sell those Notes to any person unless the offer or sale is made through an authorized person appropriately licensed by the CMA and: (i) the Notes are offered or sold to a Sophisticated Investor; (ii) the price to be paid for the Notes in any one transaction is equal to or exceeds Saudi Riyal 1 million or an equivalent amount; or (iii) the offer or sale is otherwise in compliance with Article 17 of the KSA Regulations.

United Arab Emirates (excluding the Dubai International Financial Centre)

Each Lead Manager has represented and agreed that the Notes have not been and will not be offered, sold or publicly promoted or advertised by it in the United Arab Emirates other than in compliance with any laws applicable in the United Arab Emirates governing the issue, offering and sale of securities.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS

You are advised to consult legal counsel prior to making any offer, resale, pledge or other transfer of any of the Notes offered hereby.

The Notes and the Note Guarantee have not been and will not be registered under the U.S. Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and may not be offered, sold, pledged or otherwise transferred within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as such terms are defined under the U.S. Securities Act) except pursuant to an exemption from or in a transaction not subject to the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and such other securities laws. The Notes are being offered by this offering memorandum only outside the United States to persons other than U.S. persons as defined in Rule 902 under the U.S. Securities Act in offshore transactions in reliance upon Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act.

Each purchaser of the Notes, by its acceptance of this offering memorandum, will be deemed to have acknowledged, represented to, and agreed with us and the Initial Purchasers as follows:

- (1) The purchaser understands and acknowledges that the Notes and the Note Guarantee have not been registered under the U.S. Securities Act or any other applicable securities law, the Notes are being offered for resale in offshore transactions not requiring registration under the U.S. Securities Act or any other securities laws in reliance on Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act, and none of the Notes may be offered, sold or otherwise transferred except in compliance with the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act or any other applicable securities laws, pursuant to an exemption from such laws or in a transaction not subject to such laws, and in each case, in compliance with the conditions for transfer set forth in paragraphs (3), (4) and (5) below.
- (2) The purchaser is not a U.S. person (and is not purchasing for the account or benefit of a U.S. person) within the meaning of Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act and is purchasing Notes in an offshore transaction in accordance with Regulation S.
- (3) The purchaser is purchasing the Notes for its own account, or for one or more investor accounts for which it is acting as a fiduciary or agent, in each case for investment, and not with a view to, or for offer or sale in connection with, any distribution of the Notes in violation of the U.S. Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction, subject to any requirement of law that the disposition of its property or the property of such investor account or accounts be, at all times, within its or their control and subject to its or their ability to resell such Notes pursuant to Regulation S or any exemption from registration available under the U.S. Securities Act.
- (4) The purchaser agrees on its own behalf and on behalf of any investor account for which it is purchasing the Notes and each subsequent holder of the Notes, by its acceptance of the Notes, to offer, sell or otherwise transfer such Notes prior to the end of the resale restriction periods described below only (a) to the Company, a Note Guarantor or any subsidiary thereof, (b) pursuant to a registration statement which has been declared effective under the U.S. Securities Act, (c) pursuant to offers and sales to non-U.S. persons that occur in offshore transactions outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act or (d) pursuant to any other available exemption from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, subject in each of the foregoing cases to any requirement of law that the disposition of its property or the property of such investor account or accounts be at all times within its or their control and in compliance with any applicable state securities laws and any other applicable local laws and regulations. The purchaser will, and each subsequent purchaser is required to, notify any subsequent purchaser of the Notes from the purchaser or it of the resale restrictions referred to in the legend below. The foregoing restrictions on resale will apply from the closing date until the date that is 40 days after the later of the commencement of this offering and the Issue Date and will not apply after the applicable resale restriction period ends. Each purchaser acknowledges that we and the Trustee reserve the right prior to any offer, sale or other transfer pursuant to clauses (c) and (d) prior to the end of the applicable resale restriction period to require the delivery of an opinion of counsel, certifications and/or other information satisfactory to us and the Trustee.
- (5) The purchaser understands that the Notes will be represented by Dollar Global Notes or Euro Global Notes, as applicable, and that transfers of such Notes are restricted as described in this section and in the section entitled "Book-Entry, Delivery and Form."

- (6) The purchaser acknowledges that each certificate representing a Note will contain a legend substantially to the following effect:

GLOSSARY

5G	Fifth generation wireless broadband technology, based on the IEEE 802.11ac standard.
asymmetric digital subscriber line (or ADSL)	An internet access technology that allows voice and high-speed data to be sent simultaneously over local copper telephone lines.
average revenue per user (or ARPU)	Measures the average monthly revenue generated per customer. The calculation of ARPU excludes revenues that are not representative of monthly average usage such as initial activation charges, certain domestic in-roaming charges by overseas visitors and cancellation fees. SoftBank Corp. calculates ARPU based on the number of its subscribers, excluding subscribers of communication modules. ARPU is one measure of operating performance.
broadband	A descriptive term for evolving digital technologies that provide consumers with a signal-switched facility offering integrated access to voice, high-speed data service, video-on-demand services and interactive delivery services.
churn	The number of customers who terminate their service in any particular period.
churn rate	In our Domestic Telecommunications segment, churn rate is a measure that tracks customer retention by showing the percentage of subscribers who terminate their service (“churn”) relative to the total mobile main subscriber base for a given period (excluding subscribers who switch between SoftBank and Y!mobile using MNP). In our Sprint segment, churn rate is calculated by dividing net subscriber deactivations for the quarter by the sum of the average number of subscribers for each month in the quarter.
FDD-LTE	See long-term evolution.
fiber-to-the-home (or FTTH)	An optical access network in which the optical network unit is on or within the customer’s premises. Although the first-connected capacity of an FTTH network varies, the upgrade capacity of an FTTH network exceeds all other transmission media.
GB	Gigabyte, a measure of data representing approximately one billion bytes of information.
interconnect	The connection of one telecommunications carrier’s operator’s network to another or of a piece of telephone equipment to the telephone network.
interconnection fee	The charge levied by one telecommunications carrier to another for interconnection between their networks.
IoT	The Internet of Things.
IP	Internet protocol.
IP telecommunications	The transmission of telephone calls over an IP network.
ISP	Internet service provider.
long-term evolution (or LTE)	An advanced wireless communications standard that achieves high-speed communications comparable to optic fiber. There are two LTE systems: FDD (frequency division duplex) and TDD (time division duplex). The FDD system assigns uplink and downlink communications to a pair of different frequency bandwidths, and is referred to as FDD-LTE. The TDD system uses the same frequency bandwidth for both uplink and downlink, and is referred to as TD-LTE. LTE-Advanced is a fourth generation (4G) high-speed wireless communication standard, capable of downlink speeds of more than 1 Gbps under certain system configurations.

main mobile subscribers	Subscribers of smartphones, feature phones, tablets, mobile data communications devices and others, such as voice call SIMs. These are all sources of revenue and profit and we have concentrated our efforts on acquiring and maintaining such subscribers.
MHz-pop	A telecommunications industry metric equivalent to one megahertz of bandwidth multiplied by the population of the area covered in a given spectrum license.
personal handy-phone system (or PHS)	A mobile network system operating in the 1880-1930 MHz frequency band with cells that are generally smaller and typically measure tens or at most hundreds of meters as opposed to multi-kilometer cells of more standard devices.
subscriber	An account for any particular telecommunications service. With respect to our Domestic Telecommunications segment, the number of mobile service subscribers is based on the cumulative number of assigned telephone numbers, including telephone numbers assigned to tablets, modules and PHS. The number of SoftBank Hikari subscribers is based on the cumulative number of users for which the physical connection of a fiber-optic line at the central office of NTT East or NTT West has been completed and includes the number of subscribers to SoftBank Air . With respect to our Sprint segment, a subscriber is defined as an individual line of service associated with each device activated by a customer. Subscribers that transfer from their original service category classification to another platform, or another service line within the same platform, are reflected as a net loss to the original service category and a net addition to their new service category.
TD-LTE	See long-term evolution.
traffic	Calls or other transmissions being sent and received over a communications network.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of SoftBank Group Corp.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statement of financial position of SoftBank Group Corp. and its subsidiaries (the "Company") as of March 31, 2017, and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to consolidated financial statements, all expressed in Japanese yen.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of SoftBank Group Corp. and its subsidiaries as of March 31, 2017, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Convenience Translation

Our audit also comprehended the translation of Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and, in our opinion, such translation has been made in accordance with the basis stated in Note 2 (3) to the consolidated financial statements. Such U.S. dollar amounts are presented solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan.

3. Significant accounting policies

Accounting policies the Company has adopted have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these consolidated financial statements.

(1) Basis of consolidation

a. Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity that is controlled by SoftBank Group Corp.

The Company controls an entity when the Company is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity.

The subsidiaries’ financial statements are consolidated from the date when control is acquired (“acquisition date”) until the date when the control is lost.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with those used by the Company.

Non-controlling interests consist of those interests at the acquisition date and any adjustments for subsequent changes in those interests.

Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is generally attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

All intragroup balances and transactions and unrealized gain or loss arising from intragroup transactions are eliminated on consolidation.

Changes in the Company’s ownership interests in subsidiaries that do not result in the Company losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Company’s interests and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their interests in the subsidiaries.

Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognized directly in equity and attributed to owners of the parent.

When SoftBank Group Corp. loses control of a subsidiary, a gain or loss is calculated as the difference between:

- the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest; and
- the net carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), liabilities, and non-controlling interests of the subsidiary when control is lost.

Any amounts previously recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income in relation to the former subsidiaries are reclassified to profit or loss.

b. Associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity over which SoftBank Group Corp. has significant influence in the financial and operating policy decisions, but does not have control or joint control.

A joint venture is an investment which parties including SoftBank Group Corp. have joint control based on the contractual arrangement that requires unanimous consent related to significant decisions of the business activities and have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

Investments in associates and joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method and are initially recognized at cost. The investment is adjusted thereafter to recognize the Company's interest of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date of acquisition to the date of loss of significant influence.

However, regarding preferred stock investment in associates, when the feature of preferred stock is substantively different from common stock, it is not accounted for using the equity method, and it is designated as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss ("financial assets at FVTPL"). Please refer to "(4) Financial instruments" in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" for details.

When the losses of an associate and a joint venture exceed the Company's interest in the associate and the joint venture, long-term interests that, in substance, form a part of the net investment in the company are decreased to zero, and no additional loss is recognized except when the Company incurs legal or constructive obligations to or makes payments on behalf of the associate and the joint venture.

Unrealized gains or losses on intercompany transactions with associates and joint ventures are added to or deducted from the carrying amount of the investments only to the extent of the Company's interests in the associates and the joint ventures.

Any excess in the cost of acquisition of an associate and a joint venture over the Company's interest of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities recognized at the date of acquisition is recognized as goodwill and included within the carrying amount of the investments in associates and joint ventures.

Because goodwill is not separately recognized, it is not tested for impairment separately. Instead, the entire carrying amount of the investments in associates and joint ventures, including goodwill, is tested for impairment as a single asset whenever objective evidence indicates that the investment may be impaired.

The Company applies the equity method to the financial statements of Alibaba, an associate of the Company, on a three-month time lag, as it is impracticable to conform the reporting period of Alibaba due to the contract with Alibaba. Adjustments are made for significant transactions or events that occurred during the intervening period and which were publicly announced by Alibaba.

(2) Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method at the acquisition date.

The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured as the sum of the assets transferred by the Company, liabilities assumed by the Company from the former owners of the acquiree, and the fair value at the acquisition date of the equity interests issued by the Company. Acquisition-related costs are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognized at their fair value, except that:

- deferred tax assets or liabilities and assets or liabilities related to employee benefits are recognized and measured in accordance with IAS 12 “Income Taxes” and IAS 19 “Employee Benefits,” respectively;
- liabilities or equity instruments related to share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share-based payment arrangements of the Company entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with IFRS 2 “Share-based Payment” at the acquisition date; and
- assets or disposal groups that are classified as held-for-sale are measured in accordance with IFRS 5 “Non-current Assets Held-for-Sale and Discontinued Operations.”

The excess of the consideration transferred and the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired at the acquisition date is recorded as goodwill. If the consideration transferred and the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree is less than the fair value of the identifiable net assets of the acquired subsidiary, the difference is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

On an acquisition-by-acquisition basis, the Company chooses a measurement basis of non-controlling interests at either fair value or by the proportionate share of the non-controlling interests in the recognized amounts of the acquiree’s identifiable net assets. When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Company’s previously held interest in the acquiree is remeasured at fair value at the acquisition date and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognized in profit or loss.

Amounts arising from changes in the value of interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognized in other comprehensive income are recognized in profit or loss.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the fiscal year, the Company reports in its consolidated financial statements provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. The Company retrospectively adjusts the provisional amounts recognized at the acquisition date as an adjustment during the measurement period when new information about facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date and, if known, would have affected the recognized amounts for the business combination. The measurement period shall not exceed one year from the acquisition date.

Goodwill arising in business combinations that occurred before the date of transition to IFRSs is carried over at the carrying amount under the previous accounting principles (Japanese Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, “JGAAP”) as of the date of transition to IFRSs, and recorded by that amount after an impairment test.

(3) Foreign currency translation

a. Transactions denominated in foreign currencies

The financial statements of each group company are prepared in their functional currency. Transactions in currencies other than the entity’s functional currency (foreign currencies) are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions.

Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the rates prevailing at the end of the fiscal year. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was measured.

Exchange differences arising from translation are recognized in profit or loss, except for exchange differences arising from non-monetary available-for-sale financial assets measured through other comprehensive income and cash flow hedges are recognized in other comprehensive income.

b. Foreign operations

For the purposes of presenting consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Company’s foreign operations (including goodwill arising from acquisitions and the adjustments of fair value) are translated into Japanese yen using exchange rates prevailing at the end of the fiscal year.

Income, expenses and cash flows are translated into Japanese yen by using the average exchange rates for each quarter. When the translated amounts do not approximate the amounts translated by the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions, the exchange rates at the transaction dates are used for the translation.

The exchange rates used in the translation are described in “Note 29. Foreign currency exchange rates.”

Exchange differences arising from translating the financial statements of foreign operations are recognized in other comprehensive income and cumulative differences are included in accumulated other comprehensive income.

These cumulative differences are reclassified from equity to profit or loss when the Company loses control or significant influence over the foreign operation.

(4) Financial instruments

a. Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contract provision of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value at initial recognition. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and issuance of financial liabilities other than financial assets at FVTPL and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (“financial liabilities at FVTPL”) are added to the fair value of the financial assets or deducted from the fair value of financial liabilities at initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at FVTPL and financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognized in profit or loss.

b. Non-derivative financial assets

Non-derivative financial assets are classified as “financial assets at FVTPL,” “held-to-maturity investments,” “loans and receivables,” or “available-for-sale financial assets.” The classification depends on the nature and purpose of the financial assets and is determined upon initial recognition.

All purchases and sales of financial assets made in a regular way are recognized and derecognized on a trade date basis. Purchases and sales made in a regular way refer to acquiring or disposing financial assets under a contract that requires the delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

(a) Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets are classified as “financial assets at FVTPL” when they are held for trading purposes or designated as financial assets at FVTPL.

Financial assets other than derivatives, which are mainly acquired to be sold in the short-term, are classified as held for trading purposes.

The Company designates a financial asset as a financial asset at FVTPL upon initial recognition, if:

- the financial assets are managed in accordance with the Company’s documented risk management policy or investment strategy; and
- its performance is reviewed on the fair value basis by the Company’s management to make decisions about the investment plan.

Also, if the Company is required to separate an embedded derivative from its host contract, but is unable to measure the embedded derivative separately either at acquisition or at the end of a subsequent financial reporting period, the entire hybrid contract is designated and accounted for as financial assets at FVTPL.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value. Gains or losses arising from changes in fair value, dividend income and interest income are recognized in profit or loss. Fair value of financial assets at FVTPL is measured in the manner described in “(1) Categorization by level within the fair value hierarchy” in “Note 26. Fair value of financial instruments.”

(b) Held-to-maturity investments

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity dates that the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as “held-to-maturity investments.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, held-to-maturity investments are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment. Interest income based on the effective interest rate is recognized in profit or loss.

(c) Loans and receivables

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as “loans and receivables.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment. Interest income based on the effective interest rate is recognized in profit or loss.

(d) Available-for-sale financial assets

Non-derivative financial assets are classified as “available-for-sale financial assets,” if:

- they are designated as “available-for-sale financial assets”; or
- they are classified as neither “financial assets at FVTPL,” “held-to-maturity investments,” nor “loans and receivables.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, available-for-sale financial assets are measured at fair value and gains or losses arising from changes in fair value are recognized in other comprehensive income. Fair value of available-for-sale financial assets is measured in the manner described in “(1) Categorization by level within the fair value hierarchy” in “Note 26. Fair value of financial instruments.” Exchange differences arising on monetary financial assets classified as available-for-sale financial assets, interest income calculated using the effective interest method relating to available-for-sale financial assets, and dividends received are recognized in profit or loss.

(e) Impairment of financial assets

Among financial assets other than those at FVTPL, available-for-sale equity instruments are assessed for any objective evidence of impairment at the end of the fiscal year and at the end of each quarter, and the other assets are assessed for any objective evidence of impairment at the end of the fiscal year. Financial assets are impaired when there is objective evidence that loss events occurred subsequent to initial recognition of the financial assets and when estimated negative future cash flows of the financial assets from those events can be reasonably estimated.

For available-for-sale equity instruments, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value below the cost is considered to be objective evidence of impairment. In addition, objective evidence of impairment of all financial assets could include:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or borrower;
- breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- high possibilities of borrowers’ bankruptcy or entering financial reorganization; or
- disappearance of an active market for the financial assets.

The Company assesses the existence of objective evidence of impairment individually for independently significant assets or collectively for assets with no individual significance.

When there is objective evidence of impairment on loans and receivables or held-to-maturity investments, the difference between the asset’s carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate, is recognized in profit or loss as an impairment loss. The impairment loss is recognized through the use of an allowance account, and the carrying amount of a loan and receivable is written off against the allowance account when it is considered uncollectible.

The carrying amount of held-to-maturity investments is reduced by the impairment loss directly. If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the financial asset does not exceed what the amortized cost would have been, had the impairment not been recognized.

When there is objective evidence that an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, previously recognized accumulated other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss. Impairment losses on equity instruments classified as available-for-sale financial assets are not reversed.

(f) Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset.

c. Non-derivative financial liabilities

Non-derivative financial liabilities are classified into “financial liabilities at FVTPL” or “financial liabilities measured at amortized cost” and the classification is determined at initial recognition.

Non-derivative financial liabilities are classified into “financial liabilities at FVTPL” when the entire hybrid contract, including more than one embedded derivatives, is designated and accounted for as a financial liability at FVTPL. Subsequent to initial recognition, liabilities at FVTPL are measured at fair value and gains or losses arising from changes in fair value and interest costs are recognized in profit or loss.

Financial liabilities measured at amortized cost are measured using the effective interest method, subsequent to initial recognition.

The Company derecognizes financial liabilities when the Company’s obligations are discharged, canceled or expired.

d. Derivatives and hedge accounting

(a) Derivatives

The Company is engaged in derivative transactions, including foreign currency forward contracts, currency swaps, and collar transactions in order to manage its exposure to foreign exchange rate, interest rate, and share price risks.

Derivatives are initially recognized at fair value at the date the derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently measured at their fair values at the end of fiscal year. Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognized in profit or loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as a hedging instrument. Derivative financial assets not designated as hedging instruments are classified into “financial assets at FVTPL” and derivative financial liabilities not designated as hedging instruments are classified into “financial liabilities at FVTPL.”

(b) Hedge accounting

The Company designates certain derivative transactions as hedging instruments and accounts for them as cash flow hedges.

At the inception of the hedge, the Company formally designates and documents the hedge relationship qualifying for hedge accounting, along with its risk management objectives and its strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions. At the inception of the hedge and on an ongoing basis, the Company evaluates whether the hedging instrument is highly effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of the relevant hedged item during the underlying period.

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualifying as cash flow hedges is recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity. Accumulated other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss through a line item relating to the hedged item in the consolidated statement of income in the periods when the cash flows from the hedged item affect profit or loss. Any ineffective portion of changes in fair value of derivatives is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

When the hedged forecasted transaction subsequently results in the recognition of a non-financial asset or a non-financial liability, the Company removes the associated gains or losses previously recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income and includes them in the initial amount of the cost of the non-financial asset or non-financial liability (basis adjustment).

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the Company revokes the hedging relationship, when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or exercised or when the hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting.

When hedge accounting is discontinued, any gains or losses recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income remain in equity and are reclassified to profit or loss when the forecasted transaction is ultimately recognized in profit or loss. When a forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the gains or losses recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income are reclassified immediately to profit or loss.

(c) Embedded derivatives

Derivatives embedded in non-derivative host contracts (“embedded derivatives”) are separated from the host contracts and accounted for as separate derivatives when their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the whole financial instruments, including embedded derivatives, are not measured at FVTPL. If the Company is required to separate an embedded derivative from its host contract, but is unable to measure the embedded derivative separately either at acquisition or at the end of a subsequent financial reporting period, the entire hybrid contract is designated and accounted for as financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL.

e. Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset, and the net amounts are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position when, and only when, the Company currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts, and intends either to settle on a net basis or to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

(5) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash, demand deposits and short-term investments with maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to cash and subject to insignificant risk of change in value.

(6) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Inventories mainly consist of mobile handsets and accessories. Their costs comprise all costs of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The costs are mainly calculated by the moving-average method.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(7) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are measured on a historical cost basis, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset and the initial estimated costs related to disassembly, retirement and site restoration.

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated mainly using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of each component. The depreciable amount is calculated as the cost of an asset, less its residual value. Land and construction in progress are not depreciated.

The estimated useful lives of major components of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Buildings and structures
Buildings	12 - 50 years
Other	5 - 15 years
Telecommunications equipment
Wireless equipment, switching equipment and other network equipment	5 - 30 years
Towers	15 - 42 years
Other	5 - 40 years
Furniture, fixtures and equipment
Leased mobile devices	2 - 3 years
Other	4 - 10 years

The depreciation methods, useful lives, and residual values of assets are reviewed at the end of each fiscal year, and any changes are applied prospectively as a change in accounting estimate.

Assets held under finance leases are depreciated over their estimated useful lives when there is certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term. However, when there is no certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term, assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term or their estimated useful lives.

(8) Goodwill

Please refer to “(2) Business combinations” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” for the measurement of goodwill at initial recognition. Goodwill is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses.

Goodwill is not amortized, and is tested for impairment when there is an indication of impairment in cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units to which goodwill has been allocated, and annually, regardless of any indication of impairment. Impairment is described in “(11) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

The Company’s policy for goodwill arising from the acquisition of an associate is described in “(1) Basis of consolidation” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

(9) Intangible assets

Intangible assets are measured at historical cost, less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured at cost upon initial recognition. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognized separately from goodwill upon initial recognition and are measured at fair value at the acquisition date. Any internally-generated research and development expenditure is recognized as an expense in the period in which it is incurred, except for expenditures on development activities eligible for capitalization (internally-generated intangible assets). The amount initially recognized for internally-generated intangible assets is the sum of the expenditures incurred from the date when the intangible asset first meets all of the capitalization criteria to the date the development is completed.

There are intangible assets with finite useful lives and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives.

The intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortized over the estimated useful lives. Amortization of the customer relationships is mainly calculated by the sum-of-the-digits method and intangible assets with finite useful lives other than customer relationships are amortized by the straight-line method.

The estimated useful lives of major categories of intangible assets with finite useful lives are as follows:

Software
Software related to wireless equipment	5 - 10 years
Other	3 - 5 years
Technologies	8 - 20 years
Customer relationships	4 - 24 years
Favorable lease contracts	7 - 23 years
Trademarks (with finite useful lives)	8 - 34 years
Spectrum migration costs	18 years
Other	5 - 20 years

Amortization methods, useful lives and residual values of assets are reviewed at the end of each fiscal year, and any changes are applied prospectively as a change in accounting estimate.

Favorable lease contracts are recognized as intangible assets based on the estimated fair value of the favorable portion of future cash flows if, at the time of business combinations, the terms of operating lease contracts in which the acquiree is the lessee are favorable compared to market terms.

Spectrum migration costs are the amounts that the Company incurred in connection with the costs arising from the migration of the existing users from the 900 MHz band, which SoftBank Corp. acquired, to the other frequency spectrum based on the termination campaign. Useful lives are estimated based on the actual utilization of the frequency spectrum in the past.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are as follows:

- Licenses using specific frequency spectrum granted by the U.S. Federal Communications Commission (“FCC licenses”)
- Trademarks (with indefinite useful lives)

As long as the Company acts within the requirements of the regulatory authorities, the renewal and extension of FCC licenses are reasonably certain at minimal cost. Therefore, it has been determined that FCC licenses have indefinite useful lives.

The Company determined that “Sprint,” “Boost Mobile” and other trademarks have indefinite useful lives as they can be legally utilized continuously as long as the business continues and management’s current plans are to offer services under these trademarks for the foreseeable future.

The intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and the intangible assets that are not yet available for use are not amortized. The impairment of these assets is described in “(11) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

(10) Leases

The assessment of whether an arrangement is a lease or contains a lease is made on a basis of all the facts and circumstances at the inception of the arrangement.

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever all the risks and rewards of ownership of assets are substantially transferred to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases. It is determined that all the risks and rewards of ownership of assets are transferred to the lessee when the lease terms account for most of the economic useful lives of the assets, or the present values of the total minimum lease payments are almost equal to the fair values of the assets. The lease terms are the total of the non-cancelable period and the period which is deemed to be reasonably certain that the renewal option will be exercised at the inception of the leases.

a. Finance leases

(The Company as lessee)

At inception, the Company initially recognizes finance leases as assets and the lease obligation at the amount equal to the fair value of the leased property or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the accounting policy for assets held under finance leases is consistent with that of assets that are owned. Lease payments are apportioned between finance cost and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

b. Operating leases

(The Company as lessee)

Gross operating lease payments are recognized as expenses on a straight-line basis over the relevant lease terms.

(The Company as lessor)

Gross operating lease incomes are recognized as revenues on a straight-line basis over the relevant lease terms.

(11) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill

a. Impairment of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

At the end of the fiscal year, the Company determines whether there is any indication that property, plant and equipment and intangible assets may be impaired.

If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. A cash-generating unit is the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets that are not yet available for use are tested for impairment annually regardless of whether there is any indication of impairment.

The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell, or value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

If the recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is reduced to its recoverable amount, and an impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss.

At the end of the fiscal year, the Company evaluates whether there is any indication that an impairment loss recognized in prior years for assets other than goodwill has decreased or extinguished. If such indication of a reversal of an impairment loss exists, the recoverable amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is estimated. If the recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is estimated to be higher than its carrying amount, a reversal of an impairment loss is recognized, to the extent that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the lower of the recoverable amount or the carrying amount (less depreciation and amortization) that would have been recognized, had no impairment loss been recognized.

b. Impairment of goodwill

At the end of the fiscal year and at the end of each quarter, the Company determines whether there is any indication that goodwill may be impaired.

Goodwill is allocated to each of the cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies arising from the business combination, and it is tested for impairment annually, regardless of any indication of impairment, and when there is an indication that the cash-generating unit or groups of cash-generating units may be impaired. If, at the time of the impairment test, the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit or groups of cash-generating units is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the cash-generating unit or groups of cash-generating units and then to the other assets pro rata based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or groups of cash-generating units.

Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognized directly in profit or loss and is not reversed in subsequent periods.

(12) Retirement benefits

Defined contribution plans are post-employment benefit plans under which an employer pays fixed contributions into a separate fund and will have no legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions. Defined benefit plans are post-employment benefit plans other than defined contribution plans.

The Company primarily adopts defined contribution pension plans.

SoftBank Corp. has frozen its defined benefit lump-sum plans since March 2006 and 2007. Liabilities for the frozen defined benefit lump-sum plans are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until they are paid in the form of a lump sum at the time of future retirement of employees.

Sprint has frozen its defined benefit pension plans since December 2005. Liabilities for the defined benefit pension plans are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until they are paid as pensions after the time of retirement of employees.

a. Defined contribution plans

Contributions paid for defined contribution plans are recognized as expenses in the period in which the employees render the related service. Contributions payable are recognized as liabilities.

b. Defined benefit plans

The liability recognized in respect of the defined benefit plans (the defined benefit liability) is the present value of the defined benefit obligation less the fair value of plan assets at the end of the fiscal year.

The defined benefit obligation is determined by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method, and its present value is determined by applying a discount rate based on the yield curve of high-quality corporate bonds over the approximate period of the benefit payments.

Defined benefit cost includes service cost, net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset), and remeasurements of the net defined benefit liability (asset). Service cost and net interest are recognized in net profit or loss. Net interest is determined using the discount rate described above.

The liabilities for the frozen defined benefit plans are calculated on the basis of retirement benefits vested at the time the plans were frozen. Therefore, service cost is not incurred for those defined benefit plans.

The Company's remeasurements, which comprise actuarial gains and losses and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest), are recognized in other comprehensive income and transferred to retained earnings immediately from accumulated other comprehensive income.

(13) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Provisions are measured using the estimated future cash flows, discounted using a pre-tax rate reflecting the time value of money and the specific risks of the liability, after taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation at the end of the fiscal year.

The Company recognizes asset retirement obligations, restructuring provisions, provisions for loss on interest repayment, and provisions for onerous contract as provisions.

Restructuring provisions are recognized when the Company has a detailed formal plan for the restructuring and has raised a valid expectation to those who will be affected that the Company will carry out the restructuring by starting implementation of the plan or announcing the main features of the plan.

Restructuring provisions are mainly related to network shutdown and backhaul access contracts. The details of the restructuring provision are described in "Note 23. Provisions."

Provision for loss on interest repayment is recorded based on an amount representing future expected claims in order to prepare for future claims by debtors and other, for repayment of interest paid in excess of the rate permitted under the Interest Rate Restriction Act.

(14) Treasury stock

When the Company acquires its own equity share capital ("treasury stock"), the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of income taxes), is deducted from equity. No gain or loss is recognized on the purchase, sale, or cancellation of the treasury stock. The difference between the carrying amount and the consideration on sale is recognized as capital surplus.

(15) Assets or disposal groups classified as held for sale

Assets or disposal groups, whose recoveries are expected principally through sale transactions rather than continuing use, are classified as held for sale when it is probable that the sale will be completed within one year, they are available for immediate sale in their present condition, and management commits to a plan to sell.

The Company, when committed to a sale plan involving loss of control of a subsidiary, classifies assets and liabilities of the subsidiary as held for sale when the above criteria are met, regardless of whether the Company will retain a non-controlling interest in its former subsidiary after the sale.

Assets classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of the carrying amounts and fair values less costs to sell and depreciation of property, plant and equipment and amortization of intangible assets are not conducted after the classification.

(16) Share-based payments

The Company grants stock options and restricted stock unit awards as equity-settled share-based compensation and cash-settled share-based compensation.

Equity-settled share-based compensation is measured at fair value at the grant date. The fair value of stock options is calculated using the Black-Scholes model and other, and the fair value of restricted stock units is calculated using the share price at the date of grant.

The fair value determined at the grant date is expensed over the vesting period, based on the estimate of stock options or restricted stock units that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity.

The Company regularly reviews the assumptions made and revises estimates of the number of stock options or restricted stock units that are expected to vest, when necessary.

Cash-settled share-based compensation is accounted for as liabilities and is measured initially at the fair value of the award. The fair value of the liabilities is remeasured on each closing date and the settlement date, and changes in fair values are recognized in profit or loss.

(17) Revenue

The Company's accounting policy for revenue recognition by major categories is as follows:

Domestic Telecommunications segment and Sprint segment

a. Mobile Communications service and sales of mobile handsets

The Company provides mobile telecommunications services, which consist of voice communications and data transmission to subscribers, and sells mobile handsets and accessories to customers.

In the Mobile Communications service, revenues are mainly generated from basic monthly charges, telecom service ("revenues from the mobile telecommunications service") and other fees. Also, revenues from the sale of mobile handsets ("revenues from the sale of mobile handsets") are generated from the sale of mobile handsets and accessories to subscribers or dealers.

The business flow of the above transactions consists of "Indirect sales," where the Company sells mobile handsets to dealers and enters into telecommunications services contracts with subscribers through dealers, and "Direct sales," where the Company sells mobile handsets to subscribers and enters into telecommunications services contracts directly with subscribers. The revenues are recognized respectively as follows:

(a) Indirect sales

Revenues from the sale of mobile handsets are recognized when mobile handsets are delivered to dealers, which is when risk and economic value are deemed to be transferred. Commission fees paid to dealers related to the sales of mobile handsets are deducted from revenues.

The mobile telecommunications services are recognized as revenue when services are provided to subscribers. Discounts are deducted from revenues from monthly mobile telecommunications services as a discount of mobile telecommunications charges.

Activation fees are deferred upon entering into the contract and recognized as revenues over the estimated average contract period. Upgrade fees are recognized as revenues over the estimated average usage period of handsets with the subscribers. Direct costs related to activation are deferred to the extent of the activation fees and upgrade fees and are amortized over the respective same period.

(b) Direct sales

In direct transactions, as the revenue from the sales of mobile handsets and the mobile telecommunications services, including the fees, are considered to be one transaction, the total amount of revenues is allocated to mobile handsets and telecommunications service on the basis of the fair value ratio.

When handsets are sold in installments, revenue from the sales of mobile handsets is recognized based on the fair value ratio when handsets are delivered to the subscribers. When handsets are sold in lump-sum payment, the maximum amount of revenues to be recognized by the sale of mobile handsets is set by the amounts to be received from subscribers at the sales of the mobile handsets. The amount of revenue allocated to the mobile telecommunication services is recognized when the service is provided to the subscribers.

b. Fixed-line Telecommunications service

In the Fixed-line Telecommunications service, revenues are generated mainly from voice communications and digital data transmission services, Internet provider charges, ADSL service fees, IP telephony service fees, and the usage of the network (“revenues from fixed-line telecommunications service”).

Revenues from fixed-line telecommunications services are recognized as revenues when services are provided to subscribers, based upon fixed monthly charges plus the usage of the network.

Yahoo Japan segment

In the Yahoo Japan segment, revenues are generated mainly from sponsored search advertising, display advertising, e-commerce related commission fees, revenue from membership and product sales.

Sponsored search advertising revenue is recognized when a visitor to the website clicks the advertisement. Display advertising comprises premium advertising, Yahoo! Display Ad Network (“YDN”) and other services. Revenue from premium advertising is recognized over a period in which related advertisement is displayed. Revenue from YDN is recognized when a visitor to the website clicks the advertisement on the page with the related content. Revenue from e-commerce related commission fees is recognized when the transaction occurs. Revenue from membership fees is recognized over an effective period of the membership. Revenue from product sales is recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the products are transferred to the buyer, the Company retains neither continuing managerial involvement nor effective control over the products sold, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow into the Company, and the costs incurred and the amount of revenue related to the transaction can be measured reliably.

Distribution segment

In the Distribution segment, revenues are generated mainly from distribution of mobile handsets to telecommunication service providers and retailers overseas, and sales of PC software, peripherals, and mobile handset accessories in Japan. Revenue in the Distribution segment is recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the products are transferred to the buyer, the Company retains neither continuing managerial involvement nor effective control over the products sold, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow into the Company, and the costs incurred and the amount of revenue related to the transaction can be measured reliably. For transactions conducted by the Company on behalf of third parties, revenue is presented on a net basis by excluding payment to third parties from the total consideration received from customers.

ARM segment

In the ARM segment, revenue is generated mainly from sales of licenses to ARM’s technology and royalties arising from the resulting sale of licensees’ ARM’s technology-based products.

License revenue is recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the products are transferred to the buyer, the Company retains neither continuing managerial involvement nor effective control over the products sold, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow into the Company, and the costs incurred and the amount of revenue related to the transaction can be measured reliably.

Royalty revenue is earned on sales of products containing ARM’s technology by the Company’s customers. Royalty revenue is recognized when it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow into the Company, and the amount of revenue can be reliably measured. Royalty revenue is recognized on an accrual basis in the quarter in which the customers ship products containing ARM’s technology, using an estimate based on sales trends and product information.

(18) Sales commission fees

The Company pays sales commission fees when dealers sell the Company’s mobile handsets to subscribers or acquire and retain engagement of telecommunications service between the Company and subscribers. Commission fees related to the sales of mobile handsets are deducted from the revenues from the sales of mobile handsets. Commission fees related to the acquisition and retention of engagement of telecommunications service are recognized as selling, general and administrative expenses.

(19) Income tax

Income tax expense is composed of current and deferred taxes, and recognized in profit or loss, except for taxes related to business combinations and items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the taxation authorities, using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the fiscal year.

Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, net operating loss carryforwards and tax credit carryforwards can be utilized. The recoverability of deferred tax assets is reassessed at the end of the fiscal year.

Deferred tax assets are not recognized for temporary differences from initial recognition of assets and liabilities that do not arise from business combinations and that do not impact accounting profit or taxable income.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates when it is probable that the temporary difference will reverse in the foreseeable future and when there will be sufficient taxable profits against which the temporary differences can be utilized.

Deferred tax liabilities are basically recognized for taxable temporary differences, except for:

- temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of assets and liabilities, and related transactions other than business combinations, that affect neither the accounting profit nor the taxable profit;
- taxable temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of goodwill; and
- taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, where the Company is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the fiscal year.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and income taxes are levied by the same taxation authority on the same taxable entity.

(20) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing net income attributable to owners of the parent by the weighted-average number of ordinary shares (after adjusting for treasury stocks) outstanding for the period.

Diluted earnings per share assume full conversion of the issued potential stocks having a dilutive effect, with an adjustment for net income attributable to owners of the parent and the weighted-average number of ordinary shares (after adjusting for treasury stocks) outstanding for the period.

4. Significant judgments and estimates

In preparing consolidated financial statements under IFRSs, management makes judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and carrying amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. These estimates and underlying assumptions are based on management's best judgments, through their evaluation of various factors that were considered reasonable as of the period-end, based on historical experience and by collecting available information. By the nature of its estimates or assumptions, however, actual results in the future may differ from those projected estimates or assumptions.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are continuously reviewed. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised as well as in the future periods. Significant judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts recognized in the Company's consolidated financial statements are as follows:

- judgments of whether an entity is controlled by the Company in determining the scope of consolidation ((1) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and "Note 15. Major subsidiaries");

- significant judgments for the determination of joint ventures ((1) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” and (3) in “Note 14. Leases”);
- estimates for impairment of investments accounted for using the equity method ((1) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies”);
- estimates of fair value of assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in a business combination ((2) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” and “Note 5. Business combinations”);
- fair value measurement of financial assets at FVTPL, financial liabilities at FVTPL, and available-for-sale financial assets ((4) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies,” (1) (2) in “Note 26. Fair value of financial instruments” and “Note 39. Gain and loss from financial instruments at FVTPL”);
- estimates for impairment of financial assets measured at amortized cost ((4) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” and “Note 40. Other non-operating income and loss”);
- estimates of residual value and useful life of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets ((7) and (9) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies”);
- judgments and estimates for accounting treatment of contracts including leases ((10) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” and “Note 14. Leases”);
- estimates for impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill ((11) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies,” “Note 13. Goodwill and intangible assets” and “Note 35. Other operating income and loss”);
- measurement of defined benefit obligation ((12) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” and (2) in “Note 24. Retirement benefits”);
- judgments and estimates for recognition and measurement on provisions ((13) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” and “Note 23. Provisions”);
- assessment of recoverability of deferred tax assets ((19) in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” and (4) in “Note 18. Income taxes”); and
- recognition of liabilities and expenses related to contingencies (“Note 35. Other operating income and loss” and (b) (3) b. in “Note 46. Contingency).

Relating to a transaction in which SoftBank Group Corp.’s then wholly-owned subsidiary, SOFTBANK GROUP CAPITAL APAC PTE. LTD. (“APAC,” currently Foxconn Ventures Pte. Ltd.), sold a portion of its Alibaba shares to SoftBank Group Corp., SoftBank Group Corp.’s wholly-owned subsidiary West Raptor Holdings, LLC, and third parties, for the nine-month period ended December 31, 2016, the Company had recognized deferred tax liabilities of ¥913,012 million ($8,138,087 thousand) on SoftBank Group Corp.’s expected taxable income for the next fiscal year (April 1, 2017 to March 31, 2018). SoftBank Group Corp. had also recorded deferred tax assets of ¥60,451 million ($538,827 thousand), as it was deemed probable that, in conjunction with the transaction, taxable profit would be available against which carryforwards and a deductible temporary differences could be utilized. However, because ownership of APAC’s outstanding shares was below 50% on March 31, 2017 and taxable profit was not expected at SoftBank Group Corp. for the next fiscal year, the Company did not recognize any deferred tax liabilities relating to the transaction for the fiscal year ended March 2017. In addition, SoftBank Group Corp. did not recognize any deferred tax assets for the fiscal year ended March 2017, as it was deemed probable that taxable profit would not be available against which carryforwards and deductible temporary differences could be utilized.

5. Business combinations

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

(1) ASKUL Corporation

a. Overview of consolidation

ASKUL Corporation, an associate of the Company, which primarily conducts mail order services for office supplies, became the Company’s subsidiary on August 27, 2015 as a result of ASKUL Corporation’s acquisition of its own treasury stock as resolved by its Board of Directors on May 19, 2015. As a result of ASKUL Corporation’s acquisition of its own treasury stock, the ownership ratio of ASKUL Corporation’s voting rights held by the Company rose from 41.7% (as of May 20, 2015) to 44.4% (as of August 27, 2015). The Company did not yet hold the majority of the voting rights of ASKUL Corporation; however, considering relevant facts such as the dispersion of voting rights in ASKUL Corporation and the voting patterns exercised in ASKUL Corporation’s past shareholders meetings, the Company determined that it substantially has control of ASKUL Corporation as a consolidated subsidiary.

(3) ARM

a. Overview of consolidation

On July 18, 2016 (GMT), the Company and ARM, located in the United Kingdom, entered into an agreement on the terms of a recommended all cash acquisition of the entire issued and to be issued share capital of ARM by the Company for a total acquisition price of approximately £24.0 billion (approximately ¥3.3 trillion) by means of an English court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement (“Acquisition”). The Acquisition was approved at ARM’s general meeting of shareholders held on August 30, 2016, and at the English court hearing held on September 1, 2016, and came into effect on September 5, 2016.

As a result of the transaction, ARM became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company.

b. Purpose of consolidation

The Company believes ARM is one of the world’s leading technology companies, with strong capabilities in global semiconductor intellectual property and the “Internet of Things,” and a proven track record of innovation.

The board and management of the Company believe that the acquisition of ARM by the Company will deliver the following benefits:

- Support and accelerate ARM’s position as the global leader in intellectual property licensing and R&D outsourcing for semiconductor companies

The Company’s deep industry expertise and global network of relationships will accelerate adoption of ARM’s intellectual property across existing and new markets.

- Maintain ARM’s dedication to innovation

The Company intends to sustain ARM’s long-term focus on generating more value per device, and driving licensing wins and future royalty streams in new growth categories, specifically “Enterprise and Embedded Intelligence.”

- Increased investment to drive the next wave of innovation

The Company intends to support ARM’s multiple growth initiatives by investing in engineering talent and complementary acquisitions with the aim of ensuring ARM maintains a R&D edge over existing and emerging competitors. The Company believes such an investment strategy in long-term growth will be easier to execute as a non-listed company.

- Shared culture and long-term vision

The Company believes the two companies share the same technology-oriented culture, long-term vision, focus on innovation and commitment to attracting, developing and retaining top talent. These common values will be the foundation for the strong strategic partnership necessary to capture the significant opportunities ahead.

- Maintain and grow the UK’s leadership in science and technology

The Company is investing in the UK as a world leader in science and technology development and innovation and, as evidence of this, intends to invest in multiple ARM growth initiatives, at least doubling the number of ARM employees in the UK over the next five years.

Consideration transferred is allocated to acquired assets and assumed liabilities based on the fair value on the acquisition date. Moreover, the above amounts, which are fair values based on the best estimate at present, may change in a year after the acquisition date when additional information related to facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date may be obtained.

The amounts of assets and liabilities on the acquisition date have been revised for the three-month period ended March 31, 2017 as follows: technologies, customer relationships, and trademarks are newly recognized; intangible assets and deferred tax liabilities have increased by ¥692,269 million ($6,170,505 thousand) and ¥126,714 million ($1,129,459 thousand); and goodwill has decreased by ¥563,018 million ($5,018,433 thousand). The above amount is translated at the exchange rate (GBP = JPY138.15) as of the acquisition date.

In addition, ¥29,379 million ($261,868 thousand) of amortization expenses related to intangible assets newly recognized has been recorded as “selling, general and administrative expenses” as a result of retrospective amortization from the acquisition date.

Notes:

- The components of intangible assets are as follows; the estimated useful lives are from 8 to 20 years for technologies, 13 years for customer relationships, and 8 years for trademarks.

6. Segment information

- (1) Description of reportable segments

The Company's reportable segments are components of business activities for which discrete financial information is available, and such information is regularly reviewed by the Company's Board of Directors in order to make decisions about the allocation of resources and assess its performance.

The Company has five reportable segments: the Domestic telecommunications segment, the Sprint segment, the Yahoo Japan segment, the Distribution segment, and the ARM segment.

The Domestic Telecommunications segment provides, mainly through SoftBank Corp., mobile communications services, sale of mobile devices, telecommunication services such as fixed-line telephone and data communications services for corporate customers, and broadband services for retail customers in Japan.

The Sprint segment provides, through Sprint, mobile communication services, sale and lease of mobile devices, sale of mobile device accessories, and fixed-line telecommunications services in the U.S.

The Yahoo Japan segment provides, mainly through Yahoo Japan Corporation, Internet-based advertising business, e-commerce business, and membership services.

The Distribution segment provides, through Brightstar, distribution of mobile devices overseas, and through SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp., sale of mobile device accessories, PC software, and peripherals in Japan.

The ARM segment provides, through ARM, designs of microprocessor intellectual property and related technology, and the sale of software tools. The ARM segment was newly established from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, by the consolidation of ARM in September 2016. Operating results of ARM after the acquisition date is included in the ARM segment.

Information on business segments which are not included in the reportable segments is classified in “Other.” “Other” includes mainly Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS-related business.

“Reconciliations” includes an elimination of intersegment transactions and the corporate general expenses unallocated to each reportable segment. Expenses arising mainly from SoftBank Group Corp. and SB Group US, Inc., which manages and supervises investment activities in the Internet, communication, and media fields overseas, are included in the corporate general expenses.

(2) Net sales and income of reportable segments

Accounting policies for reportable segments are the same as the policies described in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

Income of reportable segments is defined as “Operating income.” Intersegment transaction prices are determined under the same general business conditions as applied for external customers.

The Company also discloses EBITDA (i.e., segment income and loss after addition of depreciation and amortization) and Adjusted EBITDA (i.e., EBITDA after deduction of gain from remeasurement relating to a business combination, addition or deduction of other adjustments (gains are deducted)) by each reportable segment. “Other adjustments” are special items such as acquisition-related costs and impairment loss mainly included in other operating income and loss.

Income and loss, which are not attributable to operating income and loss, such as financial cost and income and loss on equity method investments, are not managed by each reportable segment and therefore these income and losses are excluded from the segment performance.

Discontinued operations are not included. The details are described in “Note 42. Discontinued operations.”

“FCC licenses” are licenses to use a specific frequency spectrum granted by the U.S. Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”). As long as the Company acts within the requirements of regulatory authorities, the renewal and extension of FCC licenses are reasonably certain at minimal cost. Therefore, it is determined that FCC licenses have indefinite useful lives.

The Company determined that the “Sprint” and “Boost Mobile” trademarks have indefinite useful lives as they can be legally utilized continuously as long as the business continues and management’s current plans are to offer services under these trademarks for the foreseeable future.

Technologies reflect excessive earning capacity in the future expected from technologies of the acquiree that had been already developed, or was already well-advanced in development, at the time of the business combinations.

Customer relationships reflect excessive earning capacity in the future expected from the existing customers of the acquiree at the time of the business combinations.

Favorable lease contracts are recognized as intangible assets based on the estimated fair value of the favorable portion of future cash flows if, at the time of business combinations, the terms of operating lease contracts in which the acquiree is the lessee are favorable compared to market terms at acquisition date. Reversal of favorable lease contracts is recognized as operating lease payments.

Game titles reflect excessive earning capacity in the future expected from the existing game titles of the acquiree at the time of the business combinations.

Spectrum migration costs are the amounts that the Company incurred in connection with the costs arising from the migration of the existing users from the 900 MHz band, which SoftBank Corp. acquired, to the other frequency spectrum based on the termination campaign.

Amortization is included in “Cost of sales” and “Selling, general and administrative expenses” in the consolidated statement of income.

Impairment losses are included in “Other operating loss” in the consolidated statement of income. The details are described in “Note 35. Other operating loss.”

The amount of “Other” included in “FCC licenses” for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 is recognized due to exchange of certain spectrum with other carriers. The details are described in “Note 35. Other operating loss.”

Increase due to “Business combinations” is as follows:

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

As a result of consolidating ASKUL Corporation as a subsidiary in August 2015, the Company recognized customer relationships of ¥40,680 million and trademarks of ¥20,130 million. The details are described in “(1) ASKUL Corporation” in “Note 5. Business combinations.”

As a result of consolidating Ikyu Corporation as a subsidiary in February 2016, the Company recognized customer relationships of ¥16,000 million and trademarks of ¥10,120 million. The details are described in “(2) Ikyu Corporation” in “Note 5. Business combinations.”

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

As a result of consolidating ARM as a subsidiary in September 2016, the Company recognized goodwill of ¥2,650,911 million ($23,628,764 thousand), technologies of ¥537,680 million ($4,792,584 thousand), customer relationships of ¥148,649 million ($1,324,975 thousand), and trademarks of ¥5,940 million ($52,946 thousand). The details are described in “(3) ARM” in “Note 5. Business combinations.”

Decrease due to “Loss of control” is as follows:

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

As a result of losing control of GungHo as a subsidiary in June 2015, game titles decreased by ¥21,610 million. The details are described in “(1) GungHo” in “Note 42. Discontinued operations.”

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

As a result of losing control of Supercell as a subsidiary in July 2016, game titles decreased by ¥47,636 million ($424,601 thousand). The details are described in “(2) Supercell” in “Note 42. Discontinued operations.”

The carrying amount of internally-generated intangible assets included in the intangible assets is as follows:

Finance lease obligations of the Company are pledged through the lessor’s retaining the property right of lease assets.

The intangible assets with limited property rights due to installment purchase are described in “(6) Assets with limited property rights” in “Note 19. Interest-bearing debt.”

Research and development costs included in “Cost of sales” and “Selling, general and administrative expenses” are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	Fiscal year ended	Fiscal year ended	Fiscal year ended

Research and development costs	¥6,242	¥64,459	$574,552

Increase in research and development costs for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 is mainly due to the consolidation of ARM.

Goodwill acquired as a part of business combinations is allocated to cash-generating units or cash-generating unit groups that are expected to benefit from the synergies arising from the combination.

Amounts of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives allocated to cash-generating units or cash-generating unit groups are as follows:

Notes:

1. SoftBank comprises SoftBank Corp. and WCP.
2. Goodwill is allocated to "Yahoo" because the benefits are expected to be realized from Yahoo Japan as a whole, not from individual cash-generating units in Yahoo Japan.

Total		¥4,767,387	¥4,803,682	$42,817,381

The recoverable amount of each cash-generating unit or cash-generating unit group is measured as follows:

Value in use: SoftBank, Marketing solution, Shopping, Settlement finance, Ikyu, Brightstar, Brightstar US and Canada region, Brightstar Latin America region, Brightstar Asia and Oceania region, Brightstar Europe and Africa region, and SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp.

Fair value less disposal cost: Sprint, Yahoo, and ARM

Value in use is assessed by discounting to the present value the estimated cash flows in the next five years based on the financial budget approved by the management, which reflects past experience and external information, using the pre-tax discount rate of 7.21%-16.17% of the cash-generating unit or cash-generating unit group (5.12%-22.11% for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016). The cash flows from after five years are assumed to increase on the basis of the growth rate of 0%-2.34% (0%-3.81% for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016).

In Sprint and Yahoo, the fair value less disposal cost is measured based on active market prices and in ARM, it is measured by discounting the cash flows which are estimated based on the business plans for the next 10 years while taking into account the future cash flows that market participants would expect to receive in accordance with their assumptions discounted to the present value using a post-tax discount rate of 9%. The cash flows from after 10 years are assumed on the basis of the growth rate of 19% on the 11th year and 10% on the 12th year. The cash flows from the 13th year onward are assumed to increase on the basis of the growth rate of 2%. Fair value is classified into level 3 as its fair value is measured using unobservable inputs.

Goodwill of Brightstar had been allocated to the entirety of Brightstar (a group of cash-generating units), which had bundled five cash-generating units (Brightstar's US & Canada, Latin America, Asia & Oceania, SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp., and Europe & Africa); however, in March 2017, its goodwill was reallocated to Brightstar, which bundled four cash-generating units except for SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp. due to the determination of business reorganization in the Distribution segment. Since impairment indicators existed, the impairment test was conducted on goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives. As a result, the recoverable amount of goodwill was less than its carrying amount and, therefore, ¥30,260 million ($269,721 thousand) of impairment loss on goodwill was recorded. Value in use was used as the recoverable amount and estimated future cash flow plan of four cash-generating units approved by the management was calculated using a pre-tax discount rate of 10.97%-16.17%.

Other than the above, as a result of an annual impairment test of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives for cash-generating units or cash-generating unit groups, no impairment loss was recognized.

As a result of reviewing the business plan of Brightstar's Latin America region, goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives were tested for impairment because there was an indication of impairment for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. As a result, the recoverable amount became negative and therefore the carrying amount of assets related to the cash-generating unit was reduced to zero. Impairment loss on property, plant and equipment was ¥8,070 million and impairment loss on intangible assets was ¥5,563 million. Value in use was used as the recoverable amount and calculated by discounting management's approved estimated future cash flow plan using a pre-tax discount rate of 22.11%. In addition, impairment loss of ¥6,086 million for goodwill allocated to cash-generating unit groups of Other is recognized.

The Company determined that for cash-generating units or cash-generating unit groups to which the goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are allocated, the recoverable amount is unlikely to fall below the carrying amount, even if major assumptions used in the impairment test change to a reasonably foreseeable extent.

14. Leases

(2) Operating leases

(As lessee)

The Company leases towers, land and buildings for the placement of telecommunications equipment, frequency spectrum, and telecommunication lines under operating leases. Certain operating lease contracts have automatic renewal options and escalation clauses.

In addition to the non-cancelable period, an automatic renewal option is included in the lease term to the extent that, at the inception of the lease, it is reasonably certain that the option will be exercised. For operating leases with escalation clauses or a portion of which is free of charge, the total lease payment amount is amortized over the lease term by the straight line method.

Cell site leases

Cell site leases in the U.S. are generally provided by the cell phone tower operators who provide tower and ground space to place Sprint-owned antennae, radio, and related equipment. The contract terms generally provide for an initial non-cancelable term of 5 to 12 years with up to five renewal options for five years each. At the establishment of the cell sites leases, it is assumed that at least one renewal option is exercised for contracts less than 10 years.

Cell site leases in Japan contain only land or buildings for the placement of cell sites. Most of the contract terms are 10 years or 20 years. At the establishment of the cell site leases, it is reasonably certain that they will be used until the contract term expires.

Spectrum leases (U.S.)

U.S. leased spectrum agreements have renewal options. For those contracts, it is reasonably certain that, at the inception of the transaction, all the renewal options will be used and terms including renewal terms are up to 30 years.

The components of the future minimum lease payments related to non-cancelable operating leases are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017

Total	¥2,888,874	¥2,645,598	$23,581,407

Operating lease payments recognized as expenses for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 totaled ¥494,579 million ($4,408,405 thousand) (for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016: ¥471,057 million).

(As lessor)

Sprint provides a device leasing program to its qualifying subscribers in the U.S. and SoftBank Corp. provides device rental service to corporate customers in Japan. The Company classifies substantially all transactions as operating leases along with the device leasing program and device rental service. At the end of the lease term of the device leasing program at Sprint, the subscriber has the option to turn in their device, continue leasing their device, or purchase the device. Since device leases are provided on the condition that subscribers maintain telecommunication services with the Company, the amount of revenue from these transactions is separated into the amount of payments to be received for device leases and other elements based on the fair value of telecommunication service and lease.

The components of the future minimum lease payments receivable under non-cancelable operating leases are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017

(3) Handset sale-leaseback

In November 2015, Sprint entered into agreements (Handset Sale-Leaseback) to sell and leaseback certain leased devices, with Mobile Leasing Solutions, LLC (MLS) and conducted the first Handset Sale-Leaseback transaction (Tranche 1 transaction).

MLS was established for the leasing business by SBLS HD US, Inc. (SBLS), a wholly-owned subsidiary of SoftBank Group Corp. and JPLS HD US, Inc. (JPLS), a company formed by Japanese leasing companies. It is contractually agreed that significant management policies and operating decisions of MLS require the unanimous consent of its Board of Directors designated by SBLS and JPLS. Accordingly, the Company accounts for MLS under the equity method as a joint venture.

Under this transaction, Sprint sold the devices and transferred the associated certain specified customer lease end rights and obligations to MLS in exchange for proceeds, and a portion of the proceeds will be settled at the end of the agreement as a deferred purchase price receivable. Simultaneously with the sale of the devices and transfer of certain specified customer lease end rights and obligations, MLS leased back each device to Sprint pursuant to the Master Lease Agreement in exchange for monthly rental payments to be made by Sprint to MLS. In addition, Brightstar has a contractual agreement with MLS to provide reverse logistics and remarketing services to MLS with respect to the devices that are returned to MLS. The terms and conditions of the transaction are negotiated and determined based on the market price and the content of the transaction.

Sprint derecognized the devices from property, plant and equipment when they were sold to MLS under the Tranche 1 transaction; however, in December 2016, it terminated the Tranche 1 transaction by repurchasing the devices and related customer lease end rights and obligations from MLS. As a result, Sprint recognized the devices, inventories and other totaling $477 million (¥55,548 million) and $16 million (¥1,826 million) respectively. The impact on the condensed interim consolidated statements of income from the termination is immaterial.

The future minimum lease payments receivable during the period under the transaction is ¥45,843 million ($408,619 thousand) (for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016: ¥28,385 million).

Of the transactions, the contractual detail of the second Handset Sale-Leaseback transaction conducted in May 2016 is different from that of the Tranche 1 transaction and certain risks related to ownership of the leased devices are not transferred and are retained in Sprint, therefore, borrowings are recognized as fund procurements utilizing the leased devices.

Outline of the transaction*

* In order to represent the main point of the transaction, the outline shows only the main components related to the transaction and the relationship between the Company and each company in a simplified manner.

17. Structured entities

(1) Consolidated structured entities

The Company owns investment funds which are structured entities consolidated by the Company. These funds are structured as venture funds in the form of partnerships and limited partnerships for investment, and designed so that the voting rights or similar rights are not determinant in evaluating control. The Company evaluated that it controls the operation of those structured entities.

The Company is engaged in investment commitment contracts with certain consolidated structured entities.

The Company has not provided, nor intends to provide, any significant financial support or other significant support to the consolidated structured entities without contractual obligation.

(2) Unconsolidated structured entities

The Company owns investment funds, which are structured entities unconsolidated by the Company. These funds are structured as venture funds in the form of partnerships, limited partnerships for investment and investment trusts, and designed so that the voting rights or similar rights are not determinant in evaluating control. The third parties control the operation of these structured entities. The funds are financed by the subscription by its partners.

The scale of the unconsolidated structured entities, the carrying amount of the investment in the entities by the Company, and the potential maximum loss exposure of the Company are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017
Total assets of the unconsolidated structured entities (aggregate amount)	¥629,519	¥523,860	$4,669,400

Total	¥(422,677)	¥ 207,105	$ 1,846,020

There is a reduction of current tax expense due to the benefit from net operating loss carryforwards, tax credit carryforwards and temporary differences that occurred in previous periods and that were unaccompanied by the recognition of deferred tax assets. The reduction of current tax expense for the year ended March 31, 2017 was ¥33,768 million ($300,989 thousand) (for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016: ¥30,023 million).

(2) Reconciliation of the statutory effective tax rate and actual tax rate

The reconciliation of the statutory effective tax rate and actual tax rate is as follows. The actual tax rate represents the ratio of income tax expenses to income before income tax.

	(Unit :%)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2017
Statutory effective tax rate	33.1	31.7
Effect to temporary difference associated with investment by sales of shares of associates between consolidated subsidiaries	—	(76.3)
Effect from evaluating recoverability of deferred tax assets	17.4	15.9
Effect from profit or loss that does not impact taxable gain or loss	2.2	(7.5)
Aggregation of income earned by controlled foreign companies	—	3.8
Loss relating to loss of control	—	3.1
Impairment loss on goodwill	—	1.3
Difference in tax rate applied to subsidiaries	(2.2)	1.1
Gain from remeasurement relating to business combination	(2.1)	(0.8)
Change of deferred tax assets and liabilities by the change of effective tax rate	(1.7)	(0.4)
Other	(0.7)	(1.0)
Actual tax rate	46.0	(29.1)

The Company is subject to income taxes, residence taxes and deductible enterprise taxes. The statutory effective tax rate for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 based on these taxes is 31.7% (for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016: 33.1%), except for foreign subsidiaries that are subject to income taxes at their respective locations.

In Japan, as the Act on the Partial Revision of the Income Tax Act (Article 15, 2016) and the Local Tax Law (Article 13, 2016) were enacted in the Diet on March 29, 2016, the statutory effective tax rate was changed from the fiscal year on and after April 1, 2016.

Notes:

- The Company recognizes deferred tax assets related to the entities that recorded a loss in either the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 or 2016, in the amount of ¥10,306 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, net operating loss carryforwards and tax credit carryforwards can be utilized.
- The increase in deferred tax liabilities from “Temporary difference associated with investment in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures” is mainly due to the recognition of deferred tax liabilities on temporary differences on investment which mainly arose from dilution gain from changes in equity interest and income on equity method investments related to Alibaba. The amount of deferred tax liability recognized as of March 31, 2016 is ¥327,343 million.

Notes:

- The increase from “Business combination” is mainly due to the consolidation of ARM. The details are described in “(3) ARM” in “Note 5. Business combinations.”
- The Company recognizes deferred tax assets related to the entities that recorded a loss in either the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 or 2017, in the amount of ¥11,062 million ($98,601 thousand) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, net operating loss carryforwards and tax credit carryforwards can be utilized.

3. The increase in deferred tax assets from “Temporary difference associated with investment in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures” is due to the recognition of deferred tax assets on temporary differences on investment which arose from changes in the carrying amount on a tax basis, due to the sales of Alibaba shares to a subsidiary of the Company. The amount of deferred tax assets recognized as of March 31, 2017 is ¥229,980 million ($2,049,915 thousand).
4. The decrease in deferred tax liabilities from “Temporary difference associated with investment in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures” is mainly due to the write-off of deferred tax liabilities on temporary differences on investment which arose from sales of Alibaba shares. The amount of deferred tax liabilities recognized as of March 31, 2017 is ¥7,747 million ($69,053 thousand).
5. The increase in deferred tax liabilities from “Other” is mainly due to the recognition of deferred tax liabilities of ¥38,979 million ($347,437 thousand) for taxable profits in the foreseeable future, resulting from the sales of Supercell shares to a foreign subsidiary of the Company. In addition, deferred tax expenses of ¥38,979 million ($347,437 thousand) is included in “Net income from discontinued operations” in the consolidated statement of income for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position are as follows:

(2) Transaction for sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract

On June 10, 2016, West Raptor Holdings, LLC ("WRH LLC"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a variable prepaid forward contract to sell Alibaba shares with a newly formed trust, Mandatory Exchangeable Trust (the "Trust"), and received proceeds of ¥578,436 million ($5.4 billion) as advances received on the sale.

The Trust, on the other hand, utilized Alibaba shares scheduled to be transferred from WRH LLC at the time of settlement under the contract and issued $6.6 billion of Mandatory Exchangeable Trust Securities ("Trust Securities") which are mandatorily exchangeable into American depository shares ("ADSs") of Alibaba. The proceeds from the sale received by WRH LLC from the Trust was $5.4 billion, which is after certain amounts from the $6.6 billion total of Trust Securities were deducted in order to purchase U.S. Treasury securities, which would fund distributions on the Trust Securities, and to cover expenses for the issuance of the Trust Securities.

The settlement of the Alibaba shares based on the variable prepaid forward contract is conducted concurrently with the exchange of Trust Securities. At the exchange date, which is expected to be the first scheduled trading day after June 1, 2019, Trust Securities are exchanged for a certain number of ADSs, determined by reference to the trading price of the ADSs at that time, and the number of Alibaba shares sold by the variable prepaid forward contract is determined by this number of ADSs. A cap and a floor are set for the number of shares settled, and the variable prepaid forward contract is classified as a hybrid financial instrument with embedded derivatives of collar transaction.

The Company accounts for the variable prepaid forward contract by bifurcating the main contracts and embedded derivatives. The Company received ¥578,436 million ($5,155,860 thousand) and initially recognized ¥674,023 million ($6,007,871 thousand) as financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares by variable prepaid forward contract and ¥95,587 million ($852,010 thousand) as derivative assets. Subsequent to initial recognition, financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares through the variable prepaid forward contract are measured at amortized cost and embedded derivatives are measured at fair value; ¥715,448 million ($6,377,110 thousand) is recognized as financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares through the variable prepaid forward contract in interest-bearing debt (non-current liabilities) and ¥143,935 million ($1,282,958 thousand) is recognized as derivative liabilities in other financial liabilities (non-current liabilities) in the consolidated statement of financial position as of March 31, 2017; ¥232,729 million ($2,074,418 thousand) is recognized as a derivative loss in the consolidated statement of income for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017. The details are described in "(2) Financial risk management a. Market risk (b) Price risk" in "Note 25. Financial instruments."

WRH LLC has the option ("cash settlement option") to settle the variable prepaid forward contract by either delivering cash or a combination of cash and Alibaba shares. If WRH LLC elects the cash settlement option, the cash equivalent to the fair value of the number of shares for the settlement, which is determined by the transaction price of ADSs, will be paid.

Also, WRH LLC has the option ("early settlement option") to settle the variable prepaid forward contract prior to the scheduled settlement date. Settlement of the variable prepaid forward contract may be made prior to the scheduled settlement date if WRH LLC elects the early settlement option or under certain circumstances.

Alibaba shares held by WRH LLC are pledged as collateral. The Company applies the equity method to these shares and they are included in "Investments accounted for using the equity method" in the consolidated statement of financial position as of March 31, 2017. The carrying amount of Alibaba shares pledged as collateral by the Company is ¥154,440 million ($1,376,593 thousand) as of March 31, 2017.

Outline of the transaction

Note:

In order to represent the main point of the transaction, the outline shows only the main components related to the transaction and the relationship between the Company and each company in a simplified manner.

(3) Financial covenants

a. Financial covenants on interest-bearing debts of SoftBank Group Corp.

SoftBank Group Corp.'s interest-bearing debt includes financial covenants and the major financial covenants are as follows:

- The amount of SoftBank Group Corp.'s net assets at the end of the fiscal year must not fall below 75% of SoftBank Group Corp.'s net assets at the end of the previous year.
- The consolidated statement of financial position of the Company at the end of the fiscal year must not show a net capital deficiency. The statement of financial position of SoftBank Corp. at the end of the fiscal year must not show a net capital deficiency.
- In the Company's consolidated financial statements, operating income (loss) or net income (loss) attributable to the owner of the parent company must not result in losses for two consecutive years.
- Adjusted net interest-bearing debts¹ or leverage ratios² designated in the loan agreement must not exceed certain respective amounts or numbers at the end of each annual reporting period and at the end of the second quarter. The threshold amounts of adjusted net interest-bearing debts and leverage ratios shall be softened when the balance of cash and cash equivalents and the fair value of particular listed shares held by SoftBank Group Corp. exceed certain amounts, respectively.

Notes:

- Adjusted net interest-bearing debts:
Amounts deducting cash and cash equivalents from interest-bearing debts in the consolidated statement of financial position. Certain adjustments are made such as excluding certain listed subsidiaries such as Sprint from the subject.
- Leverage ratio:
Adjusted net interest-bearing debt / adjusted EBITDA³
- Adjusted EBITDA:
Certain adjustments are made to EBITDA such as excluding listed subsidiaries such as Sprint.

b. Financial covenants on interest-bearing debts of Sprint

Major covenants on the interest-bearing debt issued by Sprint are as follows:

- Holder of a portion ($24.1 billion) of interest-bearing debts of Sprint are provided with the right to require Sprint to repurchase the interest-bearing debts if there is a change of control and if there is a decline, to a certain extent, in ratings of the applicable interest-bearing debts by the Rating Services.
- It is required that as of the last day of each quarter, Sprint's ratio of total indebtedness¹ to adjusted EBITDA² should not exceed a certain threshold level. Exceeding the ratio could result in the maturities being accelerated. The limit for the ratio was 6.00 as of March 31, 2017.

Notes:

- Total indebtedness: the sum of Sprint's outstanding debt (excluding trade payables) and guarantee of indebtedness, with certain adjustments defined in contracts with lenders.
- Adjusted EBITDA: Trailing four quarters EBITDA including adjustments defined in contract with lenders.

(4) Borrowings related to equity securities lending contract

The Company entered into a securities lending contract regarding stocks of certain subsidiaries. As of March 31, 2017, the amount of the received cash is recognized as short-term borrowings of ¥399,402 million ($3,560,050 thousand) (as of March 31, 2016: ¥149,050 million) and included in interest-bearing debt.

Notes:

1. Sprint reflected current market assessment of specific risk in the estimate of discount rate. As a result, the discount rate in Sprint decreased for the year ended March 31, 2017. With this change, the amount of "Provisions" and "Property, plant and equipment" in the consolidated statement of financial position as of March 31, 2017 increased by ¥21,351 million ($202 million) and ¥13,920 million ($131 million) respectively. Also, the amount of "Cost of sales" in the consolidated statement of income for the year ended March 31, 2017 increased by ¥5,185 million ($49 million) and "Other operating loss" decreased by ¥2,246 million ($22 million).
2. SoftBank Corp. considered the demand of communication traffic, efficient operation of communication equipment and equipment replacement. As a result, it has become highly probable that certain communications equipment will be disposed, and SoftBank Corp. recognized asset retirement obligations. With this change, the amount of "Provisions" and "Property, plant and equipment" in the consolidated statement of financial position as of March 31, 2017 increased by ¥13,802 million ($123,023 thousand) and ¥11,418 million ($101,774 thousand) respectively. Also, the amount of "Cost of sales" in the consolidated statement of income for the year ended March 31, 2017 increased by ¥2,387 million ($21,276 thousand).

Asset retirement obligations

Asset retirement obligations are recognized by the reasonably estimated amount required for the removal of equipment, such as part of base stations, certain offices (including the head office), data centers and network centers. The estimate is based on the assumption at present and is subject to changes depending on revised future assumptions.

Restructuring provision

The restructuring provision consists mainly of a network shutdown provision and backhaul² access provision.

(Network shutdown provision)

The network shutdown provision resulted from Sprint recognizing lease exit costs mainly related to the shutdown of the Nextel and Clearwire platform. The majority of the remaining network shutdown provision is expected to be utilized within 5-7 years. The amount and timing of these costs are estimated based upon current network plans which are subject to modification.

(Backhaul access provision)

The backhaul access provision reflects exit costs related to payments that will continue to be made under Sprint's backhaul access contracts for which it will no longer be receiving any economic benefit. The majority of the backhaul access provision relates to Sprint's network modernization activities and is expected to be utilized by December 31, 2018. The amount and timing of these costs are estimates based upon current network plans which are subject to modifications.

Note:

² Backhaul is an intermediary network that connects the cell towers to the local switching center.

Provision for loss on interest repayment

Provision for loss on interest repayment is recorded based on an amount representing future expected claims in order to prepare for future claims by debtors and others, for repayment of interest paid in excess of the rate permitted under the Interest Rate Restriction Act. The amount of claims for the interest repayment might fluctuate from changes in market environment and other factors.

Provision for onerous contract

SoftBank Corp. recognized provision for the excess of expected future cost of delivery for a contracted communication service over its contracted amount.

Most of the provision is expected to be used by March 31, 2019. The amount and the expected timing of payment are based on the current network plan and are subject to change.

24. Retirement benefits

The Company primarily has defined contribution pension plans for its employees.

(1) Defined contribution plans

Retirement benefit cost of defined contribution plans is as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2017	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2017
Retirement benefit cost of defined contribution plans	¥10,678	¥8,676	$77,333

(2) Defined benefit plans

(Japan)

SoftBank Corp. has frozen its defined benefit lump-sum plans since March 2007 and 2006. All of the employees who worked at SoftBank Corp. at the time when the defined benefit lump-sum plans were frozen are still maintained within the frozen defined benefit lump-sum plans.

SoftBank Corp. is responsible for providing the defined benefit lump-sum plans to recipients directly. Obligations for the frozen defined benefit lump-sum plans are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until the benefits are paid to employees in the form of a lump sum payment at the time of retirement.

(U.S.)

Sprint has a defined benefit pension plan for certain employees. Sprint has frozen its defined benefit pension plan since December 2005. Obligations for the frozen defined benefit pension plan are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until the benefits are paid to employees at the time of retirement.

The targeted investment allocation ratio is set based on an asset allocation policy for the investment portfolio of the pension plan to achieve a long-term nominal rate of return, net of fees, which exceeds the plan's long-term expected rate of return on investments for funding purposes.

The plan's long-term expected rate of return on investments for funding purposes is 7.75% as of March 31, 2017 (7.75% as of March 31, 2016). The current targeted investment allocation ratio is disclosed below. Actual allocations are allowed to deviate from target allocation percentages within a range for each asset class as defined in the investment policy.

c. Actuarial assumptions

The significant actuarial assumptions used to determine the present value of defined benefit obligations are as follows:

	As of March 31, 2016		As of March 31, 2017
	Japan	U.S.	Japan	U.S.

d. Sensitivity analysis

Sensitivity is analyzed at the end of the period based on the movement of reasonably estimable assumptions. The sensitivity analysis assumes that actuarial assumptions other than those subject to the analysis are constant, but in reality, the movement of other actuarial assumptions may change.

The effect of the movements in significant actuarial assumptions used to determine the defined benefit obligations is as follows:

As of March 31, 2016

		Effect on defined benefit obligations
Changes in rate		Japan	U.S.	Total

e. Effects on future cash flows

(a) Funding for the plan and expected contributions to the plan for the next fiscal year

(U.S.)

The policy is to contribute the necessary amount to the plan in order to meet the minimum funding requirement, based on related regulations. The amount to be contributed to the plan for the year ending March 31, 2018 is expected to be ¥4,936 million ($43,997 thousand).

(b) Maturity analysis of the defined benefit obligation

(Japan)

As of March 31, 2017, the weighted-average duration of the defined benefit obligation is 8.9 years.

(U.S.)

As of March 31, 2017, the weighted-average duration of the defined benefit obligation is 15.2 years.

25. Financial instruments

(1) Capital management

Our policy is to realize and maintain optimum capital composition to maintain mid- and long-term sustainable growth and maximize our corporate value.

Major indicators used for our capital management are as follows:

- Equity capital
- Equity capital ratio

Note:

Equity capital is the amount of “Equity attributable to owners of the parent.” Equity capital ratio represents “Equity attributable to owners of the parent” divided by “Total liabilities and equity.”

Equity capital and the equity capital ratio are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017
Equity capital	¥2,613,613	¥3,586,352	$31,966,771
Equity capital ratio (%)	12.6	14.6

The Company is not subject to regulatory capital requirements imposed by outside institutions other than general capital requirements under the Companies Act of Japan and other laws. Also, for details regarding our financial covenants related to interest-bearing debt, please see “(3) Financial covenants” in “Note 19. Interest-bearing debt.”

(2) Financial risk management

As we operate in a wide range of markets, the Company faces a variety of financial risks (foreign exchange risk, price risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, and liquidity risk) in its operations. The Company manages its risks based on established policies to prevent and reduce these financial risks.

Derivative transactions entered into by the Company are conducted and controlled based on the Company’s internal rules and procedures for derivative transactions and are limited to the extent of actual demands.

a. Market risk

(a) Foreign exchange risk

The Company is engaged in international businesses through investments, financial contributions and the establishment of joint ventures. The Company undertakes transactions denominated in foreign currencies with foreign parties and, through lending to and borrowings from foreign subsidiaries. Consequently, there is foreign exchange risk that arises from changes in currency rates mainly in the U.S. dollar, Indian Rupee, and British pound.

To manage this risk, the Company continuously monitors exchange rates and manages exchange rate exposures. The Company also uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge the risk.

i. Foreign exchange sensitivity analysis

Exposure to foreign exchange risk on financial instruments related to U.S. dollars and Indian Rupees, our major foreign currencies, for subsidiaries whose functional currency is Japanese yen is as follows:

U.S. Dollar (Functional currency: Japanese yen)

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017

Net exposure affecting income before income tax	¥214,290	¥116,169	$1,035,467
[in asset position]

Other than the tables presented above, major exposure to foreign exchange risk on subsidiaries whose functional currency is not Japanese yen is as follows:

U.S. Dollar (Functional currency: British pound)

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017
Net exposure affecting income before income tax	¥(386)	¥87,649	$781,255
[in (liability) asset position]

Net exposure affecting income before income tax comprises the foreign exchange risk exposures from monetary financial instruments denominated in a foreign currency (including those used in internal transactions) whose exchange differences are recognized in profit or loss and the foreign exchange risk exposures from derivatives related to forecast transactions.

Net exposure affecting other comprehensive income comprises the foreign exchange risk exposures from available-for-sale financial assets whose exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income and foreign exchange risk exposures from derivatives (cash flow hedge) related to forecasted transactions.

The table below presents the effect of a 1% appreciation of the Japanese yen on income before income tax and other comprehensive income (before tax effect) regarding the financial instruments with the above foreign exchange risk exposure, assuming that all other factors are constant. The analysis does not include the effect of translating assets and liabilities of foreign operations into the presentation currency, which is detailed in “Note 29. Foreign currency exchange rates.”

ii. Foreign currency exchange contracts

Foreign currency exchange contracts are entered into, to reduce exposure to foreign exchange risk on the amount to be paid or received in certain transactions denominated in foreign currencies.

The details of foreign currency exchange contracts are as follows:

Note:

* Foreign exchange margin transactions are operated by the subsidiary, YJFX, Inc.'s foreign exchange margin transactions business.

(b) Price risk

For the purpose of business strategy, the Company holds securities traded in active markets, including listed stock, and is exposed to market price fluctuation risk.

To manage this risk, the Company continuously monitors the financial condition of security issuers and stock market fluctuations.

i. Price sensitivity analysis

The table below presents the effect of a 10% decrease in market price regarding the securities traded in active markets on income before income tax and other comprehensive income before tax effect, assuming that all other factors are constant.

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)

Also, the Company entered into a variable prepaid forward contract which is settled by Alibaba shares held by the Company. The contract includes a collar transaction that a cap and floor are set for the number of shares settled. The collar transaction is classified as a derivative instrument and its fair value is affected by the price of Alibaba shares. Derivative gain and loss, which occurred depending on fluctuation of the price of Alibaba shares, are recognized through profit or loss.

Fair value of the collar transaction is composed of intrinsic value and time value. The effect of a 10% increase in the price of Alibaba shares on income before income tax due to fluctuation of intrinsic value is a loss of $800,000 thousand, assuming that all other factors are constant. In case of consideration of time value, the impact of the loss is decreased.

Further, derivative gain and loss resulting from this collar transaction is fixed to a loss of $900,000 thousand during three-year period from initial recognition date of the derivative instruments, in June 2016, to settlement date of Alibaba shares.

The details of the variable prepaid forward contract and the collar transaction are described in “(2) Transaction for sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract” in “Note 19 Interest-bearing debt.”

ii. Option contracts

The details of option contracts are as follows:

(c) Interest rate risk

The Company raises funds through issuing interest-bearing debt. Certain interest-bearing debt is issued with floating interest rates, and is exposed to interest rate risk.

Interest-bearing debt with floating interest rates has the risk of increased interest expenses due to rising interest rates. In order to prevent and reduce interest rate fluctuation risk, the Company maintains an appropriate mixture of fixed and floating interest rate debt. For certain borrowings and bonds with floating interest rates, the Company also utilizes derivative transactions, such as interest rate swaps, in order to hedge interest rate fluctuation risk, converting floating interests into fixed interests. For floating interest rate debt, the Company continuously monitors interest rate fluctuations.

i. Interest rate sensitivity analysis

The table below presents the effect of a 1% increase in interest rates regarding the floating interest rate debt on income before income tax in the consolidated statement of income, assuming that all other factors are constant. The analysis does not include floating interest rate debt whose interests are fixed by interest rate swaps and other derivative transactions.

b. Credit risk

In the course of the Company's business, trade and other receivables, and other financial assets (including deposits, equity securities and derivatives) are exposed to the credit risk of its counterparties.

In order to prevent and reduce the risk, the Company does not expose itself to significant concentrations of credit risk for such receivables and financial assets. To manage its credit risk, the Company performs due date controls and balance controls for each customer in accordance with its internal customer credit management rules and regularly monitors major customers' credit status.

The carrying amount of financial instruments, net of impairment, which is presented in the consolidated statement of financial position, as well as the amount of lending commitments and guaranteed obligations, represents the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk on financial assets. The value of collateral held and other credit enhancements are not included. The details of lending commitments and guaranteed obligations are described in "(1) Lending commitments" and "(2) Credit guarantees" in "Note 46. Contingency."

There were no financial or non-financial assets acquired as a result of foreclosure of collateral or enforcement of other credit enhancements during the years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017.

c. Liquidity risk

In order to prevent and reduce liquidity risk, the Company maintains access to diversified fundraising sources including both indirect financing, such as bank loans and leases, and direct financing, such as issuance of bonds and commercial paper and securitization, taking market conditions and its current/non-current debt ratios into consideration. As for fund management, the Company invests its funds in short-term deposits and a money management fund.

The Company also continuously monitors its forecasted and actual cash flows and liquid funds.

(a) Commitment lines of credit and other credit facilities

The Company has entered into commitment lines of credit and other credit facilities with various financial institutions to reduce liquidity risk. The Company’s credit facilities are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)

Notes:

1. Among the financial assets at FVTPL, the amount of financial assets designated as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss is ¥589,250 million ($5,252,251 thousand).
2. Regarding Handset Sale-Leaseback Tranche 2 financing obligation that Sprint implemented in May 2016, the Company designated it as a financial liability that is measured at fair value through profit or loss. This is a transaction with MLS which is a joint venture of the Company. The terms and conditions of the transaction are negotiated and determined based on the market price and the content of transaction.

26. Fair value of financial instruments

(1) Categorization by level within the fair value hierarchy

Financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis after initial recognition are classified into three levels of the fair value hierarchy based on the observability and significance of inputs used for the measurement.

The fair value hierarchy is defined as follows in descending order of level:

Level 1: Fair value is measured using quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Fair value is measured using inputs other than Level 1 that are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Fair value is measured using unobservable inputs.

If the fair value measurement uses different levels of inputs, the fair value is categorized based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the entire fair value measurement.

Transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy are recognized as if they have occurred at the beginning of each quarter.

There were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 during the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017.

The table below presents financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy.

The major valuation techniques for financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis are as follows:

a. Equity securities and bonds

Equity securities and bonds are measured using quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities if such prices are available, and are classified as Level 1. Where such quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities are not available, they are measured using quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, quoted prices of comparable companies and valuation techniques such as the discounted cash flow model. They are classified as Level 2 if all significant inputs such as quoted prices and discount rates that are used for the measurement are observable, whereas if inputs include significant unobservable inputs, they are classified as Level 3.

b. Derivative financial assets and derivative financial liabilities

The fair value of derivative financial instruments is measured using valuation techniques such as the discounted cash flows model. Derivative financial instruments are classified as Level 2 if all significant inputs such as foreign currency exchange rates and discount rates that are used for the measurement are observable, whereas if inputs include significant unobservable inputs, they are classified as Level 3.

c. Interest-bearing debt

The fair value of interest-bearing debt is measured using the discounted cash flows model. The model uses unobservable inputs, such as customer churn rates, customer upgrade probabilities, and the likelihood that Sprint will elect the Exchange Option¹ versus the termination option² upon customer upgrade, resulting in a Level 3 classification.

Notes:

1. The option to transfer the title in the new device to the borrower in exchange for the title in the original device upon customer upgrade, in order to continue the borrowings.
2. The option that Sprint terminates the borrowings.

(2) Fair value measurements of financial instruments that are categorized as Level 3

a. Valuation techniques and inputs

The following table shows information about the valuation techniques used and the significant unobservable inputs used in the Level 3 fair value measurements.

Equity securities		Ranges of unobservable inputs
		As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017
Valuation techniques	Unobservable inputs
Price of recent investment	Discount for lack of marketability	10.0% – 45.0%	10.0% – 35.0%
	Control premium	5.0% – 10.0%	5.0% – 10.0%
Discounted cash flow	Cost of capital	16.9%	—
	Perpetual growth rate	5.2%	—
	Discount for lack of marketability	15.0%	—
	Discount for non-control interest	17.0%	—

b. Sensitivity Analysis

Of the above unobservable inputs, perpetual growth rate and control premiums have a positive correlation with the fair value of equity securities, whereas cost of capital, discount for non-controlling interest, and discount for lack of marketability have a negative correlation with the fair value of equity securities.

c. Valuation processes

Fair value is measured by our personnel in the treasury and accounting departments based on internal regulations, using the most appropriate valuation techniques and inputs that reflect the nature, characteristics and risks of the financial instruments subject to fair value. The fair value of financial instruments that require a high level of knowledge and experience for the valuation is measured by external specialists if the amount of such financial instruments is material. The result of the measurement conducted at the end of each quarter, including the valuation by the external specialists, is reported to the Company's Board of Directors after the analysis of fair value changes and other contents are reviewed and approved by the head of the department.

d. Roll forward of financial instruments categorized as Level 3

Roll forward of financial instruments categorized as Level 3 is as follows:

(3) Carrying amounts and fair values of financial instruments

The table below presents carrying amounts and fair values of financial instruments.

Financial instruments whose carrying amounts are reasonably similar to fair values are not included in the table above. Financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis are also excluded because their fair values are the same as their carrying amounts.

The major valuation techniques for fair value measurements of the above financial liabilities are as follows:

a. Long-term borrowings

Fair values of the non-current portion of long-term borrowings with floating interest rates are measured based on the discounted cash flow method using observable inputs such as market interests, and the measurement is categorized as Level 2. Fair values of the non-current portion of long-term borrowings with fixed rates are measured based on the discounted cash flow method using an interest rate including the credit spread that would be used for a borrowing with the same terms and maturity. Those borrowings are categorized as Level 3.

b. Corporate bonds

Fair values of the non-current portion of corporate bonds are mainly categorized as Level 1 or Level 2. When the fair value is measured using quoted prices in active markets for identical bonds, it is categorized as Level 1. When the fair value is measured using quoted prices that are observable in markets that are not active for identical bonds, it is categorized as Level 2. The fair value of corporate bond categorized as Level 3 is immaterial.

c. Lease obligations

Fair values of the non-current portion of lease obligations are measured based on the discounted cash flow method using an interest rate considering the period until payment and credit risk, and are categorized as Level 2.

d. Installment payables

Fair values of the non-current portion of installment payables are measured based on the discounted cash flow method using an interest rate adjusted for the remaining repayment period and credit risks, and the measurement are categorized as Level 2.

27. Transfers of financial assets

The Company enters into securitization transactions involving trade and installment receivables.

The major securitization transactions involve the securitization of receivables related to wireless service charges due from subscribers and installment receivables recognized from the mobile handset sales business. For each transaction, the Company transferred receivables to financial institutions and acquired cash and subordinate interest in the transferred receivables for financing purposes. The receivables sold are not derecognized because in each transaction, the Company retains subordinate interest and, therefore, substantially retains all the risks and rewards of ownership of the transferred assets. Cash received from transferring the receivables are included in "Interest-bearing debt" under current liabilities and non-current liabilities.

The following table presents the carrying amount of financial assets and related liabilities that are transferred but do not meet the derecognition criteria, as well as the fair value where related liabilities have recourse only to the transferred assets:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017
Carrying amount of transferred assets	¥ 857,186	¥1,020,257	$ 9,094,010
Carrying amount of related liabilities	(624,563)	(735,205)	(6,553,213)

(Fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities where related liabilities have recourse only to the transferred assets)

Fair value of transferred assets	¥ 857,186	¥1,020,257	$ 9,094,010
Fair value of related liabilities	(624,096)	(735,880)	(6,559,230)
Net position	¥ 233,090	¥ 284,377	$ 2,534,780

The difference between transferred assets and related liabilities is the subordinate interest which the Company retains on securitization.

28. Offsetting financial assets and liabilities

The following table presents the amount of financial assets and liabilities offset in the consolidated statement of financial position, as well as the amount of financial assets and liabilities that are under enforceable master netting agreements or similar contracts, but are not offset as they do not meet certain or all criteria of offsetting.

Rights to offset based on the enforceable master netting agreements or similar contracts are enforceable only in certain events such as bankruptcy or obligation default of the counterparty.

Notes:

1. Shares issued by the Company is common stock with no par value.
2. Shares issued have been fully paid.
3. The Company retired 100,000 thousand shares of treasury stock on October 31, 2016.

(2) Capital surplus

Capital surplus of the Company includes additional paid-in capital, which is legal capital surplus. Under the Companies Act of Japan (the “Companies Act”), at least 50% of the proceeds upon issuance of equity instruments shall be credited to common stock. The remainder of the proceeds shall be credited to additional paid-in capital. The Companies Act permits, upon approval at the general meeting of shareholders, the transfer of amounts from additional paid-in capital to common stock.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

The Company acquired an additional 24.1% shares of Supercell, a subsidiary of the Company, from existing shareholders and the Company's ownership in Supercell became 77.8%. In connection with this transaction, ¥120,847 million is deducted from capital surplus as "Changes in interests in subsidiaries."

(3) Retained earnings

Retained earnings of the Company include the reserve legally required as legal retained earnings. The Companies Act provides that 10% of the dividend of retained earnings shall be appropriated as legal capital surplus or as legal retained earnings until their aggregate amount equals 25% of common stock. The legal retained earnings may be used to eliminate or reduce a deficit or be transferred to retained earnings upon approval at the general meeting of shareholders.

(4) Treasury stock

The Companies Act provides for companies to purchase treasury stock and dispose of such treasury stock by resolution of the Board of Directors. The amount of treasury stock purchased cannot exceed the amount available for distribution to the shareholders which is determined by a specific formula.

Changes in treasury stock are as follows:

The Company grants stock options as equity-settled share-based payment and cash-settled share-based payment. The details of the Company's stock option plan for the years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017 are as follows:

(a) SoftBank Group Corp.

SoftBank Group Corp. grants stock options to its directors and employees. Shares granted by the exercise of stock options are those issued by SoftBank Group Corp.

Year issued / Name	Grant date	Due date for exercise
2010 – 6th Stock Acquisition Rights ¹	August 27, 2010	June 30, 2017
2013 – 7th Stock Acquisition Rights ²	July 31, 2013	June 30, 2021
2016 July Stock Acquisition Rights ³	July 28, 2016	July 31, 2022
2017 February Stock Acquisition Rights ³	February 27, 2017	February 28, 2023

Notes:

1. Vesting condition

A person entitled to the vested stock acquisition rights (“entitled person”) is able to exercise these rights only when all the following conditions are satisfied:

- a. total free cash flows in the consolidated statement of cash flows for the years ended in March 2010, 2011 and 2012 in the Annual Securities Report filed by SoftBank Group Corp. based on Financial Instruments and Exchange Act exceed ¥1.0 trillion;
- b. net interest-bearing debt in the consolidated balance sheet for the year ended in March 2012 in the Annual Securities Report filed by SoftBank Group Corp. based on Financial Instruments and Exchange Act is less than ¥0.97 trillion; and,
- c. total operating income in the consolidated statement of income for the years ended in March 2011 and 2012 in the Annual Securities Report filed by SoftBank Group Corp. based on Financial Instruments and Exchange Act exceeds ¥1.1 trillion.

The amount of the stock acquisition rights exercisable by an entitled person is limited as prescribed in “a” through “d” below. Fractional points, if any, of the exercisable stock acquisition rights are rounded down.

- a. from July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013: 25% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights
- b. from July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014: 50% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” above
- c. from July 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015: 75% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” and “b” above
- d. from July 1, 2015 through June 30, 2017: 100% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” through “c” above

Vesting requires continuous service from the grant date to the vesting date. When an eligible person retires, vested acquisition rights are forfeited.

2. Vesting condition

The stock acquisition rights expired as the rights were unable to meet the vesting condition. The vesting condition is as follows;

A person entitled to vested stock acquisition rights (“entitled person”) is able to exercise these rights only when operating income in the consolidated statement of income for the year ended in March 2016 in the Annual Securities Report to be filed by SoftBank Group Corp. based on the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act in June 2016 (“target index”) exceeds ¥1.2 trillion (“target amount”). SoftBank Group Corp. may change the target index or target amount within a reasonable range due to changes in accounting policies or other factors, if necessary.

The amount of the stock acquisition rights exercisable in the period “a” through “c” below by an entitled person who was granted and allocated stock acquisition rights of 10,000 or more in total, is limited as below. Fractional points, if any, of the exercisable stock acquisition rights are rounded down.

- a. from July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017: 25% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights
- b. from July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018: 50% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” above
- c. from July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2021: 100% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” and “b” above

Vesting requires continuous service from the grant date to the vesting date. When an eligible person retires, vested acquisition rights are forfeited.

Note:

Weighted-average stock price at exercise is not calculated for the Supercell Stock option plan since Supercell Oy shares are not publicly traded.

(2) Restricted stock unit plan

The Company adopts restricted stock unit (“RSU”) plans where the Company grants stocks, the transfer of which is restricted for a certain period until vested, and is accounted for as equity-settled share-based payment.

The details of the Company’s RSU plans for the years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017 are as follows:

a. Sprint

Sprint grants shares of Sprint Corporation as RSUs to its directors, employees and other service providers. The fair value of the RSU is generally measured based on the closing price of the stock on the date of grant. RSU generally has performance and service requirements or service requirements only, with vesting periods ranging from one to three years.

During the year ended March 31, 2017, Sprint granted performance-based RSUs that will be earned upon the achievement of certain market conditions, which are based on the Sprint share price. The fair value of these market-based RSUs is estimated at the date of grant using the Monte Carlo valuation methodology, which incorporates into the valuation the possibility that the market condition may not be satisfied. These market-based RSUs will vest 50% over four years from the grant date and 50% over five years from the grant date.

The number of RSUs granted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 was 54,729,219 units. The weighted-average fair value of RSUs granted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 was $5.64 per unit.

b. Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc.

Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc. grants RSUs to its director with the option to settle either by Sprint Corporation shares held by Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc. or cash. As Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc. has the option to settle by cash instead of Sprint Corporation shares, this RSU grant has been accounted for as an equity-settled share-based payment. The fair value of the RSUs is measured based on the stock price as of the date of the grant.

RSU vests equally each year over four years, with continuous service required through each vesting date.

c. Supercell

Supercell grants shares of Supercell Oy as RSU to its employees. The RSU plan is accounted for as an equity-settled share-based payment even though Supercell has the option to settle some of the RSU in cash when the options are exercised instead of Supercell Oy shares. RSU granted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 was 12,000 units. The fair value of the RSU is intrinsic value measured using the discount cash flow method or guideline public companies method. The weighted-average fair value of the RSU granted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017 was €102.35 per unit.

RSU vests equally each year over four years, with continuous service required through each vesting date.

Also, in July 2016, Supercell was excluded from the scope of consideration.

(3) Phantom stock

The Company adopts phantom stock awards where the Company pays in cash based on the stock price at the vesting date, and they are accounted for as cash-settled share-based payments.

The details of phantom stock for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2016 and 2017 are as follows:

SoftBank Group Corp., SB Group US, Inc., and SoftBank Holdings, Inc.

SoftBank Group Corp., SB Group US, Inc., and SoftBank Holdings, Inc. granted phantom stock, which is based on the shares of SoftBank Group Corp., to their directors, employees, and other service providers. It requires one to have continued employment from the grant date through the vesting date. The amount of settlement at the vesting date is determined based on the share per unit. The details of vesting conditions are as follows:

The number of units and vesting conditions as of March 31, 2017

unit	Vesting condition
3,278,641	The initial vesting date is four years from the first date of service. A quarter of the total vests on the initial vesting date and quarter of the total vests every two years thereafter.
740,691	It vests fully when five years pass from the first date of the service period.
2,206,900	Vesting periods are mainly four or five years from the first date of service, or service provided, and vests over those periods.

33. Net sales

Total	¥(139,252)	¥(143,703)	$ (1,280,890)

Notes:

- License exchange gain resulting from the exchange of certain spectrum licenses, which is recorded as FCC licenses in intangible assets, with other carriers (non-cash transaction).
- Loss mainly resulting from the write-off of leased devices associated with lease cancellations prior to scheduled customer lease terms where customers did not return the devices to Sprint. In fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, ¥6,684 million of loss was recognized upon the sale of devices to Mobile Leasing Solutions, LLC under the Handset Sale-Leaseback transaction. Regarding the Handset Sale-Leaseback transaction, the details are described in “Note 14. Leases.”
- Loss mainly resulting from termination of wholesale contracts with NTELOS Holdings Corp.
- Impairments are primarily related to cell site construction costs that are no longer expected to be used as a result of changes in Sprint’s network plans.
- In February 2017, a fire incident occurred at a logistics center of ASKUL, namely, ASKUL Logi PARK Tokyo Metropolitan. The fire inflicted damage on ASKUL’s non-current assets and inventories resulting in a temporary operation shutdown. The loss from the fire incident consists of ¥10,230 million ($91,185 thousand) of damage on non-current assets, ¥2,510 million ($22,373 thousand) of destroyed inventories, and ¥266 million ($2,371 thousand) of related costs.
- Goodwill of Brightstar had been allocated in its entirety to Brightstar (a group of cash-generating units), which had bundled five cash-generating units (Brightstar’s US and Canada region, Latin America region, Asia & Oceania region, SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp., and Europe and Africa region); however, in March 2017, its goodwill was reallocated to Brightstar, which bundled four cash-generating units, except for SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp., due to the decision to reorganize the Distribution segment. As impairment indicators existed, the impairment test was conducted on goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives. As a result, the recoverable amount of goodwill was less than its carrying amount, and therefore, ¥30,260 million ($269,721 thousand) of impairment loss on goodwill was recorded as “Other operating loss.” Value in use was used as the recoverable amount and calculated by discounting the management-approved estimated future cash flow plan of the four cash-generating units by 10.97%-16.17%, the weighted-average capital cost before tax.
- As a result of revising the business plan of the Brightstar’s Latin America region, the recoverable amount became negative and, therefore, the carrying amount related to the cash-generating unit was reduced to ¥0. Impairment loss on property, plant, and equipment was ¥8,070 million and impairment loss on intangible assets was ¥5,563 million. Value in use was used as the recoverable amount and calculated by discounting management approved estimated future cashflow plan by 22.11%, weighted average capital cost before tax.
- Expenses arising from the business combination of ARM. The details of the business combination are described in “(3) ARM” in “Note 5. Business combinations.”
- Expenses resulting from the resignation of Nimesh Arora from his position as a director. The details are described in “(2) Remuneration for major executives” in “Note 45. Related party transactions.”

10. As a result of revising the business plan of SoftBank Robotics Corp., the recoverable amount was less than its carrying amount, and therefore the related carrying amount of assets was reduced to its recoverable amount of ¥ 3,471 million ($30,939 thousand) determined based on its value in use.

36. Finance cost

The components of finance cost are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2017	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2017
Interest expense*	¥(440,744)	¥(467,311)	$(4,165,353)

Note:

- * Interest expense was mainly from financial liabilities measured at amortized cost.

37. Gain on sales of shares of associates

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

The Company sold a portion of its Alibaba shares to Alibaba, Gamlight Pte Ltd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of GIC Private Limited, and Aranda Investments Pte. Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Temasek Holdings Private Limited on June 13, 2016, and to Alibaba Partnership* on July 11, 2016. As a result of the transactions, ¥234,418 million ($2,089,473 thousand) was recorded as a gain on sales of shares of associates.

The aggregate amount of its sale was ¥359,704 million ($3.4 billion), of which the sale price for Alibaba was ¥212,920 million ($2.0 billion). The sale price was determined by negotiation with reference to the market price of Alibaba shares.

Note:

- * Alibaba Partnership is not an associate of Alibaba.

38. Derivative gain and loss

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

Derivative loss of ¥232,729 million ($2,074,418 thousand) was recorded related to a collar transaction included in a variable prepaid forward contract. The details of the variable prepaid forward contract are described in “(2) Transaction for sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract” in “Note 19. Interest-bearing debt.”

39. Gain and loss from financial instruments at FVTPL

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

Loss from financial instruments at FVTPL mainly consists of changes in fair value of preferred stock investments, including embedded derivatives, such as ANI Technologies Pvt. Ltd and Jasper Infotech Private Limited in India, designated as financial assets at FVTPL.

40. Other non-operating income and loss

The components of other non-operating income and loss are as follows:

Notes:

- Shares and loans related to investments of PT Trikonsel Oke Tbk. in Indonesia were impaired as the investment amounts and the loans amount were not expected to be collected. As a result, impairment loss on securities and provision of allowance for doubtful accounts totaling ¥38,185 million were recorded for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016.
- Gain arising from changes in Alibaba's equity interest held by the Company mainly due to the exercise of stock options issued by Alibaba and the allocation of new shares to a third party.
- On February 24, 2017, the Company entered into an agreement with Foxconn Technology Group in Taiwan to establish a joint venture through its wholly-owned subsidiary, SOFTBANK GROUP CAPITAL APAC PTE. LTD. SOFTBANK GROUP CAPITAL APAC PTE. LTD. accordingly issued new ordinary shares to Foxconn (Far East) Limited on March 3, 2017, and changed its name to Foxconn Ventures Pte. Ltd. as of the same date. As a result of the transaction, the percentage of voting rights of Foxconn Ventures Pte. Ltd. held by the Company was reduced to 45.5% and the entity has become an equity method associate and no longer qualified as a consolidated subsidiary of the Company from March 3, 2017. The loss relating to the loss of control resulting from the transaction was ¥79,278 million ($706,641 thousand). Of this amount, the amount that was transferred from accumulated other comprehensive income to net loss due to the loss of control was ¥131,529 million ($1,172,377 thousand) and the gain from remeasurement relating to applying the equity method was ¥52,251 million ($465,737 thousand).
- The Company transferred a portion of its GungHo shares to assets classified as held for sale as the Company tendered in a Tender Offer by GungHo in the three month period ended June 30, 2016. Accordingly, the carrying amounts of the shares were reduced to the fair values after deducting expenses arising from the sale (Tender Offer price), and ¥42,540 million ($379,178 thousand) was recorded as an impairment loss on assets classified as held for sale. As a result of the transaction, GungHo is no longer qualified as an equity method associate in the three month period ended September 30, 2016. The details are described in "(1) GungHo" in "Note 42. Discontinued operations."

42. Discontinued operations

(1) GungHo

SoftBank Group Corp. entered into an agreement to tender in the Tender Offer for 188,235,200 shares, a portion of the common shares of GungHo held by SoftBank Group Corp., on April 28, 2015. The Tender Offer was completed on June 1, 2015 and 188,235,200 common shares of GungHo held by Softbank Group Corp. were transferred to GungHo for ¥80,000 million.

An agreement between Heartis G.K. (“Heartis”) and Son Holdings Inc. to extinguish the pledge on 100,000,000 shares, out of the common shares of GungHo held by Heartis, was executed and the Agreement on Exercise of Voting Rights* for the 100,000,000 shares was terminated effective on June 1, 2015.

As a result of the transactions, GungHo was no longer qualified as a subsidiary and became an equity method associate on June 1, 2015.

Operating results related to GungHo from April 1, 2015 to June 1, 2015 are presented as discontinued operations separately from continuing operations in the consolidated statement of income.

Note:

* Heartis (Taizo Son's asset management company, the second largest shareholder of GungHo, and Taizo Son, chairman of GungHo is the representative director), and Masayoshi Son, chairman and CEO of SoftBank Group Corp., entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (the "MOU") on Exercise of Voting Rights for Deferment of Execution of Pledges, on April 1, 2013. Under the MOU, all of GungHo common shares held by Heartis were pledged to Son Holdings, Masayoshi Son's asset management company and in order to defer the execution of pledges, Heartis agreed to act on behalf of Masayoshi Son at the shareholders' meeting of GungHo, for the voting rights related to 213,080,000 shares (ownership ratio: 18.50%) out of the common shares of GungHo held by Heartis. In addition, the title of Taizo Son was changed from chairman of GungHo to director of GungHo, effective on March 22, 2016.

Also, regarding a portion of the Company's GungHo shares, the Company tendered in the Tender Offer by GungHo from June 23, 2016. The Tender Offer was completed on July 21, 2016 and 245,592,400 shares of its GungHo shares had sold by the Tender Offer. As a result of the transaction, GungHo is no longer qualified as an equity method associate on August 16, 2016.

(2) Supercell

The Company entered into a definitive agreement with Tencent Holdings Limited and its affiliate (the "Tencent affiliate"), Supercell and other parties on June 21, 2016 to sell all of its shares of Supercell to the Tencent affiliate. The shares were transferred on July 29, 2016, and as of the date of transfer of the shares, Supercell was excluded from the scope of consolidation.

Operating results related to Supercell for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 and 2017, are presented separately from continuing operations, as discontinued operations, in the consolidated statements of income.

The operating results and cash flows from discontinued operations are as follows:

44. Supplemental information to the consolidated statement of cash flows

(1) Scope of purchase of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets
“Purchase of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets” includes cash outflows from long-term prepaid expenses that are included in “Other non-current assets” in the consolidated statement of financial position.

(2) Presentation of cash flows regarding financing leases
For the purchase of telecommunication equipment through financing leases, the Company purchases, assembles, installs and inspects the equipment due to the nature of the equipment. Then the Company sells the equipment to lease companies for sale-leaseback purposes and recognizes it as a leased asset.

The cash outflows from the purchase of the equipment from vendors are included in “Purchase of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets” under cash flows from investing activities, and the cash inflows from the sale of the equipment to lease companies are included in “Proceeds from long-term interest-bearing debt” under cash flows from financing activities.

(3) Gain on sales of discontinued operations

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

Gain on sales of subsidiaries is arising from sale of Supercell shares. The details are described in “(2) Supercell” in “Note 42. Discontinued operations.”

(4) Income taxes paid and income taxes refunded

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

Payment of withholding income tax related to dividends within the group companies of ¥904,688 million is included in “Income taxes paid,” and refund of the withholding income tax of ¥611,199 million is included in “Income taxes refunded.”

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

Payment of withholding income tax related to dividends within the group companies of ¥85,048 million ($758,071 thousand) is included in “Income taxes paid,” and refund of the withholding income tax of ¥293,489 million ($2,616,000 thousand) is included in “Income taxes refunded.”

(5) Proceeds from sales of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

Proceeds of ¥137,593 million which Sprint received from Mobile Leasing Solutions, LLC through a handset sale-leaseback transaction in December 2015 are included in “Proceeds from sales of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets.” The details are described in “(3) Handset sale-leaseback” in “Note 14. Leases.”

(6) Proceeds from sales and redemption of investments

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

Proceeds related to sales of Alibaba shares of ¥359,704 million ($3.4 billion) are included. The details are described in “Note 37. Gain on sales of shares of associates.”

(7) Decrease and increase from loss of control over subsidiaries

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

Decrease from loss of control over subsidiaries is the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by GungHo at the time of loss of control.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017

The relation between proceeds received for sale of Supercell shares and increase from loss of control over subsidiaries and components of assets and liabilities at the date of loss of control over Supercell are as follows:

a. The relation between proceeds received for sale of Supercell shares and increase from loss of control over subsidiaries

Retirement benefits	4	9	81
Total	¥12,863	¥15,809	$140,913

Notes:

1. Remuneration for major executives represents remuneration for the directors of SoftBank Group Corp. (including external directors) and the directors at the significant subsidiaries. Marcelo Claure, CEO of Sprint, and Simon Segars, CEO of ARM, are the directors at the significant subsidiaries. Simon Segars became the director at the significant subsidiaries because the Company had completed to acquire 100% of ownership of ARM on September 5, 2016.
2. The amount of remuneration to Nikesh Arora, which is included in the table above is as follows:

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016: ¥8,042 million

(Short-term benefits of ¥5,375 million and share-based compensation of ¥2,667 million)

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017: ¥10,346 million ($92,219 thousand)

(Short-term benefits of ¥303 million ($2,701 thousand), share-based compensation of ¥1,196 million ($10,660 thousand), and resignation expense of ¥8,847 million ($78,857 thousand))

Nikesh Arora retired from the position of director of SoftBank Group Corp. at the closing of the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders held on June 22, 2016.

Resignation expenses consist of expenses in which payment amounts are defined and expenses in which payment amounts are to be defined depending on the future share price of SoftBank Group Corp. shares. Expenses based on the share price will be settled in two installments, scheduled on June 2017 and March 2018. Payment amount will be determined based on the share price of June 2017 and March 2018. The Company measured the expenses based on the SoftBank Group Corp. share price as of June 30, 2016, and recorded the entire expenses for the three-month period ended June 30, 2016. The expenses will be remeasured every quarter end based on the stock price of SoftBank Group Corp. until the determination of payment amount, and the changes will be recognized through profit and loss. The expenses were ¥3,830 million ($34,139 thousand) for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

In addition to the above resignation expenses, the Company purchased the shares of associate companies from Nikesh Arora, which were previously granted to him in December 2014. The details are described in “(1) Related party transactions and balances.”

46. Contingency

(1) Lending commitments

The details of lending commitments, which are mainly related to cashing service incidental to the credit card business, are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017
Lending commitments	¥196,937	¥313,688	$2,796,042

Unfunded	¥187,582	¥299,721	$2,671,548

Also, maturities of unfunded lending commitments are within 1 year because they are payable on demand.

(2) Credit guarantees

Guarantees that the Company provides when loans are taken from affiliate financial institutions to individuals regarding the credit guarantee business are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)		(Thousands of U.S. dollars)
	As of March 31, 2016	As of March 31, 2017	As of March 31, 2017
Total amount of financial guarantee contract	¥13,822	¥16,632	$148,249
Guarantee balance	10,418	12,997	115,848

Also, maturities of guarantee balance for credit guarantee are within 1 year because they are payable on demand.

(3) Litigation

SoftBank Group Corp. and certain subsidiaries are currently party to a number of pending legal and administrative proceedings. As it is difficult to reasonably estimate the final results of such matters, reserves have not been recorded. Based on the information currently available, we do not expect that the results of these proceedings will have a material adverse effect on our financial position or results of operations.

a. Litigation in which SoftBank Corp. is involved as a party

(a) On April 30, 2015, SoftBank Corp. filed a lawsuit with the Tokyo District Court against Japan Post Information Technology Co., Ltd. (“JPiT”), claiming for payment of remuneration, etc., for additional services provided in connection with the installation of telecommunication lines, etc., that were ordered by JPiT in relation to a project to migrate the communication network connecting approximately 27,000 sites (postal offices, etc.) existing countrywide to a new network, the 5th PNET.

Pursuant to a contract dated February 7, 2013, SoftBank Corp. was requested by JPiT to carry out, among other services, installation services for telecommunication lines for Japan Post Group’s business sites existing countrywide. SoftBank Corp. performed such services, and upon JPiT’s request, SoftBank Corp. also performed services that exceeded the scope of services stipulated in the contract.

Although SoftBank Corp. negotiated with JPiT over an extended period regarding the remuneration, etc. (approximately ¥14.9 billion), for these additional services, SoftBank Corp. and JPiT were unable to arrive at a settlement. Accordingly, SoftBank Corp. duly filed the lawsuit, claiming for payment of remuneration, etc., for such additional services.

(b) On April 30, 2015, JPiT filed a lawsuit against SoftBank Corp. and Nomura Research Institute, Ltd. (“NRI”) as co-defendants.

In this lawsuit, JPiT alleges that SoftBank Corp. and NRI delayed performance, etc., of the ordered services related to the project for migration to the 5th PNET mentioned in (a) above, and alleges that such delay caused damages to JPiT (¥16.15 billion). JPiT made joint and several claims against both SoftBank Corp. and NRI for such alleged damages.

SoftBank Corp. intends to fully contest JPiT’s claims in this lawsuit.

The order to consolidate lawsuit (b) above with lawsuit (a) above was made on July 29, 2015. SoftBank Corp. modified the amount of claim from approximately ¥14.9 billion to approximately ¥20.4 billion on November 13, 2015, and also modified the amount of claim from approximately ¥20.4 billion to approximately ¥22.3 billion on October 12, 2016, as a result of a review of the remuneration etc. with respect to additional services regarding the lawsuit (a) above.

b. Legal and administrative proceedings to which Sprint and its subsidiaries are party

(a) In March 2009, a stockholder brought suit, Bennett v. Sprint Nextel Corp., in the U.S. District Court for the District of Kansas (the “Bennett case”), alleging that Sprint Communications and three of its former officers violated Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 by failing to adequately disclose certain alleged operational difficulties subsequent to the Sprint-Nextel merger, and by purportedly issuing false and misleading statements regarding the write-down of goodwill. The district court granted final approval of a settlement in August 2015, which did not have a material impact on our financial statements. Five stockholder derivative suits related to the Bennett case were filed against Sprint Communications and certain present and/or former officers and directors. The first, Murphy v. Forsee, was filed in state court in Kansas on April 8, 2009, was moved to federal court, and was stayed by the court pending resolution of the motion to dismiss the Bennett case; the second, Randolph v. Forsee, filed on July 15, 2010, in the state court in Kansas, was moved to federal court, and was remanded back to state court; the third, Ross-Williams v. Bennett, et al., was filed in state court in Kansas on February 1, 2011; the fourth, Price v. Forsee, et al., was filed in state court in Kansas on April 15, 2011; and the fifth, Hartleib v. Forsee, et. al., was filed in federal court in Kansas on July 14, 2011. These cases were essentially stayed while the Bennett case was pending, and Sprint has reached an agreement in principle to settle the matters, by agreeing to some governance provisions and by paying plaintiffs' attorneys fees in an immaterial amount. The court approved the settlement, but reduced the plaintiff's attorneys fees; the attorneys fees issue is on appeal.

(b) On April 19, 2012, the New York Attorney General filed a complaint alleging that Sprint Communications had fraudulently failed to collect and pay more than $100 million in New York sales taxes on receipts from its sale of wireless telephone services since July 2005. The complaint also seeks recovery of triple damages under the State False Claims Act, as well as penalties and interest. Sprint Communications moved to dismiss the complaint on June 14, 2012. On July 1, 2013, the court entered an order denying the motion to dismiss in large part, although it did dismiss certain counts or parts of certain counts. Sprint Communications appealed that order and the intermediate appellate court affirmed the order of the trial court. On October 20, 2015, the Court of Appeals of New York affirmed the decision of the appellate court that the tax statute requires Sprint Communications to collect and remit the disputed taxes. Sprint Communications' petition for certiorari to the US Supreme Court on grounds of federal preemption was denied. Through the year ended March 31, 2017, Sprint Communications accrued approximately $200 million in association with this matter. The parties are now engaged in discovery in the trial court. Sprint Communications will continue to defend this matter vigorously.

Eight related stockholder derivative suits have been filed against Sprint Communications and certain current and former officers and directors. Each suit alleges generally that the individual defendants breached their fiduciary duties to Sprint Communications and its stockholders by allegedly permitting, and failing to disclose, the actions alleged in the suit filed by the New York Attorney General. One suit, filed by the Louisiana Municipal Police Employees Retirement System, was dismissed by a federal court. Two suits were filed in state court in Johnson County, Kansas, and one of those suits was dismissed as premature and five suits are pending in federal court in Kansas. The remaining Kansas suits have been stayed pending resolution of the New York Attorney General's suit.

(c) Sprint Communications is also a defendant in a complaint filed by several stockholders of Clearwire Corporation asserting claims for breach of fiduciary duty by Sprint Communications and related claims and otherwise challenging the Clearwire acquisition. ACP Master, LTD., et al. v. Sprint Nextel Corp., et al., was filed on April 26, 2013, in Chancery Court in Delaware. Plaintiffs in the ACP Master, LTD. suit have also filed suit requesting an appraisal of the fair value of their Clearwire stock. A trial related to those cases took place in October 2016 and November 2016; the parties have submitted their post-trial briefing, and oral argument was held on April 25, 2017. Sprint Communications, Inc. is awaiting a decision on such cases.

(d) Sprint is currently involved in numerous court actions alleging that Sprint is infringing various patents. Most of these cases effectively seek only monetary damages. A small number of these cases are brought by companies that sell products and seek injunctive relief as well. These cases have progressed to various degrees and a small number may go to trial if they are not otherwise resolved. Adverse resolution of these cases could require Sprint to pay significant damages, cease certain activities, or cease selling the relevant products and services. In many circumstances, Sprint would be indemnified for monetary losses that it incurs with respect to the actions of its suppliers or service providers.

(e) In October 2013, the FCC Enforcement Bureau began to issue notices of apparent liability ("NALs") to other Lifeline providers, imposing fines for intracARRIER duplicate accounts identified by the government during its audit function. Those audits also identified a small percentage of potentially duplicative intracARRIER accounts related to Sprint's Assurance Wireless business. No NAL has yet been issued with respect to Sprint, and Sprint does not know if one will be issued.

Further, Sprint is not able to reasonably estimate the amount of any claim for penalties that might be asserted.

(f) Various other suits, inquiries, proceedings, and claims, either asserted or unasserted, including purported class actions typical for a large business enterprise and intellectual property matters, are possible or pending against Sprint or its subsidiaries. During the year ended March 31, 2017, Sprint recorded a $103 million charge associated with a state tax matter. If Sprint's interpretation of certain laws or regulations, including those related to various federal or state matters, such as sales, use or property taxes, or other charges, were found to be mistaken, it could result in payments by Sprint.

c. Legal and administrative proceedings to which Brightstar Corp. and its subsidiaries are party

Brightstar Corp. and its subsidiaries are party to various legal and administrative proceedings globally and particularly in Latin American countries, including disputes relating to tax, labor, contract, and other currently pending matters. This litigation mainly consists of five administrative proceedings initiated by tax authorities in Brazil against the subsidiary of Brightstar Corp. involving failure by such entity to pay a portion of taxes owed due to, e.g., differences in understanding between such entity and the tax authorities, for which such authorities have claimed an aggregate of $120 million. One of these five administrative proceedings has been filed; however, a subsidiary of Brightstar Corp. has filed an Annulment Action in October 2015 requesting that the case be returned to the administrative level.

47. Purchase commitments

- (1) Conditional commitments on investment in WorldVu Satellites Limited (“OneWeb”) and Intelsat S.A. (“Intelsat”) and a conditional service purchase commitment with OneWeb

The Company had investments of $0.68 billion and $1.73 billion in OneWeb and Intelsat, respectively, as of March 31, 2017. Such investments are intended to support the construction of satellite communication systems and operations to provide affordable, high-speed, low-latency Internet to rural and remote communities around the world.

In accordance with a share purchase agreement between the Company and OneWeb with a total investment amount of $1 billion, the Company invested $0.32 billion in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, and further invested $0.15 billion in April 2017. With respect to the remaining conditional investment commitment of $0.53 billion, the Company will invest such amount upon OneWeb obtaining certain financing and approvals from relevant regulatory authorities.

The total investment of $1.73 billion in Intelsat was subject to the consummation of the merger between OneWeb and Intelsat (the “Merger”) and the receipt of approvals from relevant regulatory authorities. As Intelsat was unable to reach an agreement with certain existing Intelsat bondholders on the terms of proposed debt exchange offers, which was a condition to the Merger, the Company’s conditional investment commitment in Intelsat terminated and, consequently, the Company will no longer be investing in Intelsat.

In addition, the Company has a conditional purchase commitment of $4 billion for satellite communication service capacity to the OneWeb group as of March 31, 2017. The minimum payment of $4 billion is subject to OneWeb achieving certain service levels, which are set forth in two stages and include, among other things, the positioning of a particular number of satellites on prescribed orbital planes in operation. An initial payment of $0.5 billion will be made within 12 months of OneWeb completing the first service level, and the remaining $3.5 billion will be paid within 48 months of OneWeb completing the second service level.

- (2) Commitment to acquire Fortress Investment Group LLC (“Fortress”)

The Company will acquire 100% of the outstanding shares of Fortress for approximately $3.3 billion. The closing of the acquisition is subject to the satisfaction of customary conditions, such as certain regulatory approvals. The Company is planning to bring in partners for a portion of the investment following the closing of this acquisition.

With regard to the acquisition above, on June 12, 2017, the Company entered into a new credit agreement in relation to a 5 year $1.4 billion term loan facility and 4.5 year $90 million revolving facility with financial institutions. The shares of Fortress and the shares of subsidiaries (a holding company) that will hold the shares of Fortress will be pledged as collateral of the new credit agreement.

- (3) Other

Except for the above (1) and (2), the Company had commitments to purchase services and goods of ¥1,613,695 million ($14,383,590 thousand) as of March 31, 2017 (March 31, 2016: ¥1,496,500 million).

Purchase commitments are mainly outstanding contracts related to purchases of telecommunications equipment, purchases of mobile handsets, connection with other telecommunications operators, and investments.

48. Subsequent events

(1) Investment in Xiaoju Kuaizhi Inc. (“Kuaizhi”)

An overseas subsidiary of SoftBank Group Corp. made a total investment of $5.0 billion in Kuaizhi, the operator of a taxi allocation service in China, as of May 26, 2017. Kuaizhi is not classified as a subsidiary or an associate of the Company after the investment.

The impact of this agreement on the operating results as of March 31, 2018, has not been determined at present.

(2) SoftBank Vision Fund’s First Major Closing

SoftBank Vision Fund (the “Fund”) established by an overseas subsidiary of the Company completed its first major closing on May 20, 2017 with $93.2 billion of committed capital (“Initial Closing”). In addition to SoftBank Group Corp., the investors in the Fund (the “Limited Partners”) also include the Public Investment Fund of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the Mubadala Investment Company of the United Arab Emirates, Apple, Foxconn Technology Group, Qualcomm Incorporated and Sharp Corporation, or their respective affiliates. The final closing of the Fund is expected to occur no later than six months following the Initial Closing. Under the Initial Closing, SoftBank Group Corp. has committed a maximum of $28 billion of capital, which includes the In-kind Contribution (defined below), and the other Limited Partners have committed a maximum aggregate amount of $65.2 billion of capital for the Fund.

a. Summary of the Fund

The arrival of the Singularity, the point at which Artificial Intelligence (AI) exceeds human intelligence, will redefine every industry, and is expected to greatly expand existing business opportunities and to create new ones. The Fund has been established to firmly grasp these business opportunities. The Fund will invest mainly in companies that have superior technologies or business models, and are expected to experience strong growth.

The Company will pursue maximizing returns in the Fund, while maintaining its own sustainable growth, as an investor in the Fund for a minimum of twelve years’ duration.

An overseas subsidiary of the Company will manage the Fund as its general partner, and it will be advised by another overseas subsidiary in the U.K. following that entity’s registration with the UK Financial Conduct Authority, (the “Investment Management Company”). The investment decisions of the Fund will be made based on the decisions of the Investment Committee, which is expected to be established at the Investment Management Company, and since the Company has control as stipulated in IFRS 10 “Consolidated Financial Statements” over the Fund through these subsidiaries, the Fund will be consolidated by the Company.

Therefore, the results of operations, assets and liabilities of the Fund will be included in the Company’s consolidated financial statements. The portfolio companies that the Company is deemed to control under IFRS are treated as subsidiaries of the Company and their results of operations, assets and liabilities are included in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. In principle, other investments in the Fund are measured at fair value at the end of each quarter, and the change is recognized in profit or loss.

b. Transfer of the partial shares of ARM

The Company will contribute approximately 24.99% of the total number of issued shares of ARM (the “ARM Shares”) to the Fund, by an in-kind contribution (the “In-kind Contribution”) in satisfaction of approximately $8.2 billion of the Company’s $28 billion commitment to the Fund.

When the Fund draws down a portion of its committed capital from its Limited Partners (a “Capital Call”), the Company will be obligated to contribute a portion of the ARM Shares with a value equivalent to the amount of the Capital Call issued to the Company. After (and to the extent that) the aggregate amount of Capital Call issued to the Company exceeds approximately $8.2 billion, the aggregate value of the In-kind Contribution, the Company will contribute cash in satisfaction of Capital Calls. The In-kind Contribution will be effected through the transfer of ARM shares to the Fund, subject to the satisfaction of preconditions related to regulatory approvals prescribed in the Fund documents. Such conditions include clearance from the Committee on Foreign Investments in the United States in respect of the transfer of the ARM Shares. Pending delivery of the ARM Shares to the Fund following satisfaction of such conditions, a relevant portion of the ARM Shares will be pledged in favor of the Fund.

After the completion of the In-kind Contribution of ARM Shares, ARM will continue to be a consolidated subsidiary of the Company.

c. Impact on the Consolidated Financial Results

The impact from the Transactions on the consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018 has not yet been determined.

49. Approval of consolidated financial statements

The consolidated financial statements have been approved by the Company's CEO, Masayoshi Son, as of June 21, 2017.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of SoftBank Group Corp.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statement of financial position of SoftBank Group Corp. (formerly, SoftBank Corp.) and its subsidiaries (the "Company") as of March 31, 2016, and the related consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in equity, and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to consolidated financial statements, all expressed in Japanese yen.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of SoftBank Group Corp. (formerly, SoftBank Corp.) and its subsidiaries as of March 31, 2016, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Emphasis of Matters

As discussed in Note 46 (1) to the consolidated financial statements, the Company executed a series of capital raising transactions which involve monetizing a portion of the ordinary shares of Alibaba Group Holding Limited held by its wholly owned subsidiary, SB China Holdings Pte Ltd.

As discussed in Note 46 (3) to the consolidated financial statements, the Company entered into a definitive agreement to sell all of its shares of Supercell Oy held by its subsidiaries, Kahon 3 Oy and SoftBank Group Capital Limited.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of these matters.

The Company engages in various businesses in the information industry, with its base in the Domestic Telecommunications segment, the Sprint segment, the Yahoo Japan segment, and the Distribution segment. The details are described in "(1) Description of reportable segments" in "Note 5. Segment information."

SoftBank Corp. changed its company name to SoftBank Group Corp. effective on July 1, 2015.

SoftBank Mobile Corp., SoftBank BB Corp., SoftBank Telecom Corp., and Ymobile Corporation, which were subsidiaries of the Company, conducted an absorption type merger with SoftBank Mobile Corp. being the surviving company, effective on April 1, 2015. SoftBank Mobile Corp. changed its company name to SoftBank Corp. on July 1, 2015.

2. Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements

(1) Compliance with IFRSs

The consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRSs").

(2) Basis of measurement

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain items, such as financial instruments, that are measured at fair value as described in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies."

(3) Presentation currency and unit of currency

These consolidated financial statements have been presented in Japanese yen, which is the currency of the primary economic environment of SoftBank Group Corp. ("functional currency"), and are rounded to the nearest million yen.

(4) Changes in presentation

(Consolidated statement of income)

Continuing operations and discontinued operations are presented separately for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. In order to reflect the change, the presentation has been reclassified similarly for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015. The details are described in "Note 40. Discontinued operations."

(Consolidated statement of cash flows)

a. "Increase in inventories" which was included in "Other" in net cash provided by operating activities for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 is separately presented for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 since the significance of the amount increased. In order to reflect the change, ¥(178,353) million which was included in "Other" in net cash provided by operating activities in the consolidated statement of cash flows for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 is reclassified as "Increase in inventories."

b. "Income taxes refund" which were included in "Income taxes paid" in net cash provided by operating activities for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 are separately presented for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 since the significance of the amount increased. In order to reflect the change, ¥83,910 million which was included in "Income taxes paid" in net cash provided by operating activities in the consolidated statement of cash flows for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 is reclassified as "Income taxes refund."

c. "Proceeds from sales of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets" which were included in "Other" in net cash used in investing activities for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 are separately presented for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 since the significance of the amount increased. In order to reflect the change, ¥41,468 million which was included in "Other" in net cash used in investing activities in the consolidated statement of cash flows for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 is reclassified as "Proceeds from sales of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets."

d. “Purchase of treasury stock” which was included in “Other” in net cash provided by financing activities for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 is separately presented for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 since the significance of the amount increased. In order to reflect the change, ¥(42) million which was included in “Other” in net cash provided by financing activities in the consolidated statement of cash flows for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 is reclassified as “Purchase of treasury stock.”

(5) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted by the Company

New standards and interpretations which are newly established or amended before the approval date of the consolidated financial statements, not yet adopted by the Company and which may have potential impacts are as follows. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impacts.

Standard / interpretation		Mandatory adoption (From the year beginning)	To be adopted by the Group	Outline of the new / revised standards
IFRS 9	Financial Instruments	January 1, 2018	From the fiscal year ending March 31, 2019	IFRS 9 replaces a part of the previous IAS 39. Main revisions are: to revise classification into measurement categories of financial instruments (amortized costs and fair values) and measurement; to revise the treatment of changes in fair values of financial liabilities measured at fair values; to revise the eligibility requirement of hedged items and hedging instruments, and requirements related to the effectiveness of the hedge; and to revise the measurement approach for impairment by introducing an impairment model based on the expected credit loss.
IFRS 15	Revenue from contracts with customers	January 1, 2018	From the fiscal year ending March 31, 2019	IFRS 15 replaces the previous IAS 11 and IAS 18. Main revisions are: to require revenue recognition by the following five steps: a. identify the contract with the customer b. identify the performance obligations in the contract c. determine the transaction price d. allocate the transaction price to each performance obligation in the contract e. recognize revenue when (or as) a performance obligation is satisfied to revise the treatment for contract costs, license and guarantee of products; and to increase the disclosure related to revenue recognition.
IFRS 16	Leases	January 1, 2019	From the fiscal year ending March 31, 2020	IFRS 16 replaces the previous IAS 17 and IFRIC 4. Main revisions are: Revision to apply a control model to the identification of leases and distinguishing between leases and service contracts; and Revision to eliminate lease classification and recognition of assets and liabilities for all leases by the lessee.
IAS 7 (Amendment)	Statement of cash flows	January 1, 2017	From the fiscal year ending March 31, 2018	Requirement for additional disclosure related to changes in liabilities arising from financing activities.

(6) Definition of company name and abbreviation used in the notes

Company names and abbreviations used in the notes, except as otherwise stated or interpreted differently in the context, are as follows:

Company name / Abbreviation	Definition
“SoftBank Group Corp.”*	SoftBank Group Corp. (stand-alone basis)
The “Company”	SoftBank Group Corp. and its subsidiaries
Each of the following abbreviations indicates the respective company, and its subsidiaries, if any.
“Sprint”	Sprint Corporation
“Sprint Communications”	Sprint Communications, Inc.
“Brightstar”	Brightstar Global Group Inc.
“Clearwire”	Clearwire Corporation
“Supercell”	Supercell Oy
“Alibaba”	Alibaba Group Holding Limited
“GungHo”	GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc.
“WCP”	Wireless City Planning Inc.

Note:

* The company name “SoftBank Group Corp.” is used consistently in the notes, including the information with regard to the transactions that occurred before the change.

3. Significant accounting policies

Accounting policies the Company has adopted have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these consolidated financial statements.

(1) Basis of consolidation

a. Subsidiaries

A subsidiary is an entity that is controlled by SoftBank Group Corp.

The Company controls an entity when the Company is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity.

The subsidiaries’ financial statements are consolidated from the date when control is acquired (“acquisition date”) until the date when the control is lost.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with those used by the Company.

Non-controlling interests consist of those interests at the acquisition date and any adjustments for subsequent changes in those interests.

Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is generally attributed to the owners of the parent and to the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

All intragroup balances and transactions and unrealized gain or loss arising from intragroup transactions are eliminated on consolidation.

Changes in the Company’s ownership interests in subsidiaries that do not result in the Company losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. The carrying amounts of the Company’s interests and the non-controlling interests are adjusted to reflect the changes in their interests in the subsidiaries.

Any difference between the amount by which the non-controlling interests are adjusted and the fair value of the consideration paid or received is recognized directly in equity and attributed to owners of the parent.

When SoftBank Group Corp. loses control of a subsidiary, a gain or loss is calculated as the difference between:

- the aggregate of the fair value of the consideration received and the fair value of any retained interest; and
- the net carrying amount of the assets (including goodwill), liabilities, and non-controlling interests of the subsidiary when a control is lost.

Any amounts previously recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income in relation to the former subsidiaries are reclassified to profit or loss.

b. Associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity over which SoftBank Group Corp. has significant influence in the financial and operating policy decisions but does not have control or joint control.

A joint venture is an investment which parties including SoftBank Group Corp. have joint control based on the contractual arrangement that requires unanimous consent related to significant decisions of the business activities and have rights to the net assets of the arrangement.

Investments in associates and joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method and are initially recognized at cost. The investment is adjusted thereafter to recognize the Company's interest of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income from the date of acquisition to the date of loss of significant influence.

However, regarding preferred stock investment in associates, when the feature of preferred stock is substantively different from common stock, it is not accounted for using the equity method, and it is designated as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss ("financial assets at FVTPL"). Please refer to "(4) Financial instruments" under "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" for details.

When the losses of an associate and a joint venture exceed the Company's interest in the associate and the joint venture, long-term interests that, in substance, form a part of the net investment in the company are decreased to zero, and no additional loss is recognized except when the Company incurs legal or constructive obligations to or makes payments on behalf of the associate and the joint venture.

Unrealized gains or losses on intercompany transactions with associates and joint ventures are added to or deducted from the carrying amount of the investments only to the extent of the Company's interests in the associates and the joint ventures.

Any excess in the cost of acquisition of an associate and a joint venture over the Company's interest of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities recognized at the date of acquisition is recognized as goodwill and included within the carrying amount of the investments in associates and joint ventures.

Because goodwill is not separately recognized, it is not tested for impairment separately. Instead, the entire carrying amount of the investments in associates and joint ventures, including goodwill, is tested for impairment as a single asset whenever objective evidence indicates that the investment may be impaired.

The Company applies the equity method to the financial statements of Alibaba, an associate of the Company, on a three-month time lag, as it is impracticable to conform the reporting period of Alibaba due to the contract with Alibaba. Adjustments are made for significant transactions or events that occurred during the intervening period and which were publicly announced by Alibaba.

(2) Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method at the acquisition date.

The consideration transferred in a business combination is measured as the sum of the assets transferred by the Company, liabilities assumed by the Company from the former owners of the acquiree, and the fair value at the acquisition date of the equity interests issued by the Company. Acquisition-related costs are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

At the acquisition date, the identifiable assets acquired and the liabilities assumed are recognized at their fair value, except that:

- deferred tax assets or liabilities and assets or liabilities related to employee benefits are recognized and measured in accordance with IAS 12 “Income Taxes” and IAS 19 “Employee Benefits,” respectively;
- liabilities or equity instruments related to share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree or share-based payment arrangements of the Company entered into to replace share-based payment arrangements of the acquiree are measured in accordance with IFRS 2 “Share-based Payment” at the acquisition date; and
- assets or disposal groups that are classified as held-for-sale are measured in accordance with IFRS 5 “Non-current Assets Held-for-Sale and Discontinued Operations.”

The excess of the consideration transferred and the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree over the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired at the acquisition date is recorded as goodwill. If the consideration transferred and the amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquiree is less than the fair value of the identifiable net assets of the acquired subsidiary, the difference is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

On an acquisition-by-acquisition basis, the Company chooses a measurement basis of non-controlling interests at either fair value or by the proportionate share of the non-controlling interests in the recognized amounts of the acquiree’s identifiable net assets. When a business combination is achieved in stages, the Company’s previously held interest in the acquiree is remeasured at fair value at the acquisition date and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is recognized in profit or loss.

Amounts arising from changes in the value of interests in the acquiree prior to the acquisition date that have previously been recognized in other comprehensive income are recognized in profit or loss.

If the initial accounting for a business combination is incomplete by the end of the fiscal year, the Company reports in its consolidated financial statements provisional amounts for the items for which the accounting is incomplete. The Company retrospectively adjusts the provisional amounts recognized at the acquisition date as an adjustment during the measurement period when new information about facts and circumstances that existed as of the acquisition date and, if known, would have affected the recognized amounts for the business combination. The measurement period shall not exceed one year from the acquisition date.

Goodwill arising in business combinations that occurred before the date of transition to IFRSs is carried over at the carrying amount under the previous accounting principles (Japanese Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, “JGAAP”) as of the date of transition to IFRSs, and recorded by that amount after an impairment test.

(3) Foreign currency translation

a. Transactions denominated in foreign currencies

The financial statements of each company are prepared in their functional currency. Transactions in currencies other than the entity’s functional currency (foreign currencies) are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing at the dates of the transactions.

Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the rates prevailing at the end of the fiscal year. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the rates prevailing at the date when the fair value was measured.

Exchange differences arising from translation are recognized in profit or loss, except for exchange differences arising from non-monetary available-for-sale financial assets measured through other comprehensive income and cash flow hedges are recognized in other comprehensive income.

b. Foreign operations

For the purposes of presenting consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Company’s foreign operations (including goodwill arising from acquisitions and the adjustments of fair value) are translated into Japanese yen using exchange rates prevailing at the end of the fiscal year.

Income, expenses and cash flows are translated into Japanese yen by using the average exchange rates for each quarter. When the translated amounts do not approximate the amounts translated by the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions, the exchange rates at the transaction dates are used for the translation.

The exchange rates used in the translation are described in “Note 29. Foreign exchange rates.”

Exchange differences arising from translating the financial statements of foreign operations are recognized in other comprehensive income and cumulative differences are included in accumulated other comprehensive income.

These cumulative differences are reclassified from equity to profit or loss when the Company loses control or significant influence over the foreign operation.

(4) Financial instruments

a. Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognized when the Company becomes a party to the contract provision of the instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are measured at fair value at initial recognition. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets and issuance of financial liabilities other than financial assets at FVTPL and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (“financial liabilities at FVTPL”) are added to the fair value of the financial assets or deducted from the fair value of financial liabilities at initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets at FVTPL and financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognized in profit or loss.

b. Non-derivative financial assets

Non-derivative financial assets are classified as “financial assets at FVTPL,” “held-to-maturity investments,” “loans and receivables,” or “available-for-sale financial assets.” The classification depends on the nature and purpose of the financial assets and is determined at initial recognition.

All purchase and sales of financial assets made in a regular way are recognized and derecognized on a trade date basis. The purchase and sales made in a regular way refer to acquiring or disposing financial assets under a contract that requires the delivery of assets within a time frame established by regulation or convention in the marketplace.

(a) Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets are classified as “financial assets at FVTPL” when they are held for trading purposes or designated as financial assets at FVTPL.

Financial assets other than derivatives, which are mainly acquired to be sold in the short-term, are classified as held for trading purposes.

The Company designates a financial asset as a financial asset at FVTPL upon initial recognition, if:

- the financial assets are managed in accordance with the Company’s documented risk management policy or investment strategy; and
- its performance is reviewed on the fair value basis by the Company’s management to make decisions about the investment plan.

Also, if the Company is required to separate an embedded derivative from its host contract, but is unable to measure the embedded derivative separately either at acquisition or at the end of a subsequent financial reporting period, the entire hybrid contract is designated and accounted for as financial assets at FVTPL.

Subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value. Gains or losses arising from changes in fair value, dividend income and interest income are recognized in profit or loss. Fair value of financial assets at FVTPL is measured in the manner described in “(1) Categorization by level within the fair value hierarchy” in “Note 26. Fair value of financial instruments.”

(b) Held-to-maturity investments

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity dates that the Company has the positive intent and ability to hold to maturity are classified as “held-to-maturity investments.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, held-to-maturity investments are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment. Interest income based on the effective interest rate is recognized in profit or loss.

(c) Loans and receivables

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market are classified as “loans and receivables.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment. Interest income based on the effective interest rate is recognized in profit or loss.

(d) Available-for-sale financial assets

Non-derivative financial assets are classified as “available-for-sale financial assets,” if:

- they are designated as “available-for-sale financial assets”; or
- they are classified neither as “financial assets at FVTPL,” “held-to-maturity investments,” nor as “loans and receivables.”

Subsequent to initial recognition, available-for-sale financial assets are measured at fair value and gains or losses arising from changes in fair value are recognized in other comprehensive income. Fair value of available-for-sale financial assets is measured in the manner described in “(1) Categorization by level within the fair value hierarchy” in “Note 26. Fair value of financial instruments.” Exchange differences arising on monetary financial assets classified as available-for-sale financial assets, interest income calculated using the effective interest method relating to available-for-sale financial assets and dividends received are recognized in profit or loss.

(e) Impairment of financial assets

Among financial assets other than those at FVTPL, available-for-sale equity instruments are assessed for any objective evidence of impairment at the end of the fiscal year and at the end of each quarter, and the other assets are assessed for any objective evidence of impairment at the end of the fiscal year. Financial assets are impaired when there is objective evidence that loss events occurred subsequent to initial recognition of the financial assets and when estimated negative future cash flows of the financial assets from those events can be reasonably estimated.

For available-for-sale equity instruments, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value below the cost is considered to be objective evidence of impairment. In addition, objective evidence of impairment of all financial assets could include:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer or borrower;
- breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- high possibilities of borrowers’ bankruptcy or entering financial reorganization; or
- disappearance of an active market for the financial assets.

The Company assesses the existence of objective evidence of impairment individually for separately significant assets or collectively for assets with no individual significance.

When there is objective evidence of impairment on loans and receivables or held-to-maturity investments, the difference between the asset’s carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate, is recognized in profit or loss as an impairment loss. The impairment loss is recognized through the use of an allowance account, and the carrying amount of a loan and receivable is written off against the allowance account when it is considered uncollectible.

The carrying amount of held-to-maturity investments is reduced by the impairment loss directly. If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized, the previously recognized impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss to the extent that the carrying amount of the financial asset does not exceed what the amortized cost would have been, had the impairment not been recognized.

When there is objective evidence that an available-for-sale financial asset is impaired, previously recognized accumulated other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss. Impairment losses on equity instruments classified as available-for-sale financial assets are not reversed.

(f) Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognizes a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire or when it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset.

c. Non-derivative financial liabilities

The Company's non-derivative financial liabilities include interest-bearing debt and trade and other payables. These financial liabilities are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, subsequent to initial recognition.

The Company derecognizes financial liabilities when the Company's obligations are discharged, canceled or expired.

d. Derivatives and hedge accounting

(a) Derivatives

The Company is engaged in derivative transactions, including foreign currency forward contracts and currency swaps in order to manage its exposure to foreign exchange rate and interest rate risks.

Derivatives are initially recognized at fair value at the date the derivative contracts are entered into and are subsequently measured at their fair values at the end of fiscal year. Changes in the fair value of derivative are recognized in profit or loss immediately unless the derivative is designated and effective as a hedging instrument. Derivative financial assets not designated as hedging instruments are classified into "financial assets at FVTPL" and derivative financial liabilities not designated as hedging instruments are classified into "financial liabilities at FVTPL."

(b) Hedge accounting

The Company designates certain derivative transactions as hedging instruments and accounts for them as cash flow hedges.

At the inception of the hedge, the Company formally designates and documents the hedge relationship qualifying for hedge accounting, along with its risk management objectives and its strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions. At the inception of the hedge and on an ongoing basis, the Company evaluates whether the hedging instrument is highly effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of the relevant hedged item during the underlying period.

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualifying as cash flow hedges is recognized in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity. Accumulated other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss through a line item relating to the hedged item in the consolidated statement of income, in the periods when the cash flows from the hedged item affect profit or loss. Any ineffective portion of changes in fair value of derivatives is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

When the hedged forecasted transaction subsequently results in the recognition of a non-financial asset or a non-financial liability, the Company removes the associated gains or losses previously recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income and includes them in the initial amount of the cost of the non-financial asset or non-financial liability (basis adjustment).

Hedge accounting is discontinued when the Company revokes the hedging relationship, when the hedging instrument expires or is sold, terminated or exercised or when hedge no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting.

When hedge accounting is discontinued, any gains or losses recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income remains in equity and is reclassified to profit or loss when the forecasted transaction is ultimately recognized in profit or loss. When a forecasted transaction is no longer expected to occur, the gains or losses recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income are reclassified immediately to profit or loss.

(c) Embedded derivatives

Derivatives embedded in non-derivative host contracts (“embedded derivatives”) are separated from the host contracts and accounted for as separate derivatives when their economic characteristics and risks are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the whole financial instruments, including embedded derivatives, are not measured at FVTPL. If the Company is required to separate an embedded derivative from its host contract, but is unable to measure the embedded derivative separately either at acquisition or at the end of a subsequent financial reporting period, the entire hybrid contract is designated and accounted for as financial assets at FVTPL.

e. Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset, and the net amounts are presented in the consolidated statement of financial position when, and only when, the Company currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognized amounts, and intends either to settle on a net basis or to realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

(5) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash, demand deposits and short-term investments with maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to cash and subject to insignificant risk of change in value.

(6) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Inventories mainly consist of mobile handsets and accessories. Their costs comprise all costs of purchase and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. The costs are mainly calculated by the moving-average method.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(7) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are measured on a historical cost basis, less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses. Historical cost includes costs directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset and the initial estimated costs related to disassembly, retirement and site restoration.

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated mainly using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of each component. The depreciable amount is calculated as the cost of an asset, less its residual value. Land and construction in progress are not depreciated.

The estimated useful lives of major components of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Buildings and structures
Buildings	12 - 50 years
Other	5 - 15 years
Telecommunications equipment
Wireless equipment, switching equipment and other network equipment	5 - 30 years
Towers	15 - 42 years
Other	5 - 40 years
Furniture, fixtures and equipment
Leased mobile devices	2 - 3 years
Other	4 - 10 years

The depreciation methods, useful lives, and residual values of assets are reviewed at the end of each fiscal year, and any changes are applied prospectively as a change in an accounting estimate.

Assets held under finance leases are depreciated over their estimated useful lives when there is certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term. However, when there is no certainty that ownership will be obtained by the end of the lease term, assets are depreciated over the shorter of the lease term or their estimated useful lives.

(8) Goodwill

Please refer to “(2) Business combinations” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies” for the measurement of goodwill at initial recognition. Goodwill is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses.

Goodwill is not amortized, and is tested for impairment when there is an indication of impairment in cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units to which goodwill has been allocated, and annually regardless of any indication of impairment. Impairment is described in “(11) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

The Company’s policy for goodwill arising from the acquisition of an associate is described in “(1) Basis of consolidation” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

(9) Intangible assets

Intangible assets are measured on a historical cost basis at cost, less accumulated amortization and accumulated impairment losses.

Intangible assets acquired separately are measured at cost at initial recognition. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognized separately from goodwill at initial recognition and are measured at fair value at the acquisition date. Any internally generated research and development expenditure is recognized as an expense in the period in which it is incurred, except for expenditures on development activities eligible for capitalization (internally generated intangible assets). The amount initially recognized for internally generated intangible assets is the sum of the expenditure incurred from the date when the intangible asset first meets all of the capitalization criteria to the date the development is completed.

There are intangible assets with finite useful lives and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives.

The intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortized over the estimated useful lives. Amortization of the customer relationships is mainly calculated by the sum-of-the-digits method and intangible assets with finite useful lives other than customer relationships are amortized by the straight-line method.

The estimated useful lives of major categories of intangible assets with finite useful lives are as follows:

Software
Software related to wireless equipment	5 - 10 years
Other	3 - 5 years
Customer relationships	4 - 24 years
Favorable lease contracts	3 - 23 years
Game titles	5 years
Trademarks (with finite useful lives)	34 years
Spectrum migration costs	18 years
Other	4 - 20 years

Amortization methods, useful lives and residual values of assets are reviewed at the end of each fiscal year, and any changes are applied prospectively as a change in an accounting estimate.

Favorable lease contracts are recognized as intangible assets based on the estimated fair value of the favorable portion of future cash flows if, at the time of business combinations, the terms of operating lease contracts in which the acquiree is the lessee are favorable compared to market terms.

Spectrum migration costs are the amounts that the Company incurred in connection with the costs arising from the migration of the existing users from the 900 MHz band, which SoftBank Corp. acquired, to the other frequency spectrum based on the termination campaign. Useful lives are estimated based on the actual utilization of the frequency spectrum in the past.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are as follows:

- Licenses using specific frequency spectrum granted by the U.S. Federal Communications Commission (“FCC licenses”)
- Trademarks (with indefinite useful lives)

As long as the Company acts within the requirements of the regulatory authorities, the renewal and extension of FCC licenses are reasonably certain at minimal cost. Therefore, it is determined that FCC licenses have indefinite useful lives.

The Company determined that “Sprint,” “Boost Mobile” and other trademarks have indefinite useful lives as they can be legally used continuously as long as the business continues and management’s current plans are to offer service under these trademarks for the foreseeable future.

The intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and the intangible assets that are not yet available for use are not amortized. The impairment of these assets is described in “(11) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill” in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

(10) Leases

The assessment of whether an arrangement is a lease or contains a lease is made on a basis of all the facts and circumstances at the inception of the arrangement.

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever all the risks and rewards of ownership of assets are substantially transferred to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases. It is determined that all the risks and rewards of ownership of assets are transferred to the lessee when the lease terms account for most of the economic useful lives of the assets, or the present values of the total minimum lease payments are almost equal to the fair values of the assets. The lease terms are the total of the non-cancelable period and the period which is deemed to be reasonably certain that the renewal option will be exercised at the inception of the leases.

a. Finance leases

(The Company as lessee)

At inception, the Company initially recognizes finance leases as assets and the lease obligation at the amount equal to the fair value of the leased property or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the accounting policy for assets held under finance leases is consistent with that of assets that are owned. Lease payments are apportioned between finance cost and reduction of the lease obligation so as to achieve a constant rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability.

b. Operating leases

(The Company as lessee)

Gross operating lease payments are recognized as expenses on a straight-line basis over the relevant lease terms.

(The Company as lessor)

Gross operating lease incomes are recognized as revenues on a straight-line basis over the relevant lease terms.

(11) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill

a. Impairment of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

At the end of the fiscal year, the Company determines whether there is any indication that property, plant and equipment and intangible assets may be impaired.

If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. A cash-generating unit is the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets.

The intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and the intangible assets that are not yet available for use are tested for impairment annually regardless of whether there is any indication of impairment.

The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell or value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pretax discount rate that reflects the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

If the recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is reduced to its recoverable amount, and an impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss.

At the end of the fiscal year, the Company evaluates whether there is any indication that an impairment loss recognized in prior years for assets other than goodwill has decreased or extinguished. If such indication of a reversal of an impairment loss exists, the recoverable amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is estimated. If the recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is estimated to be higher than its carrying amount, a reversal of an impairment loss is recognized, to the extent that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the lower of the recoverable amount or the carrying amount (less depreciation and amortization) that would have been recognized, had no impairment loss been recognized.

b. Impairment of goodwill

At the end of the fiscal year and at the end of each quarter, the Company determines whether there is any indication that goodwill may be impaired.

Goodwill is allocated to each of the cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units that are expected to benefit from the synergies arising from the business combination, and it is tested for impairment annually regardless of any indication of impairment, and when there is an indication that the cash-generating unit or groups of cash-generating units may be impaired. If, at the time of the impairment test, the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit or groups of cash-generating units is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the cash-generating unit or groups of cash-generating units and then to the other assets pro rata based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or groups of cash-generating units.

Any impairment loss for goodwill is recognized directly in profit or loss and is not reversed in subsequent periods.

(12) Retirement benefits

Defined contribution plans are post-employment benefit plans under which an employer pays fixed contributions into a separate fund and will have no legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions. Defined benefit plans are post-employment benefit plans other than defined contribution plans.

The Company primarily adopts defined contribution pension plans.

SoftBank Corp. has frozen its defined benefit lump-sum plans since March 2006 and 2007. Liabilities for the frozen defined benefit lump-sum plans are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until they are paid in the form of a lump sum at the time of future retirement of employees.

Sprint has frozen its defined benefit pension plans since December 2005. Liabilities for the defined benefit pension plans are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until they are paid as pensions after the time of retirement of employees.

a. Defined contribution plans

Contributions paid for defined contribution plans are recognized as expenses in the period in which the employees render the related service. Contributions payable are recognized as liabilities.

b. Defined benefit plans

The liability recognized in respect of the defined benefit plans (the defined benefit liability) is the present value of the defined benefit obligation less the fair value of plan assets at the end of the fiscal year.

The defined benefit obligation is determined by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method, and its present value is determined by applying a discount rate based on the yield curve of high-quality corporate bonds over the approximate period of the benefit payments.

Defined benefit cost includes service cost, net interest on the net defined benefit liability (asset), and re-measurements of the net defined benefit liability (asset). Service cost and net interest are recognized in net profit or loss. Net interest is determined using the discount rate described above.

The liabilities for the frozen defined benefit plans are calculated on the basis of retirement benefits vested at the time the plans were frozen. Therefore, service cost is not incurred for those defined benefit plans.

The Company's remeasurements, which comprise actuarial gains and losses and the return on plan assets (excluding amounts included in net interest), are recognized in other comprehensive income and transferred to retained earnings immediately from accumulated other comprehensive income.

(13) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, it is probable that the Company will be required to settle the obligation, and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

Provisions are measured using the estimated future cash flows, discounted using a pretax rate reflecting the time value of money and the specific risks of the liability, after taking into account the risks and uncertainties surrounding the obligation at the end of the fiscal year.

The Company recognizes asset retirement obligations, restructuring provision, provision for loss on interest repayment, and provision for onerous contract as provisions.

Restructuring provisions are recognized when the Company has a detailed formal plan for the restructuring and has raised a valid expectation to those who will be affected that the Company will carry out the restructuring by starting to implement the plan or announcing the main features of the plan.

Restructuring provisions are mainly related to network shutdown and backhaul access contracts. The details of the restructuring provision are described in "Note 23. Provisions."

Provision for loss on interest repayment is recorded based on an amount representing future expected claims in order to prepare for future claims by debtors and other, for repayment of interest paid in excess of the rate permitted under the Interest Rate Restriction Act.

(14) Treasury stock

When the Company acquires its own equity share capital ("treasury stock"), the consideration paid, including any directly attributable increments costs (net of income taxes), is deducted from equity. No gain or loss is recognized on the purchase, sale, or cancellation of the treasury stock. The difference between the carrying amount and the consideration on sale is recognized as capital surplus.

(15) Share-based payments

The Company grants stock options and restricted stock unit awards as equity-settled share-based compensation and cash-settled share-based compensation.

Equity-settled share-based compensation is measured at fair value at the grant date. The fair value of stock options is calculated using the Black-Scholes model and other, and the fair value of restricted stock units is calculated using the share price at the date of grant.

The fair value determined at the grant date is expensed over the vesting period, based on the estimate of stock options or restricted stock units that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity.

The Company regularly reviews the assumptions made and revises estimates of the number of stock options or restricted stock units that are expected to vest, when necessary.

Cash-settled share-based compensation is accounted for as liabilities and is measured initially at the fair value of the award. The fair value of the liabilities is remeasured on each closing date and the settlement date, and changes in fair values are recognized in profit or loss.

(16) Revenue

The Company's accounting policy for revenue recognition by major categories is as follows:

Domestic Telecommunications segment and Sprint segment

a. Mobile Communications service and sales of mobile handsets

The Company provides mobile telecommunications services, which consist of voice communications and data transmission to subscribers, and also sells mobile handsets and accessories to customers.

In the Mobile Communications service, revenues are mainly generated from basic monthly charges, telecom service (“revenues from the mobile telecommunications service”) and other fees. Also, revenues from the sale of mobile handsets (“revenues from the sale of mobile handsets”) are generated from the sale of mobile handsets and accessories to subscribers or dealers.

The business flow of the above transactions consists of “Indirect sales,” where the Company sells mobile handsets to dealers and enters into telecommunications services contracts with subscribers through dealers, and “Direct sales,” where the Company sells mobile handsets to subscribers and enters into telecommunications services contracts directly with subscribers. The revenues are recognized respectively as follows:

(a) Indirect sales

Revenues from the sale of mobile handsets are recognized when mobile handsets are delivered to dealers, which is when risk and economic value are deemed to be transferred. Commission fees paid to dealers related to the sales of mobile handsets are deducted from revenues.

The mobile telecommunications services are recognized as revenue when services are provided to subscribers. Discounts are deducted from revenues from monthly mobile telecommunications services as a discount of mobile telecommunications charges.

Activation fees are deferred upon entering into the contract and recognized as revenues over the estimated average contract period. Upgrade fees are recognized as revenues over the estimated average usage period of handsets with the subscribers. Direct costs related to activation are deferred to the extent of the activation fees and upgrade fees and are amortized over the respective same period.

(b) Direct sales

In direct transactions, as the revenue from the sales of mobile handsets and the mobile telecommunications services, including the fees, are considered to be one transaction, the total amount of revenues is allocated to mobile handsets and telecommunications service on the basis of fair value ratio.

When handsets are sold in installments, revenue from the sales of mobile handsets is recognized based on the fair value ratio when handsets are delivered to the subscribers. When handsets are sold in lump-sum payment, the maximum amount of revenues to be recognized by the sale of mobile handsets is set by the amounts to be received from subscribers at the sales of mobile handsets. The amount of revenue allocated to the mobile telecommunication services is recognized when the service is provided to the subscribers.

b. Fixed-line Telecommunications service

In the Fixed-line Telecommunications service, revenues are generated mainly from voice communications and digital data transmission services, Internet provider charges, ADSL service fees, IP telephony service fees, and the usage of the network (“revenues from fixed-line telecommunications service”).

Revenues from fixed-line telecommunications services are recognized as revenues when services are provided to subscribers, based upon fixed monthly charges plus the usage of the network.

Yahoo Japan segment

In the Yahoo Japan segment, revenues are generated mainly from sponsored search advertising, display advertising, e-commerce related commission fees, revenue from membership and product sales.

Sponsored search advertising revenue is recognized when a visitor of the website clicks the advertisement. Display advertising comprises premium advertising, Yahoo! Display Ad Network (“YDN”) and other. Revenue from premium advertising is recognized over a period in which related advertisement is displayed. Revenue from YDN is recognized when a visitor of the website clicks the advertisement on the page with the related content. Revenue from e-commerce related commission fees is recognized when the transaction occurs. Revenue from membership fees is recognized over an effective period of the membership. Revenue from product sales is recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the products are transferred to the buyer, the Company retains neither continuing managerial involvement nor effective control over the products sold, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow into the Company, and the costs incurred and the amount of revenue related to the transaction can be measured reliably.

Distribution segment

In the Distribution segment, revenues are generated mainly from distribution of mobile handsets to telecommunication service providers and retailers overseas, and sales of PC software, peripherals, and mobile handsets accessories in Japan. Revenue in the Distribution segment is recognized when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the products are transferred to the buyer, the Company retains neither continuing managerial involvement nor effective control over the products sold, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow into the Company, and the costs incurred and the amount of revenue related to the transaction can be measured reliably. For transactions conducted by the Company on behalf of third parties, revenue is presented on net basis by excluding payment to third parties from the total consideration received from customers.

(17) Sales commission fees

The Company pays sales commission fees when dealers sell the Company's mobile handsets to subscribers or acquire and retain engagement of telecommunications service between the Company and subscribers. Commission fees related to the sales of mobile handsets are deducted from the revenues from the sales of mobile handsets. Commission fees related to the acquisition and retention of engagement of telecommunications service are recognized as selling, general and administrative expenses.

(18) Income tax

Income tax expense is composed of current and deferred taxes, and recognized in profit or loss, except for taxes related to business combinations and taxes related to items that are recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the taxation authorities, using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the fiscal year.

Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, net operating loss carryforwards and tax credit carryforwards can be utilized. The recoverability of deferred tax assets is reassessed at the end of the fiscal year.

Deferred tax assets are not recognized for temporary differences from initial recognition of assets and liabilities that do not arise from business combinations and that do not impact accounting profit or taxable income.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates when it is probable that the temporary difference will reverse in the foreseeable future and when there will be sufficient taxable profits against which the temporary differences can be utilized.

Deferred tax liabilities are basically recognized for taxable temporary differences, except for:

- temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of assets and liabilities, and related transactions other than business combinations, that affect neither the accounting profit nor the taxable profit;
- taxable temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of goodwill; and
- taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and associates, where the Company is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the period when the asset is realized or the liability is settled, based on tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the fiscal year.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if the Company has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and income taxes are levied by the same taxation authority on the same taxable entity.

(19) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing net income attributable to owners of the parent by the weighted-average number of ordinary shares (after adjusting for treasury stocks) outstanding for the period.

Diluted earnings per share assume full conversion of the issued potential stocks having a dilutive effect, with an adjustment for net income attributable to owners of the parent and the weighted-average number of ordinary shares (after adjusting for treasury stocks) outstanding for the period.

4. Significant judgments and estimates

In preparing consolidated financial statements under IFRSs, management makes judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and carrying amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. These estimates and underlying assumptions are based on management's best judgments, through their evaluation of various factors that were considered reasonable as of the period-end, based on historical experience and by collecting available information. By the nature of its estimates or assumptions, however, actual results in the future may differ from those estimates or assumptions.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are continuously reviewed. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised as well as in the future periods. Significant judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts recognized in the Company's consolidated financial statements are as follows:

- judgments of whether an entity is controlled by the Company in the decision making on the scope of consolidation ((1) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and "Note 15. Major subsidiaries");
- significant judgments for the determination of joint ventures ((1) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and (3) in "Note 14. Leases");
- estimates for impairment of investments accounted for using the equity method ((1) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and "Note 38. Other non-operating income and loss");
- estimates of fair value of assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in a business combination ((2) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and "Note 6. Business combinations");
- fair value measurement of financial assets at FVTPL and available-for-sale financial assets ((4) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies," (1) (2) in "Note 26. Fair value of financial instruments" and "Note 38. Other non-operating income and loss");
- estimates for impairment of financial assets measured at amortized cost ((4) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and "Note 38. Other non-operating income and loss");
- estimates of residual value and useful life of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets ((7) and (9) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies");
- judgments and estimates for accounting treatment of contracts including leases ((10) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and "Note 14. Leases");
- estimates for impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and goodwill ((11) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies," "Note 13. Goodwill and intangible assets" and "Note 35. Other operating income and loss");
- measurement of defined benefit obligation ((12) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and (2) in "Note 24. Retirement benefits");
- judgments and estimates for recognition and measurement on provisions ((13) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and "Note 23. Provisions");
- assessment of recoverability of deferred tax assets ((18) in "Note 3. Significant accounting policies" and (4) in "Note 18. Income taxes"); and
- recognition of liabilities and expenses related to contingencies ("Note 35. Other operating income and loss" and (b) (3) b. in "Note 44. Contingency").

5. Segment information

(1) Description of reportable segments

The Company's reportable segments are components of business activities for which discrete financial information is available, and such information is regularly reviewed by the Company's board of directors in order to make decisions about the allocation of the resources and assess its performance.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015, the Company had four segments, the Mobile Communications segment, the Sprint segment, the Fixed-line Telecommunications segment, and the Internet segment. However, from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, in line with the transformation from a strong Japanese business with global assets to a global business that will strive to create sustainable growth over the long term, the Company changed its segments to four reportable segments, such as the Domestic telecommunications segment, the Sprint segment, the Yahoo Japan segment, and the Distribution segment.

The Domestic Telecommunications segment provides, mainly through SoftBank Corp. (formerly SoftBank Mobile Corp.), mobile communications services, sale of mobile devices, telecommunication services such as fixed-line telephone and data communications services for corporate customers, and broadband services for retail customers in Japan.

The Sprint segment provides, through Sprint, mobile communications services, sale and lease of mobile devices, sale of mobile device accessories, and fixed-line telecommunications services in the U.S.

The Yahoo Japan segment provides, mainly through Yahoo Japan Corporation, Internet-based advertising business, e-commerce business, and membership services.

The Distribution segment provides, mainly through Brightstar, distribution of mobile devices overseas, and through SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp., sale of mobile device accessories, PC software and peripherals in Japan.

The reportable segments for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 are presented based on the revised reportable segments.

(2) Net sales and income of reportable segments

Accounting policies for reportable segments are the same as the policies described in “Note 3. Significant accounting policies.”

Income of reportable segments is defined as “Operating income.”

The Company had defined the income of reportable segments as the amount after deducting “Cost of sales” and “Selling, general and administrative expenses” from “Net sales” until the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015. In connection with the revision of the segments, the Company defined its income of reportable segments as “Operating income” from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016.

Income of reportable segments for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 is also defined as “Operating income.”

Intersegment transaction prices are determined under the same general business conditions as applied for external customers.

The following is the information about the Company’s net sales and income by reportable segment.

The Company also discloses EBITDA (i.e., segment income and loss after addition of depreciation and amortization) and Adjusted EBITDA (i.e., EBITDA after deduction of gain from remeasurement relating to business combination and other operating income and loss) by each reportable segment.

Financial cost, income and loss on equity method investments, dilution gain from changes in equity interest, and other non-operating income and loss are not managed by each reportable segment and therefore these income and losses are excluded from the segment performance.

(1) ASKUL Corporation

a. Overview of consolidation

ASKUL Corporation, the Company's associate which primarily conducts mail order services for office supplies, became the Company's subsidiary on August 27, 2015 as a result of ASKUL Corporation's acquisition of its own treasury stock as resolved by its Board of Directors on May 19, 2015. As a result of ASKUL Corporation's acquisition of its own treasury stock, the ownership ratio of ASKUL Corporation's voting rights held by the Company rose from 41.7% (as of May 20, 2015) to 44.4% (as of August 27, 2015). The Company did not yet hold the majority of the voting rights of ASKUL Corporation, however, considering relevant facts such as the dispersion of voting rights in ASKUL Corporation and the voting patterns exercised in ASKUL Corporation's past shareholders meetings, the Company determined that it substantially has control of ASKUL Corporation as a consolidated subsidiary.

Notes:

- Adjustment of the provisional amount
Consideration transferred is allocated to acquired assets and assumed liabilities based on the fair value on the acquisition date. Allocation of the consideration transferred was completed during the three-month period ended December 31, 2015. The details of the adjustments from the initial provisional amounts are, due to the additional analysis on the fair value of ASKUL Corporation, intangible assets decreased by ¥2,820 million and non-controlling interests decreased by ¥1,097 million. As a result, goodwill increased by ¥877 million.
- Non-controlling interests
Non-controlling interests in an acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of the entity's net assets in the event of liquidation are measured based on the proportionate interests at the acquisition date in the identifiable net assets of the acquiree at the acquisition date.
- Goodwill
Goodwill reflects an excess earning power expected from the future business development and the synergy between the Company and the acquiree.

In addition, the above net income includes amortization expenses, which are related to intangible assets recognized at the acquisition date, and other.

(2) Ikyu Corporation

a. Overview of consolidation

The Company, for the purpose of ensuring the effectiveness of the growth through the e-Commerce Revolution which is strategically important for Yahoo Japan Corporation, has been performing a tender offer for Ikyu Corporation's shares, which was resolved at Yahoo Japan Corporation's board of directors' meeting held on December 15, 2015. The tender offer ended on February 3, 2016 and then Yahoo Japan Corporation acquired 27,480,682 shares of Ikyu Corporation's common shares at ¥94,341 million in cash. Consequently, the Company's voting rights ratio for Ikyu Corporation has become 94.3% and Ikyu Corporation has been converted to a consolidated subsidiary.

The amount of “Other” included in “Buildings and structures” for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 is recorded mainly due to the change in accounting estimate of asset retirement obligations in Sprint. The details are described in “Note 23. Provisions.”

The decrease resulting from “Disposals” in “Furniture, fixtures, and equipment” includes ¥222,750 million, which is a historical cost of certain leased devices sold from Sprint to Mobile Leasing Solutions, LLC, and ¥(59,730) million of accumulated depreciation and impairment losses for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. The details are described in “(3) Handset sale-leaseback” in “Note 14. Leases.”

The amount of “Transfer of accounts” in “Furniture, fixtures, and equipment” is mainly due to the transfer of leased devices from “Inventories” in current assets.

Impairment loss is included in “Other operating loss” in the consolidated statement of income. The details are described in “Note 35. Other operating income and loss.”

The carrying amounts of finance lease assets included in property, plant and equipment are as follows:

Increase due to “Business combinations” for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 is as follows:

As a result of consolidating ASKUL Corporation as a subsidiary in August 2015, the Company recognized customer relationships of ¥40,680 million and trademarks of ¥20,130 million. The details are described in “(1) ASKUL Corporation” in “Note 6. Business combinations.”

As a result of consolidating Ikyu Corporation as a subsidiary in February 2016, the Company recognized customer relationships of ¥16,000 million and trademarks of ¥10,120 million. The details are described in “(2) Ikyu Corporation” in “Note 6. Business combinations.”

Impairment losses are included in “Other operating loss” in the consolidated statement of income. The details are described in “Note 35. Other operating income and loss.”

Decrease due to “Loss of control” for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 is as follows:

As a result of losing control of GungHo as a subsidiary in June 2015, game titles decreased by ¥21,610 million. The details are described in “Note 40. Discontinued operations.”

“FCC licenses” are licenses to use a specific frequency spectrum granted by the U.S. Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”). As long as the Company acts within the requirements of regulatory authorities, the renewal and extension of FCC licenses are reasonably certain at minimal cost. Therefore, it is determined that FCC licenses have indefinite useful lives.

The Company determined that the “Sprint” and “Boost Mobile” trademarks have indefinite useful lives as they can be legally used continuously as long as the business continues and management’s current plans are to offer service under these trademarks for the foreseeable future.

Customer relationships reflect excessive earning capacity in the future expected from the existing customers of the acquiree at the time of business combinations.

Favorable lease contracts are recognized as intangible assets based on the estimated fair value of the favorable portion of future cash flows if, at the time of business combinations, the terms of operating lease contracts in which the acquiree is the lessee are favorable compared to market terms at acquisition date. Reversal of favorable lease contracts is recognized as operating lease payments.

Game titles reflect excessive earning capacity in the future expected from the existing game titles of the acquiree at the time of the business combinations.

Spectrum migration costs are the amounts that the Company incurred in connection with the costs arising from the migration of the existing users from the 900 MHz band, which SoftBank Corp. acquired, to the other frequency spectrum based on the termination campaign.

Amortization is included in “Cost of sales” and “Selling, general and administrative expenses” in the consolidated statement of income.

The carrying amount of internally generated intangible assets included in the intangible assets is as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Software	¥57,488	¥47,200

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Software	¥226,407	¥290,460

Finance lease obligations of the Company are pledged through the lessor’s retaining the property right of lease assets.

The intangible assets with limited property rights due to installment purchase are described in “(5) Assets with limited property rights” in “Note 19. Interest-bearing debt.”

Research and development costs included in “Cost of sales” and “Selling, general and administrative expenses” are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016
Research and development costs	¥9,904	¥8,870

Goodwill acquired as a part of business combinations is allocated to cash-generating units or cash-generating unit groups that are expected to benefit from the synergies arising from the combination.

Amounts of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives allocated to cash-generating units or cash-generating unit groups are as follows:

Cash-generating units or groups of cash-generating units have been changed for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 due to the reclassification in the Yahoo Japan segment and the Distribution segment.

The recoverable amount of each cash-generating unit or cash-generating unit group is measured as follows:

Value in use: SoftBank, Yahoo, Marketing solution, Shopping, Settlement finance, Ikyu, Brightstar, Brightstar US and Canada region, Brightstar Latin America region, Brightstar Asia and Oceania region, Brightstar Europe and Africa region, and SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp.

Fair value less disposal cost: Sprint

Value in use is mainly assessed by discounting to the present value the estimated cash flows in the next five years based on the financial budget approved by the management, which reflects past experience and external information, using the pretax weighted average cost of capital of 5.12%-22.11% of the cash-generating unit or cash-generating unit groups (5.03%-21.08% for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015). The cash flows from after five years are assumed on the basis of the growth rate of 0%-3.81%.

The fair value less disposal cost is measured based on active market prices.

As a result of reviewing the business plan of Brightstar’s Latin America region, goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives were tested for impairment because there was an indication of impairment for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. As a result, the recoverable amount became negative and therefore the carrying amount of assets related to the cash-generating unit was reduced to zero. Impairment loss on property, plant and equipment was ¥8,070 million and impairment loss on intangible assets was ¥5,563 million. Value in use was used as the recoverable amount and calculated by discounting management approved estimated future cash flow plan by 22.11%, weighted average capital cost before tax.

Impairment loss of ¥6,086 million for goodwill allocated to cash-generating unit groups of Other is recognized for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016.

Other than the above, as a result of an impairment test of goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives, no impairment loss is recognized for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 (For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015: no impairment loss is recognized for goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives allocated to any cash-generating units or cash-generating unit groups).

The share price of Sprint as of March 31, 2016 is $3.48 and it is below the carrying amount per share price on a consolidated basis. The fair value is measured by not only the quoted market price of the share, but also other considerations such as a future business plan and an estimated control premium.

The determination of fair value requires considerable judgment and is highly sensitive to changes in underlying assumptions. Consequently, there can be no assurance that the estimates and assumptions made for the purposes of the impairment tests for goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives will prove to be an accurate prediction of the future. Continued, sustained declines in Sprint’s operating results, future forecasted cash flows, growth rates and other assumptions, as well as significant, sustained declines in Sprint share price and related market capitalization could impact the underlying key assumptions and our estimated fair values, potentially leading to a future material impairment of goodwill or intangible assets with indefinite useful lives.

As for goodwill allocated to Brightstar, the value in use of the cash-generating units to which the goodwill is allocated is higher than the carrying amount. However, there is a possibility that the impairment loss will be recognized if the pretax weighted average cost of capital used in the calculation of the value in use increases by approximately 0.26% or the growth rate in the calculation of the value in use decreases by approximately 2.68%.

The Company determined that for cash-generating units or cash-generating unit groups to which the goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are allocated, other than the above, the recoverable amount is unlikely to fall below the carrying amount, even if major assumptions used in the impairment test change to a reasonably foreseeable extent.

14. Leases

(1) Finance leases

(As lessee)

The Company has leased assets, including wireless equipment, switching equipment, power supply systems and transmission facilities.

The components of finance lease obligations are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
The total minimum lease payments
Within 1 year	¥ 431,271	¥ 417,891

Over 5 years	10,826	5,395
Total	¥1,156,364	¥1,212,186

The outstanding balance by maturity year of financial lease obligations is described in “(2) Financial risk management c. Liquidity risk” in “Note 25. Financial instruments.”

Certain lease contracts have financial covenants. Major contents are described in “(2) Financial covenants” in “Note 19. Interest-bearing debt.”

The components of the future minimum lease payments receivable under non-cancelable subleases are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Total	¥20,763	¥27,964

(2) Operating leases

(As lessee)

The Company leases towers, land and buildings for the placement of telecommunications equipment, frequency spectrum, and telecommunication lines under operating leases. Certain operating lease contracts have automatic renewal option and escalation clauses.

In addition to the non-cancelable period, an automatic renewal option is included in the lease term to the extent that, at the inception of the lease, it is reasonably certain that the option will be exercised. For operating leases with escalation clauses or a portion of which is free of charge, the total lease payment amount is amortized over the lease term by the straight line method.

Cell site leases

Cell site leases in the U.S. are generally provided by the cell phone tower operators who provide tower and ground space to place Sprint-owned antennae, radio, and related equipment. The contract terms generally provide for an initial non-cancelable term of 5 to 12 years with up to five renewal options for five years each. At the establishment of the cell sites leases, it is assumed that at least one renewal option is exercised for contracts less than 10 years.

Cell site leases in Japan contain only land or buildings for the placement of cell sites. Most of the contract terms are 10 years or 20 years. At the establishment of the cell site leases, it is reasonably certain that they will be used until the contract term expires.

Spectrum leases (U.S.)

U.S. leased spectrum agreements have renewal options. For those contracts, it is reasonably certain that, at the inception of the transaction, all the renewal options will be used and terms including renewal terms are up to 30 years.

The components of the future minimum lease payments related to non-cancelable operating leases are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Within 1 year	¥ 376,134	¥ 434,831
1 to 5 years	1,259,983	1,246,531
Over 5 years	1,435,562	1,207,512
Total	¥3,071,679	¥2,888,874

Operating lease payments recognized as expenses for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 totaled ¥471,560 million (For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015: ¥430,977 million).

(As lessor)

Sprint provides a device leasing program to its qualifying subscribers in the U.S. and SoftBank Corp. provides device rental service to corporate customers in Japan. The Company classifies substantially all transactions as operating leases along with the device leasing program and device rental service. At the end of the lease term of the device leasing program at Sprint, the subscriber has the option to turn in their device, continue leasing their device, or purchase the device. Since device leases are provided on the condition that subscribers maintain telecommunication services with the Company, the amount of revenue from these transactions is separated into the amount of payments to be received for device leases and other elements based on the fair value of telecommunication service and lease.

The components of the future minimum lease payments receivable under non-cancelable operating leases are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Within 1 year	¥104,551	¥292,923
1 to 5 years	74,074	99,141
Over 5 years	2,470	1,701
Total	¥181,095	¥393,765

(3) Handset sale-leaseback

In November 2015, Sprint conducted a transaction to sell and leaseback certain leased devices, which is mentioned above “(2) Operating leases (As lessor),” with Mobile Leasing Solutions, LLC (MLS).

MLS was established for leasing business by SBLS HD US, Inc. (SBLS), a wholly-owned subsidiary of SoftBank Group Corp. and JPLS HD US, Inc. (JPLS), a company formed by Japanese leasing companies. It is contractually agreed that significant management policy and operating decision of MLS require the unanimous consent of its board of directors designated by SBLS and JPLS. Accordingly, the Company accounts for MLS under the equity method as a joint venture.

Under this transaction, Sprint sold the devices and transferred the associated certain specified customer lease end rights and obligations to MLS in exchange for a total amount of $1.3 billion, consisting of proceeds totaling $1.1 billion cash which was received in December 2015 and a deferred purchase price receivable of $0.1 billion, the remaining amount of the total proceeds, which will be settled at the end of the agreement. Simultaneously with the sale of the devices and transfer of certain specified customer lease end rights and obligations, MLS leased back each device to Sprint pursuant to the Master Lease Agreement in exchange for monthly rental payments to be made by Sprint to MLS. In addition, Brightstar has a contractual agreement with MLS to provide reverse logistics and remarketing services to MLS with respect to the devices that are returned to MLS. The terms and conditions of the transaction are negotiated and determined based on the market price and the content of transaction.

Sprint derecognized devices from property, plant and equipment when they were sold to MLS. The $65 million (¥7,801 million) difference between the fair value and the carrying amount of the devices sold was recognized as “Other operating loss” in the consolidated statement of income.

The proceeds received in December 2015 totaling $1.1 billion (¥137,593 million) were recognized as “Proceeds from sales of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets” in the consolidated statement of cash flows.

Total amount of the future minimum lease payments receivable recognized under the transaction is ¥73,410 million and the future minimum lease payments receivable during the period is ¥28,385 million.

17. Structured entities

(1) Consolidated structured entities

The Company owns investment funds which are structured entities consolidated by the Company. These funds are structured as venture funds in the form of partnerships and limited partnerships for investment, and designed so that the voting rights or similar rights are not determinant in evaluating control. The Company evaluated that it controls the operation of those structured entities.

The Company is engaged in investment commitment contracts with certain consolidated structured entities.

The Company has not provided, nor intends to provide, any significant financial support or other significant support to the consolidated structured entities without contractual obligation.

(2) Unconsolidated structured entities

The Company owns investment funds, which are structured entities unconsolidated by the Company. These funds are structured as venture funds in the form of partnerships, limited partnerships for investment and investment trusts, and designed so that the voting rights or similar rights are not determinant in evaluating control. The third party controls the operation of these structured entities. The funds are financed by the subscription by its partners.

The scale of the unconsolidated structured entities, the carrying amount of the investment in the entities by the Company, and the potential maximum loss exposure of the Company are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Total assets of the unconsolidated structured entities (aggregate amount) . .	¥452,567	¥629,519
The maximum loss exposure of the Company
The carrying amount of the investment recognized by the Company	71,707	75,733
Commitment contracts related to additional investment	16,502	16,437
Total	¥ 88,209	¥ 92,170

The investment recognized by the Company is included in “Investments accounted for using the equity method” or “Other financial assets (non-current)” in the consolidated statement of financial position. There is no liability to recognize for the Company related to unconsolidated structured entities.

The potential maximum loss exposure incurred from the involvement with the structured entities is limited to the total of the carrying amount of the Company’s investment and commitment regarding additional investment.

The Company’s maximum loss exposure represents the potential maximum loss amount, and does not indicate any estimated loss amount by being involved with structured entities.

The Company has not provided, nor intends to provide, any financial support or other significant support to the unconsolidated structured entities above without contractual obligation.

18. Income taxes

(1) Tax expenses

The components of income tax expenses are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016
Current tax expenses	¥(315,032)	¥(242,174)
Deferred tax expenses	(155,285)	(198,381)
Total	¥(470,317)	¥(440,555)

Current tax expenses include reduction of current tax expense by the benefit from net operating loss carryforwards, tax credit carryforwards and temporary differences that occurred in previous periods and that were unaccompanied by the recognition of deferred tax assets. The reduction of current tax expense for the year ended March 31, 2016 was ¥30,023 million (For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015: ¥8,954 million).

Deferred tax expenses include expense arising from the write-down of a deferred tax asset or reversal of a previously written-down deferred tax asset. The amount of tax expenses related to these changes was decreased by ¥10,494 million for the year ended March 31, 2016 (For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015: decreased by ¥62,426 million).

In Japan, as the Act on the Partial Revision of the Income Tax Act (Article 15, 2016) and the Local Tax Law (Article 13, 2016) were enacted in the Diet on March 29, 2016, the Company’s statutory effective tax rate, used to measure the deferred tax assets and liabilities for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016, was changed. The effective tax rate for the temporary differences whose timing of the recovery or settlement of the related temporary difference is expected from April 1, 2016 to March 31, 2018 is changed from 32.3% to 30.9%, and to 30.6% for those whose timing expected is on April 1, 2018 and thereafter. This change of deferred tax assets and liabilities that impact profit or loss is ¥11,309 million and reduces deferred tax expenses.

(2) Reconciliation of statutory effective tax rate and actual tax rate

The reconciliation of the statutory effective tax rate and actual tax rate is as follows. The actual tax rate represents the ratio of income tax expenses to income before income tax.

	(Unit :%)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016
Statutory effective tax rate	35.6	33.1
Effect from evaluating recoverability of deferred tax assets	3.0	15.9
Effect from profit or loss that does not impact taxable gain or loss	0.7	2.0
Impairment loss on equity method associates	1.0	—
Change of deferred tax assets and liabilities by the change of effective tax rate	(0.0)	(1.5)
Gain from remeasurement relating to business combination	—	(2.0)
Difference in tax rate applied to subsidiaries	(0.6)	(3.1)
Other	(0.9)	(0.6)
Actual tax rate	38.8	43.8

The Company is subject to income taxes, residence taxes and deductible enterprise tax. The statutory effective tax rate for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 based on these taxes is 33.1% (For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015: 35.6%), except for foreign subsidiaries that are subject to income taxes at their respective locations.

In Japan, as the Act on the Partial Revision of the Income Tax Act (Article 9, 2015) and the Local Tax Law (Article 2, 2015) were enacted in the Diet on March 31, 2015, the statutory effective tax rate was changed from the fiscal year on and after April 1, 2015.

(3) Movement of deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities

The movement of deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities is as follows:

Notes:

- The Company recognizes deferred tax assets related to the entities that recorded a loss in either the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014 or 2015, in the amount of ¥53,046 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015. This is mainly from the recognition of deferred tax assets as of March 31, 2015 related to net operating loss carryforwards of Ymobile Corporation, considering the fact that SoftBank Mobile Corp., SoftBank BB Corp., SoftBank Telecom Corp., and Ymobile Corporation conducted an absorption type merger with SoftBank Mobile Corp. being the surviving company, effective on April 1, 2015.
- The increase in deferred tax liabilities from “Temporary difference associated with investment in subsidiaries, associates, and joint ventures” is mainly due to the recognition of deferred tax liabilities on temporary differences on investment which mainly arose from dilution gain from changes in equity interest and income on equity method investments related to Alibaba. The amount of deferred tax liability recognized as of March 31, 2015 is ¥238,448 million.

Notes:

- The Company recognizes deferred tax assets related to the entities that recorded a loss in either the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 or 2016, in the amount of ¥10,306 million for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences, net operating loss carryforwards and tax credit carryforwards can be utilized.
- The increase in deferred tax liabilities from “Temporary difference associated with investment in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures” is mainly due to the recognition of deferred tax liabilities on temporary differences on investment which mainly arose from dilution gain from changes in equity interest and income on equity method investments related to Alibaba. The amount of deferred tax liability recognized as of March 31, 2016 is ¥327,343 million.

(2) Financial covenants

a. Financial covenants on interest-bearing debts of SoftBank Group Corp.

SoftBank Group Corp.’s interest-bearing debt includes financial covenants and the major financial covenants are as follows:

- (a) The amount of SoftBank Group Corp.’s net assets at the end of the fiscal year must not fall below 75% of SoftBank Group Corp.’s net assets at the end of the previous year.
- (b) The consolidated statement of financial position of the Company at the end of the fiscal year must not show a net capital deficiency. The statement of financial position of SoftBank Corp. at the end of the fiscal year must not show a net capital deficiency.
- (c) In the Company’s consolidated financial statement, operating income (loss) or net income (loss) attributable to the owner of the parent company must not result in losses for two consecutive years.
- (d) Adjusted net interest-bearing debts¹ or leverage ratios² designated in the loan agreement must not exceed certain respective amounts or numbers at the end of each annual reporting period and at the end of the second quarter. The threshold amounts of adjusted net interest-bearing debts and leverage ratios shall be softened when the balance of cash and cash equivalents and the fair value of particular listed shares held by SoftBank Group Corp. exceed certain amounts, respectively.

Notes:

1. Adjusted net interest-bearing debts:
Amounts deducting cash and cash equivalents from interest-bearing debts in the consolidated statement of financial position. Certain adjustments are made such as excluding certain listed subsidiaries such as Sprint from the subject.
2. Leverage ratio:
Adjusted net interest-bearing debt / adjusted EBITDA³
3. Adjusted EBITDA:
Certain adjustments are made to EBITDA such as excluding listed subsidiaries such as Sprint.

b. Financial covenants on interest-bearing debts of Sprint

Major covenants on the interest-bearing debt issued by Sprint are as follows:

- (a) Holders of a portion ($21.6 billion) of notes issued by Sprint are provided with the right to require Sprint to repurchase the notes if there is a change of control and if there is a decline, to a certain extent, in ratings of the applicable notes by the Rating Services. Also, holders of certain bonds issued by Clearwire ($300 million) are provided with the right to require the repurchase of the notes if a change of control triggering event occurs.
- (b) It is required that as of the last day of each quarter, Sprint’s ratio of total indebtedness¹ to adjusted EBITDA² should not exceed a certain threshold level. Exceeding the ratio could result in the maturities being accelerated. The limit for the ratio was 6.25 as of March 31, 2016.

Notes:

1. Total indebtedness: the sum of Sprint’s outstanding debt (excluding trade payable) and guarantee of indebtedness, with certain adjustments defined in contracts with lenders.
2. Adjusted EBITDA: Trailing four quarters EBITDA including adjustments defined in contract with lenders.

(3) Borrowings related to equity securities lending contract

Note:

1. Sprint reflected current market assessment of specific risk in the estimate of discount rate. As a result, the discount rate in Sprint increased for the year ended March 31, 2016. With this change, the amount of “Provisions” and “Property, plant and equipment” in the consolidated statement of financial position as of March 31, 2016 decreased by ¥25,973 million and ¥16,260 million respectively. Also, the amount of “Cost of sales” in the consolidated statement of income for the year ended March 31, 2016 decreased by ¥5,719 million and “Other operating loss” increased by ¥3,944 million.

Asset retirement obligations

Asset retirement obligations are recognized by the reasonably estimated amount required for the removal of equipment, such as part of base stations, certain offices (including the head office), data centers and network centers. The estimate is based on the assumption at present and subject to changes depending on revised future assumptions.

Restructuring provision

The restructuring provision consists mainly of a network shutdown provision and backhaul² access provision.

(Network shutdown provision)

The network shutdown provision resulted from Sprint recognizing lease exit costs mainly related to the shutdown of the Nextel and Clearwire platform. The majority of the remaining network shutdown provision is expected to be utilized within 5-7 years. The amount and timing of these costs are estimated based upon current network plans which are subject to modification.

(Backhaul access provision)

The backhaul access provision reflects exit costs related to payments that will continue to be made under Sprint’s backhaul access contracts for which it will no longer be receiving any economic benefit. The majority of the backhaul access provision relates to Sprint’s network modernization activities and is expected to be utilized by December 31, 2017. The amount and timing of these costs are estimates based upon current network plans which are subject to modifications.

Note:

- ² Backhaul is an intermediary network which connects the cell towers to the local switching center.

Provision for loss on interest repayment

Provision for loss on interest repayment is recorded based on an amount representing future expected claims in order to prepare for future claims by debtors and other, for repayment of interest paid in excess of the rate permitted under the Interest Rate Restriction Act. The amount of claims for the interest repayment might fluctuate from changes in market environment and other.

Provision for onerous contract

SoftBank Corp. recognized provision for the excess of expected future cost of delivery for a contracted communication service over its contracted amount.

Most of the provision is expected to be used by March 31, 2019. The amount and the expected timing of payment are based on the current network plan and are subject to change.

24. Retirement benefits

The Company primarily has defined contribution pension plans for its employees.

(1) Defined contribution plans

Retirement benefit cost of defined contribution plans is as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016
Retirement benefit cost of defined contribution plans	¥10,878	¥10,678

(2) Defined benefit plans

(Japan)

SoftBank Corp. has frozen its defined benefit lump-sum plans since March 2007 and 2006.

All the employees who worked at SoftBank Corp. at the time when the defined benefit lump-sum plans were frozen are eligible for the frozen defined benefit lump-sum plans.

SoftBank Corp. is responsible for providing the defined benefit lump-sum plans to recipients directly. Obligations for the frozen defined benefit lump-sum plans are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until the benefits are paid in the form of lump sum payment at the time of future retirement of employees.

(U.S.)

Sprint has a defined benefit pension plan for certain of its employees. Sprint has frozen its defined benefit pension plan since December 2005. Obligations for the frozen defined benefit pension plan are recognized as defined benefit liabilities until the benefits are paid as pension after the retirement of employees.

The targeted investment allocation ratio is set based on an asset allocation policy for the investment portfolio of the pension plan to achieve a long-term nominal rate of return, net of fees, which exceeds the plan's long-term expected rate of return on investments for funding purpose.

The plan's long-term expected rate of return on investments for funding purposes is 7.75% as of March 31, 2016 (7.75% as of March 31, 2015). The current targeted investment allocation ratio is as noted below. Actual allocations are allowed to deviate from target allocation percentages within a range for each asset class as defined in the investment policy.

c. Actuarial assumptions

Main actuarial assumptions used to determine the present value of defined benefit obligations are as follows:

	As of March 31, 2015		As of March 31, 2016
	Japan	U.S.	Japan	U.S.
Discount rate (%)	0.8	4.2	0.2	4.3

d. Sensitivity analysis

Sensitivity is analyzed at the end of the period based on the movement of reasonably estimable assumptions. Sensitivity analysis assumes that actuarial assumptions other than those subject to the analysis are constant, but in reality, the movement of other actuarial assumptions may change.

The effect of the movements in main actuarial assumptions on defined benefit obligations is as follows:

As of March 31, 2015

	Changes in rate	Effect on defined benefit obligations
		Japan	U.S.	Total
Discount rate	0.5% increase	Decrease of ¥632 million	Decrease of ¥19,948 million	Decrease of ¥20,580 million
	0.5% decrease	Increase of ¥669 million	Increase of ¥22,712 million	Increase of ¥23,381 million

As of March 31, 2016

	Changes in rate	Effect on defined benefit obligations
		Japan	U.S.	Total
Discount rate	0.5% increase	Decrease of ¥604 million	Decrease of ¥16,902 million	Decrease of ¥17,506 million
	0.5% decrease	Increase of ¥648 million	Increase of ¥19,944 million	Increase of ¥20,592 million

e. Effects on future cash flows

(a) Funding for the plan and expected contributions to the plan for the next fiscal year

(U.S.)

The policy is to contribute the necessary amount to the plan in order to meet the minimum funding requirement, based on related regulations. The amount to be contributed to the plan for the year ending March 31, 2017 is expected to be ¥5,668 million.

(b) Maturity analysis of the defined benefit obligation

(Japan)

As of March 31, 2016, the weighted average duration of the defined benefit obligation is 9.5 years.

(U.S.)

As of March 31, 2016, the weighted average duration of the defined benefit obligation is 15.7 years.

25. Financial instruments

(1) Capital management

Our policy is to realize and maintain optimum capital composition to maintain mid- and long-term sustainable growth and maximize our corporate value.

Major indicators used for our capital management are as follows:

- Equity capital
- Equity capital ratio

Note:

Equity capital is the amount of “Equity attributable to owners of the parent.” Equity capital ratio represents “Equity attributable to owners of the parent” divided by “Total liabilities and equity.”

Equity capital and the equity capital ratio are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Equity capital	¥2,846,306	¥2,613,613
Equity capital ratio (%)	13.5	12.6

The Company is not subject to regulatory capital requirement imposed by outside institutions other than general capital requirements under the Companies Act of Japan and other.

(2) Financial risk management

As we operate in a wide range of markets, the Company faces a variety of financial risks (currency risk, price risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, and liquidity risk) in its operations. The Company manages its risks based on established policies to prevent and reduce these financial risks.

Derivative transactions entered into by the Company are conducted and controlled based on the Company’s internal rules and procedures for derivative transactions and are limited to the extent of actual demands.

a. Market risk

(a) Currency risk

The Company is engaged in international businesses through investments, financial contributions and establishment of joint ventures. The Company undertakes transactions denominated in foreign currencies with foreign parties and, through lending to and borrowings from foreign subsidiaries. Consequently, there is currency risk from changes in currency rates mainly in U.S. dollar, Indian Rupee, and Euro.

To manage this risk, the Company continuously monitors exchange rates and manages exchange rate exposures of the Company. The Company also uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge the risk.

i. Foreign exchange sensitivity analysis

Exposure to foreign exchange risk on financial instruments related to U.S. dollars and Indian Rupees, our major foreign currencies, is as follows:

U.S. Dollar

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Net exposure affecting income before income tax	¥81,604	¥86,102
[in asset (liability) position]
Net exposure affecting other comprehensive income	26,083	83,466
[in asset (liability) position]

Indian Rupee

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Net exposure affecting income before income tax	¥89,918	¥214,290
[in asset (liability) position]

Other than the tables presented above, major exposure to foreign exchange risk on subsidiaries whose functional currency are other than Japanese yen is as follows:

U.S. Dollar (Functional currency: Euro)

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Net exposure affecting income before income tax	¥21,896	¥37,451
[in asset (liability) position]
Net exposure affecting other comprehensive income	23,106	19,859
[in asset (liability) position]

Net exposure affecting income before income tax comprises the foreign exchange risk exposures from monetary financial instruments denominated in foreign currency (including those used in internal transactions) whose exchange differences are recognized in profit or loss and the foreign exchange risk exposures from derivatives related to forecast transactions.

Net exposure affecting other comprehensive income comprises the foreign exchange risk exposures from available-for-sale financial assets whose exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income and foreign exchange risk exposures from derivatives (cash flow hedge) related to forecast transactions.

The table below presents the effect of a 1% appreciation of the Japanese yen on income before income tax and other comprehensive income (before tax effect) regarding the financial instruments with the above foreign exchange risk exposure, assuming that all other factors are constant. The analysis does not include the effect of translating assets and liabilities of foreign operations into the presentation currency, which is detailed in “Note 29. Foreign exchange rates.”

ii. Foreign exchange contracts

Foreign exchange contracts are entered into, to reduce exposure to foreign exchange risk on the amount to be paid or received in certain transactions denominated in foreign currencies.

The details of foreign exchange contracts are as follows:

Foreign exchange contracts to which hedge accounting is applied

	(Millions of yen)

Note:

* Foreign exchange margin transactions are operated by the subsidiary, YJFX, Inc.'s foreign exchange margin transactions business.

(b) Price risk

For the purpose of business strategy, the Company holds securities traded in active markets, including listed stock, and is exposed to market price fluctuation risk.

To manage this risk, the Company continuously monitors the financial condition of security issuers and stock market fluctuation.

i. Price sensitivity analysis

The table below presents the effect of a 10% decrease in market price regarding the securities traded in active markets on other comprehensive income before tax effect in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, assuming that all other factors are constant.

	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016
Decrease in other comprehensive income before tax effect	¥(4,673)	¥(7,381)

ii. Option contracts

The details of option contracts are as follows:

Option contracts to which hedge accounting is not applied

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015		As of March 31, 2016
	Contract amounts (of which: maturing in more than one year)	Fair value	Contract amounts (of which: maturing in more than one year)	Fair value
Stock acquisition rights	¥ 99,933	¥1,144	¥ 40,512	¥2,424
	(99,933)		(11,082)

(c) Interest rate risk

The Company raises funds through issuing interest-bearing debts. Certain interest-bearing debts are issued with floating interest rates and are exposed to interest rate risk.

In order to prevent and reduce interest rate fluctuation risk, the Company maintains an appropriate mixture of fixed and floating interest rate debts. For certain borrowings and bonds with floating interest rates, the Company also utilizes derivative transactions such as interest rate swaps in order to hedge interest rate fluctuation risk, converting floating interests into fixed interests. For floating interest rate debts, the Company continuously monitors interest rate fluctuation.

i. Interest rate sensitivity analysis

The table below presents the effect of a 1% increase in interest rates regarding the floating interest rate debts on income before income tax in the consolidated statement of income, assuming that all other factors are constant. The analysis does not include floating interest rate debt whose interests are fixed by interest rate swaps and other derivative transactions.

	As of March 31, 2015		As of March 31, 2016
	Contract amounts (of which: maturing in more than one year)	Fair value	Contract amounts (of which: maturing in more than one year)	Fair value
Interest rate swap	¥ 10,000 (10,000)	¥(67)	¥ 10,500 (10,500)	¥(75)

The above interest rate swap contract is designated as a cash flow hedge.

b. Credit risk

In the course of the Company's business, trade and other receivables, and other financial assets (including deposits, equity securities, receivables and derivatives) are exposed to credit risk of its counterparties.

In order to prevent and reduce the risk, the Company does not expose itself to significant concentrations of credit risk for such receivables and financial assets. To manage the credit risk, the Company performs due date controls and balance controls for each customer in accordance with internal customer credit management rules and regularly screens major customers' credit status.

The carrying amount of financial instruments, net of impairment, which is presented in the consolidated statement of financial position, as well as the amount of lending commitments and guaranteed obligations, represents the Company's maximum exposure to credit risk on financial assets. The value of collateral held and other credit enhancements are not included. The details of lending commitments and guaranteed obligations are described in "Note 44. Contingency (1) Lending commitments and (2) Credit guarantee."

There were no financial or non-financial assets acquired as a result of foreclosure of collateral or enforcement of other credit enhancements during the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2016.

Provisions for and reversal of doubtful accounts are recorded in “Selling, general and administrative expenses” and “Other non-operating income (loss)” in the consolidated statement of income.

c. Liquidity risk

In order to prevent and reduce liquidity risk, the Company maintains access to diversified fund raising sources including both indirect financing, such as bank loans and leases, and direct financing, such as issuance of bonds and commercial paper and securitization, taking market conditions and current/non-current debt ratios into consideration. As for fund management, the Company invests its funds in short-term deposits and MMF.

The Company also continuously monitors its forecast and actual movement of cash flows and liquid funds.

(a) Commitment lines of credit and other credit facilities

The Company has entered into commitment lines of credit and other credit facilities with various financial institutions to reduce liquidity risk. The Company’s credit facilities are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016

26. Fair value of financial instruments

(1) Categorization by level within the fair value hierarchy

Financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis after initial recognition are classified into three levels of the fair value hierarchy based on the observability and significance of inputs used for the measurement.

The fair value hierarchy is defined as follows in descending order of level:

Level 1: Fair value is measured using quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Fair value is measured using inputs other than Level 1 that are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Fair value is measured using unobservable inputs.

If the fair value measurement uses different levels of inputs, the fair value is categorized based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the entire fair value measurement.

Transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy are recognized as if they have occurred at the beginning of each quarter.

There were no transfers between level 1 and 2 during the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015 and 2016.

The table below presents financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy.

Note:

* Preferred stock investments in associates not applying the equity method totaling ¥146,926 million and ¥290,340 million are included as of March 31, 2015 and 2016, respectively, as the feature is substantively different from common stock. These preferred stocks are designated as financial assets at FVTPL.

The major valuation techniques for financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis are as follows:

a. Equity securities and bonds

Equity securities and bonds are measured using quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities if such prices are available, and are classified as level 1. Where such quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities are not available, they are measured using quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, quoted prices of comparable companies and valuation techniques such as the discounted cash flow model. They are classified as level 2 if all significant inputs such as quoted prices and discount rates that are used for the measurement are observable, whereas if inputs include significant unobservable inputs, they are classified as level 3.

b. Derivative financial assets and derivative financial liabilities

The fair value of derivative financial instruments is measured using valuation techniques such as discounted cash flow models. Derivative financial instruments are classified as level 2 if all significant inputs such as foreign exchange rates and discount rates that are used for the measurement are observable, whereas if inputs include significant unobservable inputs, they are classified as level 3.

(2) Fair value measurements of financial instruments that are categorized as level 3

a. Valuation techniques and inputs

The following table shows information about valuation techniques and significant unobservable inputs used in the level 3 fair value measurements where unobservable inputs are used.

Equity securities

Valuation techniques	Unobservable inputs	Ranges of unobservable inputs
		As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Price of recent investment	Discount for lack of marketability	—	10.0% – 45.0%
	Control premium	—	5.0% – 10.0%
Discounted cash flow	Cost of capital	15.0%	16.9%
	Perpetual growth rate	3.5%	5.2%
	Discount for lack of marketability	—	15.0%
	Discount for non-control interest	—	17.0%

b. Sensitivity Analysis

Of the above unobservable inputs, perpetual growth rate and control premium have a positive correlation with the fair value of equity securities, whereas cost of capital, discount for non-control interest, and discount for lack of marketability have a negative correlation with the fair value of equity securities.

c. Valuation processes

Fair value is measured by our personnel in treasury and accounting departments based on internal regulations, using the most appropriate valuation techniques and inputs that reflect the nature, characteristics and risks of the financial instruments subject to fair valuation. Fair value of financial instruments that require a high level of knowledge and experience for the valuation is measured by external specialists if the amount of such financial instruments is material. The result of the measurement conducted at the end of each quarter, including the valuation by the external specialists, is reported to the Company's board of directors after the analysis of fair value changes and other contents are reviewed and approved by the head of the department.

d. Reconciliation of financial instruments categorized as Level 3

Reconciliation of financial instruments categorized as Level 3 is as follows:

Note

* Equity securities are transferred from level 1 to level 3 and bonds are transferred from level 2 to level 3 since it became difficult to obtain their observable inputs. Also, impairment losses for these equity securities and bonds are recognized after transferred to level 3. The details are described in Note 2 in "Note 38. Other non-operating income and loss."

Gains or losses recognized in profit or loss are included in “Non-operating income (loss)” in the consolidated statement of income. Gains or losses recognized in other comprehensive income, net of tax, are included in “Available-for-sale financial assets” and “Exchange differences on translating foreign operations” in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income.

(3) Carrying amounts and fair values of financial instruments

The table below presents carrying amounts and fair values of financial instruments.

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015		As of March 31, 2016
	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
Non-current Interest-bearing debt
Long-term borrowings	¥2,116,498	¥2,160,920	¥1,785,500	¥1,797,632
Corporate bonds	6,825,868	6,862,785	6,611,947	6,099,330

Installment payables	102,552	102,673	63,181	64,280
Total	¥9,789,829	¥9,874,446	¥9,275,822	¥8,778,299

Financial instruments whose carrying amounts are reasonably similar to fair values are not included in the table above. Financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis are also excluded because their fair values are the same as the carrying amounts.

The major valuation techniques for fair value measurements of the above financial liabilities are as follows:

a. Long-term borrowings

Fair values of the non-current portion of long-term borrowings with variable rates are measured based on the discounted cash flow method using observable inputs such as market interests, and the measurement is categorized as level 2. Fair values of the non-current portion of long-term borrowings with fixed rate are measured based on discounted cash flow using an interest rate including the credit spread that would be used for a borrowing with the same terms and maturities. Those borrowings are categorized as Level 3.

b. Corporate bonds

Fair values of the non-current portion of corporate bonds are mainly categorized as Level 1 or Level 2. When fair value is measured using quoted prices in active markets for identical bonds, it is categorized as Level 1. When fair value is measured using quoted prices that are observable in markets that are not active for identical bonds, it is categorized as Level 2. The fair value categorized as Level 3 is immaterial.

c. Lease obligations

Fair values of the non-current portion of lease obligations are measured based on the discounted cash flow method using an interest rate considering the period until payment and credit risk, and categorized as Level 2.

d. Installment payables

Fair values of the non-current portion of installment payables are measured based on the discounted cash flow method using an interest rate adjusted for the remaining repayment period and credit risks, and the measurement is categorized as Level 2.

27. Transfers of financial assets

The Company enters into securitization transactions involving trade and installment receivables.

The major securitization transactions involve the securitization of receivables related to wireless service charges due from subscribers and installment receivables recognized from mobile handsets sales business. For each transaction, the Company transferred receivables to financial institutions and acquired cash and subordinate interest in the transferred receivables for financing purpose. The Receivables sold are not derecognized because in each transaction, the Company retains subordinate interest and therefore substantially retains all risks and rewards of ownership of the transferred assets. Cash received from transferring the receivables are included in “Interest-bearing debt” under current liabilities and non-current liabilities.

The following table presents the carrying amount of financial assets and related liabilities that are transferred but do not meet the derecognition criteria, as well as the fair value where related liabilities have recourse only to the transferred assets:

	(Millions of yen)
	As of March 31, 2015	As of March 31, 2016
Carrying amount of transferred assets	¥ 751,468	¥ 857,186
Carrying amount of related liabilities	(515,839)	(624,563)
 (Fair value of financial assets and financial liabilities where related liabilities have recourse only to the transferred assets)
Fair value of transferred assets	¥ 751,468	¥ 857,186
Fair value of related liabilities	(515,270)	(624,096)
Net position	¥ 236,198	¥ 233,090

The amount of difference between transferred assets and related liabilities is the subordinate interest which the Company retains on securitization.

28. Offsetting financial assets and liabilities

The following table presents the amount of financial assets and liabilities offset in the consolidated statement of financial position, as well as the amount of financial assets and liabilities that are under enforceable master netting agreements or similar contracts but are not offset as they do not meet certain or all criteria of offsetting.

Rights to offset based on enforceable master netting agreements or similar contracts are enforceable only in certain events such as bankruptcy or obligation default of the counterparty.

	(Thousands of shares)
	March 31, 2015	March 31, 2016
Ordinary shares	3,600,000	3,600,000

b. Shares issued

Changes in the number of shares issued are as follows:

	(Thousands of shares)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016
Balance at the beginning of the year	1,200,660	1,200,660
Increase during the year	—	—
Balance at the end of the year	1,200,660	1,200,660

Notes:

1. Shares issued by the Company are common stocks with no par value.
2. Shares issued have been fully paid.

(2) Capital surplus

Capital surplus of the Company includes additional paid-in capital, which is legal capital surplus. Under the Companies Act of Japan (“the Companies Act”), at least 50% of the proceeds upon issuance of equity instruments shall be credited to common stock. The remainder of the proceeds shall be credited to additional paid-in capital. The Companies Act permits, upon approval at the general meeting of shareholders, the transfer of amounts from additional paid-in capital to common stock.

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015

The Company acquired all remaining shares of Brightstar Global Group Inc. indirectly held by Marcelo Claire, the former Chairman and CEO of Brightstar Corp., and came to own 100% of the equity interest of Brightstar Global Group Inc. In connection with this transaction, ¥30,509 million is deducted from capital surplus as “Changes in interests in subsidiaries.”

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

The Company acquired an additional 24.1% shares of Supercell, a subsidiary of the Company, from existing shareholders and the Company’s ownership in Supercell became 77.8%. In connection with this transaction, ¥120,847 million is deducted from capital surplus as “Changes in interests in subsidiaries.”

(3) Retained earnings

Retained earnings of the Company include the reserve legally required as legal retained earnings. The Companies Act provides that 10% of the dividend of retained earnings shall be appropriated as legal capital surplus or as legal retained earnings until their aggregate amount equals 25% of common stock. The legal retained earnings may be used to eliminate or reduce a deficit or be transferred to retained earnings upon approval at the general meeting of shareholders.

(4) Treasury stock

The Companies Act provides for companies to purchase treasury stock and dispose of such treasury stock by resolution of the Board of Directors. The amount of treasury stock purchased cannot exceed the amount available for distribution to the shareholders which is determined by a specific formula.

Changes in treasury stock are as follows:

	(Thousands of shares)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

(1) Stock option plan

a. Details of the stock option plan

The Company grants stock options as equity-settled share-based payment and cash-settled share-based payment. The details of the Company's stock option plan for the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2016 are as follows:

(a) SoftBank Group Corp.

SoftBank Group Corp. grants stock options to its directors and employees. Shares granted by the exercise of stock options are those issued by SoftBank Group Corp.

Year issued / Name	Grant date	Due date for exercise
2010—6th Acquisition rights ¹	August 27, 2010	June 30, 2017
2013—7th Acquisition rights ²	July 31, 2013	June 30, 2021

Notes:

1. Vesting condition

A person entitled to the vested stock acquisition rights (“entitled person”) is able to exercise these rights only when all the following conditions are satisfied:

- a. total free cash flows in the consolidated statement of cash flows for the years ended March 2010, 2011 and 2012 in the Annual Securities Report filed by SoftBank Group Corp. based on Financial Instruments and Exchange Act exceed ¥1 trillion;
- b. net interest-bearing debt in the consolidated balance sheet for the year ended March 2012 in the Annual Securities Report filed by SoftBank Group Corp. based on Financial Instruments and Exchange Act is less than ¥0.97 trillion; and,
- c. total operating income in the consolidated statement of income for the years ended March 2011 and 2012 in the Annual Securities Report filed by SoftBank Group Corp. based on Financial Instruments and Exchange Act exceeds ¥1.1 trillion.

The amount of the stock acquisition rights exercisable by an entitled person is limited as prescribed in “a” through “d” below. Fractional points, if any, of the exercisable stock acquisition rights are rounded down.

- a. from July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013: 25% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights
- b. from July 1, 2013 to June 30, 2014: 50% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” above
- c. from July 1, 2014 to June 30, 2015: 75% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” and “b” above
- d. from July 1, 2015 to June 30, 2017: 100% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” through “c” above

Vesting requires continuous service from the grant date to the vesting date. When an eligible person retires, vested acquisition rights are forfeited.

2. Vesting condition

A person entitled to the vested stock acquisition rights (“entitled person”) is able to exercise these rights only when operating income in the consolidated statement of income for the year ended March 2016 in the Annual Securities Report to be filed by SoftBank Group Corp. based on Financial Instruments and Exchange Act in June 2016 (“target index”) exceeds ¥1.2 trillion (“target amount”). SoftBank Group Corp. may change the target index or target amount within a reasonable range due to changes in accounting policies or other factors if necessary.

The amount of the stock acquisition rights exercisable in the period “a” through “c” below by an entitled person who was granted and allocated stock acquisition rights of 10,000 or more in total, is limited as below. Fractional points, if any, of the exercisable stock acquisition rights are rounded down.

- a. from July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2017: 25% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights
- b. from July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2018: 50% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” above
- c. from July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2021: 100% of the allocated amount of stock acquisition rights along with the stock acquisition rights exercised in the period “a” and “b” above

Vesting requires continuous service from the grant date to the vesting date. When an eligible person retires, vested acquisition rights are forfeited.

Note:

Weighted-average stock price at exercise is not calculated for the Supercell Oy Stock option plan since Supercell Oy shares are not publicly traded.

(2) Restricted stock unit plan

The Company adopts restricted stock unit (“RSU”) plans where the Company grants stocks, the transfer of which is restricted for a certain period until vested, and it is accounted for as equity-settled share-based payment.

The details of the Company’s RSU plans for the years ended March 31, 2015 and 2016 are as follows:

a. Sprint

Sprint grants shares of Sprint Corporation as RSU to its directors, employees and other service providers.

The fair value of the RSU is generally measured based on the closing price of stock on the date of grant.

RSU generally has performance and service requirements or service requirements only, with vesting periods ranging from one to three years.

During the year ended March 31, 2016, Sprint granted performance-based restricted stock units that will be earned upon the achievement of certain market conditions, which are based on Sprint share price. The fair value of these market-based restricted stock units is estimated at the date of grant using Monte Carlo valuation methodology, which incorporates into the valuation the possibility that the market condition may not be satisfied. These market-based restricted stock units will vest 50% over four years from the grant date and 50% over five years from the grant date.

The number of RSU granted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 was 27,602,692 units. The weighted-average fair value of RSU granted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 was $3.06 per unit.

b. Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc.

Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc. grants RSU to its director with the option to settle either by Sprint Corporation shares held by Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc. or cash. As Galaxy Investment Holdings, Inc. has the option to settle by cash instead of Sprint Corporation shares, this RSU grant has been accounted for as equity-settled share-based payment. The fair value of the RSU is measured based on the stock price as of the date of grant.

RSU vests equally each year over four years, with continuous service required through each vesting date.

c. Supercell

Supercell grants shares of Supercell Oy as RSU to its employees. The RSU plan is accounted for as equity-settled share-based payment even though Supercell has the option to settle the some of the RSU in cash when options are exercised instead of Spucercell Oy shares. RSU granted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 were 907,050 units. The fair value of the RSU is intrinsic value measured using the discount cash flow method or guideline public companies method. The weighted-average fair value of the RSU granted for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 was €89.84 per unit.

RSU vests equally each year over four years, with continuous service required through each vesting date.

(3) Phantom stock

The Company adopts phantom stock awards where the Company pays in cash based on the stock price at the vesting date, and they are accounted for as cash-settled share-based payments.

The details of phantom stock for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2015 and 2016 are as follows:

SoftBank Group Corp., SB Group US, Inc., and SoftBank Holdings, Inc.

SoftBank Group Corp., SB Group US, Inc., and SoftBank Holdings, Inc. granted phantom stock, which is based on the shares of SoftBank Group Corp., to their directors, employees, and other service providers. It requires to continued employment from the grant date through vesting date. The amount of settlement at the vesting date is determined based on share per unit. The details of vesting conditions are as follows:

The number of units and vesting conditions as of March 31, 2016

As of March 31, 2016 units	Vesting condition
3,278,641	The initial vesting date is four years from the first date of service. A quarter of the total vests on the initial vesting date and quarter of the total vests every two year thereafter.
740,691	It vests fully when five years pass from the first date of the service period.
2,038,489	Vesting periods are mainly four years or five years from the first date of service or service provided and vests over those periods.

Other	25	(6,086)
Total	¥(27,668)	¥(139,252)

Notes:

- Loss was recognized due to the provision made by SoftBank Corp. for the excess of expected future cost of delivery for a contracted communication service over its contracted amount.
- Loss on disposal of property, plant and equipment consists of ¥30,348 million of loss on disposal that resulted from the write-off of leased devices associated with lease cancellations prior to the scheduled customer lease terms where customers did not return the devices to Sprint, and ¥6,684 million of loss recognized upon the sale of devices to Mobile Leasing Solutions, LLC under the Handset Sale-Leaseback transaction. Regarding the Handset Sale-Leaseback transaction, the details are described in “Note 14. Leases.”
- The details of legal reserves are described in (b) under “b. Legal and administrative proceedings to which Sprint and its subsidiaries are party” under “(3) Litigation” under “Note 44. Contingency.”
- Impairments are primarily related to cell site construction costs that are no longer expected to be used as a result of changes in Sprint’s network plans.
- Sprint made an amendment associated with the defined benefit pension plan to offer certain terminated participants, who had not begun to receive plan benefits, the opportunity to receive their benefits as an immediate lump sum distribution. This is the gain arising from the settlement.
- Cash-generating units of the Distribution segment are composed of five regions, Brightstar Global Group Inc.’s US & Canada, Latin America, Asia & Oceania, SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp., and Europe & Africa from the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016. Of these cash-generating units, as a result of reviewing the business plan of Brightstar Global Group Inc.’s Latin America region, the recoverable amount became negative and therefore the carrying amount related to the cash-generating unit was reduced to zero. Impairment loss on property, plant and equipment was ¥8,070 million and impairment loss on intangible assets was ¥5,563 million. Value in use was used as the recoverable amount and calculated by discounting management approved estimated future cashflow plan by 22.11%, weighted average capital cost before tax.

Goodwill of Brightstar Global Group Inc. is allocated to the entire Brightstar Global Group Inc. (a group of cash-generating units) which bundles five cash-generating units. As a result of the impairment test on entire Brightstar Global Group Inc., the recoverable amount exceeded the carrying amount, and therefore the impairment loss on the goodwill allocated to entire Brightstar Global Group Inc. is not recognized.

36. Finance cost

The components of finance cost are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016
Interest expense*	¥(366,500)	¥(440,744)

Note:

- * Interest expense was mainly from financial liabilities measured at amortized cost.

37. Dilution gain from changes in equity interest

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015

The Company recorded dilution gain from changes in equity interest of ¥599,668 million related to Alibaba, which is an associate of the Company. This is mainly due to the issuance of new shares by Alibaba and the conversion of convertible preference shares issued by Alibaba into common stock in connection with its listing on the New York Stock Exchange on September 19, 2014.

38. Other non-operating income and loss

The components of other non-operating income and loss are as follows:

Notes:

1. The value of the Argentine peso decreased against the US dollar in December 2015 due to change in foreign exchange policy by the Argentine Government. As a result, foreign exchange loss of ¥18,614 million associated with dollar-denominated monetary items, such as cash and cash equivalents, account receivables, and account payables, held by Argentine subsidiaries was recorded.
2. Shares and debt interests related to investments of PT Trikonsel Oke Tbk. in Indonesia were impaired as the investment amount and the debt interests amount were not expected to be collected. As a result, impairment loss on securities and provision of allowance for doubtful accounts totaling ¥38,185 million were recorded for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016.
3. The Company recorded impairment loss of ¥35,261 million with regard to the equity method associate for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2015 as the fair value had been declining for a prolonged period and the carrying amount was reduced to the recoverable amount.
4. Due to the increase in the percentage of voting rights, the equity method was newly applied to the investment in associates and the gain arose from remeasurement of the interest already held by the Company at the time the equity method was applied, based on the fair value on the date of the equity method application.
5. Gain or loss arising from financial assets at FVTPL comprises mainly changes in fair value of preferred stock investment including embedded derivatives, such as ANI Technologies Pvt. Ltd and Jasper Infotech Private Limited in India, designated as financial assets at FVTPL. Of the gain from financial assets at FVTPL, gain of ¥108,578 million arose from financial assets that were designated as the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss at initial recognition for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016 (¥5,814 million for the fiscal year ended March 2015).

40. Discontinued operations

GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc.

SoftBank Group Corp. entered into an agreement to tender in the Tender Offer for 188,235,200 shares, a portion of the common shares of GungHo held by SoftBank Group Corp, on April 28, 2015. The Tender Offer was completed on June 1, 2015 and 188,235,200 common shares of GungHo held by Softbank Group Corp. were transferred to GungHo for ¥80,000 million.

An agreement between Heartis G.K. (“Heartis”) and Son Holdings Inc. to extinguish the pledge on 100,000,000 shares, out of the common shares of GungHo held by Heartis, was executed and the Agreement on Exercise of Voting Rights* for the 100,000,000 shares was terminated effective on June 1, 2015.

As a result of the transactions, GungHo was no longer qualified as a subsidiary and became an equity method associate on June 1, 2015.

Operating results related to GungHo from April 1, 2015 to June 1, 2015 are presented as discontinued operations separately from continuing operations in the consolidated statement of income.

Note:

Heartis (Taizo Son's asset management company, the second largest shareholder of GungHo, and Taizo Son, chairman of GungHo is the representative director), and Masayoshi Son, chairman and CEO of SoftBank Group Corp., entered into a Memorandum of Understanding on Exercise of Voting Rights for Deferment of Execution of Pledges (the "MOU"), on April 1, 2013. Under the MOU, all of GungHo common shares held by Heartis were pledged to Son Holdings, Masayoshi Son's asset management company and in order to defer the execution of pledges, Heartis agreed to act on behalf of Masayoshi Son at the shareholders' meeting of GungHo, for the voting rights related to 213,080,000 shares (ownership ratio: 18.50%) out of the common shares of GungHo held by Heartis. In addition, the title of Taizo Son was changed from chairman of GungHo to director of GungHo, effective on March 22, 2016.

42. Supplemental information to the consolidated statement of cash flows

(1) Scope of purchase of property, plant and equipment and intangible assets

“Purchase of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets” includes cash outflows from long-term prepaid expenses that are included in “Other non-current assets” in the consolidated statement of financial position.

(2) Presentation of cash flow regarding finance lease

For the purchase of telecommunication equipment through finance lease, the Company purchases, assembles, installs and inspects the equipment due to the nature of the equipment. Then the Company sells the equipment to lease companies for sale-leaseback purposes and recognizes it as a lease asset.

The cash outflows from the purchase of the equipment from vendors are included in “Purchase of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets” under cash flows from investing activities, and the cash inflows from the sale of the equipment to lease companies are included in “Proceeds from long-term interest-bearing debt” under cash flows from financing activities.

(3) Income taxes paid and income taxes refund

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

Payment of withholding income tax related to dividends within the group companies of ¥904,688 million is included in “Income taxes paid,” and refund of the withholding income tax of ¥611,199 million is included in “Income taxes refund.” The withholding income tax of ¥293,489 million included in “Income taxes paid” is expected to be refunded by the end of July 2016.

(4) Proceeds from sales of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

Proceeds of ¥137,593 million which Sprint received from Mobile Leasing Solutions, LLC through a handset sale-leaseback transaction in December 2015 are included in “Proceeds from sales of property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets.” The details are described in “Note 14. Leases.”

(5) Decrease from loss of control over subsidiaries

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

“Decrease from loss of control over subsidiaries” is the amount of cash and cash equivalents held by GungHo at the time of loss of control.

(6) Payments for purchase of subsidiaries’ interests from non-controlling interests

For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2016

“Payments for purchase of subsidiaries’ interests from non-controlling interests” is mainly due to the additional purchase of shares of Supercell and Sprint from existing shareholders.

(7) Significant non-cash transactions

Significant non-cash investing and financing activities are as follows:

	(Millions of yen)
	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2015	Fiscal year ended March 31, 2016
Acquisition of fixed assets by installments	¥ 46,397	¥ 15,795

(3) Litigation

SoftBank Group Corp. and certain of its subsidiaries are party to a number of currently-pending legal and administrative proceedings. As it is difficult to reasonably estimate the final results of such matters, reserves have not been recorded. Based on the information currently available, we do not expect that the results of these proceedings will have a material adverse effect on our financial position or results of operations.

a. Litigation in which SoftBank Corp. is involved as a party

(a) On April 30, 2015, SoftBank Corp. filed a lawsuit with the Tokyo District Court against Japan Post Information Technology Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "JPiT"), claiming for payment of remuneration, etc., for additional services provided in connection with the installation of telecommunication lines, etc., that were ordered by JPiT in relation to a project to migrate the communication network connecting approximately 27,000 sites (postal offices, etc.) existing countrywide to a new network, the 5th PNET.

Pursuant to a contract dated February 7, 2013, SoftBank Corp. was requested by JPiT to carry out, among other services, installation services for telecommunication lines for Japan Post Group's business sites existing countrywide. SoftBank Corp. performed such services and upon JPiT's request, SoftBank Corp. also performed services that exceeded the scope of services stipulated in the contract.

Although SoftBank Corp. negotiated with JPiT over an extended period regarding the remuneration etc. (approximately ¥14.9 billion) for these additional services, SoftBank Corp. and JPiT were unable to arrive at a settlement. Accordingly, SoftBank Corp. duly filed the lawsuit, claiming for payment of remuneration, etc., for such additional services.

(b) On April 30, 2015, JPiT filed a lawsuit against SoftBank Corp. and Nomura Research Institute, Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "NRI") as co-defendants.

In such lawsuit, JPiT alleges that SoftBank Corp. and NRI delayed performance, etc., of the ordered services related to the project for migration to the 5th PNET mentioned in (a) above, and alleges that such delay caused damages to JPiT (¥16.15 billion). JPiT made joint and several claims against both SoftBank Corp. and NRI for such alleged damages.

SoftBank Corp. intends to fully contest JPiT's claims in this lawsuit.

The order to consolidate the lawsuit (b) above to the lawsuit (a) above was made on July 29, 2015. On November 13, 2015, SoftBank Corp. modified the amount of claim from approximately ¥14.9 billion to approximately ¥20.4 billion as a result of a review of the remuneration etc. with respect to additional services regarding the lawsuit (a) above.

b. Legal and administrative proceedings to which Sprint and its subsidiaries are party

(a) In March 2009, a stockholder brought suit, Bennett v. Sprint Nextel Corp., in the U.S. District Court for the District of Kansas (hereinafter referred to as "the Bennett case"), alleging that Sprint Communications and three of its former officers violated Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 by failing to adequately disclose certain alleged operational difficulties subsequent to the Sprint-Nextel merger, and by purportedly issuing false and misleading statements regarding the write-down of goodwill. The district court granted final approval of a settlement in August 2015, which did not have a material impact to our financial statements. Five stockholder derivative suits related to the Bennett case were filed against Sprint Communications and certain of its present and/or former officers and directors. The first, Murphy v. Forsee, was filed in state court in Kansas on April 8, 2009, was removed to federal court, and was stayed by the court pending resolution of the motion to dismiss the Bennett case; the second, Randolph v. Forsee, was filed on July 15, 2010 in state court in Kansas, was removed to federal court, and was remanded back to state court; the third, Ross-Williams v. Bennett, et al., was filed in state court in Kansas on February 1, 2011; the fourth, Price v. Forsee, et al., was filed in state court in Kansas on April 15, 2011; and the fifth, Hartleib v. Forsee, et. al., was filed in federal court in Kansas on July 14, 2011. These cases were essentially stayed while the Bennett case was pending, and Sprint has reached an agreement in principle to settle the matters, by agreeing to some governance provisions and by paying plaintiffs' attorneys fees in an immaterial amount.

- (b) On April 19, 2012, the New York Attorney General filed a complaint alleging that Sprint Communications has fraudulently failed to collect and pay more than $100 million in New York sales taxes on receipts from its sale of wireless telephone services since July 2005. The complaint also seeks recovery of triple damages under the state False Claims Act as well as penalties and interest. Sprint Communications moved to dismiss the complaint on June 14, 2012. On July 1, 2013, the court entered an order denying the motion to dismiss in large part, although it did dismiss certain counts or parts of certain counts. Sprint Communications appealed that order and the intermediate appellate court affirmed the order of the trial court. On October 20, 2015, the Court of Appeals of New York affirmed the decision of the appellate court that the tax statute requires Sprint Communications to collect and remit the disputed taxes. Sprint Communications' petition for certiorari to the United States Supreme Court was denied on May 31, 2016. The case will now proceed in the trial court with discovery and other pretrial proceedings. Sprint Communications has accrued $180 million during the year ended March 31, 2016 associated with this matter. Sprint Communications will continue to defend this matter vigorously.

Eight related stockholder derivative suits have been filed against Sprint Communications and certain of its current and former officers and directors. Each suit alleges generally that the individual defendants breached their fiduciary duties to Sprint Communications and its stockholders by allegedly permitting, and failing to disclose, the actions alleged in the suit filed by the New York Attorney General. One suit, filed by the Louisiana Municipal Police Employees Retirement System, was dismissed by a federal court. Two suits were filed in state court in Johnson County, Kansas and one of those suits was dismissed as premature; and five suits are pending in federal court in Kansas. The remaining Kansas suits have been stayed pending resolution of the Attorney General's suit.

- (c) Sprint Communications, Inc. is also a defendant in a complaint filed by stockholders of Clearwire Corporation asserting claims for breach of fiduciary duty by Sprint Communications, and related claims and otherwise challenging the Clearwire Acquisition. ACP Master, LTD, et al. v. Sprint Nextel Corp., et al., was filed on April 26, 2013, in Chancery Court in Delaware. Sprint Communications' motion to dismiss the suit was denied, discovery is substantially complete, and Sprint Communications' motion for summary judgment is pending. Plaintiffs in the ACP Master, LTD suit have also filed suit requesting an appraisal of the fair value of their Clearwire stock. Discovery in that case was consolidated with the breach of fiduciary duty case and is substantially complete. Trial is scheduled to begin in October 2016. Sprint Communications intends to defend the ACP Master, LTD cases vigorously.
- (d) Sprint is currently involved in numerous court actions alleging that Sprint is infringing various patents. Most of these cases effectively seek only monetary damages. A small number of these cases are brought by companies that sell products and seek injunctive relief as well. These cases have progressed to various degrees and a small number may go to trial if they are not otherwise resolved. Adverse resolution of these cases could require Sprint to pay significant damages, cease certain activities, or cease selling the relevant products and services. In many circumstances, Sprint would be indemnified for monetary losses that Sprint incurs with respect to the actions of Sprint's suppliers or service providers.
- (e) In October 2013, the FCC Enforcement Bureau began to issue notices of apparent liability ("NALs") to other Lifeline providers, imposing fines for intracARRIER duplicate accounts identified by the government during its audit function. Those audits also identified a small percentage of potentially duplicative intracARRIER accounts related to Sprint's Assurance Wireless business. No NAL has yet been issued with respect to Sprint and Sprint does not know if one will be issued. Further, Sprint is not able to reasonably estimate the amount of any claim for penalties that might be asserted.
- (f) Various other suits, inquiries, proceedings and claims, either asserted or unasserted, including purported class actions typical for a large business enterprise and intellectual property matters, are possible or pending against Sprint or Sprint's subsidiaries. If Sprint's interpretation of certain laws or regulations, including those related to various federal or state matters such as sales, use or property taxes, or other charges were found to be mistaken, it could result in payments by Sprint.

c. Legal and administrative proceedings to which Brightstar and its subsidiaries are party

Brightstar Corp. and its subsidiaries are party to various legal and administrative proceedings globally and particularly in Latin American countries, including disputes relating to tax, labor, contract and other matters currently pending. This litigation mainly consist of four administrative proceedings initiated by tax authorities in Brazil against the subsidiary of Brightstar Corp., involving failure by such entity to pay a portion of taxes owed due to, e.g., differences in understanding between such entity and the tax authorities, for which such authorities have claimed an aggregate of approximately $70 million. One case of these four administrative proceedings has been sent to suit, a subsidiary of Brightstar Corp. has filed an Annulment Action requesting that the case be returned to the administrative level.

45. Purchase commitments

The Company had commitments to purchase services and goods of ¥1,496,500 million as of March 31, 2016 (March 31, 2015: ¥2,190,404 million).

Purchase commitments are mainly related to purchase of telecommunications equipment, mobile handsets and outstanding connection contracts entered into with other telecommunications operators.

46. Subsequent events

(1) Monetization of a portion of the ordinary shares of Alibaba Group Holding Limited

The Company executed a series of capital raising transactions (the “Transactions”) which involves monetizing a portion of Alibaba ordinary shares held by a wholly owned subsidiary, SB China Holdings Pte Ltd (“SB China”). After the completion of the Transactions, Alibaba is still an affiliate of the Company and the Company continues to apply the equity method.

a. Overview of the Transactions

The Transactions consist of the following three transactions, (i) the sale of $2.0 billion of Alibaba ordinary shares to Alibaba, (ii) the sale of $400 million of Alibaba ordinary shares to members of the Alibaba Partnership, acting collectively, and the respective sale of $500 million of Alibaba ordinary shares to Gamlight Pte. Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of GIC Private Limited (“GIC”) and Aranda Investments Pte. Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of Temasek Holdings Private Limited (“Temasek”) ((i) and (ii) as “Sale of Alibaba ordinary shares”) and (iii) $6.6 billion capital raised through an offering of Mandatory Exchangeable Trust Securities (“Trust Securities”) by a newly formed trust, Mandatory Exchangeable Trust (the “Trust”). Trust Securities are mandatorily exchangeable into American depositary shares (“ADSs”) of Alibaba.

(a) Sale of Alibaba ordinary shares

SB China, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into separate share purchase and sales transactions on May 31, 2016 and on June 1, 2016 (US time) with each of Alibaba, members of the Alibaba Partnership, acting collectively, and GIC and Temasek, and settled the transactions on June 13, 2016 (US time), except for the sale to members of the Alibaba Partnership, acting collectively, which is expected to close in middle of July 2016. The total sales price is approximately $3.4 billion, approximately $2.0 billion of which was sold to Alibaba.

Following the sales of Alibaba ordinary shares that are expected to close by the middle of July 2016, the Company’s voting rights of Alibaba will decrease to 30.7% from 32.2%.

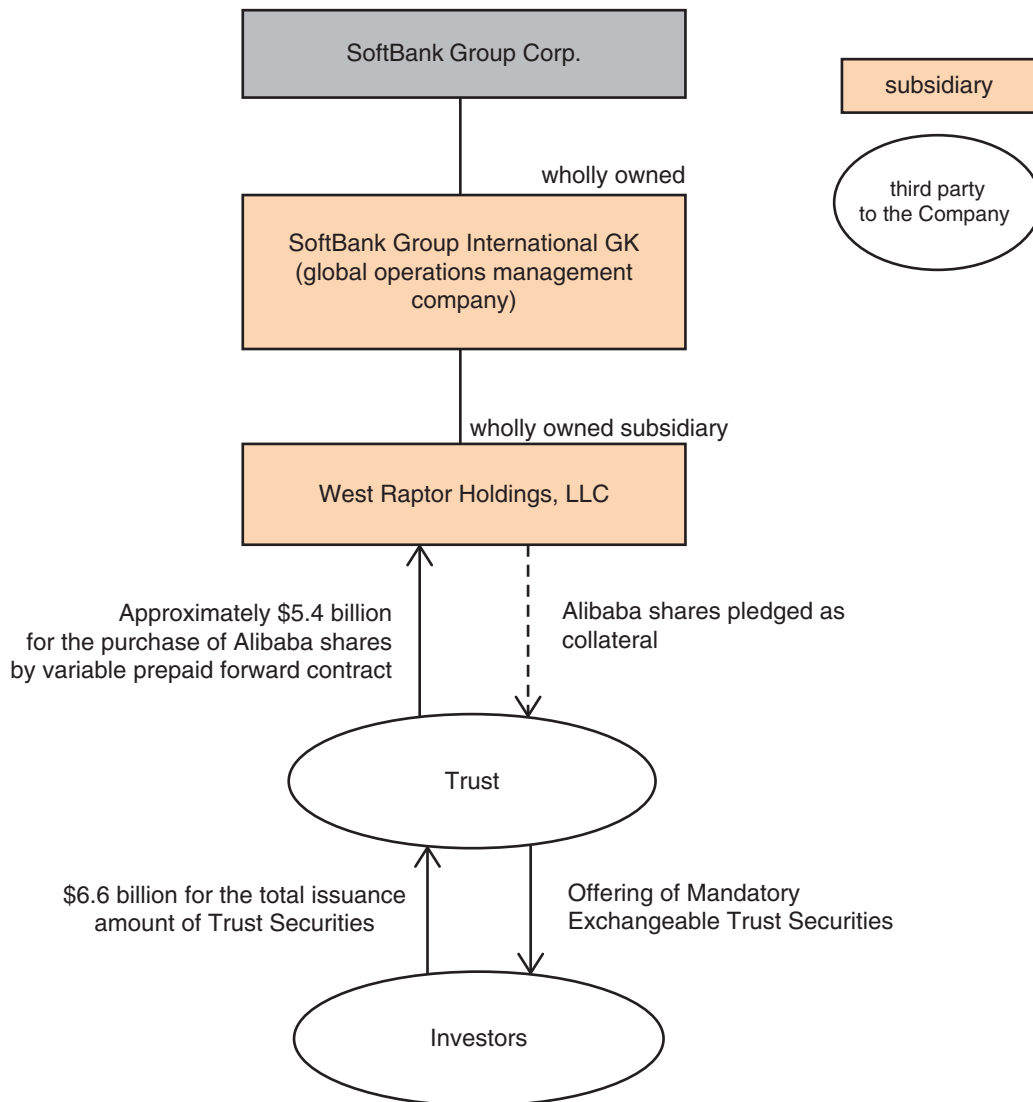

(b) Agreement of the variable prepaid forward contract regarding Alibaba ordinary shares

On June 10, 2016 (US Time), West Raptor Holdings, LLC (“WRH LLC”), a wholly owned subsidiary of SoftBank Group International GK (“SBIGK”), which in turn is wholly owned by the Company, entered into a variable prepaid forward contract to sell Alibaba ordinary shares to the Trust. Alibaba ordinary shares held by WRH LLC are pledged as collateral by this contract. At the closing of the offering of the Trust Securities, June 10, 2016 (US Time), WRH LLC received the proceeds of approximately $5.4 billion from the Trust, which was generated from the issuance of the Trust Securities, excluding amounts in respect of the Trust’s expenses and amounts used to purchase U.S. Treasury securities, which will fund quarterly distributions on the Trust Securities.

The variable prepaid forward contract will be settled concurrently with the exchange of Trust Securities. At the exchange date, which is expected to be the first scheduled trading day after June 1, 2019, the Trust will exchange each Trust Security for a certain number of ADSs, determined by reference to the trading price of the ADSs at that time, or subject to WRH LLC's election, cash or a combination of cash and ADSs. Under certain circumstances, including by WRH LLC's election, the Trust Securities may be exchanged prior to the scheduled exchange date.

Alibaba ordinary shares pledged as collateral are equivalent to 3.5% of voting rights of Alibaba.

b. Impact on the Consolidated Financial Results

The impact from the Transactions on the consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 has not yet been determined.

(2) Tender offer for shares of GungHo Online Entertainment, Inc.

GungHo, an affiliate of the Company, resolved the acquisition of its own shares and execution of a tender offer (the "Tender Offer") as a practical method to acquire its own shares at its board of director's meeting held on June 21, 2016.

SoftBank Group Corp. and GungHo have entered into an agreement dated June 3, 2016, under which SoftBank Group Corp. agreed to tender 248,300,000 shares of GungHo common shares held by SoftBank Group Corp. and its subsidiary, SoftBank Corp., to monetize the shares in the Tender Offer to be executed by GungHo. SoftBank Group Corp. tenders shares in the Tender Offer based on the agreement. As a result, GungHo will no longer be an affiliate of the Company after the completion of Tender Offer.

a. Summary of the tender of shares in the Tender Offer

(a) Shares to be tendered	Ordinary shares of GungHo: 248,300,000 shares 23.47% of GungHo outstanding shares* held by: SoftBank Group Corp. 199,204,800 shares SoftBank Corp. 49,095,200 shares
(b) Tender offer price	¥294 per ordinary share
(c) Tender offer period	From June 23, 2016 to July 21, 2016
(d) Start date of settlement	August 16, 2016

Note:

* The portion of shares is calculated based on the total number of shares issued as of March 31, 2016, 1,057,892,400 shares, disclosed in the GungHo quarterly securities report filed on May 9, 2016. The same formula applies to the calculation of the portion set forth below.

b. Number of shares held before and after the tender in the Tender Offer

(a) Number of shares held before the Tender Offer	272,604,800 shares (including indirect ownership) (Shareholding ratio: 25.77%)
(b) Number of shares to be tendered in the Tender Offer	248,300,000 shares (including indirect ownership)
(c) Number of shares held after the Tender Offer*	24,304,800 shares (indirect ownership) (Shareholding ratio: 2.30%)

Note:

* Number of shares held after the Tender Offer indicates the number of shares which the Company holds after the Tender Offer is completed when all 248,300,000 shares are purchased by GungHo. However, less than 248,300,000 shares may be purchased by GungHo if GungHo's other shareholders participate in the tender.

c. Impact on the Consolidated Financial Results

The impact from the transactions on the consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 has not yet been determined.

(3) Sale of shares of Supercell Oy

The Company entered into a definitive agreement with Tencent Holdings Limited ("Tencent") and its affiliate ("Tencent affiliate"), Supercell and other parties on June 21, 2016 to sell all of its shares of Supercell Oy (representing 72.2%² of Supercell shares on a diluted basis¹), held by its subsidiaries, Kahon 3 Oy and SoftBank Group Capital Limited, to Tencent affiliate. On or after the date of transfer of the shares, Supercell will no longer be a subsidiary of the Company.

Notes:

1. The portion of diluted shares is calculated based on the aggregate number of (i) outstanding shares, (ii) vested and unvested stock options, (iii) vested and unvested restricted stock unit ("RSU") and (iv) RSU available for grant pursuant to Supercell's current equity incentive plans, excluding conversion options held by the Company. The same formula applies to the calculation of the portion of shares as set forth below.
2. The portion of shares is calculated based on data as of May 15, 2016.

a. Summary of the transaction

(a) Expected sales date	August 5, 2016
(b) Expected sales price ³	Approximately $7.3 billion
(c) Expected receipt of payment ⁴	First payment (August 5, 2016): estimated 48% of sales price Second payment (November 3, 2016): estimated 50% of sales price Third payment (August 5, 2019): estimated 2% of sales price

3. The actual sales price will be determined based on Supercell's equity value multiplied by the percentage of interest held by Kahon 3 Oy and SoftBank Group Capital Limited as of the sales date. The equity value is calculated based on Supercell's enterprise value, approximately $9.5 billion, the cash and cash equivalents of Supercell and other necessary adjustments.
4. Half of the shares to be sold by Kahon 3 Oy and SoftBank Group Capital Limited will be retained in an escrow account until the date when Kahon 3 Oy and SoftBank Group Capital Limited will receive the above-mentioned second payment of the sales price from Tencent affiliate.

b. Ownership before and after the transaction

(a) Ownership before the transaction	72.2% ²
(b) Ownership after the transaction	0%

c. Impact on the Consolidated Financial Results

The impact from the transactions on consolidated financial results for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2017 has not yet been determined.

47. Approval of consolidated financial statements

The consolidated financial statements have been approved by the Company's CEO Masayoshi Son, as of June 22, 2016.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANT’S REVIEW REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Softbank Group Corp.:

We have reviewed the accompanying condensed interim consolidated statement of financial position of SoftBank Group Corp. and its subsidiaries (the “Company”) as of June 30, 2017, and the related condensed interim consolidated statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in equity, and cash flows for the three-month period ended June 30, 2017, and notes to condensed interim consolidated financial statements, all expressed in Japanese yen.

Management’s Responsibility

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these condensed interim consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34, “Interim Financial Reporting,” and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of condensed interim consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Accountant’s Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on these condensed interim consolidated financial statements based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with quarterly review standards generally accepted in Japan.

A review of condensed interim consolidated financial statements consists of making inquiries, primarily of management and persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other quarterly review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in Japan and, consequently, does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

We believe that we have obtained the evidence to provide a basis for our review conclusion.

Accountant’s Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of SoftBank Group Corp. and its subsidiaries as of June 30, 2017, and the consolidated results of their operations and their cash flows for the three-month period then ended in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34, “Interim Financial Reporting.”

Convenience Translation

Our review also comprehended the translation of Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts and, based upon our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that such translation has not been made in accordance with the basis stated in Note 2 (3) to the condensed interim consolidated financial statements. Such U.S. dollar amounts are presented solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan.

Notes to Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements (unaudited)

1. Reporting entity

SoftBank Group Corp. is a corporation domiciled in Japan. The registered address of SoftBank Group Corp.'s head office is disclosed on our website (<https://www.softbank.jp/>). These condensed interim consolidated financial statements are composed of SoftBank Group Corp. and its subsidiaries (the "Company"). The Company engages in various businesses in the information industry, with its base in the Domestic Telecommunications segment, the Sprint segment, the Yahoo Japan segment, the Distribution segment, the Arm segment, and the SVF segment. The details are described in "(1) Description of reportable segments" under "Note 6. Segment information."

2. Basis of preparation of condensed interim consolidated financial statements

(1) Compliance with International Accounting Reporting Standards ("IFRSs")

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements of the Company have been prepared by complying with International Accounting Standards ("IAS"), 34 "Interim Financial Reporting." The condensed interim consolidated financial statements do not include all information which is required in consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year and should be used in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

(2) Basis of measurement

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for certain items, such as financial instruments, that are measured at fair value.

(3) Presentation currency and unit of currency

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been presented in Japanese yen, which is the currency of the primary economic environment of SoftBank Group Corp. ("functional currency"), and yen amounts are rounded to the nearest million.

The translations of Japanese yen amounts into U.S. dollar amounts are included solely for the convenience of readers outside Japan and have been made at the rate of ¥112.00 to $1, the approximate rate of exchange at June 30, 2017. Such translations should not be construed as representations that the Japanese yen amounts could be converted into U.S. dollars at that or any other rate.

(4) Definition of company name and abbreviation used in the notes

Company names and abbreviations used in the notes, except as otherwise stated or interpreted differently in the context, are as follows:

Company name /Abbreviation	Definition
"SoftBank Group Corp."	SoftBank Group Corp. (stand-alone basis)
The "Company"	SoftBank Group Corp. and its subsidiaries
Each of the following abbreviations indicates the respective company, and its subsidiaries, if any.
"Sprint"	Sprint Corporation
"Brightstar"	Brightstar Global Group Inc.
"Arm"	Arm Holdings plc
"SVF"	SoftBank Vision Fund*
"Alibaba"	Alibaba Group Holding Limited
"Supercell"	Supercell Oy

Note:

* SVF consists of several funds which are composed of the following entities;

- several general partners ("GPs"), each of which is a subsidiary of the Company;
- several limited partnerships, managed by the GPs, mainly SoftBank Vision Fund L.P.;
- newly-established holding entities for several of the portfolio company investments; and
- SB Investment Advisers (UK) Limited ("SBIA"), a wholly-owned U.K. subsidiary of the Company, which will provide investment advice to each GP and US and Japanese advisory companies supporting SBIA.

The relationship between each general partner, the limited partnerships, and main investments as of June 30, 2017 is as follows:

Main General Partner (GP)	Main Limited Partnerships	Main Expected Investments
SVF GP (Jersey) Limited	SoftBank Vision Fund L.P.	NVIDIA Corporation
	SoftBank Vision Fund (AIV M1) L.P.	Guardant Health, Inc.
	SoftBank Vision Fund (AIV M2) L.P.	N/A
	SoftBank Vision Fund (AIV S1) L.P.	N/A
SB Delta Fund GP (Jersey) Limited	SB Delta Fund (Jersey) L.P.	N/A

3. Significant accounting policies

Significant accounting policies adopted in these condensed interim consolidated financial statements are the same as the accounting policies which were adopted in consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017, except for the following standards. Also, income tax expenses for the three-month period ended June 30, 2017 are recognized based on the best estimate of the weighted-average annual income tax rate expected for the full financial year. Further, a part of defined benefit liabilities as of June 30, 2017 is calculated by a projected calculation based on reasonable estimates taking into account the results of the actuarial valuation as of March 31, 2017.

(1) New standard and interpretation adopted by the Company

Standard	Interpretation	Outline of the new/revised standard
IAS 7 (amendment)	Statement of cash flows	Requirement for additional disclosure related to changes in liabilities arising from financing activities.

There is no significant impact on the condensed interim consolidated financial statements due to the adoption of the above standard.

(2) The Company has newly adopted accounting policies due to completion of the first major closing of SVF in May 2017. The details are described in “Note 5. SVF.”

4. Significant judgments and estimates

In preparing condensed interim consolidated financial statements under IFRSs, management makes judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and carrying amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. These estimates and underlying assumptions are based on management’s best judgments, through their evaluation of various factors that were considered reasonable as of the period-end, based on historical experience and by collecting available information. By nature of its estimates or assumptions, actual results in the future may differ from those projected estimates or assumptions.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are continuously reviewed. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised as well as in future periods.

Except as described below, significant judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the amounts recognized in the Company’s condensed interim consolidated financial statements are the same as these for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2017.

- Measurement of third-party interests in SVF under “(b) Contribution from Third-Party Investors to SVF” “c. Contribution from Limited Partners to SVF” in “(2) Significant accounting policies” under “Note 5. SVF.”

5. SVF

(1) Summary of the transaction

a. First major closing

SVF, which is included in the scope of consolidation of the Company, completed its first major closing on May 20, 2017 with $93.2 billion of committed capital (“Initial Closing”). In addition to the Company, investors in SVF include the Public Investment Fund of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the Mubadala Investment Company of the United Arab Emirates, Apple, Foxconn Technology Group, Qualcomm Incorporated, and Sharp Corporation or their respective affiliates, collectively the “Limited Partners.” The final closing of SVF is expected to occur no later than six months following the Initial Closing.

Under the Initial Closing, the Company has committed a maximum of $28 billion of capital to SVF, which includes in-kind contributions. The other Limited Partners (“Third-Party Investors”) have committed a maximum aggregate amount of $65.2 billion.

The Company established “the SVF segment” during the three-month period ended June 30, 2017 as a new reportable segment due to the completion of the Initial Closing. The details are described in “Note 6. Segment information.”

b. Structure of SVF

SVF consists of several funds which are composed of the following entities;

- several general partners (“GPs”) , each of which is a subsidiary of the Company;
- several limited partnerships, managed by the GPs, mainly SoftBank Vision Fund L.P.;
- newly-established holding entities for several of the portfolio company investments; and
- SoftBank Investment Advisers (UK) Limited (“SBIA”), a wholly-owned U.K. subsidiary of the Company, which will provide investment advice to each GP and US and Japanese advisory companies supporting SBIA.

The relationship between each general partner, the limited partnerships, and main investments as of June 30, 2017 is as follows:

Main General Partner (GP)	Main Limited Partnerships	Main Expected Investments
SVF GP (Jersey) Limited	SoftBank Vision Fund L.P.	NVIDIA Corporation
	SoftBank Vision Fund (AIV M1) L.P.	Guardant Health, Inc.
	SoftBank Vision Fund (AIV M2) L.P.	N/A
	SoftBank Vision Fund (AIV S1) L.P.	N/A
SB Delta Fund GP (Jersey) Limited	SB Delta Fund (Jersey) L.P.	N/A

The GPs will receive investment advice and certain investment execution and other services from SBIA once SBIA is registered with the UK Financial Conduct Authority. Investment decisions for the various entities comprising SVF are made by the Investment Committee established at the GPs or expected to be established at SBIA. GP and SBIA are wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company, as such the Company has control over SVF’s limited partnerships and holding entities as stipulated in IFRS 10 “Consolidated Financial Statements.” Accordingly, all entities that comprise SVF are consolidated by the Company. Intercompany transactions, such as management fees and performance fees to GPs or SBIA paid out from each limited partnership, are eliminated in consolidation. The results of operations, assets and liabilities of SVF after eliminations are recorded in the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

(2) Significant accounting policies

a. Portfolio company investments made by SVF

SVF will use the Limited Partners’ committed capital to invest mainly in companies that have superior technologies or business models, and are expected to experience strong growth over the next five years from the final closing.

(a) Investments to subsidiaries

The portfolio companies that the Company is deemed to control under IFRS 10, “Consolidated Financial Statements”, are treated as subsidiaries of the Company. Accordingly, their results of operations, assets and liabilities are included in the Company’s consolidated financial statements. As of June 30, 2017, there were no such investments made by SVF.

The Company will transfer a portion of its shares of Arm Holdings plc (“Arm”) to SVF, and Arm will continue to be a subsidiary of the Company. The details are described in “(a) Contribution from the Company to SVF (Transfer of a portion of shares of Arm)” under “c. Contribution from Limited Partners to SVF.”

(b) Investments except for subsidiaries

Investments except for subsidiaries made by SVF, including investments in associates, are managed in accordance with SVF's documented risk management policy or investment strategy, and the performance of each investment is reviewed on a fair value basis. Performance evaluation and investment decisions are made by the relevant GP and the information is provided to the Company's management; therefore, these investments are recorded as financial assets at FVTPL upon initial recognition. Accordingly, these investments are measured at fair value at the end of each quarter and the change during the reporting period is recognized in profit or loss. Such investments that SVF made or investments that the Company and SVF agreed to transfer to SVF from the Company are presented as "Investments from SVF accounted for using FVTPL" in the condensed interim consolidated statement of financial position. The payments for these investments are presented as "Payments for acquisition of investments by SVF" under cash flows from investing activities in the condensed interim consolidated statement of cash flows.

b. Results from SVF

Income and loss arising from the SVF segment are separated from operating income and loss arising from other segments, recognized as a component of operating income, and presented as "Operating income from SVF" in the condensed interim consolidated statement of income. Gain and loss on investments at SVF (realized gain and loss on sales of investments, unrealized gain and loss on valuation of investments, interest and dividend income from investments, except for gain and loss on investments in subsidiaries) and operating expenses such as incorporation expenses of entities that comprise SVF, investment research expenses arising from the GP and advisory companies, and administrative expenses arising from each entity, are included in "Operating income from SVF." The details are described in "Note 15. Operating income from SVF."

c. Contribution from Limited Partners to SVF

SVF draws down a portion of its committed capital from its Limited Partners (a "Capital Call").

Uncalled committed capital from Third-Party Investors is deemed to be a loan commitment and not subject to IAS 39, "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement," and therefore this amount is not recorded in the consolidated statement of financial position.

(a) Contribution from the Company to SVF (Transfer of a portion of shares of Arm)

The Company will contribute approximately 24.99% of the total number of issued shares of Arm (the "Arm Shares"), all of which are owned by the Company, to SVF through an in-kind contribution (the "In-kind Contribution") in satisfaction of approximately $8.2 billion of the Company's $28 billion commitment to SVF.

At the Capital Call, the Company will be obligated to contribute a portion of the Arm Shares with a value equivalent to the amount of the Capital Call issued to the Company. After (and to the extent that) the aggregate amount of the Capital Call issued to the Company exceeds approximately $8.2 billion, the aggregate value of the In-kind Contribution, the Company will contribute cash in satisfaction of the Capital Calls. The In-kind Contribution will be effected through the transfer of Arm Shares to SVF, subject to the satisfaction of preconditions related to regulatory approvals prescribed in SVF's documents. Such conditions include clearance from the Committee on Foreign Investments in the United States in respect of the transfer of the Arm Shares. Pending delivery of the Arm Shares to SVF following satisfaction of such conditions, a relevant portion of the Arm Shares will be pledged in favor of SVF.

After the completion of the In-kind Contribution of Arm Shares, Arm will continue to be a consolidated subsidiary of the Company.

(b) Contribution from Third-Party Investors to SVF

The interests attributable to Third-Party Investors are classified as financial liabilities, "Third-party interests in SVF" in the consolidated statement of financial position, due to the predetermined finite life (at least 12 years from the final closing) and contractual payment provision to each of the Limited Partners within the limited partnership agreement. The amounts equivalent to the liabilities are recorded as "Other financial liabilities" of non-current liabilities in the condensed interim consolidated statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017. The liabilities are classified as "financial liabilities measured at amortized cost" upon initial recognition. The amounts attributable to Third-Party Investors represent the amounts that would be distributed in accordance with the limited partnership agreement in a theoretical liquidation scenario, and are disclosed on the consolidated statement of financial position as a liability. Changes in the interests of Third-Party Investors are recognized through net profit or loss and presented as “Changes in third-party interests in SVF” in non-operating income and loss in the condensed interim consolidated statement of income.

Contributions from Third-Party Investors to SVF will be included in “Contributions into SVF from third-party investors” under cash flows from financing activities in the consolidated statement of cash flows. There were no such contributions for the three-month period ended June 30, 2017.

6. Segment information

(1) Description of reportable segments

The Company’s reportable segments are components of business activities for which discrete financial information is available, and such information is regularly reviewed by the Company’s Board of Directors in order to make decisions about the allocation of resources and assess its performance.

The Company has six reportable segments: the Domestic telecommunications segment, the Sprint segment, the Yahoo Japan segment, the Distribution segment, the Arm segment, and the SVF segment.

The Domestic Telecommunications segment provides, mainly through SoftBank Corp., mobile communications services, sale of mobile devices, telecommunications services such as fixed-line telephone and data communications services for corporate customers, and broadband services for retail customers in Japan.

The Sprint segment provides, through Sprint, mobile communication services, sale and lease of mobile devices, sale of mobile device accessories, and fixed-line telecommunications services in the U.S.

The Yahoo Japan segment provides, mainly through Yahoo Japan Corporation, Internet-based advertising business, e-commerce business, and membership services.

The Distribution segment provides, through Brightstar, distribution of mobile devices overseas, and through SoftBank Commerce & Service Corp., sale of mobile device accessories, PC software, and peripherals in Japan.

The Arm segment provides, through Arm, designs of microprocessor intellectual property and related technology, and the sale of software tools.

The SVF segment conducts, through SVF, investment activities in a wide range of technology sectors. The SVF segment was newly established from the three-month period ended June 30, 2017, after the completion of the Initial Closing. Gain and loss on investments related to the shares agreed to be transferred to SVF and SVF’s operating expenses are included in the reportable segment information for the three-month period ended June 30, 2017.

Information on business segments which are not included in the reportable segments is classified in “Other.” “Other” includes mainly Fukuoka SoftBank HAWKS-related business.

“Reconciliations” includes an elimination of intersegment transactions and the corporate general expenses unallocated to each reportable segment. Expenses arising mainly from SoftBank Group Corp. and SB Group US, Inc., which manages and supervises investment activities in the Internet, communication, and media fields overseas, are included in the corporate general expenses.

(2) Net sales and income of reportable segments

Income of reportable segments is defined as “Operating income.” Intersegment transaction prices are determined under the same general business conditions as applied for external customers.

The Company also discloses EBITDA (i.e., segment income and loss after addition of depreciation and amortization) and Adjusted EBITDA (i.e., EBITDA after addition or deduction of unrealized gain and loss on valuation of investments in SVF and other adjustments (gains are deducted)) by each reportable segment. “Other adjustments” are special items, such as acquisition-related costs and impairment losses mainly included in other operating income and loss.

Income and losses, which are not attributable to operating income and loss, such as financial cost and income and loss on equity method investments, are not managed by each reportable segment and therefore these income and losses are excluded from the segment performance.

Discontinued operations are not included. The details of discontinued operations are described in “Note 21. Discontinued operations.”

7. Business combinations

For the three-month period ended June 30, 2017

Arm (adjustment of the provisional amount)

On September 5, 2016, the Company acquired all shares of Arm, and as a result, Arm became a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. Consideration transferred is allocated to acquired assets and assumed liabilities based on the fair value on the acquisition date. Allocation of the consideration was completed during the three-month period ended June 30, 2017. The details of the adjustments from the provisional amounts are shown below. Due to the additional analysis on the fair value of technologies, intangible assets increased by ¥5,250 million ($46,875 thousand) and deferred tax liabilities increased by ¥958 million ($8,554 thousand). As a result, goodwill decreased by ¥4,292 million ($38,321 thousand).

Note:

* The details are described in "(2) Transaction for sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract."

(2) Transaction for sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract

On June 10, 2016, West Raptor Holdings, LLC ("WRH LLC"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, entered into a variable prepaid forward contract to sell Alibaba shares with a newly-formed trust, Mandatory Exchangeable Trust (the "Trust"), and received proceeds of ¥578,436 million ($5.4 billion) as advances received on the sale.

The Trust, on the other hand, utilized Alibaba shares scheduled to be transferred from WRH LLC at the time of settlement under the contract and issued $6.6 billion of Mandatory Exchangeable Trust Securities (“Trust Securities”), which are mandatorily exchangeable into American Depositary Shares (“ADSs”) of Alibaba. The proceeds from the sale received by WRH LLC from the Trust was $5.4 billion, which is after certain amounts from the $6.6 billion total of Trust Securities were deducted in order to purchase U.S. Treasury securities, which would fund distributions on the Trust Securities, and to cover expenses for the issuance of the Trust Securities.

The settlement of the Alibaba shares based on the variable prepaid forward contract is conducted concurrently with the exchange of Trust Securities. At the exchange date, which is expected to be the first scheduled trading day after June 1, 2019, Trust Securities will be exchanged for a certain number of ADSs, determined by reference to the trading price of the ADSs at that time, and the number of Alibaba shares sold by the variable prepaid forward contract is determined by this number of ADSs. A cap and a floor are set for the number of shares to be settled, and the variable prepaid forward contract is classified as a hybrid financial instrument with embedded derivatives of collar transaction.

The Company accounts for the variable prepaid forward contract by bifurcating the main contracts and embedded derivatives. The Company received ¥578,436 million and initially recognized ¥674,023 million as financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares through the variable prepaid forward contract and ¥95,587 million as derivative assets. Subsequent to initial recognition, financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares through the variable prepaid forward contract are measured at amortized cost and embedded derivatives are measured at fair value; ¥717,073 million ($6,402,438 thousand) (¥715,448 million as of March 31, 2017) is recognized as financial liabilities relating to the sale of shares through the variable prepaid forward contract in interest-bearing debt (non-current liabilities) and ¥404,275 million ($3,609,598 thousand) (¥143,935 million as of March 31, 2017) is recognized as derivative financial liabilities (non-current liabilities) in the condensed interim consolidated statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017; ¥259,677 million ($2,318,545 thousand) (¥5,878 million of derivative loss for the three-month period ended June 30, 2016) is recognized as a derivative loss in the condensed interim consolidated statement of income for the three-month period ended June 30, 2017. The details are described in “(2) Categorization by level within the fair value hierarchy” under “Note 11. Financial instruments.”

WRH LLC has the option (“cash settlement option”) to settle the variable prepaid forward contract by either delivering cash or a combination of cash and Alibaba shares. If WRH LLC elects the cash settlement option, the cash equivalent to the fair value of the number of shares for the settlement, which is determined by the transaction price of ADSs, will be paid.

Also, WRH LLC has the option (“early settlement option”) to settle the variable prepaid forward contract prior to the scheduled settlement date. Settlement of the variable prepaid forward contract may be made prior to the scheduled settlement date if WRH LLC elects the early settlement option or under certain circumstances.

Alibaba shares held by WRH LLC are pledged as collateral. The Company continues to apply the equity method to these shares and they are included in “Investments accounted for using the equity method” in the condensed interim consolidated statement of financial position as of June 30, 2017. The carrying amount of Alibaba shares pledged as collateral by the Company is ¥156,746 million ($1,399,518 thousand) as of June 30, 2017 (¥154,440 million as of March 31, 2017).

Notes:

- Among the financial assets at FVTPL, the amount of financial assets designated as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss is ¥1,670,869 million ($14,918,473 thousand).
- Regarding Handset Sale-Leaseback Tranche 2 financing obligation that Sprint implemented in May 2016, the Company designated it as a financial liability that is measured at fair value through profit or loss.

(2) Categorization by level within the fair value hierarchy

Financial instruments that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis after initial recognition are classified into three levels of the fair value hierarchy based on the observability and significance of inputs used for the measurement.

The fair value hierarchy is defined as follows in descending order of level:

Level 1: Fair value is measured using quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Fair value is measured using inputs other than Level 1 that are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3: Fair value is measured using unobservable inputs.

If the fair value measurement uses different levels of inputs, the fair value is categorized based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the entire fair value measurement.

Transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy are recognized as if they have occurred at the beginning of each quarter.

There were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 during the three-month period ended June 30, 2016 and 2017.

The table below presents financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis by level within the fair value hierarchy.

The major valuation techniques for financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis are as follows:

a. Equity securities and bonds

Equity securities and bonds are measured using quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities if such prices are available, and are classified as Level 1.

If such prices are unavailable, and if prices of recent arm’s-length transactions or equity financing are available, they are measured using recent transaction prices adjusting for market performance and company performance.

In the absence of a recent transaction, the enterprise valuation methodologies include an income approach and a market approach. The market approach is used to the extent comparable guideline public companies are available. The approach is the valuation method using figures on financial statements of the subject companies and valuation multiple of comparable companies, such as EV/Revenue and EV/EBITDA. The income approach is performed when reliable cash flow projections are available. Under this approach, the present value is calculated by discounting estimated future cash flow, taking into considerations revenue growth rate and the weighted average cost of capital.

The enterprise value which is calculated by the above method is allocated to shareholder’s value of each preferred share depending on the capital structures of the investments. For the allocation, an option pricing model, which values each individual security in the capital structure based on its unique rights and preferences, and a waterfall approach, which allocates value based on the seniority of each security in the event of a liquidation are mainly used.

They are classified as Level 2 if all significant inputs such as quoted prices and discount rates that are used for the measurement are observable, whereas if inputs include significant unobservable inputs, they are classified as Level 3.

b. Derivative financial assets and derivative financial liabilities

The fair value of derivative financial instruments is measured using valuation techniques such as the discounted cash flows model. Derivative financial instruments are classified as Level 2 if all significant inputs such as foreign currency exchange rates and discount rates that are used for the measurement are observable, whereas if inputs include significant unobservable inputs, they are classified as Level 3.

c. Interest-bearing debt

The fair value of interest-bearing debt is measured using the discounted cash flows model. The model uses unobservable inputs, such as customer churn rates, customer upgrade probabilities, and the likelihood that Sprint will elect the Exchange Option¹ versus the termination option² upon customer upgrade, resulting in a Level 3 classification.

Notes:

1. The option to transfer the title in the new device to the borrower in exchange for the title in the original device upon customer upgrade, in order to continue the borrowings.
2. The option that Sprint terminates the borrowings.

(3) Fair value measurements of financial instruments that are categorized as Level 3

a. Valuation techniques and inputs

The following table shows information about the valuation techniques used and the significant unobservable inputs used in the Level 3 fair value measurements.

As of March 31, 2017

Equity securities

Valuation techniques	Unobservable inputs	Ranges of unobservable inputs
Price of recent investment	Discount for lack of marketability	10.0% – 35.0%
	Control premium	5.0% – 10.0%

As of June 30, 2017

In the Level 3 fair value measurements as of June 30, 2017, the price of recent investments is mainly adopted in consideration of the rights and preferential rights of shares. The following table shows information about the other valuation techniques used and the significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement.

Equity securities

Valuation techniques	Unobservable inputs	Ranges of unobservable inputs
Market comparable companies . . .	Revenue multiple	x0.7 – x1.4

b. Sensitivity Analysis

Of the above unobservable inputs, revenue multiple and control premiums have a positive correlation with the fair value of equity securities, whereas discount for lack of marketability have a negative correlation with the fair value of equity securities.

c. Valuation processes

Fair value is measured by our personnel in the treasury and accounting departments based on internal regulations, using the most appropriate valuation techniques and inputs that reflect the nature, characteristics and risks of the financial instruments subject to fair value. The fair value of financial instruments that require a high level of knowledge and experience for the valuation is measured by external specialists if the amount of such financial instruments is material. The results of the measurements conducted at the end of each quarter, including the valuation by the external specialists, are reported to the Company's Board of Directors after the analysis of fair value changes and other contents are reviewed and approved by management who are responsible for the valuation processes.

Notes:

- License exchange gain resulting from exchange of certain portion of the telecommunications spectrum with other carriers (non-cash transaction). The spectrum is recorded as FCC licenses in intangible assets.
- Legal reserves which were recorded in the previous year were reduced due to the favorable development in pending legal proceedings.
- Loss mainly resulting from termination of wholesale contracts with NTELOS Holdings Corporation.
- For the three-month period ended June 30, 2017, mainly, ¥20,171 million ($180,098 thousand) of loss related to cell site construction costs that are no longer expected to be used as a result of changes in Sprint's network plans and ¥12,453 million ($111,188 thousand) of loss resulted from the write-off of leased devices related to lease cancellations prior to the scheduled customer lease terms where customers did not return the devices to Sprint are recognized.
- Insurance proceed related to a fire incident occurred at a logistics center of ASKUL Corporation (ASKUL Logi PARK Tokyo Metropolitan) in February 2017.
- Expense resulting from resignation of Nikesh Arora from his position as a director. Resignation expense consists of expenses which payment amounts are defined and an expense which payment amount is to be defined depending on the future share price of SoftBank Group Corp. shares. The expense based on the share price is settled in two installments on June 2017 and March 2018. Payment amount is determined based on the share price of June 2017 and March 2018, respectively.

In addition to the entire expense in which the payment amount is defined, the Company measured the expense based on SoftBank Group Corp. share price as of June 30, 2016 and recorded the expense of ¥1,811 million ($16,170 thousand) during the three-month period ended June 30, 2016. The expense is remeasured every quarter end based on the stock price of SoftBank Group Corp. until the determination of payment amount, and the changes are recognized through profit or loss.

Further, during the three-month period ended June 30, 2017, in addition to the above expenses, the Company purchased the shares of associate companies which were granted to Nikesh Arora in December 2014. The details are described in "Note 24. Related party transactions."

18. Gain on sales of shares of associates

For the three-month period ended June 30, 2016

The Company sold a portion of its Alibaba shares to Alibaba, Gamlight Pte Ltd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of GIC Private Limited, and Aranda Investments Pte. Ltd., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Temasek Holdings Private Limited on June 13, 2016. As a result of the transactions, ¥ 202,886 million was recorded as a gain on sales of shares of associates.

The aggregate amount of the sale was ¥319,380 million ($3.0 billion), of which the portion sold to Alibaba was ¥212,920 million ($2.0 billion). The sale price was determined by negotiation with reference to the market price of Alibaba shares.

In addition to the above transactions, on June 1, 2016, the Company entered into the sales contract of part of Alibaba shares, which the Company held, with Alibaba Partnership* for $4.0 billion in July 2016. The trade was completed on July 11, 2016.

Note:

* Alibaba Partnership is not an associate of Alibaba.

19. Derivative gain (loss)

For the three-month period ended June 30, 2017

¥259,677 million ($2,318,545 thousand) of derivative loss (¥5,878 million of derivative loss for the three-month period ended June 30, 2016) related to collar transaction included in variable prepaid forward contract was recorded. The details are described in “(2) Transaction for sale of Alibaba shares by variable prepaid forward contract” under “Note 10. Interest-bearing debt.”

20. Other non-operating income (loss)

The components of other non-operating income and loss are as follows:

25. Contingency

Litigation

Sprint Communications is a defendant in a complaint filed by several stockholders of Clearwire Corporation (Clearwire) asserting claims for breach of fiduciary duty by Sprint Communications, and related claims and otherwise challenging the Clearwire acquisition. ACP Master, LTD, et al. v. Sprint Nextel Corp., et al., was filed April 26, 2013, in Chancery Court in Delaware. Plaintiffs in the ACP Master, LTD. suit have also filed suit requesting an appraisal of the fair value of their Clearwire stock. A trial related to those cases took place in October and November 2016; the parties have submitted their post-trial briefing, and oral argument was held on April 25, 2017. On July 21, 2017, the Delaware Chancery Court ruled in Sprint’s favor in both cases. It found no breach of fiduciary duty, and determined the value of Clearwire shares under the Delaware appraisal statute to be $2.13 per share plus statutory interest.

26. Significant subsequent events

(1) Issue of USD-denominated Undated Hybrid Notes (with an Optional Interest Deferral)

On July 19, 2017, the Company issued USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC6 Resettable Notes and USD-denominated Undated Subordinated NC10 Resettable Notes (collectively, the “Hybrid Notes”).

The Hybrid Notes are classified as equity instruments in accordance with IFRSs because the Company has an option to defer interest payments, the notes have no maturity date, and their payment priority in the event of bankruptcy is subordinated to senior indebtedness, and other factors. They will be recorded as “equity” in the Company’s consolidated financial statements.

The details of the Hybrid Notes are as follows:

	Undated Subordinated NC6 Resettable Notes	Undated Subordinated NC10 Resettable Notes
